16 [g]And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea,
17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Ca-per'na-um. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.
18 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew.
19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship; and they were afraid.
20 But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid.
21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at [h]the land whither they went.
22 ¶ The day following, when the people, which stood on the other side of the sea, saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone;

6 After these things Jesus went away to the other side of the sea of Gal'i-lee, which is the sea of Ti-be'ri-as.
2 And a great multitude followed him, because they beheld the signs which he did on them that were sick.
3 And Jesus went up into the mountain, and there he
4 sat with his disciples. Now the passover, the feast
5 of the Jews, was at hand. Jesus therefore lifting up his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude cometh unto him, saith unto Phil'ip, Whence are we to buy
6 [2]bread, that these may eat? And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.
7 Phil'ip answered him, Two hundred [3]pennyworth of [2]bread is not sufficient for them, that every one may 8 take a little. One of his disciples, An'drew, Si'mon
9 Pe'ter's brother, saith unto him, There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two fishes: but 10 what are these among so many? Jesus said, Make the people sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about 11 five thousand. Jesus therefore took the loaves; and having given thanks, he distributed to them that were set down; likewise also of the fishes as much as they
12 would. And when they were filled, he saith unto his disciples, Gather up the broken pieces which re-
13 main over, that nothing be lost. So they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which remained over unto 14 them that had eaten. When therefore the people saw the [4]sign which he did, they said, This is of a truth the prophet that cometh into the world.
15 Jesus therefore perceiving that they were about to come and take him by force, to make him king, withdrew again into the mountain himself alone.
16 And when evening came, his disciples went down
17 unto the sea; and they entered into a boat, and were going over the sea unto Ca-per'na-um. And it was 18 now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. And the sea was rising by reason of a great wind that 19 blew. When therefore they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they behold Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the boat:
20 and they were afraid. But he saith unto them, It is 21 I; be not afraid. They were willing therefore to receive him into the boat: and straightway the boat was at the land whither they were going.
22 On the morrow the multitude which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other
[5]boat there, save one, and that Jesus entered not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples went 23 away alone (howbeit there came [6]boats from Ti-be'ri-as nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:

24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Ca-per'na-um, seeking for Jesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

27 || Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but [h]for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: [i]for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do that we might work the works of God?

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, [k]This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore unto him, [l]What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 [m]Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, [n]He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 [o]Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jesus said unto them, [p]I am the bread of life: [q]he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

36 [r]But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37 [s]All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and [t]him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

38 For I came down from heaven, [u]not to do mine own will, [x]but the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, [y]that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, [z]that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, [a]Is not this Jesus, the son of Jo'seph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 [b]No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 [c]It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. [d]Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 [e]Not that any man hath seen the Father, [f]save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [g]He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

48 [h]I am that bread of life.

49 [i]Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 [k]This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

51 I am the living bread [l]which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live forever: and [m]the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom [2]he hath sent.
30 They said therefore unto him, What then doest thou for a sign, that we may see, and believe thee? what 31 workest thou? Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, He gave them bread
32 out of heaven to eat. Jesus therefore said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, It was not Mo'-ses that gave you the bread out of heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread out of heaven.
33 For the bread of God is that which cometh down
34 out of heaven, and giveth life unto the world. They said therefore unto him, Lord, evermore give us this 35 bread. Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall not hunger, and he that 36 believeth on me shall never thirst. But I said unto 37 you, that ye have seen me, and yet believe not. All that which the Father giveth me shall come unto me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise
38 cast out. For I am come down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent 39 me. And this is the will of him that sent me, that of all that which he hath given me I should lose 40 nothing, but should raise it up at the last day. For this is the will of my Father, that every one that beholdeth the Son, and believeth on him, should have eternal life; and [3]I will raise him up at the last day.
41 The Jews therefore murmured concerning him, because he said, I am the bread which came down
42 out of heaven. And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Jo'seph, whose father and mother we know? how doth he now say, I am come down out of 43 heaven? Jesus answered and said unto them, Mur-
44 mur not among yourselves. No man can come to me, except the Father which sent me draw him: and 45 I will raise him up in the last day. It is written in the prophets, And they shall all be taught of God. Every one that hath heard from the Father, and 46 hath learned, cometh unto me. Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is from God, he 47 hath seen the Father. Verily, verily, I say unto 48 you, He that believeth hath eternal life. I am the 49 bread of life. Your fathers did eat the manna in 50 the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread which cometh down out of heaven, that a man may 51 eat thereof, and not die. I am the living bread which came down out of heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live forever: yea and the bread which I will give is my flesh, for the life of the world.
52 The Jews therefore strove one with another, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat?

59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Ca-per'na-um.

60 [t]Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is a hard saying; who can hear it?

63 [x]It is the Spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

64 But [y]there are some of you that believe not. For [z]Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore [a]said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

66 ¶[b]From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68 Then Si'mon Pe'ter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast [c]the words of eternal life.

69 [d]And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.

70 Jesus answered them, [e]Have not I chosen you twelve, [f]and one of you is a devil?

71 He spake of Ju'das Is-car'i-ot, the son of Si'mon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

CHAPTER VII.

Christ teacheth in the temple.

AFTER these things Jesus walked in Gal'i-lee: for he would not walk in Jew'ry, [g]because the Jews sought to kill him.

2 [h]Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand.

3 [i]His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Ju-de'a, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world.

5 For [d]neither did his brethren believe in him.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, [e]My time is not yet come: but your time is always ready.

7 [f]The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, [g]because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; [h]for my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Gal'i-lee.

10 ¶But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then [i]the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And [k]there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for [l]some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him, [m]for fear of the Jews.

53 Jesus therefore said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, ye have not life in yourselves.

54 He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is [1]meat indeed, and my blood is [2]drink

56 indeed. He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my

57 blood abideth in me, and I in him. As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father; so he that eateth me, he also shall live because of

58 me. This is the bread which came down out of heaven: not as the fathers did eat, and died: he that

59 eateth this bread shall live for ever. These things said he in [3]the synagogue, as he taught in Ca-per'na-um.

60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they heard this, said, This is a hard saying; who can hear [4]it?

61 But Jesus knowing in himself that his disciples murmured at this, said unto them, Doth this cause you

62 to stumble? What then if ye should behold the

63 Son of man ascending where he was before? It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I have spoken unto you are

64 spirit, and are life. But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who it was 65 that should betray him. And he said, For this cause have I said unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it be given unto him of the Father.

66 Upon this many of his disciples went back, and 67 walked no more with him. Jesus said therefore unto 68 the twelve, Would ye also go away? Si'mon Pe'ter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou 69 [5]hast the words of eternal life. And we have believed and know that thou art the Holy One of God.

70 Jesus answered them, Did not I choose you the 71 twelve, and one of you is a devil? Now he spake of Ju'das the son of Si'mon Is-car'i-ot, for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

7 And after these things Jesus walked in Gal'i-lee: for he would not walk in Ju-dæ'a, because the Jews

2 sought to kill him. Now the feast of the Jews, the

3 feast of tabernacles, was at hand. His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Ju-dæ'a, that thy disciples also may behold thy works

4 which thou doest. For no man doeth anything in secret, [6]and himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou doest these things, manifest thyself to the

5 world. For even his brethren did not believe on

6 him. Jesus therefore saith unto them, My time is

7 not yet come; but your time is alway ready. The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I

8 testify of it, that its works are evil. Go ye up unto the feast: I go not up [7]yet unto this feast; because 9 my time is not yet fulfilled. And having said these things unto them, he abode still in Gal'i-lee.

10 But when his brethren were gone up unto the feast, then went he also up, not publicly, but as it

11 were in secret. The Jews therefore sought him at 12 the feast, and said, Where is he? And there was much murmuring among the multitudes concerning him: some said, He is a good man; others said, 13 Not so, but he leadeth the multitude astray. Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

14 ¶Now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.
15 [a]And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man ||letters, having never learned?
16 Jesus answered them, and said, [c]My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.
17 [p]If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.
18 [q]He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.
19 [r]Did not Mo'ses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? [s]Why go ye about to kill me?
20 The people answered and said, [t]Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?
21 Jesus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.
22 [u]Mo'ses therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Mo'ses, [x]but of the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath day circumcise a man.
23 If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, ||that the law of Mo'ses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because [y]I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day?
24 [z]Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.
25 Then said some of them of Je-ru'sa-lem, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill?
26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. [a]Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?
27 [b]Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.
28 Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, [c]Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and [d]I am not come of myself, but he that sent me [e]is true, [f]whom ye know not.
29 But [g]I know him: for I am from him, and he hath sent me.
30 Then [h]they sought to take him: but [i]no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.
31 And [k]many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?
32 ¶The Phar'i-sees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Phar'i-sees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.
33 Then said Jesus unto them, [l]Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.
34 Ye [m]shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.
35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto [n]the dispersed among the ||Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?
36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?
37 [o]In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, [p]If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.
38 [q]He that believeth on me, as the Scripture hath said, [r]out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.
39 ([s]But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given: because that Jesus was not yet [t]glorified.)
40 ¶Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is [u]the Prophet.
41 Others said, [x]This is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come [y]out of Gal'i-lee?
42 [z]Hath not the Scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of Da'vid, and out of the town of Beth'le-hem, [a]where Da'vid was?
43 So [b]there was a division among the people because of him.

14 But when it was now the midst of the feast Jesus
15 went up into the temple, and taught. The Jews therefore marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man
16 letters, having never learned? Jesus therefore answered them, and said, My teaching is not mine, but 17 his that sent me. If any man willeth to do his will, he shall know of the teaching, whether it be of God, or 18 whether I speak from myself. He that speaketh from himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh the glory of him that sent him, the same is 19 true, and no unrighteousness is in him. Did not Mo'ses give you the law, and yet none of you doeth 20 the law? Why seek ye to kill me? The multitude answered, Thou hast a [1]devil: who seeketh to 21 kill thee? Jesus answered and said unto them, I
22 did one work, and ye all [2]marvel. For this cause hath Mo'ses given you circumcision (not that it is of Mo'ses, but of the fathers); and on the sabbath ye
23 circumcise a man. If a man receiveth circumcision on the sabbath, that the law of Mo'ses may not be broken; are ye wroth with me, because I made 24 a man every whit whole on the sabbath? Judge not according to appearance, but judge righteous judgement.
25 Some therefore of them of Je-ru'sa-lem said, Is not 26 this he whom they seek to kill? And lo, he speaketh openly, and they say nothing unto him. Can it be that the rulers indeed know that this is the Christ?
27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when the Christ cometh, no one knoweth whence he is.
28 Jesus therefore cried in the temple, teaching and saying, Ye both know me, and know whence I am; and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is 29 true, whom ye know not. I know him; because 30 I am from him, and he sent me. They sought therefore to take him: and no man laid his hand on him,
31 because his hour was not yet come. But of the multitude many believed on him; and they said, When the Christ shall come, will he do more signs
32 than those which this man hath done? The Phar'i-sees heard the multitude murmuring these things concerning him; and the chief priests and the Phar'i-
33 sees sent officers to take him. Jesus therefore said, Yet a little while am I with you, and I go unto him
34 that sent me. Ye shall seek me, and shall not find 35 me: and where I am, ye cannot come. The Jews therefore said among themselves, Whither will this man go that we shall not find him? will he go unto the Dispersion [3]among the Greeks, and teach the 36 Greeks? What is this word that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, ye cannot come?
37 Now on the last day, the great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let 38 him come unto me, and drink. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly
39 shall flow rivers of living water. But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believed on him were to receive: [4]for the Spirit was not yet given; because 40 Jesus was not yet glorified. Some of the multitude therefore, when they heard these words, said, This 41 is of a truth the prophet. Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, What, doth the Christ come 42 out of Gal'i-lee? Hath not the scripture said that the Christ cometh of the seed of Da'vid, and from 43 Beth'le-hem, the village were Da'vid was? So there arose a division in the multitude because of him.

44 And [c]some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

45 ¶Then came the officers to the chief priests and Phar'i-sees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, [d]Never man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Phar'i-sees, Are ye also deceived?

48 [e]Have any of the rulers or of the Phar'i-sees believed on him?

49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.

50 Nic-o-de'mus saith unto them, ([f]he that came †to Jesus by night, being one of them,)

51 [g]Doth our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth?

52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Gal'-i-lee? Search, and look: for [h]out of Gal'i-lee ariseth no prophet.

53 And every man went unto his own house.

CHAPTER VIII.

Of the woman taken in adultery.

JESUS went unto the mount of Olives.

2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down and taught them.

3 And the scribes and Phar'i-sees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,

4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 [a]Now Mo'ses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them [b]He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, [c]being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, [d]Neither do I condemn thee: go, and [e]sin no more.

12 ¶Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, [f]I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13 The Phar'i-sees therefore said unto him, [g]Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but [h]ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 [i]Ye judge after the flesh; [k]I judge no man.

16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for [l]I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 [m]It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear witness of myself, and [n]the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, [o]Ye neither know me, nor my Father: [p]if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

20 These words spake Jesus in [q]the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and [r]no man laid hands on him; for [s]his hour was not yet come.

44 And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

45 The officers therefore came to the chief priests and Phar'i-sees; and they said unto them, Why did ye not 46 bring him? The officers answered, Never man so 47 spake. The Phar'i-sees therefore answered them, Are 48 ye also led astray? Hath any of the rulers believed 49 on him, or of the Phar'i-sees? But this multitude 50 which knoweth not the law are accursed. Nic-o-de'mus saith unto them (he that came to him before, being 51 one of them), Doth our law judge a man, except it first hear from himself and know what he doeth?
52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Gal'i-lee? Search, and [1]see that out of Gal'i-lee ariseth no prophet.

53 [2][And they went every man unto his own
8 house: but Jesus went unto the mount of Olives.
2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and
3 he sat down, and taught them. And the scribes and the Phar'i-sees bring a woman taken in adul-
4 tery; and having set her in the midst, they say unto him, [3]Master, this woman hath been taken
5 in adultery, in the very act. Now in the law Mo'-ses commanded us to stone such: what then say-
6 est thou of her? And this they said, [4]tempting him, that they might have whereof to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote
7 on the ground. But when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a
8 stone at her. And again he stooped down, and with 9 his finger wrote on the ground. And they, when they heard it, went out one by one, beginning from the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman, where she was, in the midst.
10 And Jesus lifted up himself, and said unto her, Woman, where are they? did no man condemn thee?
11 And she said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said, Neither do I condemn thee: go thy way; from henceforth sin no more.]

12 Again therefore Jesus spake unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in the darkness, but shall have the light of 13 life. The Phar'i-sees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest witness of thyself; thy witness is not true.
14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Even if I bear witness of myself, my witness is true; for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye know not 15 whence I come, or whither I go. Ye judge after the 16 flesh; I judge no man. Yea and if I judge, my judgement is true; for I am not alone, but I and the 17 Father that sent me. Yea and in your law it is writ-
18 ten, that the witness of two men is true. I am he that beareth witness of myself, and the Father that 19 sent me beareth witness of me. They said therefore unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye know neither me, nor my Father: if ye knew me, 20 ye would know my Father also. These words spake he in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man took him; because his hour was not yet come.

21 Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and [t]ye shall seek me, and [u]shall die in your sins: whither I go ye cannot come.

22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

23 And he said unto them, [x]Ye are from beneath; I am from above: [y]ye are of this world; I am not of this world.

24 [z]I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: [a]for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but [b]he that sent me is true; and [c]I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have [d]lifted up the Son of man, [e]then shall ye know that I am he, and [f]that I do nothing of myself; but [g]as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And [h]he that sent me is with me: [i]the Father hath not left me alone; [k]for I do always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these words, [l]many believed on him.

31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed;

32 And ye shall know the truth, and [m]the truth shall make you free.

33 ¶They answered him, [n]We be A'bra-ham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, [o]Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.

35 And [p]the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever.

36 [q]If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are A'bra-ham's seed; but [r]ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 [s]I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

39 They answered and said unto him, [t]A'bra-ham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, [u]If ye were A'braham's children, ye would do the works of A'bra-ham.

40 [x]But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, [y]which I have heard of God: this did not A'bra-ham.

41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; [z]we have one Father, even God.

42 Jesus said unto them, [a]If God were your father, ye would love me; [b]for I proceeded forth and came from God; [c]neither came I of myself, but he sent me.

43 [d]Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

44 [e]Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do: he was a murderer from the beginning, and [f]abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.

46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

47 [g]He that is of God, heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Sa-mar'i-tan, and [h]hast a devil?

49 Jesus answered, I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

50 And I [i]seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

21 He said therefore again unto them, I go away, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sin:
22 whither I go, ye cannot come. The Jews therefore said, Will he kill himself, that he saith, Whither I
23 go, ye cannot come? And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this 24 world; I am not of this world. I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for except ye believe that [1]I am he, ye shall die in your sins.
25 They said therefore unto him, Who art thou? Jesus said unto them, [2]Even that which I have also spoken
26 unto you from the beginning. I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you: howbeit he that sent me is true; and the things which I heard 27 from him, these speak I [3]unto the world. They perceived not that he spake to them of the Father.
28 Jesus therefore said, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that [4]I am he, and that I do nothing of myself, but as the Father
29 taught me, I speak these things. And he that sent me is with me; he hath not left me alone; for I do 30 always the things that are pleasing to him. As he spake these things, many believed on him.
31 Jesus therefore said to those Jews which had believed him, If ye abide in my word, then are ye 32 truly my disciples; and ye shall know the truth,
33 and the truth shall make you free. They answered unto him, We be A'bra-ham's seed, and have never yet been in bondage to any man: how sayest thou,
34 Ye shall be made free? Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Every one that com-
35 mitteth sin is the bondservant of sin. And the bondservant abideth not in the house for ever: the 36 son abideth for ever. If therefore the Son shall 37 make you free, ye shall be free indeed. I know that ye are A'bra-ham's seed; yet ye seek to kill me, 38 because my word [5]hath not free course in you. I speak the things which I have seen with [6]my Father: and ye also do the things which ye heard from your 39 father. They answered and said unto him, Our father is A'bra-ham. Jesus saith unto them, If ye [7]were A'bra-ham's children, [8]ye would do the works
40 of A'bra-ham. But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I heard from 41 God: this did not A'bra-ham. Ye do the works of your father. They said unto him, We were not born 42 of fornication; we have one Father, even God. Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I came forth and am come from God; for neither have I come of myself, but he sent me.
43 Why do ye not [9]understand my speech? Even be-
44 cause ye cannot hear my word. Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father it is your will to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and [10]stood not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. [11]When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father
45 thereof. But because I say the truth, ye believe me
46 not. Which of you convicteth me of sin? If I say
47 truth, why do ye not believe me? He that is of God heareth the words of God: for this cause ye
48 hear them not, because ye are not of God. The Jews answered and said unto him, Say we not well
49 that thou art a Sa-mar'itan, and hast a [12]devil? Jesus answered, I have not a [12]devil; but I honour my Fa-
50 ther, and ye dishonour me. But I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

CHAPTER IX.

A man born blind restored to sight.

AND as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.
2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, [a]who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?
3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: [b]but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.
4 [c]I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.
5 As long as I am in the world, [d]I am the light of the world.
6 When he had thus spoken, [e]he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he ‖anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay,
7 And said unto him, Go, wash [f]in the pool of Si-lo'am, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) [g]He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.
8 ¶The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?
9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.
10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?
11 He answered and said, [h]A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Si-lo'am, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.
12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.
13 ¶They brought to the Phar'i-sees him that aforetime was blind.
14 And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.
15 Then again the Phar'i-sees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.
16 Therefore said some of the Phar'i-sees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, [i]How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And [k]there was a division among them.
17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, [l]He is a prophet.
18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my 52 word, he shall never see death. The Jews said unto him, Now we know that thou hast a [1]devil. A'bra-ham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my word, he shall never taste of death.
53 Art thou greater than our father A'bra-ham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest
54 thou thyself? Jesus answered, If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing: it is my Father that glorifieth
55 me; of whom ye say, that he is your God; and ye have not known him: but I know him; and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be like unto you,
56 a liar: but I know him, and keep his word. Your father A'bra-ham rejoiced [2]to see my day; and he saw 57 it, and was glad. The Jews therefore said unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou 58 seen A'bra-ham? Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before A'bra-ham [3]was, I am.
59 They took up stones therefore to cast at him: but Jesus [4]hid himself, and went out of the temple[5].

9 And as he passed by, he saw a man blind from 2 his birth. And his disciples asked him, saying, Rabbi, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he
3 should be born blind? Jesus answered, Neither did this man sin, nor his parents: but that the works
4 of God should be made manifest in him. We must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day:
5 the night cometh, when no man can work. When I am in the world, I am the light of the world.
6 When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, [6]and anointed his eyes
7 with the clay, and said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Si-lo'am (which is by interpretation, Sent). He went away therefore, and washed, and came 8 seeing. The neighbours therefore, and they which saw him aforetime, that he was a beggar, said, Is 9 not this he that sat and begged? Others said, It is he: others said, No, but he is like him. He said, I
10 am he. They said therefore unto him, How then 11 were thine eyes opened? He answered, The man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to Si-lo'am, and wash: so I went away and washed, and I received sight.
12 And they said unto him, Where is he? He saith, I know not.
13 They bring to the Phar'i-sees him that aforetime
14 was blind. Now it was the sabbath on the day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.
15 Again therefore the Phar'i-sees also asked him how he received his sight. And he said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.
16 Some therefore of the Phar'i-sees said, This man is not from God, because he keepeth not the sabbath. But others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such signs? And there was a division among them.
17 They say therefore unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, in that he opened thine eyes?
18 And he said, He is a prophet. The Jews therefore did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight, 19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:
21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.
22 These words spake his parents, because [m]they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he [n]should be put out of the synagogue.
23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.
24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, [o]Give God the praise: [p]we know that this man is a sinner.
25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.
26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?
27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?
28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Mo'ses' disciples.
29 We know that God spake unto Mo'ses; as for this fellow, [q]we know not from whence he is.
30 The man answered and said unto them, [r]Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.
31 Now we know that [s]God heareth not sinners; but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

CHAPTER X.

Christ the good shepherd.

VERILY, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.
2 But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.
3 To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.
4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.
5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him; for they know not the voice of strangers.
6 This parable spake Jesus unto them; but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.
7 Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.

19 and asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?
20 His parents answered and said, We know that this is 21 our son, and that he was born blind: but how he now seeth, we know not; or who opened his eyes, we know not: ask him; he is of age; he shall speak
22 for himself. These things said his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man should confess him to be Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue.
23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.
24 So they called a second time the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give glory to God: we know
25 that this man is a sinner. He therefore answered, Whether he be a sinner, I know not: one thing I
26 know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see. They said therefore unto him, What did he to thee?
27 how opened he thine eyes? He answered them, I told you even now, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? would ye also become his 28 disciples? And they reviled him, and said, Thou
29 art his disciple; but we are disciples of Mo'ses. We know that God hath spoken unto Mo'ses; but as for 30 this man, we know not whence he is. The man answered and said unto them, Why, herein is the marvel, that ye know not whence he is, and yet he 31 opened mine eyes. We know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, 32 and do his will, him he heareth. Since the world began it was never heard that any one opened the 33 eyes of a man born blind. If this man were not 34 from God, he could do nothing. They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.
35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and finding him, he said, Dost thou believe on [1]the Son of 36 God? He answered and said, And who is he, Lord,
37 that I may believe on him? Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and he it is that speaketh 38 with thee. And he said, Lord, I believe. And he 39 worshipped him. And Jesus said, For judgement came I into this world, that they which see not may see; and that they which see may become blind.
40 Those of the Phar'i-sees which were with him heard these things, and said unto him, Are we also blind?
41 Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye would have no sin: but now ye say, We see: your sin remaineth.

[1] Many ancient, authorities read the Son of man.

10 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the fold of the sheep, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief
2 and a robber. But he that entereth in by the door
3 is [2]the shepherd of the sheep. To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them
4 out. When he hath put forth all his own, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they
5 know his voice. And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the 6 voice of strangers. This [3]parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.
7 Jesus therefore said unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.

A. D. 32.

8 All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.
9 [a]I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.
10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.
11 [b]I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.
12 But he that is a hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and [c]leaveth the sheep, and fleeth; and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.
13 The hireling fleeth, because he is a hireling, and careth not for the sheep.
14 I am the good shepherd, and [d]know my sheep, and am known of mine.
15 [e]As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: [f]and I lay down my life for the sheep.
16 And [g]other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; [h]and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.
17 Therefore doth my Father love me, [i]because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.
18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I [k]have power to take it again. [l]This commandment have I received of my Father.
19 ¶ [m]There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.
20 And many of them said, [n]He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?
21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. [o]Can a devil [p]open the eyes of the blind?
22 ¶ And it was at Je-ru'sa-lem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.
23 And Jesus walked in the temple [q]in Sol'o-mon's porch.
24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou ‖ make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.
25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: [s]the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.
26 But [t]ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.
27 [u]My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:
28 And I give unto them eternal life; and [x]they shall never perish, neither shall any pluck them out of my hand.
29 [y]My Father, [z]which gave them me, is greater than all; and none is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.
30 [a]I and my Father are one.
31 Then [b]the Jews took up stones again to stone him.
32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?
33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy, and because that thou, being a man, [c]makest thyself God.
34 Jesus answered them, [d]Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?
35 If he called them gods, [e]unto whom the word of God came, and the Scripture cannot be broken;
36 Say ye of him, [f]whom the Father hath sanctified, and [g]sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; [h]because I said, I am [i]the Son of God?
37 [k]If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.
38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, [l]believe the works; that ye may know, and believe, [m]that the Father is in me, and I in him.
39 [n]Therefore they sought again to take him; but he escaped out of their hand,

8 All that came before me are thieves and robbers:
9 but the sheep did not hear them. I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and 10 shall go in and go out, and shall find pasture. The thief cometh not, but that he may steal, and kill, and destroy: I came that they may have life, and may

12 He that is a hireling, and not a shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, beholdeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth, and the 13 wolf snatcheth them, and scattereth them: he fleeth because he is a hireling, and careth not for 14 the sheep. I am the good shepherd; and I know
15 mine own, and mine own know me, even as the Father knoweth me, and I know the Father; and I 16 lay down my life for the sheep. And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must [2]bring, and they shall hear my voice; and [3]they 17 shall become one flock, one shepherd. Therefore doth the Father love me, because I lay down my 18 life, that I may take it again. No one [4]taketh it away from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have [5]power to lay it down, and I have [5]power to take it again. This commandment received I from my Father.
19 There arose a division again among the Jews be-20 cause of these words. And many of them said, He hath a [6]devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?
21 Others said, These are not the sayings of one possessed with a [6]devil. Can a [6]devil open the eyes of the blind?
22 [7]And it was the feast of the dedication at Je-ru'- 23 sa-lem: it was winter; and Jesus was walking in the 24 temple in Sol'o-mon's porch. The Jews therefore came round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou hold us in suspense? If thou art 25 the Christ, tell us plainly. Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believe not: the works that I do in 26 my Father's name, these bear witness of me. But

37 God? If I do not the works of my Father, believe 38 me not. But if I do them, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know and understand that the Father is in me, and I in the 40 And went away again beyond Jor'dan, into the place [o]where John at first baptized; and there he abode.

CHAPTER XI.

Lazarus restored to life.

NOW a certain man was sick, named Laz'a-rus, of Beth'-a-ny, the town of [a]Ma'ry and her sister Mar'tha.
2 ([b]It was that Ma'ry which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Laz'a-rus was sick.)
3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.
4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, [c]but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.
5 Now Jesus loved Mar'tha, and her sister, and Laz'a-rus.
6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, [d]he abode two days still in the same place where he was.
7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Ju-de'a again.
8 His disciples say unto him, Master, [e]the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?
9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? [f]If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.
10 But [g]if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.
11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Laz'a-rus [h]sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.
12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.
13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.
14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Laz'a-rus is dead.
15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.
16 Then said Thom'as, which is called Did'y-mus, unto his fellow disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.
17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already.
18 Now Beth'a-ny was nigh unto Je-ru'sa-lem, ||about fifteen furlongs off:
19 And many of the Jews came to Mar'tha and Ma'ry, to comfort them concerning their brother.
20 Then Mar'tha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Ma'ry sat still in the house.
21 Then said Mar'tha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.
22 But I know, that even now, [i]whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.
23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.
24 Mar'tha saith unto him, [k]I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.
25 Jesus said unto her, I am [l]the resurrection, and the [m]life: [n]he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:
26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?
27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: [o]I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.
28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Ma'ry her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.
29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.
30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Mar'tha met him.

40 And he went away again beyond Jor'dan into the place where John was at the first baptizing; and there
41 he abode. And many came unto him; and they said, John indeed did no sign: but all things whatsoever
42 John spake of this man were true. And many believed on him there.

11 Now a certain man was sick, Laz'a-rus of Beth'a-ny,
2 of the village of Ma'ry and her sister Mar'tha. And it was that Ma'ry which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose
3 brother Laz'a-rus was sick. The sisters therefore sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou
4 lovest is sick. But when Jesus heard it, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified thereby.
5 Now Jesus loved Mar'tha, and her sister, and Laz'a-
6 rus. When therefore he heard that he was sick, he abode at that time two days in the place where he 7 was. Then after this he saith to the disciples, Let 8 us go into Ju-dæ'a again. The disciples say unto him, Rabbi, the Jews were but now seeking to stone
9 thee; and goest thou thither again? Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If a man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because 10 he seeth the light of this world. But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because the light is 11 not in him. These things spake he: and after this he saith unto them, Our friend Laz'a-rus is fallen asleep; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.
12 The disciples therefore said unto him, Lord, if he is 13 fallen asleep, he will [1]recover. Now Jesus had spoken of his death: but they thought that he spake of 14 taking rest in sleep. Then Jesus therefore said unto 15 them plainly, Laz'a-rus is dead. And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may 16 believe; nevertheless let us go unto him. Thom'as therefore, who is called [2]Did'y-mus, said unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.
17 So when Jesus came, he found that he had been 18 in the tomb four days already. Now Beth'a-ny was 19 nigh unto Je-ru'sa-lem, about fifteen furlongs off; and many of the Jews had come to Mar'tha and Ma'ry,
20 to console them concerning their brother. Mar'tha therefore, when she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Ma'ry still sat in the house.
21 Mar'tha therefore said unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst
22 been here, my brother had not died. And even now I know that, whatsoever thou shalt ask of God, God
23 will give thee. Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother
24 shall rise again. Mar'tha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last 25 day. Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth on me, though he die,
26 yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth
27 on me shall never die. Believest thou this? She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I have believed that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, even he that 28 cometh into the world. And when she had said this, she went away, and called Ma'ry [3]her sister secretly, 29 saying, The [4]Master is here, and calleth thee. And she, when she heard it, arose quickly, and went unto 30 him. (Now Jesus was not yet come into the village, but was still in the place where Mar'tha met him.)

31 [r]The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Ma'ry, that she rose up hastily, and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

32 Then when Ma'ry was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, [q]Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and †was troubled, 34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They say unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 [r]Jesus wept.

36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!

37 And some of them said, Could not this man, [s]which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Mar'tha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.

40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest [t]see the glory of God?

41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but [u]because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Laz'a-rus, come forth.

44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes; and [x]his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 Then many of the Jews which came to Ma'ry, [y]and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went their ways to the Phar'i-sees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 ¶[z]Then gathered the chief priests and the Phar'i-sees a council, and said, [a]What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Ro'mans shall come, and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them, named [b]Ca'ia-phas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 [c]Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation;

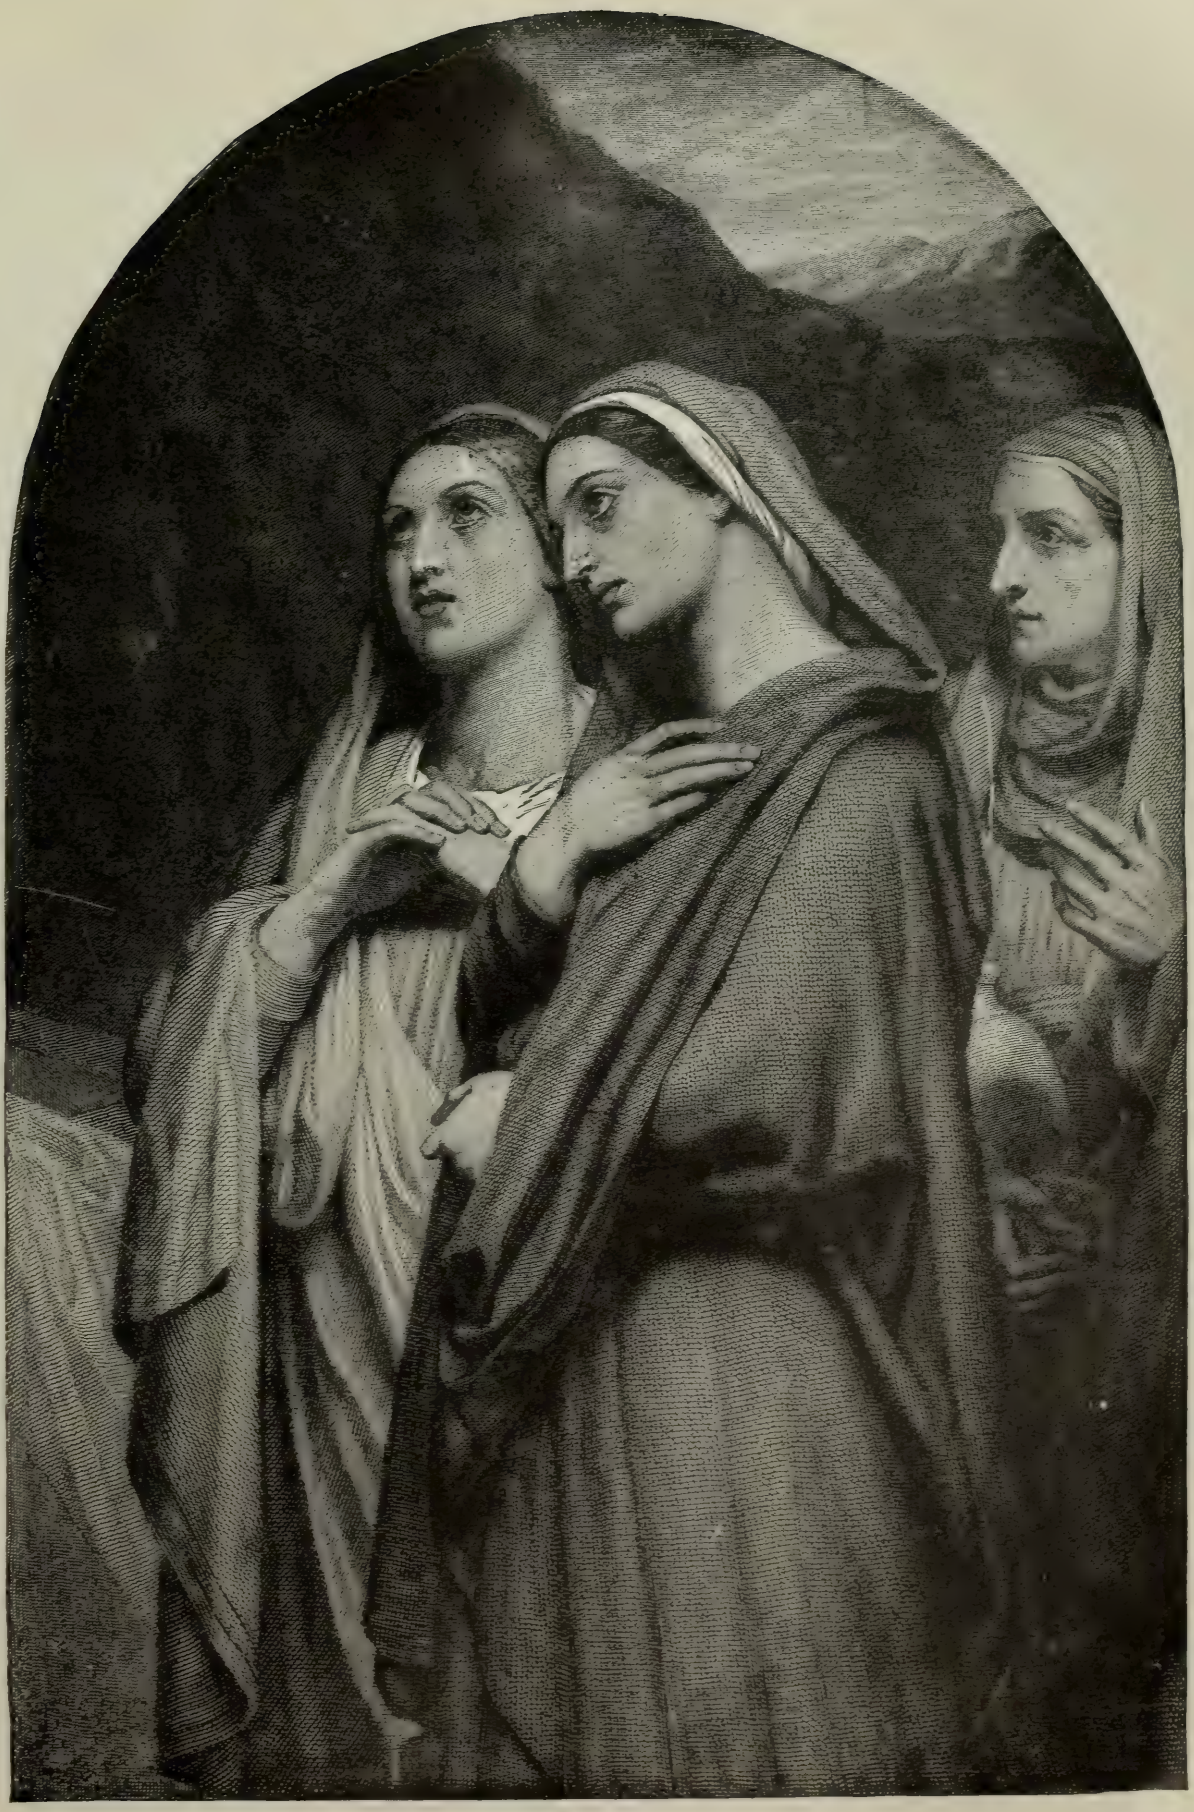
52 And [d]not for that nation only, [e]but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jesus [f]therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called [g]E'phra-im, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶[h]And the Jews' passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Je-ru'sa-lem before the passover, to purify themselves.

56 [i]Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?



57 Now both the chief priests and the Phar'i-sees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and were comforting her, when they saw Ma'ry, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, supposing that she was going unto the tomb
32 to [1]weep there. Ma'ry, therefore, when she came where Jesus was, and saw him, fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, 33 my brother had not died. When Jesus therefore saw her [2]weeping, and the Jews also [2]weeping which came with her, he [3]groaned in the spirit, and [4]was 34 troubled, and said, Where have ye laid him? They 35 say unto him, Lord, come and see. Jesus wept.
36 The Jews therefore said, Behold how he loved him!
37 But some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of him that was blind, have caused 38 that this man also should not die? Jesus therefore again [5]groaning in himself cometh to the tomb.
39 Now it was a cave, and a stone lay [6]against it. Jesus saith, Take ye away the stone. Mar'tha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.
40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that if thou believedst, thou shouldest see the glory of God?
41 So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou
42 heardest me. And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the multitude which standeth around I said it, that they may believe that thou 43 didst send me. And when he had thus spoken, he 44 cried with a loud voice, Laz'a-rus, come forth. He that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with [7]grave-clothes; and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.
45 Many therefore of the Jews, which came to Ma'ry and beheld [8]that which he did, believed on him.
46 But some of them went away to the Phar'i-sees, and told them the things which Jesus had done.
47 The chief priests therefore and the Phar'i-sees gathered a council, and said, What do we? for this man
48 doeth many signs. If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Ro'mans will come 49 and take away both our place and our nation. But a certain one of them, Ca'ia-phas, being high priest that year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,
50 nor do ye take account that it is expedient for you that one man should die for the people, and that the 51 whole nation perish not. Now this he said not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophe-
52 sied that Jesus should die for the nation; and not for the nation only, but that he might also gather together into one the children of God that are scat-
53 tered abroad. So from that day forth they took counsel that they might put him to death.
54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews, but departed thence into the country near to the wilderness, into a city called E'phra-im; and 55 there he tarried with the disciples. Now the passover of the Jews was at hand: and many went up to Je-ru'sa-lem out of the country before the passover,
56 to purify themselves. They sought therefore for Jesus, and spake one with another, as they stood in the temple, What think ye? That he will not come 57 to the feast? Now the chief priests and the Phar'i-sees had given commandment, that, if any man knew where he was, he should shew it, that they might take him.

THE MARIES AT THE SEPULCHRE.

A. D. 33.

CHAPTER XII.

Mary anointeth the feet of Jesus.

THEN Jesus, six days before the passover, came to Beth'-a-ny, [a]where Laz'a-rus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 [b]There they made him a supper; and Mar'tha served: but Laz'a-rus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then took [c]Ma'ry a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Ju'das Is-car'i-ot, Si'-mon's son, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and [d]had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For [e]the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Laz'a-rus also, [f]whom he had raised from the dead.

10 ¶ [g]But the chief priests consulted that they might put Laz'a-rus also to death;

11 [h]Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 ¶ [i]On the next day, much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Je-ru'sa-lem,

13 Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, [k]Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Is'ra-el that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 [l]And Jesus when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written,

15 [m]Fear not, daughter of Si'on: behold thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 These things [n]understood not his disciples at the first: [o]but when Jesus was glorified, [p]then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Laz'-a-rus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

18 [q]For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Phar'i-sees therefore said among themselves, [r]Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold the world has gone after him.

20 ¶ And there [s]were certain Greeks among them [t]that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to Phil'ip, [u]which was of Beth-sa'i-da of Gal'i-lee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

22 Phil'ip cometh and telleth An'drew: and again An'drew and Phil'ip tell Jesus.

23 ¶ And Jesus answered them saying, [x]The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [y]Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 [z]He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and [a]where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 [b]Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: [c]but for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, glorify thy name. [d]Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

12 Jesus therefore six days before the passover came to Beth'a-ny, where Laz'a-rus was, whom Jesus 2 raised from the dead. So they made him a supper there: and Mar'tha served; but Laz'a-rus was one of 3 them that sat at meat with him. Ma'ry therefore took a pound of ointment of [1]spikenard, very precious, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with 4 the odour of the ointment. But Ju'das Is-car'i-ot, one of his disciples, which should betray him, saith, 5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred 6 [2]pence, and given to the poor? Now this he said, not because he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and having the [3]bag [4]took away what was put 7 therein. Jesus therefore said, [5]Suffer her to keep it 8 against the day of my burying. For the poor ye have always with you; but me ye have not always.

9 The common people therefore of the Jews learned that he was there; and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Laz'a-rus also, 10 whom he had raised from the dead. But the chief priests took counsel that they might put Laz'a-rus 11 also to death; because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 On the morrow [6]a great multitude that had come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming 13 to Je-ru'sa-lem, took the branches of the palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried out, Hosanna: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord, 14 even the King of Is'ra-el. And Jesus, having found 15 a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written, Fear not, daughter of Zi'on: behold, thy King cometh, sitting 16 on an ass's colt. These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things 17 unto him. The multitude therefore that was with him when he called Laz'a-rus out of the tomb, and 18 raised him from the dead, bare witness. For this cause also the multitude went and met him, for that 19 they heard that he had done this sign. The Phar'i-sees therefore said among themselves, [7]Behold how ye prevail nothing: lo, the world is gone after him.

20 Now there were certain Greeks among those that 21 went up to worship at the feast: these therefore came to Phil'ip, which was of Beth-sa'i-da of Gal'i-lee, and asked him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

22 Phil'ip cometh and telleth An'drew: An'drew cometh, 23 and Phil'ip, and they tell Jesus. And Jesus answer-eth them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son 24 of man should be glorified. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a grain of wheat fall into the earth and die, it abideth by itself alone; but if it 25 die, it beareth much fruit. He that loveth his [8]life loseth it; and he that hateth his [8]life in this world 26 shall keep it unto life eternal. If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will the 27 Father honour. Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this [9]hour. 28 But for this cause came I unto this hour. Father, glorify thy name. There came therefore a voice out of heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, 29 and will glorify it again. The multitude therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it had thun-dered: others said, An angel hath spoken to him.

30 Jesus answered and said, [e]This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall [f]the prince of this world be cast out.

32 And I, [g]if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw [h]all men unto me.

33 [i]This he said, signifying what death he should die.

34 The people answered him, [k]We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while [l]is the light with you. [m]Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for [n]he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be [o]the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and [p]did hide himself from them.

37 ¶But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:

38 That the saying of E-sa'ias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, [q]Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because that E-sa'ias said again,

40 [r]He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 [s]These things said E-sa'ias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 ¶Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but [t]because of the Phar'i-sees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

43 [u]For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

44 ¶Jesus cried and said, [x]He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me.

45 And he [y]that seeth me seeth him that sent me.

46 [z]I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, [a]I judge him not: for [b]I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

48 [c]He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: [d]the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.

49 For [e]I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, [f]what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

Jesus washeth his disciples' feet.

NOW [a]before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that [b]his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.

2 And supper being ended, [c]the devil having now put into the heart of Ju'das Is-car'i-ot, Si'mon's son, to betray him;

3 Jesus knowing [d]that the Father had given all things into his hands, and [e]that he was come from God, and went to God;

4 [f]He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself.

5 After that, he poureth water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

6 Then cometh he to Si'mon Pe'ter: and †Pe'ter saith unto him, Lord, [g]dost thou wash my feet?

30 Jesus answered and said, This voice hath not come
31 for my sake, but for your sakes. Now is [1]the judgement of this world: now shall the prince of this 32 world be cast out. And I, if I be lifted up [2]from the 33 earth, will draw all men unto myself. But this he said, signifying by what manner of death he should 34 die. The multitude therefore answered him, We have heard out of the law that the Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must 35 be lifted up? who is this Son of man? Jesus therefore said unto them, Yet a little while is the light [3]among you. Walk while ye have the light, that darkness overtake you not: and he that walketh in the darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.
36 While ye have the light, believe on the light, that ye may become sons of light.

These things spake Jesus, and he departed and 37 [4]hid himself from them. But though he had done so many signs before them, yet they believed not 38 on him: that the word of I-sa'iah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake,

Lord, who hath believed our report?
And to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 For this cause they could not believe, for that I-sa'iah said again,
40 He hath blinded their eyes, and he hardened their heart;
Lest they should see with their eyes, and perceive with their heart,
And should turn,
And I should heal them.

41 These things said I-sa'iah, because he saw his glory;
42 and he spake of him. Nevertheless even of the rulers many believed on him; but because of the Phar'i-sees they did not confess [5]it, lest they should 43 be put out of the synagogue: for they loved the glory of men more than the glory of God.
44 And Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me.
45 And he that beholdeth me beholdeth him that sent 46 me. I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me may not abide in the dark-
47 ness. And if any man hear my sayings, and keep them not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge
48 the world, but to save the world. He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my sayings, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I spake, the same shall 49 judge him in the last day. For I spake not from myself; but the Father which sent me, he hath given me a commandment, what I should say, and what I
50 should speak. And I know that his commandment is life eternal: the things therefore which I speak, even as the Father hath said unto me, so I speak.

13 Now before the feast of the passover, Jesus knowing that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them [6]unto
2 the end. And during supper, the devil having already put into the heart of Ju'das Is-car'i-ot, Si'mon's
3 son, to betray him, Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he
4 came forth from God, and goeth unto God, riseth from supper, and layeth aside his garments; and he
5 took a towel, and girded himself. Then he poureth water into the bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel where-
6 with he was girded. So he cometh to Si'mon Pe'ter. He saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?

7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; [h]but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Pe'ter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, [i]If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

9 Si'mon Pe'ter said unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.

10 Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and [k]ye are clean, but not all.

11 For [l]he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

13 [m]Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.

14 [n]If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; [o]ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 For [p]I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

16 [q]Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

17 [r]If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

18 ¶I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the Scripture may be fulfilled, [s]He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.

19 [t]‖ Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.

20 [u]Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

21 [v]When Jesus had thus said, [w]he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that [x]one of you shall betray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now [a]there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.

24 Si'mon Pe'ter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then lying on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a ‖ sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Ju'das Is-car'i-ot, the son of Si'mon.

27 [b]And after the sop Sa'tan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, because [c]Ju'das had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.

30 He then, having received the sop, went immediately out; and it was night.

31 ¶Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, [d]Now is the Son of man glorified, and [e]God is glorified in him.

32 [f] If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and [g]shall straightway glorify him.

33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me; [h]and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye can not come; so now I say to you.

34 [i]A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 [k]By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

36 ¶Si'mon Pe'ter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but [l]thou shalt follow me afterwards.

A. D. 33.

7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt understand here-
8 after. Pe'ter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not,
9 thou hast no part with me. Si'mon Pe'ter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and 10 my head. Jesus saith to him, He that is bathed needeth not [1]save to wash his feet, but is clean every 11 whit: and ye are clean, but not all. For he knew him that should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So when he had washed their feet, and taken his garments, and [2]sat down again, he said unto them,
13 Know ye what I have done to you? Ye call me, [3]Master, and, Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.
14 If I then, the Lord and the [3]Master, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet.
15 For I have given you an example, that ye also should 16 do as I have done to you. Verily, verily, I say unto you, A [4]servant is not greater than his lord; neither

21 When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in the spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto 22 you, that one of you shall betray me. The disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.
23 There was at the table reclining in Jesus' bosom one 24 of his disciples, whom Jesus loved. Si'mon Pe'ter therefore beckoneth to him, and saith unto him, Tell
25 us who it is of whom he speaketh. He leaning back, as he was, on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who 26 is it? Jesus therefore answereth, He it is, for whom I shall dip the sop, and give it him. So when he had dipped the sop, he taketh and giveth it to Ju'das, the 27 son of Si'mon Is-car'i-ot. And after the sop, then entered Sa'tan into him. Jesus therefore saith unto him, 28 That thou doest, do quickly. Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.
29 For some thought, because Ju'das had the [9]bag, that Jesus said unto him, Buy what things we have need of for the feast; or, that he should give something 30 to the poor. He then having received the sop went out straightway: and it was night.

31 When therefore he was gone out, Jesus saith, Now [10]is the Son of man glorified, and God [10]is glorified

CHAPTER XIV.

Christ comforteth his disciples.

LET [a]not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. [b]I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, [c]I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that [d]where I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 Thom'as saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am [e]the way, and [f]the truth, and [g]the life: [h]no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

7 [i]If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8 Phil'ip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Phil'ip? [k]he that hath seen me, hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?

10 Believest thou not that [l]I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you [m]I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: [n]or else believe me for the very works' sake.

12 [o]Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

13 [p]And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

15 ¶ [q]If ye love me, keep my commandments.

16 And I will pray the Father, and [r]he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

17 Even [s]the Spirit of truth; [t]whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, [u]and shall be in you.

18 [x]I will not leave you ‖comfortless: [y]I will come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but [z]ye see me: [a]because I live, ye shall live also.

20 At that day ye shall know that [b]I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.

21 [c]He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me, shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

22 [d]Ju'das saith unto him, not Is-car'i-ot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

23 Jesus answered and said unto him, [e]If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, [f]and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and [g]the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.

25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.

26 But [h]the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, [i]he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

27 [k]Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. [l]Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

37 Pe'ter saith unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee
38 even now? I will lay down my life for thee. Jesus answereth, Wilt thou lay down thy life for me? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

A. D. 33.

14 Let not your heart be troubled: [1]ye believe in God,
2 believe also in me. In my Father's house are many [2]mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you;
3 for I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I come again, and will receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye
4 may be also. [3]And whither I go, ye know the way.
5 Thom'as saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither
6 thou goest; how know we the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life:
7 no one cometh unto the Father, but [4]by me. If ye had known me, ye would have known my Father also: from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.
8 Phil'ip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and 9 it sufficeth us. Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and dost thou not know me, Phil'ip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father;
10 how sayest thou, Shew us the Father? Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I say unto you I speak not from myself: but the Father abiding in me doeth his works.
11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.
12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto the 13 Father. And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the 14 Son. If ye shall ask [5]me anything in my name, that 15 will I do. If ye love me, ye will keep my command-
16 ments. And I will [6]pray the Father, and he shall give you another [7]Comforter, that he may be with you for 17 ever, even the Spirit of truth: whom the world cannot receive; for it beholdeth him not, neither knoweth him: ye know him; for he abideth with you, and 18 shall be in you. I will not leave you [8]desolate: I 19 come unto you. Yet a little while, and the world beholdeth me no more; but ye behold me: because 20 I live, [9]ye shall live also. In that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.
21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will 22 manifest myself unto him. Ju'das (not Is-car'i-ot) saith unto him, Lord, what is come to pass that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?
23 Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my word: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode
24 with him. He that loveth me not keepeth not my words: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's who sent me.
25 These things have I spoken unto you, while yet
26 abiding with you. But the [7]Comforter, even the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I said unto you.
27 Peace I leave with you; my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled neither let it be fearful.

CHAPTER XV.

The union between Christ and his church.

I AM the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.
2 [a]Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.
3 [b]Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.
4 [c]Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.
5 I am the vine, ye are the branches. He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much [d]fruit; for ‖ without me ye can do nothing.
6 If a man abide not in me, [e]he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.
7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, [f]ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.
8 [g]Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bare much fruit; [h]so shall ye be my disciples.
9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.
10 [i]If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.
11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and [k]that your joy might be full.
12 [l]This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.
13 [m]Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.
14 [n]Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.
15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; [o]for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.
16 [p]Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and [q]ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that [r]whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.
17 [s]These things I command you, that ye love one another.
18 [t]If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.
19 [u]If ye were of the world, the world would love his own; but [x]because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.
20 Remember the word that I said unto you, [y]The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; [z]if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.
21 But [a]all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.
22 [b]If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin; [c]but now they have no ‖cloak for their sin.
23 [d]He that hateth me hateth my Father also.
24 If I had not done among them [e]the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

28 Ye heard how I said to you, I go away, and I come unto you. If ye loved me, ye would have rejoiced, because I go unto the Father: for the Father is 29 greater than I. And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye may 30 believe. I will no more speak much with you, for the prince of the world cometh: and he hath nothing
31 in me; but that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

15 I am the true vine, and my Father is the husband-
2 man. Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, he taketh it away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he cleanseth it, that it may bear more fruit.
3 Already ye are clean because of the word which I
4 have spoken unto you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; so neither can ye, except ye abide
5 in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same beareth much
6 fruit: for apart from me ye can do nothing. If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, and cast
7 them into the fire, and they are burned. If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatsoever
8 ye will, and it shall be done unto you. Herein [1]is my Father glorified, [2]that ye bear much fruit; and so
9 shall ye be my disciples. Even as the Father hath loved me, I also have loved you: abide ye in my 10 love. If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's com-
11 mandments, and abide in his love. These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy may be in you, 12 and that your joy may be fulfilled. This is my commandment, that ye love one another, even as I have 13 loved you. Greater love hath no man than this,
14 that a man lay down his life for his friends. Ye are my friends, if ye do the things which I command
15 you. No longer do I call you [3]servants; for the [4]servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I heard 16 from my Father I have made known unto you. Ye did not choose me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that ye should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should abide: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.
17 These things I command you, that ye may love one
18 another. If the world hateth you, [5]ye know that it
19 hath hated me before it hated you. If ye were of the world, the world would love its own: but because ye are not of the world, but I chose you out of the 20 world, therefore the world hateth you. Remember the word that I said unto you, A [4]servant is not greater than his lord. If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they kept my word, they 21 will keep yours also. But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know
22 not him that sent me. If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have 23 no excuse for their sin. He that hateth me hateth my 24 Father also. If I had not done among them the works which none other did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

25 But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, [f]They hated me without a cause.

27 And [i]ye also shall bear witness, because [k]ye have been with me from the beginning.

CHAPTER XVI.

The Holy Ghost promised.

THESE things have I spoken unto you, that ye [a]should not be offended.

2 [b]They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, [c]that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.

3 And [d]these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

4 But [e]these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And [f]these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now [g]I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

6 But because I have said these things unto you, [h]sorrow hath filled your heart.

7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, [i]the Comforter will not come unto you; but [k]if I depart, I will send him unto you.

8 And when he is come, he will || reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

9 [l]Of sin, because they believe not on me;

10 [m]Of righteousness, [n]because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

11 [o]Of judgment, because [p]the prince of this world is judged.

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, [q]but ye cannot bear them now.

13 Howbeit when he, [r]the Spirit of truth, is come, [s]he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.

14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

15 [t]All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

16 [u]A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, [x]because I go to the Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.

19 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye inquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice; and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21 [y]A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 [z]And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and [a]your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. [b]Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

8 if I go, I will send him unto you. And he, when he is come, will convict the world in respect of sin, 9 and of righteousness, and of judgement: of sin, be-
10 cause they believe not on me; of righteousness, because I go to the Father, and ye behold me no more;
11 of judgement, because the prince of this world hath 12 been judged. I have yet many things to say unto 13 you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he shall guide you into all the truth: for he shall not speak from himself; but what things soever he shall hear, these shall he speak: and he shall declare unto you the things

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, [c]that your joy may be full.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in ||proverbs: but the time cometh when I shall no more speak unto you in ||proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

26 [d]At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:

27 [e]For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and [f]have believed that I came out from God.

28 [g]I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no ||proverb.

30 Now are we sure that [h]thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this [i]we believe that thou camest forth from God.

31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?

32 [k]Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered [l]every man to ||his own, and shall leave me alone: and [m]yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that [n]in me ye might have peace. [o]In the world ye shall have tribulation: [p]but be of good cheer; [q]I have overcome the world.

CHAPTER XVII.

Christ prayeth for his apostles.

THESE words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, [a]the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee:

2 [b]As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many [c]as thou hast given him.

3 And [d]this is life eternal, that they might know thee [e]the only true God, and Jesus Christ [f]whom thou hast sent.

4 [g]I have glorified thee on the earth: [h]I have finished the work [i]which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory [k]which I had with thee before the world was.

6 [l]I have manifested thy name unto the men [m]which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee:

8 For I have given unto them the words [n]which thou gavest me; and they have received them, [o]and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 I pray for them: [p]I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and [q]thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.

11 [r]And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, [s]keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, [t]that they may be one, [u]as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, [x]I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and [y]none of them is lost, [z]but the son of perdition; [a]that the Scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 [b]I have given them thy word; [c]and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, [d]even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but [e]that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.

16 [f]They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 [g]Sanctify them through thy truth: [h]thy word is truth.

18 [i]As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be fulfilled.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in [1]proverbs: the hour cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in [1]proverbs, but shall tell you plainly of

26 the Father. In that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will [2]pray the Father

27 for you; for the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came forth

28 from the Father. I came out from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, 29 and go unto the Father. His disciples say, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no [3]proverb.

30 Now know we that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this

31 we believe that thou camest forth from God. Jesus

32 answered them, Do ye now believe? Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with 33 me. These things have I spoken unto you, that in me ye may have peace. In the world ye have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

17 These things spake Jesus; and lifting up his eyes to heaven, he said, Father, the hour is come; glorify

2 thy Son, that the Son may glorify thee: even as thou gavest him authority over all flesh, that whatsoever thou hast given him, to them he should give eternal

3 life. And this is life eternal, that they should know thee the only true God, and him who thou didst

4 send, even Jesus Christ. I glorified thee on the earth, having accomplished the work which thou

5 hast given me to do. And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which

6 I had with thee before the world was. I manifested thy name unto the men whom thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them

7 to me; and they have kept thy word. Now they know that all things whatsoever thou hast given me

8 are from thee: for the words which thou gavest me I have given unto them; and they received them, and knew of a truth that I came forth from thee, and

9 they believed that thou didst send me. I [4]pray for them: I [4]pray not for the world, but for those whom

10 thou hast given me; for they are thine: and all things that are mine are thine, and thine are mine:

11 and I am glorified in them. And I am no more in the world, and these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep them in thy name which thou hast given me, that they may be one, even as 12 we are. While I was with them, I kept them in thy name which thou hast given me: and I guarded them, and not one of them perished, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 But now I come to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they may have my joy fulfilled

14 in themselves. I have given them thy word; and the world hated them, because they are not of 15 the world, even as I am not of the world. I [4]pray not that thou shouldest take them [5]from the world, but that thou shouldest keep them [5]from 16 [6]the evil one. They are not of the world, even

17 as I am not of the world. [7]Sanctify them in the 18 truth: thy word is truth. As thou didst send me into the world, even so sent I them into the world.

19 And [k]for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be ‖ sanctified through the truth.

20 Neither pray I for these alone: but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;

21 [l]That they all may be one; [m]as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them: [n]that they may be one, even as we are one:

23 I in them, and thou in me, [o]that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them as thou hast loved me.

24 [p]Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me; [q]for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Father, [r]the world hath not known thee: but [s]I have known thee, and [t]these have known that thou hast sent me.

26 [u]And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it; that the love [z]wherewith thou hast loved me, may be in them, and I in them.

CHAPTER XVIII.

Judas betrayeth Jesus.

WHEN Jesus had spoken these words, [a]he went forth with his disciples over [b]the brook Ce'dron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Ju'das also, which betrayed him, knew the place: [c]for Jesus ofttimes resorted thither with his disciples.

3 [d]Ju'das, then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Phar'i-sees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Naz'a-reth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Ju'das also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Naz'a-reth.

8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:

9 That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, [e]Of them which thou gavest me, have I lost none.

10 [f]Then Si'mon Pe'ter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Mal'chus.

11 Then said Jesus unto Pe'ter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: [g]the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him,

13 And [h]led him away to [i]An'nas first; for he was father in law to Ca'ia-phas, which was the high priest that same year.‖

14 [k]Now Ca'ia-phas was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 ¶ [l]And Si'mon Pe'ter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.

16 [m]But Pe'ter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Pe'ter.

17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Pe'ter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals, for it was cold; and they warmed themselves: and Pe'ter stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 And for their sakes I [1]sanctify myself, that they 20 themselves also may be sanctified in truth. Neither for these only do I [2]pray, but for them also that 21 believe on me through their word; that they may all be one; even as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be in us: that the 22 world may believe that thou didst send me. And the glory which thou hast given me I have given unto them; that they may be one, even as we are
23 one; I in them, and thou in me, that they may be perfected into one; that the world may know that thou didst send me, and lovedst them, even as thou lovedst
24 me. Father, [3]that which thou hast given me, I will that, where I am, they also may be with me; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the 25 world. O righteous Father, the world knew thee not, but I knew thee; and these knew that thou didst
26 send me; and I made known unto them thy name, and will make it known; that the love wherewith thou lovedst me may be in them, and I in them.

18 When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the [4]brook [5]Kid'ron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, him-
2 self and his disciples. Now Ju'das also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus ofttimes
3 resorted thither with his disciples. Ju'das then, having received the [6]band of soldiers, and officers from the chief priests and the Phar'i-sees, cometh thither
4 with lanterns and torches and weapons. Jesus therefore, knowing all the things that were coming upon him, went forth, and saith unto them, Whom 5 seek ye? They answered him, Jesus of Naz'a-reth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Ju'das also,
6 which betrayed him, was standing with them. When therefore he said unto them, I am he, they went back-
7 ward, and fell to the ground. Again therefore he asked them, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus
8 of Naz'a-reth. Jesus answered, I told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:
9 that the word might be fulfilled which he spake, Of those whom thou hast given me I lost not one.
10 Si'mon Pe'ter therefore having a sword drew it, and struck the high priest's [7]servant, and cut off his right
11 ear. Now the servant's name was Mal'chus. Jesus therefore said unto Pe'ter, Put up the sword into the sheath: the cup which the Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 So the [6]band and the [8]chief captain, and the offi-
13 cers of the Jews, seized Jesus and bound him, and led him to An'nas first; for he was father in law to 14 Ca'ia-phas, which was high priest that year. Now Ca'ia-phas was he which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 And Si'mon Pe'ter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. Now that disciple was known unto the high priest, and entered in with Jesus into the 16 court of the high priest; but Pe'ter was standing at the door without. So the other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, went out and spake unto 17 her that kept the door, and brought in Pe'ter. The maid therefore that kept the door saith unto Pe'ter, Art thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith,
18 I am not. Now the [9]servants and the officers were standing there, having made [10]a fire of coals; for it was cold; and they were warming themselves: and Pe'ter also was with them, standing and warming himself.

19 ¶The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jesus answered him, [n]I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by, [o]struck Jesus ‖ with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 ([p]Now An'nas had sent him bound unto Ca'ia-phas the high priest.)

25 And Si'mon Pe'ter stood and warmed himself. [q]They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Pe'ter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Pe'ter then denied again; and [r]immediately the cock crew.

28 ¶[s]Then led they Jesus from Ca'ia-phas unto ‖ the hall of judgment: and it was early; [t]and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover.

29 Pi'late then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pi'late unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 [u]That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 [x]Then Pi'late entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews?

34 Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pi'late answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

36 [v]Jesus answered, [x]My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pi'late therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that [a]is of the truth heareth my voice.

38 Pi'late saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, [b]I find in him no fault at all.

39 [c]But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

40 [d]Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Ba-rab'bas. [e]Now Ba-rab'bas was a robber.

CHAPTER XIX.

Jesus arraigned and crucified.

[1]THEN [a]Pi'late therefore took Jesus, and scourged him.

2 And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe,

3 And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands.

4 Pi'late therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, [b]that ye may know that I find no fault in him.

5 Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns,

19 The high priest therefore asked Jesus of his dis-
20 ciples, and of his teaching. Jesus answered him, I have spoken openly to the world; I ever taught in [1]synagogues, and in the temple, where all the Jews
21 come together; and in secret spake I nothing. Why askest thou me? ask them that have heard me, what I spake unto them: behold, these know the things
22 which I said. And when he had said this, one of the officers standing by struck Jesus [2]with his hand, say-
23 ing, Answerest thou the high priest so? Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the 24 evil: but if well, why smitest thou me? An'nas therefore sent him bound unto Ca'ia-phas the high priest.
25 Now Si'mon Pe'ter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore unto him, Art thou also one of his disciples? He denied, and said, I am not.
26 One of the [3]servants of the high priest, being a kinsman of him whose ear Pe'ter cut off, saith, Did 27 not I see thee in the garden with him? Pe'ter therefore denied again: and straightway the cock crew.
28 They lead Jesus therefore from Ca'ia-phas into the [4]palace: and it was early; and they themselves entered not into the [4]palace, that they might not be
29 defiled, but might eat the passover. Pi'late therefore went out unto them, and saith, What accusation
30 bring ye against this man? They answered and said unto him, If this man were not an evil-doer, we 31 should not have delivered him up unto thee. Pi'late therefore said unto them, Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law. The Jews said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to 32 death: that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying by what manner of death he should die.
33 Pi'late therefore entered again into the [4]palace, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King
34 of the Jews? Jesus answered, Sayest thou this of thyself, or did others tell it thee concerning me?
35 Pi'late answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests delivered thee unto me: what 36 hast thou done? Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my [5]servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not 37 from hence. Pi'late therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, [6]Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end have I been born, and to this end am I come into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that 38 is of the truth heareth my voice. Pi'late saith unto him, What is truth?

And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find no crime 39 in him. But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that 40 I release unto you the King of the Jews? They cried out therefore again, saying, Not this man, but Ba-rab'bas. Now Ba-rab'bas was a robber.

19 Then Pi'late therefore took Jesus, and scourged
2 him. And the soldiers plaited a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and arrayed him in a pur-
3 ple garment; and they came unto him, and said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they struck him [7]with 4 their hands. And Pi'late went out again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him out to you, that
5 ye may know that I find no crime in him. Jesus therefore came out, wearing the crown of thorns

6 them, Behold the man! When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw him they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pi'late saith unto them, Take him yourselves, and crucify him: for 7 I find no crime in him. The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by that law he ought to die,
8 because he made himself the Son of God. When Pi'late therefore heard this saying, he was the more
9 afraid; and he entered into the [1]palace again, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus
10 gave him no answer. Pi'late therefore saith unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have [2]power to release thee, and have 11 [2]power to crucify thee? Jesus answered him, Thou wouldest have no [2]power against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered
12 me unto thee hath greater sin. Upon this Pi'late sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou release this man, thou art not Cæ'sar's friend: every one that maketh himself a king [3]speak-
13 eth against Cæ'sar. When Pi'late therefore heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and sat down on the judgement-seat at a place called The Pavement,
14 but in He'brew, Gab'ba-tha. Now it was the Preparation of the Passover: it was about the sixth hour. And he saith unto the Jews, Behold, your King!
15 They therefore cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pi'late saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, 16 We have no king but Cæ'sar. Then therefore he delivered him unto them to be crucified.

17 They took Jesus therefore: and he went out bearing the cross for himself, unto the place called The place of a skull, which is called in He'brew Gol'go-tha:
18 where they crucified him, and with him two others,
19 on either side one, and Jesus in the midst. And Pi'late wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. And there was written, JESUS OF NAZ'A-RETH, THE 20 KING OF THE JEWS. This title therefore read many of the Jews: [4]for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in He'brew, 21 and in Lat'in, and in Greek. The chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pi'late, Write not, The King of the Jews; but, that he said, I am King of

23 The soldiers therefore when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the [5]coat: now the [5]coat was without seam, woven from the top through-24 out. They said therefore one to another, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith,

They parted my garments among them,
And upon my vesture did they cast lots.

25 These things therefore the soldiers did. But there were standing by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Ma'ry the wife of Clo'pas, and 26 Ma'ry Mag-da-le'ne. When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold

28 ¶After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, [s]that the Scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and [a]they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, [b]It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.

31 The Jews therefore, [c]because it was the preparation, [t]that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was a high day,) besought Pi'late that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs:

34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith [e]came thereout blood and water.

35 And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true; and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 For these things were done, [f]that the Scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.

37 And again another Scripture saith, [g]They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 ¶[h]And after this Jo'seph of Ar-i-ma-the'a, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly [i]for fear of the Jews, besought Pi'late that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pi'late gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus.

39 And there came also [k]Nic-o-de'mus, (which at the first came to Jesus by night,) and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and [l]wound it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

42 [m]There laid they Jesus therefore [n]because of the Jews' preparation-day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

CHAPTER XX.

The resurrection of Christ.

THE [o]first day of the week cometh Ma'ry Mag-da-le'ne early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Si'mon Pe'ter, and to the [b]other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 [c]Pe'ter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Pe'ter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw [d]the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in.

6 Then cometh Si'mon Pe'ter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie,

7 And [e]the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not the [f]Scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

28 After this Jesus, knowing that all things are now finished, that the scripture might be accomplished,
29 saith, I thirst. There was set there a vessel full of vinegar: so they put a sponge full of the vinegar
30 upon hyssop, and brought it to his mouth. When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up his spirit.

31 The Jews therefore, because it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not remain on the cross upon the sabbath (for the day of that sabbath was a high day), asked of Pi'late that their legs might be 32 broken, and that they might be taken away. The soldiers therefore came, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him:
33 but when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was 34 dead already, they brake not his legs: howbeit one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and 35 straightway there came out blood and water. And he that hath seen hath borne witness, and his witness is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that 36 ye also may believe. For these things came to pass, that the scripture might be fulfilled, A bone of him
37 shall not be [1]broken. And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 And after these things Jo'seph of Ar-i-ma-thæ'a, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked of Pi'late that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pi'late gave him leave. He came 39 therefore, and took away his body. And there came also Nic-o-de'mus, he who at the first came to him by night, bringing a [2]mixture of myrrh and 40 aloes, about a hundred pound weight. So they took the body of Jesus, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury.
41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new tomb wherein 42 was never man yet laid. There then because of the Jews' Preparation (for the tomb was nigh at hand) they laid Jesus.

20 Now on the first day of the week cometh Ma'ry Mag-da-le'ne early, while it was yet dark, unto the tomb, and seeth the stone taken away from the
2 tomb. She runneth therefore, and cometh to Si'mon Pe'ter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we know not where they
3 have laid him. Pe'ter therefore went forth, and the 4 other disciple, and they went toward the tomb. And they ran both together: and the other disciple out-
5 ran Pe'ter, and came first to the tomb; and stooping and looking in, he seeth the linen cloths lying; yet
6 entered he not in. Si'mon Pe'ter therefore also cometh, following him, and entered into the tomb; and 7 he beholdeth the linen cloths lying, and the napkin, that was upon his head, not lying with the linen
8 cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself. Then entered in therefore the other disciple also, which came first to the tomb, and he saw, and believed.
9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must 10 rise again from the dead. So the disciples went away again unto their own home.

A. D. 33.

11 ¶ [o]But Ma'ry stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre,

12 And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

14 [h]And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and [i]knew not that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Ma'ry. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rab-bo'ni, which is to say, Master.

17 Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not: for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to [k]my brethren, and say unto them, [l]I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to [m]my God, and your God.

18 [n]Ma'ry Mag-da-le'ne came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

19 ¶ [o]Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. [p]Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord.

21 Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: [q]as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.

22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost:

23 [r]Whosesoever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whosesoever sins ye retain, they are retained.

24 ¶ But Thom'as, one of the twelve, [s]called Did'y-mus, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 ¶ And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thom'as with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.

27 Then saith he to Thom'as, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and [t]reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side; and be not faithless, but believing.

28 And Thom'as answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God.

29 Jesus saith unto him, Thom'as, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: [u]blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

30 ¶ [x]And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book:

31 [y]But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; [z]and that believing ye might have life through his name.

CHAPTER XXI.

Christ again appeareth to his disciples.

AFTER these things Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Ti-be'ri-as; and on this wise shewed he himself.

2 There were together Si'mon Pe'ter, and Thom'as called Did'y-mus, and [c]Na-than'a-el of Ca'na in Gal'i-lee, and [b]the sons of Zeb'e-dee, and two other of his disciples.

17 He'brew, Rab-bo'ni; which is to say, [1]Master. Jesus saith to her, [2]Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended unto the Father: but go unto my brethren, and say to them, I ascend unto my Father and your 18 Father, and my God and your God. Ma'ry Mag-da-le'ne cometh and telleth the disciples, I have seen the Lord; and how that he had said these things unto her.

19 When therefore it was evening, on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were shut where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and saith unto them,
20 Peace be unto you. And when he had said this, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. The disciples therefore were glad, when they saw the 21 Lord. Jesus therefore said to them again, Peace be unto you: as the Father hath sent me, even so send 23 Ghost: whose soever sins ye forgive, they are forgiven unto them; whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

24 But Thom'as, one of the twelve, called [4]Did'y-mus,
25 was not with them when Jesus came. The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thom'as with them. Jesus cometh, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said,
27 Peace be unto you. Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and see my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and put it into my side: and 28 be not faithless, but believing. Thom'as answered
29 and said unto him, My Lord and my God. Jesus saith unto him, Because thou hast seen me, [5]thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

30 Many other signs therefore did Jesus in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this 31 book: but these are written, that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye may have life in his name.

21 After these things Jesus manifested himself again to the disciples at the sea of Ti-be'ri-as; and he
2 manifested himself on this wise. There were together Si'mon Pe'ter, and Thom'as called [4]Did'y-mus, and Na-than'a-el of Ca'na in Gal'i-lee, and the sons of unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore; but the disciples [c]knew not that it was Jesus.

5 Then [d]Jesus saith unto them, ||Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 And he said unto them, [e]Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore [f]that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Pe'ter, It is the Lord. Now when Si'mon Pe'ter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship, (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Si'mon Pe'ter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jesus saith unto them, [g]Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now [h]the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Si'mon Pe'ter, Si'mon son of Jo'nas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs.

16 He saith to him again the second time, Si'mon son of Jo'nas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. [i]He saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

17 He saith unto him the third time, Si'mon son of Jo'nas, lovest thou me? Pe'ter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, [k]thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

18 [l]Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 This spake he, signifying [m]by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

20 Then Pe'ter, turning about, seeth the disciple [n]whom Jesus loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 Pe'ter seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall this man do?

22 Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry [o]till I come, what is that to thee? follow thou me.

23 Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

24 This is the disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things: and [p]we know that his testimony is true.

25 [q]And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, [r]I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

unto him, We also come with thee. They went forth, and entered into the boat; and that night they took 4 nothing. But when day was now breaking, Jesus stood on the beach: howbeit the disciples knew not
5 that it was Jesus. Jesus therefore saith unto them, Children, have ye aught to eat? They answered him,
6 No. And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the 7 multitude of fishes. That disciple therefore whom Jesus loved saith unto Pe'ter, It is the Lord. So when Si'mon Pe'ter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his coat about him (for he was naked), and cast himself
8 into the sea. But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits off), dragging the net full
9 of fishes. So when they got out upon the land, they see [1]a fire of coals there, and [2]fish laid thereon, and 10 [3]bread. Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish
11 which ye have now taken. Si'mon Pe'ter therefore went [4]up, and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were 12 so many, the net was not rent. Jesus saith unto them, Come and break your fast. And none of the disciples durst inquire of him, Who art thou? know-
13 ing that it was the Lord. Jesus cometh, and taketh the [5]bread, and giveth them, and the fish likewise.
14 This is now the third time that Jesus was manifested to the disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 So when they had broken their fast, Jesus saith to Si'mon Pe'ter, Si'mon, son of [6]John, [7]lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I [8]love thee. He saith unto him,
16 Feed my lambs. He saith to him again a second time, Si'mon, son of [6]John, [7]lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I [8]love
17 thee. He saith unto him, Tend my sheep. He saith unto him the third time, Si'mon, son of [6]John, [8]lovest thou me? Pe'ter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, [8]Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou [9]knowest that I [8]love thee. Jesus saith unto him,
18 Feed my sheep. Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou
19 wouldest not. Now this he spake, signifying by what manner of death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.
20 Pe'ter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved following; which also leaned back on his breast at the supper, and said, Lord, who is he that betrayeth
21 thee? Pe'ter therefore seeing him saith to Jesus, 22 Lord, [10]and what shall this man do? Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is 23 that to thee? follow thou me. This saying therefore went forth among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, that he should not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

24 This is the disciple which beareth witness of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his witness is true.

25 And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself would not contain the books that should be written.

THE

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES.

CHAPTER I.

The ascension of Christ.

THE former treatise have I made, O [e]The-oph'i-lus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,

2 [b]Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost [c]had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen:

3 [d]To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion, by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:

4 [e]And, ‖being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Je-ru'sa-lem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, [f]saith he, ye have heard of me.

5 [g]For John truly baptized with water; [h]but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, [i]Lord, wilt thou at this time [k]restore again the kingdom to Is'ra-el?

7 And he said unto them, [l]It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

8 [m]But ye shall receive ‖power, [n]after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and [o]ye shall be witnesses unto me, both in Je-ru'sa-lem, and in all Ju-de'a, and in Sa-ma'ri-a, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 [p]And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, [q]he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 And while they looked steadfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them [r]in white apparel;

11 Which also said, [s]Ye men of Gal'i-lee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus which is taken up from you into heaven, [t]shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

12 [u]Then returned they unto Je-ru'sa-lem from the mount called Ol'i-vet, which is from Je-ru'sa-lem a sabbath day's journey.

13 And when they were come in, they went up [x]into an upper room, where abode both [y]Pe'ter, and James, and John, and An'drew, Phil'ip, and Thom'as, Bar-thol'o-mew, and Mat'thew, James the son of Al-phe'us, and [z]Si'mon Ze-lo'tes, and [a]Ju'das the brother of James.

14 [b]These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with [c]the women, and Ma'ry the mother of Jesus, and with [d]his brethren.

15 ¶And in those days Pe'ter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number [e]of the names together were about a hundred and twenty),

16 Men and brethren, this Scripture must needs have been fulfilled, [f]which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of Da'vid spake before concerning Ju'das, [g]which was guide to them that took Jesus.

17 For [h]he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of [i]this ministry.

18 [k]Now this man purchased a field with [l]the reward of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Je-ru'sa-lem; insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, A-cel'da-ma, that is to say, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, [m]Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and, [n]His ‖bishoprick let another take.

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES.

1 The [1]former treatise I made, O The-oph'i-lus, concerning all that Jesus began both to do and to teach,

2 until the day in which he was received up after that he had given commandment through the [2]Holy Ghost

3 unto the apostles whom he had chosen: to whom he also [3]shewed himself alive after his passion by many proofs, appearing unto them by the space of forty days, and speaking the things concerning the king-

4 dom of God: and, [4]being assembled together with them, he charged them not to depart from Je-ru'sa-lem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, which, said

5 he, ye heard from me: for John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized [5]with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.

6 They therefore, when they were come together, asked him, saying, Lord, dost thou at this time re-

7 store the kingdom to Is'ra-el? And he said unto them, It is not for you to know times or seasons, which the

8 Father hath [6]set within his own authority. But ye shall receive power, when the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be my witnesses both in Je-ru'salem, and in all Ju-dæ'a and Sa-ma'ri-a, and unto 9 the uttermost part of the earth. And when he had said these things, as they were looking, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 And while they were looking stedfastly into heaven as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white

11 apparel; which also said, Ye men of Gal'i-lee, why stand ye looking into heaven? this Jesus, which was received up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye beheld him going into heaven.

12 Then returned they unto Je-ru'sa-lem from the mount called Ol'i-vet, which is nigh unto Je-ru'sa-lem, a sab-

13 bath day's journey off. And when they were come in, they went up into the upper chamber, where they were abiding; both Pe'ter and John and James and An'drew, Phil'ip and Thom'as, Bar-thol'o-mew and Mat'thew, James the son of Al-phæ'us, and Si'mon the 14 Zealot, and Ju'das the [7]son of James. These all with one accord continued stedfastly in prayer, [8]with the women, and Ma'ry the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.

15 And in these days Pe'ter stood up in the midst of the brethren, and said (and there was a multitude of [9]persons gathered together, about a hundred and 16 twenty), Brethren, it was needful that the scripture should be fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost spake before by the mouth of Da'vid concerning Ju'das, who

17 was guide to them that took Jesus. For he was numbered among us, and received his [10]portion in this 18 ministry. (Now this man obtained a field with the reward of his iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it became known to all the dwellers at Je-ru'salem; insomuch that in their language that field was 20 called A-kel'da-ma, that is, The field of blood.) For it is written in the book of Psalms,

Let his habitation be made desolate,
And let no man dwell therein:

21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us, all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,
22 [o]Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that [p]he was taken up from us, must one be ordained [q]to be a witness with us of his resurrection.
23 And they appointed two, Jo'seph called [r]Bar'sa-bas, who was surnamed Jus'tus, and Mat-thi'as.
24 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, [s]which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen,
25 [t]That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Ju'das by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.
26 And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Mat-thi'as; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAPTER II.

The apostles, filled with the Holy Ghost, speak divers languages—Peter's sermon.

AND when [a]the day of Pentecost was fully come, [b]they were all with one accord in one place.
2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and [c]it filled all the house where they were sitting.
3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.
4 And [d]they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began [e]to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.
5 And there were dwelling at Je-ru'sa-lem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.
6 Now †when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were ‖confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.
7 And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak [f]Gal-i-le'ans?
8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?
9 Par'thi-ans, and Medes, and E'lam-ites, and the dwellers in Mes-o-po-ta'mi-a, and in Ju-de'a, and Cap-pa-do'ci-a, in Pon'tus, and A'si-a,
10 Phryg'i-a, and Pam-phyl'i-a, in E'gypt, and in the parts of Lib'y-a about Cy-re'ne, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, 11 Cretes and A-ra'bi-ans, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.
12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?
13 Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.
14 ¶But Pe'ter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Ju-de'a, and all ye that dwell at Je-ru'sa-lem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:
15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, [g]seeing it is but the third hour of the day.
16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Jo'el;
17 [h]And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, [i]I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and [k]your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:
18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; [l]and they shall prophesy:
19 [m]And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:
20 [n]The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:
21 And it shall come to pass, that [o]whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

23 his resurrection. And they put forward two, Jo'seph called Bar-sab'bas, who was surnamed Jus'tus, and

A. D. 33.

22 Ye men of Is'ra-el, hear these words; Jesus of Naz'a-reth, a man approved of God among you [p]by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:
23 Him, [q]being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, [r]ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:
24 [s]Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.
25 For Da'vid speaketh concerning him, [t]I foresaw the Lord always before my face; for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:
26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope:
27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.
28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.
29 Men and brethren, || let me freely speak unto you [u]of the patriarch Da'vid, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day.
30 Therefore being a prophet, [x]and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne;
31 He seeing this before, spake of the resurrection of Christ, [y]that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption.
32 [z]This Jesus hath God raised up, [a]whereof we all are witnesses.
33 Therefore [b]being by the right hand of God exalted, and [c]having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he [d]hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.
34 For Da'vid is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, [e]The LORD saith unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand,
35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.
36 Therefore let all the house of Is'ra-el know assuredly, that God [f]hath made that same Jesus whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.
37 ¶Now when they heard this, [g]they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Pe'ter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?
38 Then Pe'ter said unto them, [h]Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.
39 For the promise is unto you, and [i]to your children, and [k]to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.
40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation.
41 ¶Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.
42 [l]And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.
43 And fear came upon every soul: and [m]many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.
44 And all that believed were together, and [n]had all things common;
45 And sold their possessions and goods, and [o]parted them to all men as every man had need.
46 [p]And they, continuing daily with one accord [q]in the temple, and [r]breaking bread || from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 Praising God, and [s]having favour with all the people.
And [t]the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

22 Ye men of Is'ra-el, hear these words: Jesus of Naz'a-reth, a man approved of God unto you by [1]mighty works and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, even as ye yourselves 23 know; him, being delivered up by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye by the 24 hand of [2]lawless men did crucify and slay: whom God raised up, having loosed the pangs of death:
because it was not possible that he should be holden
25 of it. For Da'vid saith concerning him,
I beheld the Lord always before my face;
For he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:
26 Therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced;
Moreover my flesh also shall [3]dwell in hope:
27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in Ha'des, Neither wilt thou give thy Holy One to see corruption.
28 Thou madest known unto me the ways of life;
Thou shalt make me full of gladness [4]with thy countenance.
29 Brethren, I may say unto you freely of the patriarch Da'vid, that he both died and was buried, and his 30 tomb is with us unto this day. Being therefore a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins [5]he would 31 set one upon his throne; he foreseeing this spake of the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he 32 left in Ha'des, nor did his flesh see corruption. This Jesus did God raise up, [6]whereof we all are witnesses.
33 Being therefore [7]by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath poured forth this, which ye 34 see and hear. For Da'vid ascended not into the heavens: but he saith himself,
The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand,
35 Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet.
36 Let [8]all the house of Is'ra-el therefore know assuredly, that God hath made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom ye crucified.
37 Now when they heard this they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Pe'ter and the rest of the 38 apostles, Brethren, what shall we do? And Pe'ter said unto them, Repent ye, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift of 39 the Holy Ghost. For to you is the promise, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call unto him.
40 And with many other words he testified, and exhorted them, saying, Save yourselves from this 41 crooked generation. They then [9]that received his word were baptized: and there were added unto them 42 in that day about three thousand souls. And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' teaching and [10]fellowship, in the breaking of bread and the prayers.
43 And fear came upon every soul: and many won-44 ders and signs were done [11]by the apostles[12]. And all that believed were together, and had all things 45 common; and they sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all, according as any man had 46 need. And day by day, continuing stedfastly with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread at home, they did take their food with gladness and 47 singleness of heart, praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added [13]to them day by day those that were being saved.

CHAPTER III.

Peter cureth a lame man, &c.

NOW Pe'ter and John went up together [a]into the temple at the hour of prayer, [b]being the ninth hour.

2 And [c]a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, [d]to ask alms of them that entered into the temple;

3 Who, seeing Pe'ter and John about to go into the temple, asked an alms.

4 And Pe'ter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

6 Then Pe'ter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: [e]In the name of Jesus Christ of Naz'a-reth, rise up and walk.

7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle-bones received strength.

8 And he [f]leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 [g]And all the people saw him walking and praising God:

10 And they knew that it was he which [h]sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And as the lame man which was healed held Pe'ter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch [i]that is called Sol'o-mon's, greatly wondering.

12 ¶And when Pe'ter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Is'ra-el, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?

13 [k]The God of A'bra-ham, and of I'saac, and of Ja'cob, the God of our fathers, [l]hath glorified his son Jesus; whom ye [m]delivered up, and [n]denied him in the presence of Pi'late, when he was determined to let him go.

14 But ye denied [o]the Holy One, [p]and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you;

15 And killed the || Prince of life, [q]whom God hath raised from the dead; [r]whereof we are witnesses.

16 [s]And his name, through faith in his name, hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 And now, brethren, I wot that [t]through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.

18 But [u]those things which God before had shewed [x]by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

19 ¶[y]Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;

20 And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you:

21 [z]Whom the heaven must receive, until the times of [a]restitution of all things, [b]which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

22 For Mo'ses truly said unto the fathers, [c]A Prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.

23 And it shall come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear that Prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.

24 Yea, and all the prophets from Sam'u-el and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

25 [d]Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto A'bra-ham, [e]And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

A. D. 33.

3 Now Pe'ter and John were going up into the tem-
2 ple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour. And a certain man that was lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the door of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them
3 that entered into the temple; who seeing Pe'ter and John about to go into the temple, asked to receive
4 an alms. And Pe'ter, fastening his eyes upon him,
5 with John, said, Look on us. And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something from 6 them. But Pe'ter said, Silver and gold have I none; but what I have, that give I thee. In the name of 7 Jesus Christ of Naz'a-reth, walk. And he took him by the right hand, and raised him up: and immediately his feet and his ankle-bones received strength.
8 And leaping up, he stood, and began to walk; and he entered with them into the temple, walking, and 9 leaping, and praising God. And all the people saw
10 him walking and praising God: and they took knowledge of him, that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.
11 And as he held Pe'ter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the [1]porch that is called Sol'-
12 o-mon's, greatly wondering. And when Pe'ter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Is'ra-el, why marvel ye at this [2]man? or why fasten ye your eyes on us, as though by our own power or godli-
13 ness we had made him to walk? The God of A'bra-ham, and of I'saac, and of Ja'cob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his [3]Servant Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied before the face of Pi'late, 14 when he had determined to release him. But ye denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for 15 a murderer to be granted unto you, and killed the [4]Prince of life; whom God raised from the dead;
16 [5]whereof we are witnesses. And [6]by faith in his name hath his name made this man strong, whom ye behold and know: yea, the faith which is through him hath given him this perfect soundness in the 17 presence of you all. And now, brethren, I wot that 18 in ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers. But the things which God foreshewed by the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ should suffer, he 19 thus fulfilled. Repent ye therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, that so there may come seasons of refreshing from the presence of the 20 Lord; and that he may send the Christ who hath 21 been appointed for you, even Jesus: whom the heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things, whereof God spake by the mouth of his holy proph-
22 ets which have been since the world began. Mo'ses indeed said, A prophet shall the Lord God raise up unto you from among your brethren, [7]like unto me; to him shall ye hearken in all things whatsoever
23 he shall speak unto you. And it shall be, that every soul, which shall not hearken to that prophet, shall be utterly destroyed from among the people.
24 Yea and all the prophets from Sam'u-el and them that followed after, as many as have spoken, they 25 also told of these days. Ye are the sons of the prophets, and of the covenant which God [8]made with your fathers, saying unto A'bra-ham, And in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed.

CHAPTER IV.

Peter and John imprisoned.

AND as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the ||captain of the temple, and the Sad'du-cees came upon them,
2 [a]Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead.
3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide.
4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.
5 ¶And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes,
6 And [b]An'nas the high priest, and Ca'ia-phas, and John, and Al-ex-an'der, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Je-ru'sa-lem.
7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, [c]By what power, or by what name, have ye done this?
8 [d]Then Pe'ter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Is'ra-el,
9 If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;
10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Is'ra-el, [e]that by the name of Jesus Christ of Naz'a-reth, whom ye crucified, [f]whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.
11 [g]This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.
12 [h]Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.
13 ¶Now when they saw the boldness of Pe'ter and John, [i]and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.
14 And beholding the man which was healed [k]standing with them, they could say nothing against it.
15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves,
16 Saying, [l]What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is [m]manifest to all them that dwell in Je-ru'sa-lem; and we cannot deny it.
17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.
18 [n]And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.
19 But Pe'ter and John answered and said unto them, [o]Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.
20 [p]For we cannot but speak the things which [q]we have seen and heard.
21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, [r]because of the people: for all men glorified God for [s]that which was done.
22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.
23 ¶And being let go, [t]they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.
24 And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, [u]thou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is;
25 Who, by the mouth of thy servant Da'vid hast said, [z]Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?

26 Unto you first God, having raised up his Servant, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from your iniquities.

4 And as they spake unto the people, [1]the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sad'du-cees
2 came upon them, being sore troubled because they taught the people, and proclaimed in Jesus the resur-
3 rection from the dead. And they laid hands on them, and put them in ward unto the morrow: for 4 it was now eventide. But many of them that heard the word believed; and the number of the men came to be about five thousand.
5 And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers and elders and scribes were gathered together
6 in Je-ru'sa-lem; and An'nas the high priest was there, and Ca'ia-phas, and John, and Al-ex-an'der, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest.
7 And when they had set them in the midst, they inquired, By what power, or in what name, have ye
8 done this? Then Pe'ter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders,
9 if we this day are examined concerning a good deed done to an impotent man, [2]by what means this man
10 is [3]made whole; be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Is'ra-el, that in the name of Jesus Christ of Naz'a-reth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even in [4]him doth this man
11 stand here before you whole. He is the stone which was set at nought of you the builders, which was 12 made the head of the corner. And in none other is there salvation: for neither is there any other name under heaven, that is given among men, wherein we must be saved.
13 Now when they beheld the boldness of Pe'ter and John, and had perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.
14 And seeing the man which was healed standing with 15 them, they could say nothing against it. But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the 16 council, they conferred among themselves, saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable [5]miracle hath been wrought through them, is manifest to all that dwell in Je-ru'sa-lem; and we can-
17 not deny it. But that it spread no further among the people, let us threaten them, that they speak
18 henceforth to no man in this name. And they called them, and charged them not to speak at all nor teach 19 in the name of Jesus. But Pe'ter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you rather than unto God, 20 judge ye: for we cannot but speak the things which 21 we saw and heard. And they, when they had further threatened them, let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people; for 22 all men glorified God for that which was done. For the man was more than forty years old, on whom this [5]miracle of healing was wrought.
23 And being let go, they came to their own company, and reported all that [6]the chief priests and the 24 elders had said unto them. And they, when they heard it, lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, O [6]Lord, [7]thou [8]that didst make the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all that in 25 them is: [8]who by the Holy Ghost by the mouth of our father Da'vid thy servant, didst say,

Why did the Gentiles rage,
And the peoples [9]imagine vain things?

26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ.
27 For [v]of a truth against [t]thy holy child Jesus, [a]whom thou hast anointed, both Her'od, and Pon'ti-us Pi'late, with the Gentiles, and the people of Is'ra-el, were gathered together,
28 [b]For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.
29 And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, [c]that with all boldness they may speak thy word,
30 By stretching forth thine hand to heal; [d]and that signs and wonders may be done [e]by the name of [f]thine holy child Jesus.
31 ¶And when they had prayed, [g]the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, [h]and they spake the word of God with boldness.
32 And the multitude of them that believed [i]were of one heart and of one soul: [k]neither said any of them that aught of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.
33 And with [l]great power gave the apostles [m]witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and [n]great grace was upon them all.
34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: [o]for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,
35 [p]And laid them down at the apostles' feet: [q]and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.
36 And Jo'ses, who by the apostles was surnamed Bar'nabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Le'vite, and of the country of Cy'prus, 37 [r]Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

CHAPTER V.

Ananias and Sapphira fall down dead.

BUT a certain man named An-a-ni'as, with Sap-phi'ra his wife, sold a possession,
2 And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, [s]and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.
3 [b]But Pe'ter said, An-a-ni'as, why hath [c]Sa'tan filled thine heart ‖ to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land?
4 While it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.
5 And An-a-ni'as hearing these words [d]fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.
6 And the young men arose, [e]wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him.
7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.
8 And Pe'ter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.
9 Then Pe'ter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together [f]to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.
10 [g]Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.
11 [h]And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.
12 ¶And [i]by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; ([k]and they were all with one accord in Sol'o-mon's porch.
13 And [l]of the rest durst no man join himself to them: [m]but the people magnified them.

26 The kings of the earth set themselves in array,
And the rulers were gathered together,
Against the Lord, and against his [1]Anointed:
27 for of a truth in this city against thy holy Servant Jesus, whom thou didst anoint, both Her'od and Pon'ti-us Pi'late, with the Gentiles and the peoples of 28 Is'ra-el, were gathered together, to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel foreordained to come to pass.
29 And now, Lord, look upon their threatenings: and grant unto thy [2]servants to speak thy word with all
30 boldness, while thou stretchest forth thy hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done
31 through the name of thy holy Servant Jesus. And when they had prayed, the place was shaken wherein they were gathered together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.
32 And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and soul: and not one of them said that aught of the things which he possessed was his own;
33 but they had all things common. And with great power gave the apostles their witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus[3]: and great grace was 34 upon them all. For neither was there among them any that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices
35 of the things that were sold, and laid them at the apostles' feet: and distribution was made unto each, according as any one had need.
36 And Jo'seph, who by the apostles was surnamed Bar'na-bas (which is, being interpreted, Son of [4]exhortation), a Le'vite, a man of Cy'prus by race, having a field, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

5 But a certain man named An-a-ni'as, with Sap-
2 phi'ra his wife, sold a possession, and kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles'
3 feet. But Pe'ter said, An-a-ni'as, why hath Sa'tan filled thy heart to [5]lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep
4 back part of the price of the land? Whiles it remained, did it not remain thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thy power? How is it that thou hast conceived this thing in thy heart? thou
5 hast not lied unto men, but unto God. And An-a-ni'as hearing these words fell down and gave up the ghost: and great fear came upon all that heard it.
6 And the [6]young men arose and wrapped him round, and they carried him out and buried him.
7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.
8 And Pe'ter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much. And she said, Yea, for 9 so much. But Pe'ter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and they shall carry 10 thee out. And she fell down immediately at his feet, and gave up the ghost: and the young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her
11 out and buried her by her husband. And great fear came upon the whole church, and upon all that heard these things.
12 And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; and they were all with one accord in Sol'o-mon's
13 porch. But of the rest durst no man join himself to them: howbeit the people magnified them;

14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women;)

15 Insomuch that they brought forth the sick ‖ into the streets and laid them on beds and couches, [n]that at the least the shadow of Pe'ter passing by might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Je-ru'sa-lem, bringing [o]sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 ¶ [p]Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sad'du-cees,) and were filled with ‖ indignation, 18 [q]And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But [r]the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison-doors, and brought them forth, and said,

20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people, [s]all the words of this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. [t]But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Is'ra-el, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when he had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest and [u]the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: [z]for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them,

28 Saying, [y]Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Je-ru'sa-lem with your doctrine, [z]and intend to bring this man's [a]blood upon us.

29 ¶ Then Pe'ter and the other apostles answered and said, [b]We ought to obey God rather than men.

30 [c]The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and [d]hanged on a tree.

31 [e]Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be [f]a Prince and [g]a Saviour, [h]for to give repentance to Is'ra-el, and forgiveness of sins.

32 And [i]we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, [k]whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 ¶ [l]When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then stood there one up in the council, a Phar'i-see, named [m]Ga-ma'li-el, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Is'ra-el, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For before these days rose up Theu'das, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as ‖ obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Ju'das of Gal'i-lee in the days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: [n]for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought:

14 [1]and believers were the more added to the Lord,
15 multitudes both of men and women; insomuch that they even carried out the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that, as Pe'ter came by, at the least his shadow might overshadow some 16 one of them. And there also came together the multitude from the cities round about Je-ru'sa-lem, bringing sick folk, and them that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.
17 But the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him (which is the sect of the Sad'du-cees), and 18 they were filled with jealousy, and laid hands on the 19 apostles, and put them in public ward. But an angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors,
20 and brought them out, and said, Go ye, and stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words
21 of this Life. And when they heard this, they entered into the temple about daybreak, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Is'ra-el, and sent to the 22 prison-house to have them brought. But the officers that came found them not in the prison; and
23 they returned and told, saying, The prison-house we found shut in all safety, and the keepers standing at the doors: but when we had opened, we found no
24 man within. Now when the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were much perplexed concerning them whereunto this 25 would grow. And there came one and told them, Behold, the men whom ye put in the prison are in 26 the temple standing and teaching the people. Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them, but without violence; for they feared the people, lest 27 they should be stoned. And when they had brought them, they set them before the council. And the 28 high priest asked them, saying, We straitly charged you not to teach in this name: and behold, ye have filled Je-ru'sa-lem with your teaching, and intend to 29 bring this man's blood upon us. But Pe'ter and the apostles answered and said, We must obey God
30 rather than men. The God of our fathers raised up
31 Jesus, whom ye slew, hanging him on a tree. Him did God exalt [2]with his right hand to be a Prince and a Savior, for to give repentance to Is'ra-el, and 32 remission of sins. And we are witnesses[3] of these [4]things; [5]and so is the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.
33 But they, when they heard this, were cut to the 34 heart, and were minded to slay them. But there stood up one in the council, a Phar'i-see, named Ga-ma'li-el, a doctor of the law, had in honour of all the people, and commanded to put the men forth a 35 little while. And he said unto them, Ye men of Is'ra-el, take heed to yourselves as touching these 36 men, what ye are about to do. For before these days rose up Theu'das, giving himself out to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed, and 37 came to nought. After this man rose up Ju'das of Gal'i-lee in the days of the enrolment, and drew away some of the people after him: he also perished; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered 38 abroad. And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will be overthrown:

CHAPTER VI.

The apostles' care for the poor—Seven deacons chosen.

AND in those days, [a]when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the [b]Gre'cians against the He'brews, because their widows were neglected [c]in the daily ministration.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, [d]It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, [e]look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we [f]will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 ¶And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Ste'phen, [g]a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and [h]Phil'ip, and Proch'o-rus, and Ni-ca'nor, and Ti'mon, and Par'me-nas, and [i]Nic'o-las a proselyte of An'ti-och;

6 Whom they set before the apostles: and [k]when they had prayed, [l]they laid their hands on them.

7 And [m]the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Je-ru'sa-lem greatly; and a great company [n]of the priests were obedient to the faith.

8 And Ste'phen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 ¶Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Lib'er-tines, and Cy-re'ni-ans, and Al-ex-an'dri-ans, and of them of Ci-li'ci-a, and of A'si-a, disputing with Ste'phen.

10 And [o]they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

11 [p]Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Mo'ses, and against God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,

13 And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law:

14 [q]For we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Naz'a-reth shall [r]destroy this place, and shall change the ‖customs which Mo'ses delivered us.

15 And all that sat in the council, looking steadfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

CHAPTER VII.

Stephen answereth to his accusation—They stone him to death.

THEN said the high priest, Are these things so?

2 And he said, [a]Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father A'bra-ham when he was in Mes-o-po-ta'mi-a, before he dwelt in Char'ran,

3 And said unto him, [b]Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.

4 Then [c]came he out of the land of the Chal-de'ans, and dwelt in Char'ran; and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land wherein ye now dwell.

41 of Jesus, and let them go. They therefore departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonour for the 42 Name. And every day, in the temple and at home, they ceased not to teach and to preach Jesus as the Christ.

6 Now in these days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, there arose a murmuring of the [1]Gre'cian Jews against the He'brews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration.

it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.

6 And God spake on this wise, [c]That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil [d]four hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and [e]serve me in this place.

8 [h]And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: [i]and so A'bra-ham begat I'saac, and circumcised him the eighth day; [k]and I'saac begat Ja'cob, and [l]Ja'cob begat the twelve patriarchs.

9 [m]And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Jo'seph into E'gypt: [n]but God was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, [o]and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pha'raoh king of E'gypt; and he made him governor over E'gypt and all his house.

11 [p]Now there came a dearth over all the land of E'gypt and Cha'naan, and great affliction; and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 [q]But when Ja'cob heard that there was corn in E'gypt, he sent out our fathers first.

13 [r]And at the second time Jo'seph was made known to his brethren; and Jo'seph's kindred was made known unto Pha'raoh.

14 [s]Then sent Jo'seph, and called his father Ja'cob to him, and [t]all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls.

15 [u]So Ja'cob went down into E'gypt, [w]and died, he, and our fathers,

16 And [x]were carried over into Sy'chem, and laid in [y]the sepulchre that A'bra-ham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Em'mor, the father of Sy'chem.

17 But when [z]the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to A'bra-ham, [a]the people grew and multiplied in E'gypt, 18 Till another king arose, which knew not Jo'seph.

19 The same dealt subtilely with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, [b]so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.

20 [c]In which time Mo'ses was born, and [d]was ||exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months:

21 And [e]when he was cast out, Pha'raoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son.

22 And Mo'ses was learned in all the wisdom of the E-gyp'tians, and was [f]mighty in words and in deeds.

23 [g]And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Is'ra-el.

24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the E-gyp'tian:

25 ||For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them; but they understood not.

26 [h]And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him away, saying, [i]Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou didst the E-gyp'tian yesterday?

29 [k]Then fled Mo'ses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Ma'di-an, where he begat two sons.

30 [l]And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Si'na an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.

31 When Mo'ses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, 32 Saying, [m]I am the God of thy fathers, the God of A'bra-ham, and the God of I'saac, and the God of Ja'cob. Then Mo'ses trembled, and durst not behold.

12 But when Ja'cob heard that there was corn in E'gypt,

14 And Jo'seph sent, and called to him Ja'cob his father,
15 and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls. And Ja'cob went down into E'gypt; and he died, himself,

18 grew and multiplied in E'gypt, till there arose another
19 king over E'gypt, which knew not Jo'seph. The same dealt subtilly with our race, and evil entreated our fathers, that [2]they should cast out their babes to the 20 end they might not [3]live. At which season Mo'ses was born, and was [4]exceeding fair; and he was 21 nourished three months in his father's house: and when he was cast out, Pha'raoh's daughter took him
22 up, and nourished him for her own son. And Mo'ses was instructed in all the wisdom of the E-gyp'tians;
23 and he was mighty in his words and works. But when he was well-nigh forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Is'ra-el.
24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, smiting
25 the E-gyp'tian: and he supposed that his brethren understood how that God by his hand was giving

27 another? But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and 28 a judge over us? Wouldest thou kill me, as thou
29 killedst the E-gyp'tian yesterday? And Mo'ses fled at this saying, and became a sojourner in the land
30 of Mid'i-an, where he begat two sons. And when forty years were fulfilled, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Si'nai, in a flame of fire
31 in a bush. And when Mo'ses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold, there came 32 a voice of the Lord, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of A'bra-ham, and of I'saac, and of Ja'cob. And 33 Mo'ses trembled, and durst not behold. And the Lord said unto him, Loose the shoes from thy feet: for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.

34 °I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in E'gypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into E'gypt.

35 This Mo'ses, whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer ᵖby the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.

36 ᵍHe brought them out, after that he had ʳshewed wonders and signs in the land of E'gypt, ˢand in the Red sea, ᵗand in the wilderness forty years.

37 ¶This is that Mo'ses, which said unto the children of Is'ra-el, ᵘA Prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, ‖ like unto me; ˣhim shall ye hear.

38 ʸThis is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with ᶻthe angel which spake to him in the mount Si'na, and with our fathers: ᵃwho received the lively ᵇoracles to give unto us:

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into E'gypt,

40 ᶜSaying unto Aa'ron, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Mo'ses, which brought us out of the land of E'gypt, we wot not what is become of him.

41 ᵈAnd they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then ᵉGod turned, and gave them up to worship ᶠthe host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, ᵍO ye house of Is'ra-el, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness?

43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Mo'loch, and the star of your god Rem'phan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Bab'ylon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, ‖speaking unto Mo'ses, ʰthat he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen.

45 ⁱWhich also our fathers ‖that came after brought in with †Je'sus into the possession of the Gentiles, ᵏwhom God drave out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of Da'vid;

46 ˡWho found favour before God, and ᵐdesired to find a tabernacle for the God of Ja'cob.

47 ⁿBut Sol'o-mon built him a house.

48 Howbeit ᵒthe Most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet, 49 ᵖHeaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest?

50 Hath not my hand made all these things?

51 ¶Ye ᵍstiffnecked, and ʳuncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye.

52 ˢWhich of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of ᵗthe Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers:

53 ᵘWho have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it.

54 ¶ᵛWhen they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth.

55 But he, ʷbeing full of the Holy Ghost, looked up steadfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, 56 And said, Behold, ˣI see the heavens opened, and the ʸSon of man standing on the right hand of God.

57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, 58 And ᶻcast him out of the city, ᵃand stoned him: and ᵇthe witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul.

A. D. 33.

34 I have surely seen the affliction of my people which is in E'gypt, and have heard their groaning, and I am come down to deliver them: and now come,

35 I will send thee into E'gypt. This Mo'ses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? him hath God sent to be both a ruler and a [1]deliverer with the hand of the angel which ap-

36 peared to him in the bush. This man led them forth, having wrought wonders and signs in E'gypt, and in the Red Sea, and in the wilderness forty years.

37 This is that Mo'ses, which said unto the children of Is'ra-el, A prophet shall God raise up unto you from

38 among your brethren, [2]like unto me. This is he that was in the [3]church in the wilderness with the angel which spake to him in the mount Si'nai, and with our fathers: who received living oracles to give

39 unto us: to whom our fathers would not be obedient, but thrust him from them, and turned back in

40 their hearts unto E'gypt, saying unto Aa'ron, Make us gods which shall go before us: for as for this Mo'ses, which led us forth out of the land of E'gypt,

41 we wot not what is become of him. And they made a calf in those days, and brought a sacrifice unto the 42 idol, and rejoiced in the works of their hands. But God turned, and gave them up to serve the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets,

Did ye offer unto me slain beasts and sacrifices
Forty years in the wilderness, O house of Is'ra-el?

43 And ye took up the tabernacle of Mo'loch,
And the star of the god Re'phan,
The figures which ye made to worship them:
And I will carry you away beyond Bab'y-lon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of the testimony in the wilderness, even as he appointed who spake unto Mo'ses, that he should make it according to the figure

45 that he had seen. Which also our fathers, in their turn, brought in with [4]Josh'u-a when they entered on the possession of the nations, which God thrust out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of Da'vid;

46 who found favour in the sight of God, and asked to

47 find a habitation for the God of Ja'cob. But Sol'o-mon

48 built him a house. Howbeit the Most High dwelleth not in houses made with his hands; as saith the prophet,

49 The heaven is my throne,
And the earth the footstool of my feet:
What manner of house will ye build me? saith the Lord:
Or what is the place of my rest?

50 Did not my hand make all these things?

51 Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your

52 fathers did, so do ye. Which of the prophets did not your fathers persecute? and they killed them which shewed before of the coming of the Righteous One; of whom ye have now become betrayers and 53 murderers; ye who received the law [5]as it was ordained by angels, and kept it not.

54 Now when they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with

55 their teeth. But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of

56 God, and said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand

57 of God. But they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and rushed upon him with 58 one accord; and they cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul.

CHAPTER VIII.

Persecution in Jerusalem.

A. D. 34.

AND [a]Saul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Je-ru'sa-lem; and [b]they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Ju-de'a and Sa-ma'ri-a, except the apostles.

2 And devout men carried Ste'phen to his burial, and [c]made great lamentation over him.

3 As for Saul, [d]he made havoc of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison.

4 Therefore [e]they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word.

5 Then [f]Phil'ip went down to the city of Sa-ma'ri-a, and preached Christ unto them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Phil'ip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For [g]unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, called Si'mon, which beforetime in the same city [h]used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Sa-ma'ri-a, [i]giving out that himself was some great one:

10 To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But when they believed Phil'ip preaching the things [k]concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

13 Then Si'mon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Phil'ip, and wondered, beholding the †miracles and signs which were done.

14 Now when the apostles which were at Je-ru'sa-lem heard that Sa-ma'ri-a had received the word of God, they sent unto them Pe'ter and John:

15 Who, when they were come down, prayed for them [l]that they might receive the Holy Ghost:

16 (For [m]as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only [n]they were baptized in [o]the name of the Lord Jesus.)

17 Then [p]laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.

18 And when Si'mon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money,

19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost.

20 But Pe'ter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because [q]thou hast thought that [r]the gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, [s]if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in [t]the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Si'mon, and said, [u]Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Je-ru'sa-lem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Sa-mar'i-tans.

60 and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had
8 said this, he fell asleep. And Saul was consenting unto his death.

And there arose on that day a great persecution against the church which was in Je-ru'sa-lem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Ju-dæ'a and Sa-ma'ri-a, except the apostles.
2 And devout men buried Ste'phen, and made great
3 lamentation over him. But Saul laid waste the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison.
4 They therefore that were scattered abroad went
5 about preaching the word. And Phil'ip went down to the city of Sa-ma'ri-a, and proclaimed unto them
6 the Christ. And the multitudes gave heed with one accord unto the things that were spoken by Phil'ip, when they heard and saw the signs which he did.
7 [1]For from many of those which had unclean spirits, they came out, crying with a loud voice: and many that were palsied, and that were lame, were healed.
8 And there was much joy in that city.
9 But there was a certain man, Si'mon by name, which beforetime in the city used sorcery, and amazed the [2]people of Sa-ma'ri-a, giving out that himself was 10 some great one: to whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is that 11 power of God which is called Great. And they gave heed to him, because that of long time he had 12 amazed them with his sorceries. But when they believed Phil'ip preaching good tidings concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ,
13 they were baptized, both men and women. And Si'mon also himself believed: and being baptized, he continued with Phil'ip; and beholding signs and great [3]miracles wrought, he was amazed.
14 Now when the apostles which were at Je-ru'sa-lem heard that Sa-ma'ri-a had received the word of God, 15 they sent unto them Pe'ter and John: who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they 16 might receive the Holy Ghost: for as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they had been bap-
17 tized into the name of the Lord Jesus. Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the 18 Holy Ghost. Now when Si'mon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the [4]Holy Ghost
19 was given, he offered them money, saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay my hands,
20 he may receive the Holy Ghost. But Pe'ter said unto him, Thy silver perish with thee, because thou hast thought to obtain the gift of God with money.
21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this [5]matter: for 22 thy heart is not right before God. Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray the Lord, if perhaps the thought of thy heart shall be forgiven thee.
23 For I see that thou [6]art in the gall of bitterness and 24 in the bond of iniquity. And Si'mon answered and said, Pray ye for me to the Lord, that none of the things which ye have spoken come upon me.
25 They therefore, when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, returned to Je-ru'sa-lem, and preached the gospel to many villages of the Samar'i-tans.

26 And the angel of the Lord spake unto Phil'ip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south, unto the way that goeth down from Je-ru'sa-lem unto Ga'za, which is desert.
27 And he arose and went: and, behold, [z]a man of E-thi-o'pi-a, a eunuch of great authority under Can'da-ce queen of the E-thi-o'pi-ans, who had the charge of all her treasure, and [y]had come to Je-ru'sa-lem for to worship,
28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read E-sa'ias the prophet.
29 Then the Spirit said unto Phil'ip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.
30 And Phil'ip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet E-sa'ias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?
31 And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Phil'ip that he would come up, and sit with him.
32 The place of the Scripture which he read was this, [z]He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:
33 In his humilation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.
34 And the eunuch answered Phil'ip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?
35 Then Phil'ip opened his mouth, [a]and began at the same Scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.
36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; [b]what doth hinder me to be baptized?
37 And Phil'ip said, [c]If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, [d]I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.
38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Phil'ip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.
39 And when they were come up out of the water, [e]the Spirit of the Lord caught away Phil'ip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.
40 But Phil'ip was found at A-zo'tus: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Ces-a-re'a.

Saul's Conversion.

A. D. 35.

AND [a]Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,
2 And desired of him letters to Da-mas'cus to the synagogues, that if he found any †of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Je-ru'sa-lem.
3 And [b]as he journeyed, he came near Da-mas'cus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven:
4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, [c]why persecutest thou me?
5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: [d]it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.
6 And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, [e]what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.
7 And [f]the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.
8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Da-mas'cus.
9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.
10 ¶ And there was a certain disciple at Da-mas'cus, [g]named An-a-ni'as; and to him said the Lord in a vision, An-a-ni'as. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

26 But an angel of the Lord spake unto Phil'ip, saying, Arise, and go [1]toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Je-ru'sa-lem unto Ga'za: the 27 same is desert. And he arose and went: and behold, a man of E-thi-o'pi-a, a eunuch of great authority under Can'da-ce, queen of the E-thi-o'pi-ans, who was over all her treasure, who had come to Je-ru'sa-lem for to wor-
28 ship; and he was returning and sitting in his chariot,

31 what thou readest? And he said, How can I except some one shall guide me? And he besought Phil'ip 32 to come up and sit with him. Now the place of the scripture which he was reading was this,

He was led as a sheep to the slaughter;
And as a lamb before his shearer is dumb,
So he openeth not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgement was taken away:
His generation who shall declare?
For his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Phil'ip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of him-
35 self, or of some other? And Phil'ip opened his mouth, and beginning from this scripture, preached
36 unto him Jesus. And as they went on the way, they came unto a certain water; and the eunuch saith, Behold, here is water; what doth hinder me
38 to be baptized?[2] And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they both went down into the water, both Phil'ip and the eunuch; and he baptized
39 him. And when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Phil'ip; and the eunuch saw him no more, for he went on his way
40 rejoicing. But Phil'ip was found at A-zo'tus: and passing through he preached the gospel to all the cities, till he came to Cæs-a-re'a.

9 But Saul, yet breathing threatening and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the
2 high priest, and asked of him letters to Da-mas'cus unto the synagogues, that if he found any that were of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring
3 them bound to Je-ru'sa-lem. And as he journeyed, it came to pass that he drew nigh unto Da-mas'cus: and suddenly there shone round about him a light
4 out of heaven: and he fell upon the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest
5 thou me? And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And 6 he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: but rise, and enter into the city, and it shall be told thee
7 what thou must do. And the men that journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing the [3]voice, but
8 beholding no man. And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw nothing; and they led him by the hand, and brought him
9 into Da-mas'cus. And he was three days without sight, and did neither eat nor drink.
10 Now there was a certain disciple at Da-mas'cus, named An-a-ni'as; and the Lord said unto him in a vision, An-a-ni'as. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Ju'das for one called Saul, [h]of Tar'sus: for, behold, he prayeth,
12 And hath seen in a vision a man named An-a-ni'as, coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.
13 Then An-a-ni'as answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, [i]how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Je-ru'sa-lem:
14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all [k]that call on thy name.
15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for [l]he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before [m]the Gentiles, and [n]kings, and the children of Is'ra-el:
16 For [o]I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.
17 [p]And An-a-ni'as went his way, and entered into the house; and [q]putting his hands on him, said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and [r]be filled with the Holy Ghost.
18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.
19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. [s]Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Da-mas'cus.
20 And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, [t]that he is the Son of God.
21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said; [u]Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Je-ru'sa-lem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?
22 But Saul increased the more in strength, [x]and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Da-mas'cus, proving that this is very Christ.

A. D. 37.

23 ¶And after that many days were fulfilled, [y]the Jews took counsel to kill him:
24 [z]But their laying wait was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.
25 Then the disciples took him by night, and [a]let him down by the wall in a basket.
26 [b]And when Saul was come to Je-ru'sa-lem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.
27 [c]But Bar'na-bas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, [d]and how he had preached boldly at Da-mas'cus in the name of Jesus.
28 And [e]he was with them coming in and going out at Je-ru'sa-lem.
29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the [f]Gre'cians: [g]but they went about to slay him.
30 Which, when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Ces-a-re'a, and sent him forth to Tar'sus.
31 [h]Then had the churches rest throughout all Ju-de'a, and Gal'i-lee, and Sa-ma'ri-a, and were edified: and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied.

A. D. 38.

32 ¶And it came to pass, as Pe'ter passed [i]throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lyd'da.
33 And there he found a certain man named E'ne-as, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.
34 And Pe'ter said unto him, E'ne-as, [k]Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.
35 And all that dwelt at Lyd'da and [l]Sa'ron saw him, and [m]turned to the Lord.
36 ¶Now there was at Jop'pa a certain disciple named

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go to the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Ju'das for one named Saul, a man of Tar'-
12 sus: for behold, he prayeth; and he hath seen a man named An-a-ni'as coming in, and laying his hands
13 on him, that he might receive his sight. But An-a-ni'as answered, Lord, I have heard from many of this man, how much evil he did to thy saints at 14 Je-ru'sa-lem: and here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call upon thy name.
15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a [1]chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles and kings, and the children of Is'ra-el:
16 for I will shew him how many things he must suffer
17 for my name's sake. And An-a-ni'as departed, and entered into the house; and laying his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, who appeared unto thee in the way which thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mayest receive thy sight,
18 and be filled with the Holy Ghost. And straightway there fell from his eyes as it were scales, and he received his sight; and he arose and was baptized;
19 and he took food and was strengthened.

And he was certain days with the disciples which 20 were at Da-mas'cus. And straightway in the synagogues he proclaimed Jesus, that he is the Son of 21 God. And all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this he that in Je-ru'sa-lem made havock of them which called on this name? and he had come hither for this intent, that he might bring them
22 bound before the chief priests. But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Da-mas'cus, proving that this is the Christ.
23 And when many days were fulfilled, the Jews took 24 counsel together to kill him: but their plot became known to Saul. And they watched the gates also 25 day and night that they might kill him: but his disciples took him by night, and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket.
26 And when he was come to Je-ru'sa-lem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: and they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple.
27 But Bar'na-bas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how at Da-mas'cus he had preached boldly in 28 the name of Jesus. And he was with them going in 29 and going out at Je-ru'sa-lem, preaching boldly in the name of the Lord: and he spake and disputed against the [2]Gre'cian Jews; but they went about to 30 kill him. And when the brethren knew it, they brought him down to Cæs-a-re'a, and sent him forth to Tar'sus.
31 So the church throughout all Ju-dæ'a and Gal'i-lee and Sa-ma'ri-a had peace, being [3]edified; and, walking [4]in the fear of the Lord and [4]in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, was multiplied.
32 And it came to pass, as Pe'ter went throughout all parts, he came down also to the saints which dwelt 33 at Lyd'da. And there he found a certain man named Æ'ne-as, which had kept his bed eight years; for he 34 was palsied. And Pe'ter said unto him, Æ'ne-as, Jesus Christ healeth thee: arise, and make thy bed. And 35 straightway he arose. And all that dwelt at Lyd'da and in Shar'on saw him, and they turned to the Lord.
36 Now there was at Jop'pa a certain disciple named

CHAPTER X.

Cornelius sendeth for Peter.

THERE was a certain man in Ces-a-re'a, called Cor-ne'li-us, a centurion of the band called the I-tal'ian band,
2 [a]A devout man, and one that [b]feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God always.
3 [c]He saw in a vision evidently, about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cor-ne'li-us.
4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.
5 And now send men to Jop'pa, and call for one Si'mon, whose surname is Pe'ter:
6 He lodgeth with one [d]Si'mon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: [e]he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.
7 And when the angel which spake unto Cor-ne'li-us was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;
8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Jop'pa.
9 ¶On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, [f]Pe'ter went up upon the housetop to pray about the sixth hour:
10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance,
11 And [g]saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth:
12 Wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.
13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Pe'ter; kill, and eat.
14 But Pe'ter said, Not so, Lord; [h]for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.
15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, [i]What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.
16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.
17 Now while Pe'ter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cor-ne'li-us had made inquiry for Si'mon's house, and stood before the gate,
18 And called, and asked whether Si'mon, which was surnamed Pe'ter, were lodged there.
19 ¶While Pe'ter thought on the vision, [k]the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

20 [l]Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

21 Then Pe'ter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cor-ne'li-us; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, [m]Cor-ne'li-us the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and [n]of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by a holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Pe'ter went away with them, [o]and certain brethren from Jop'pa accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entered into Ces-a-re'a. And Cor-ne'li-us waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends.

25 And as Pe'ter was coming in, Cor-ne'li-us met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Pe'ter took him up, saying, [p]Stand up: I myself also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how [q]that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but [r]God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me?

30 And Cor-ne'li-us said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, [s]a man stood before me [t]in bright clothing,

31 And said, Cor-ne'li-us, [u]thy prayer is heard, [z]and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Jop'pa, and call hither Si'mon, whose surname is Pe'ter; he is lodged in the house of one Si'mon a tanner by the sea side: who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 ¶Then Pe'ter opened his mouth, and said, [v]Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:

on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Pe'ter, 47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost [f]as well as we?

48 [u]And he commanded them to be baptized [z]in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

CHAPTER XI.

Peter maketh his defence.

AND the apostles and brethren that were in Ju-de'a, heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

2 And when Pe'ter was come up to Je-ru'sa-lem, [a]they that were of the circumcision contended with him,

3 Saying, [b]Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, [c]and didst eat with them.

4 But Pe'ter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it [d]by order unto them, saying,

5 [e]I was in the city of Jop'pa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me:

6 Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Pe'ter; slay, and eat.

8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Ces-a-re'a unto me.

12 And [f]the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover [g]these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house:

13 [h]And he showed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Jop'pa, and call for Si'mon, whose surname is Pe'ter;

14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, [i]as on us at the beginning.

16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, [k]John indeed baptized with water; but [l]ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

17 [m]Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, [n]what was I, that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, [o]Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life.

19 ¶ [p]Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Ste'phen travelled as far as Phe-ni'ce, and Cy'prus, and An'ti-och, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.

20 And some of them were men of Cy'prus and Cy-re'ne, which, when they were come to An'ti-och, spake unto [q]the Gre'cians, preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And [r]the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and [s]turned unto the Lord.

22 ¶ Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Je-ru'sa-lem: and they sent forth [t]Bar'na-bas, that he should go as far as An'ti-och.

23 Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and [u]exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the 46 Holy Ghost. For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Pe'ter, 47 Can any man forbid the water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as 48 well as we? And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

11 Now the apostles and the brethren that were in Ju-dæ'a heard that the Gentiles also had received the
2 word of God. And when Pe'ter was come up to Je-ru'sa-lem, they that were of the circumcision con-
3 tended with him, saying, Thou wentest in to men
4 uncircumcised, and didst eat with them. But Pe'ter began, and expounded the matter unto them in order,
5 saying, I was in the city of Jop'pa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, a certain vessel descending, as it were a great sheet let down from heaven
6 by four corners; and it came even unto me: upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw the fourfooted beasts of the earth and wild beasts and creeping things and fowls
7 of the heaven. And I heard also a voice say-
8 ing unto me, Rise, Pe'ter; kill and eat. But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath 9 ever entered into my mouth. But a voice answered the second time out of heaven, What God hath 10 cleansed, make not thou common. And this was done thrice: and all were drawn up again into 11 heaven. And behold, forthwith three men stood before the house in which we were, having been sent 12 from Cæs-a-re'a unto me. And the Spirit bade me go with them, making no distinction. And these six brethren also accompanied me; and we entered into 13 the man's house: and he told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house, and saying, Send to Jop'pa, and fetch Si'mon, whose surname is Pe'ter;
14 who shall speak unto thee words, whereby thou shalt
15 be saved, thou and all thy house. And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, even as on 16 us at the beginning. And I remembered the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized [1]with the Holy 17 Ghost. If then God gave unto them the like gift as he did also unto us, when we believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, that I could with-18 stand God? And when they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then to the Gentiles also hath God granted repentance unto life.

19 They therefore that were scattered abroad upon the tribulation that arose about Ste'phen travelled as far as Phœ-ni'ci-a, and Cy'prus, and An'ti-och, speaking
20 the word to none save only to Jews. But there were some of them, men of Cy'prus and Cy-re'ne, who, when they were come to An'ti-och, spake unto 21 the [2]Greeks also, preaching the Lord Jesus. And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great
22 number that believed turned unto the Lord. And the report concerning them came to the ears of the church which was in Je-ru'sa-lem: and they sent 23 forth Bar'na-bas as far as An'ti-och: who, when he was come, and had seen the grace of God, was glad; and he exhorted them all, [3]that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord:

CHAPTER XII.

Herod persecuteth the Christians.

A. D. 44.

NOW about that time, Her'od the king ||stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church.
2 And he killed James [a]the brother of John with the sword.
3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Pe'ter also. (Then were [b]the days of unleavened bread.)
4 And [c]when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.
5 Pe'ter therefore was kept in prison: but ||prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.
6 And when Her'od would have brought him forth, the same night Pe'ter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.
7 And, behold, [d]the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Pe'ter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.
8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals: and so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.
9 And he went out, and followed him; and [e]wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought [f]he saw a vision.
10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; [g]which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.
11 And when Pe'ter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that [h]the Lord hath sent his angel, and [i]hath delivered me out of the hand of Her'od, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.
12 And when he had considered the thing, [k]he came to the house of Ma'ry the mother of [l]John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together [m]praying.
13 And as Pe'ter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came ||to hearken, named Rho'da.
14 And when she knew Pe'ter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Pe'ter stood before the gate.
15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, [n]It is his angel.
16 But Pe'ter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.
17 But he, [o]beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

CHAPTER XIII.

Paul and Barnabas sent to the Gentiles.

A. D. 45.

NOW there were [a]in the church that was at An'ti-och certain prophets and teachers; as [b]Bar'na-bas, and Sim'e-on that was called Ni'ger, and [c]Lu'ci-us, of Cy-re'ne, and Man'a-en, ||which had been brought up with Her'od the tetrarch, and Saul.
2 As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, [d]Separate me Bar'na-bas and Saul for the work [e]whereunto I have called them.
3 And [f]when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.
4 ¶So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Se-leu'ci-a; and from thence they sailed to [g]Cy'prus.
5 And when they were at Sal'a-mis, [h]they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also [i]John to their minister.
6 And when they had gone through the isle unto Pa'phos, they found [k]a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-je'sus:
7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Ser'gi-us Pau'lus, a prudent man; who called for Bar'na-bas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.
8 But [l]El'y-mas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.
9 Then Saul, (who also is called Paul,) [m]filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,
10 And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, [n]thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?
11 And now, behold, [o]the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.
12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.
13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from Pa'phos, they came to Per'ga in Pam-phyl'i-a: and [p]John departing from them returned to Je-ru'sa-lem.
14 ¶But when they departed from Per'ga, they came to An'ti-och in Pi-sid'i-a, and [q]went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down.
15 And [r]after the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have [s]any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

6 And when they had gone through the whole island unto Pa'phos, they found a certain [4]sorcerer, a false
7 prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-Je'sus; which was with the proconsul Ser'gi-us Pau'lus, a man of understanding. The same called unto him Bar'na-bas

9 proconsul from the faith. But Saul, who is also called Paul, filled with the Holy Ghost, fastened his 10 eyes on him, and said, O full of all guile and all villany, thou son of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right

16 Then Paul stood up, and [f]beckoning with his hand, said, Men of Is'ra-el, and [u]ye that fear God, give audience.
17 The God of this people of Is'ra-el [z]chose our fathers, and exalted the people [y]when they dwelt as strangers in the land of E'gypt, [z]and with a high arm brought he them out of it.
18 And [a]about the time of forty years †suffered he their manners in the wilderness.
19 And when [b]he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Cha'naan, [c]he divided their land to them by lot.
20 And after that [d]he gave unto them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, [e]until Sam'u-el the prophet.
21 [f]And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Ben'-ja-min, by the space of forty years.
22 And [g]when he had removed him, [h]he raised up unto them Da'vid to be their king: to whom also he gave testimony, and said, [i]I have found Da'vid the son of Jes'se, [k]a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.
23 [l]Of this man's seed hath God, according [m]to his promise, raised unto Is'ra-el [n]a Saviour, Jesus:
24 [o]When John had first preached before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Is'ra-el.
25 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, [p]Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose.
26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of A'bra-ham, and whosoever among you feareth God, [q]to you is the word of this salvation sent.
27 For they that dwell at Je-ru'salem, and their rulers, [r]because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets [s]which are read every sabbath day, [t]they have fulfilled them in condemning him.
28 [u]And though they found no cause of death in him, [z]yet desired they Pi'late that he should be slain.
29 [y]And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, [z]they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.
30 [a]But God raised him from the dead:
31 And [b]he was seen many days of them which came up with him [c]from Gal'i-lee to Je-ru'sa-lem, [d]who are his witnesses unto the people.
32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that [e]the promise which was made unto the fathers,
33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again: as it is also written in the second psalm, [f]Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.
34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, [g]I will give you the sure †mercies of Da'vid.
35 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, [k]Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.
36 For Da'vid, ‖after he had served his own generation by the will of God, [i]fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:
37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.
38 ¶Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that [k]through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins;
39 And [l]by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Mo'ses.
40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in [m]the prophets;
41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.
42 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them †the next sabbath.
43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and 16 And Paul stood up, and beckoning with the hand said,

Men of Is'ra-el, and ye that fear God, hearken.
17 The God of this people Is'ra-el chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they sojourned in the land of E'gypt, and with a high arm led he them forth out
18 of it. And for about the time of forty years [1]suffered
19 he their manners in the wilderness. And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Ca'naan, he gave them their land for an inheritance, for about 20 four hundred and fifty years: and after these things
21 he gave them judges until Sam'u-el the prophet. And afterward they asked for a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of 22 Ben'ja-min, for the space of forty years. And when he had removed him, he raised up Da'vid to be their king; to whom also he bare witness, and said, I have found Da'vid the son of Jes'se, a man after my heart,
23 who shall do all my [2]will. Of this man's seed hath God according to promise brought unto Is'ra-el a 24 Saviour, Jesus; when John had first preached [3]before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the 25 people of Is'ra-el. And as John was fulfilling his course, he said, What suppose ye that I am? I am not he. But behold, there cometh one after me, the shoes of whose feet I am not worthy to unloose.
26 Brethren, children of the stock of A'bra-ham, and those among you that fear God, to us is the word of 27 this salvation sent forth. For they that dwell in Je-ru'sa-lem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath, fulfilled them by condemning him.
28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet asked they of Pi'late that he should be slain.
29 And when they had fulfilled all things that were written of him, they took him down from the tree, 30 and laid him in a tomb. But God raised him from 31 the dead: and he was seen for many days of them that came up with him from Gal'i-lee to Je-ru'sa-lem, 32 who are now his witnessess unto the people. And we bring you good tidings of the promise made unto 33 the fathers, how that God hath fulfilled the same unto our children, in that he raised up Jesus; as also it is written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son,
34 this day have I begotten thee. And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he hath spoken on this wise, I will give you the holy and sure blessings of Da'vid.
35 Because he saith also in another psalm, Thou wilt
36 not give thy Holy One to see corruption. For Da'vid, after he had [4]in his own generation served the counsel of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, 37 and saw corruption: but he whom God raised up saw 38 no corruption. Be it known unto you therefore, brethren, that through this man is proclaimed unto 39 you remission of sins: and by him every one that believeth is justified from all things, from which ye 40 could not be justified by the law of Mo'ses. Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken in the prophets;
41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and [5]perish;
For I work a work in your days,
A work which ye shall in no wise believe, if one declare it unto you.
42 And as they went out, they besought that these words might be spoken to them the next sabbath.
43 Now when the synagogue broke up, many of the Jews and of the devout proselytes followed Paul and 45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and [p]spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

46 Then Paul and Bar'na-bas waxed bold, and said, [q]It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but [r]seeing you put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, [s]we turn to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, [t]I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and [u]as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and [x]raised persecution against Paul and Bar'na-bas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

51 [y]But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto I-co'ni-um.

CHAPTER XIV.

Paul and Barnabas are persecuted.

A. D. 46.

AND it came to pass in I-co'ni-um, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed.

2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, [a]which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the [b]apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, [c]to use them despitefully, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and [d]fled unto Lys'tra and Der'be, cities of Ly-ca-o'ni-a, and unto the region that lieth round about:

7 And there they preached the gospel.

8 ¶[e]And there sat a certain man at Lys'tra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked.

9 The same heard Paul speak: who steadfastly beholding him, and [f]perceiving that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, [g]Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Ly-ca-o'ni-a, The [h]gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Bar'na-bas, Ju'pi-ter; and Paul, Mercu'ri-us, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Ju'pi-ter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, [i]and would have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the apostles, Bar'na-bas and Paul, heard of, [k]they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, [l]why do ye these things? [m]We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you, that ye should turn from [n]these vanities [o]unto the living God, [p]which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

45 gathered together to hear the word of [1]God. But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things which 46 were spoken by Paul, and [2]blasphemed. And Paul and Bar'na-bas spake out boldly, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first be spoken to you. Seeing ye thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, lo, we 47 turn to the Gentiles. For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying,

I have set thee for a light of the Gentiles,
That thou shouldest be for salvation unto the uttermost part of the earth.

48 And as the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of [1]God: and as many as were 49 ordained to eternal life believed. And the word of the Lord was spread abroad throughout all the 50 region. But the Jews urged on the devout women of honourable estate, and the chief men of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Paul and Bar-
51 na-bas, and cast them out of their borders. But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and 52 came unto I-co'ni-um. And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Ghost.

14 And it came to pass in I-co'ni-um, that they entered together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of Jews and of
2 Greeks believed. But the Jews that were disobedient stirred up the souls of the Gentiles, and made
3 them evil affected against the brethren. Long time therefore they tarried there, speaking boldly in the Lord, which bare witness unto the word of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be done by their 4 hands. But the multitude of the city was divided; and part held with the Jews, and part with the apos-
5 tles. And when there was made an onset both of the Gentiles and of the Jews with their rulers, to 6 entreat them shamefully, and to stone them, they became aware of it, and fled unto the cities of Ly-ca-o'ni-a, Lys'tra, and Der'be, and the region round
7 about: and there they preached the gospel.
8 And at Lys'tra there sat a certain man, impotent in his feet, a cripple from his mother's womb, 9 who never had walked. The same heard Paul speaking: who, fastening his eyes upon him, and 10 seeing that he had faith to be [3]made whole, said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet.
11 And he leaped up and walked. And when the multitudes saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voice, saying in the speech of Ly-ca-o'ni-a, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

14 would have done sacrifice with the multitudes. But when the apostles, Bar'na-bas and Paul, heard of it, they rent their garments, and sprang forth among 15 the multitude, crying out and saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like [6]passions with you, and bring you good tidings, that ye should turn from these vain things unto the living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea, and 19 ¶ [t]And there came thither certain Jews from An'ti-och, and I-co'ni-um, who persuaded the people, [u]and, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Bar'na-bas to Der'be.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, [x]and †had taught many, they returned again to Lys'tra, and to I-co'ni-um, and An'ti-och,

22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and [y]exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that [z]we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had [a]ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pi-sid'i-a, they came to Pam-phyl'i-a.

25 And when they had preached the word in Per'ga, they went down into At-ta'li-a:

26 And thence sailed to An'ti-och, [b]from whence they had been [c]recommended to the grace of God, for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, [d]they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had [e]opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles.

28 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

CHAPTER XV.

Dissension about circumcision.

AND [a]certain men which came down from Ju-de'a taught the brethren, and said, [b]Except ye be circumcised [c]after the manner of Mo'ses, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paul and Bar'na-bas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that [d]Paul and Bar'na-bas, and certain other of them, should go up to Je-ru'sa-lem unto the apostles and elders about this question.

3 And [e]being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phe-ni'ce and Sa-ma'ri-a, [f]declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Je-ru'sa-lem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and [g]they declared all things that God had done with them.

5 But there ‖ rose up certain of the sect of the Phar'i-sees, which believed, saying, [h]That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Mo'ses.

6 ¶ And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Pe'ter rose up and said unto them, [i]Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

8 And God, [k]which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, [l]giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us;

9 [m]And put no difference between us and them, [n]purifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, [o]to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But [p]we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they.

17 And yet he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave you from heaven rains and fruitful seasons, filling your hearts with food and 18 gladness. And with these sayings scarce restrained they the multitudes from doing sacrifice unto them.
19 But there came Jews thither from An'ti-och and I-co'ni-um: and having persuaded the multitudes, they stoned Paul, and dragged him out of the city, sup-
20 posing that he was dead. But as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and entered into the city: and on the morrow he went forth with Bar'na-
21 bas to Der'be. And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had made many disciples, they returned to Lys'tra, and to I-co'ni-um, and to 22 An'ti-och, confirming the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that through many tribulations we must enter into the 23 kingdom of God. And when they had appointed for them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on 24 whom they had believed. And they passed through 25 Pi-sid'i-a, and came to Pam-phyl'i-a. And when they had spoken the word in Per'ga, they went down to 26 At-ta'li-a; and thence they sailed to An'ti-och, from whence they had been committed to the grace of 27 God for the work which they had fulfilled. And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all things that God had done with them, and how that he had opened a 28 door of faith unto the Gentiles. And they tarried no little time with the disciples.

15 And certain men came down from Ju-dæ'a and taught the brethren, saying, Except ye be circumcised after the custom of Mo'ses, ye cannot be saved.
2 And when Paul and Bar'na-bas had no small dissension and questioning with them, the brethren appointed that Paul and Bar'na-bas, and certain other of them, should go up to Je-ru'sa-lem unto the apostles
3 and elders about this question. They therefore, being brought on their way by the church, passed through both Phœ-ni'ci-a and Sa-ma'ri-a, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great
4 joy unto all the brethren. And when they were come to Je-ru'sa-lem, they were received of the church and the apostles and the elders, and they rehearsed
5 all things that God had done with them. But there rose up certain of the sect of the Phar'i-sees who believed, saying, It is needful to circumcise them, and to charge them to keep the law of Mo'ses.
6 And the apostles and the elders were gathered
7 together to consider of this matter. And when there had been much questioning, Pe'ter rose up, and said unto them,

Brethren, ye know how that [1]a good while ago God made choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel, and 8 believe. And God, which knoweth the heart, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as 9 he did unto us; and he made no distinction between 10 us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith. Now therefore why tempt ye God, that ye should put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither 11 our fathers nor we were able to bear? But we believe that we shall be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, in like manner as they.

12 ¶Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Bar'na-bas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had [q]wrought among the Gentiles by them.

13 ¶And after they had held their peace, [r]James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me.

14 [s]Si'me-on hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name.

15 And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written,

16 [t]After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of Da'vid, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up:

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things.

18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world.

19 Wherefore [u]my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles [z]are turned to God:

20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain [v]from pollutions of idols, and [z]from fornication, and from things strangled, [a]and from blood.

21 For Mo'ses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, [b]being read in the synagogues every sabbath day.

22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to An'ti-och, with Paul and Bar'na-bas; namely, Ju'das surnamed [c]Bar'sa-bas, and Si'las, chief men among the brethren:

23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in An'ti-och, and Syr'i-a, and Ci-li'ci-a:

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that [d]certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law; to whom we gave no such commandment:

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Bar'na-bas and Paul,

26 [e]Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Ju'das and Si'las, who shall also tell you the same things by †mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

29 [f]That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and [g]from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to An'ti-och: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:

31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the ‖ consolation.

32 And Ju'das and Si'las, being prophets also themselves, [h]exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let [i]go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles.

34 Notwithstanding it pleased Si'las to abide there still.

35 [k]Paul also and Bar'na-bas continued in An'ti-och, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

A. D. 53.

36 ¶And some days after, Paul said unto Bar'na-bas, Let us go again and visit our brethren [l]in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Bar'na-bas determined to take with them [m]John, whose surname was Mark.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, [n]who departed from them from Pam-phyl'i-a, and went not with them to the work.

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that

12 And all the multitude kept silence; and they hearkened unto Bar'na-bas and Paul rehearsing what signs and wonders God had wrought among the 13 Gentiles by them. And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying, 14 Brethren, hearken unto me: Sym'e-on hath rehearsed how first God did visit the Gentiles, to take 15 out of them a people for his name. And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written,
16 After these things I will return,
And I will build again the tabernacle of Da'vid, which is fallen;
And I will build again the ruins thereof,
And I will set it up:
17 That the residue of men may seek after the Lord,
And all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called,
18 Saith the Lord, [1]who maketh these things known from the beginning of the world.
19 Wherefore my judgement is, that we trouble not them
20 which from among the Gentiles turn to God; but that we [2]write unto them, that they abstain from the pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from 21 what is strangled, and from blood. For Mo'ses from generations of old hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath.
22 Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose men out of their company, and send them to An'ti-och with Paul and Bar'na-bas; namely, Ju'das called Bar-sab'bas,
23 and Si'las, chief men among the brethren: and they wrote thus by them, The apostles and the elder brethren unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in An'ti-och and Syr'i-a and Ci-li'ci-a, greeting:
24 Forasmuch as we have heard that certain [3]which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls; to whom we gave no com-
25 mandment; it seemed good unto us, having come to one accord, to choose out men and send them
26 unto you with our beloved Bar'na-bas and Paul, men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our 27 Lord Jesus Christ. We have sent therefore Ju'das and Si'las, who themselves also shall tell you the 28 same things by word of mouth. For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;
29 that ye abstain from things sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication; from which if ye keep yourselves, it shall be well with you. Fare ye well.
30 So they, when they were dismissed, came down to An'ti-och; and having gathered the multitude to-31 gether, they delivered the epistle. And when they 32 had read it, they rejoiced for the [4]consolation. And Ju'das and Si'las, being themselves also prophets, [5]exhorted the brethren with many words, and con-
33 firmed them. And after they had spent some time there, they were dismissed in peace from the brethren
35 unto those that had sent them forth[6]. But Paul and Bar'na-bas tarried in An'ti-och, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.
36 And after some days Paul said unto Bar'na-bas, Let us return now and visit the brethren in every city wherein we proclaimed the word of 37 the Lord, and see how they fare. And Bar'na-bas was minded to take with them John also, who 38 was called Mark. But Paul thought not good to take with them him who withdrew from them from Pam-phyl'i-a, and went not with them to the 39 work. And there arose a sharp contention, so that

THEN came he to [a] Der'be and Lys'tra: and, behold, a certain disciple was there, [b] named Ti-mo'the-us, [c] the son of a certain woman which was a Jew'ess, and believed; but his father was a Greek:

2 Which [d] was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lys'tra and I-co'ni-um.

3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and [e] took and circumcised him, because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, [f] that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Je-ru'sa-lem.

5 And [g] so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phryg'i-a, and the region of Ga-la'ti-a, and were forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in A'si-a,

7 After they were come to Mys'i-a, they assayed to go into Bi-thyn'i-a: but the Spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passing by Mys'i-a [h] came down to Tro'as.

9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a [i] man of Mac-e-do'ni-a, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Mac-e-do'ni-a, and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go [k] into Mac-e-do'ni-a, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

11 Therefore loosing from Tro'as, we came with a straight course to Sam-o-thra'ci-a, and the next day to Ne-ap'o-lis;

12 And from thence to [l] Phi-lip'pi, which is ‖ the chief city of that part of Mac-e-do'ni-a, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

13 And on the †sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 And a certain woman named Lyd'i-a, a seller of purple, of the city of Thy-a-ti'ra, which worshipped God, heard us: whose [m] heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And [n] she constrained us.

16 ¶And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel [o] possessed with a spirit ‖ of divination met us, which brought her masters [p] much gain by soothsaying:

17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many days. But Paul, [q] being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. [r] And he came out the same hour.

19 ¶And [s] when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, [t] they caught Paul and Si'las, and [u] drew them into the ‖ marketplace unto the rulers,

20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, [x] do exceedingly trouble our city,

21 And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Ro'mans.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them; and they parted asunder one from the other, and Bar'na-bas took Mark with him, and sailed away unto Cy'- 40 prus; but Paul chose Si'las, and went forth, being commended by the brethren to the grace of the 41 Lord. And he went through Syr'i-a and Ci-li'ci-a, confirming the churches.

A. D. 53.

16 And he came also to Der'be and to Lys'tra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, named Tim'o-thy, the son of a Jew'ess which believed; but his father
2 was a Greek. The same was well reported of by the 3 brethren that were at Lys'tra and I-co'ni-um. Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and he took and circumcised him because of the Jews that were in those parts: for they all knew that his father was a Greek.
4 And as they went on their way through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, which had been ordained of the apostles and elders that 5 were at Je-ru'sa-lem. So the churches were strengthened in the faith, and increased in number daily.
6 And they went through the region of Phryg'i-a and Ga-la'ti-a, having been forbidden of the Holy Ghost
7 to speak the word in A'si-a; and when they were come over against Mys'i-a, they assayed to go into Bi-thyn'i-a;
8 and the Spirit of Jesus suffered them not; and pass-
9 ing by Mys'i-a, they came down to Tro'as. And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There was a man of Mac-e-do'ni-a standing, beseeching him, and say-
10 ing, Come over into Mac-e-do'ni-a, and help us. And when he had seen the vision, straightway we sought to go forth into Mac-e-do'ni-a, concluding that God had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.
11 Setting sail therefore from Tro'as, we made a straight course to Sam-o-thra'ce, and the day follow-
12 ing to Ne-ap'o-lis; and from thence to Phi-lip'pi, which is a city of Mac-e-do'ni-a, the first of the district, a Ro'man colony: and we were in this city tarrying
13 certain days. And on the sabbath day we went forth without the gate by a river side, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and spake unto the women which were come
14 together. And a certain woman named Lyd'i-a, a seller of purple, of the city of Thy-a-ti'ra, one that worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, to give heed unto the things which were 15 spoken by Paul. And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.
16 And it came to pass, as we were going to the place of prayer, that a certain maid having [1] a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters
17 much gain by soothsaying. The same following after Paul and us cried out, saying, These men are [2] servants of the Most High God, which proclaim 18 unto you [3] the way of salvation. And this she did for many days. But Paul, being sore troubled, turned and said to the spirit, I charge thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And it came out that very hour.
19 But when her masters saw that the hope of their gain was [4] gone, they laid hold on Paul and Si'las, and dragged them into the marketplace before
20 the rulers, and when they had brought them unto the [5] magistrates, they said, These men, being 21 Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city, and set forth customs which it is not lawful for us to re-
22 ceive, or to observe, being Ro'mans. And the multitude rose up together against them: and

23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailer to keep them safely:

24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.

25 ¶And at midnight Paul and Si'las prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 [z]And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately [a]all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Si'las,

30 And brought them out, and said, [b]Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, [c]Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, [d]he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the serjeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, [e]being Ro'mans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

38 And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Ro'mans.

CHAPTER XVII.

Paul preacheth at Thessalonica.

NOW when they had passed through Am-phip'o-lis and Ap-ol-lo'ni-a, they came to Thes-sa-lo-ni'ca, where was a synagogue of the Jews:

2 And Paul, as his manner was, [a]went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the Scriptures,

3 Opening and alleging, [b]that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, || whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 [c]And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and [d]Si'las; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 ¶But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of [e]Ja'son, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Ja'son and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, [f]These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also;

7 Whom Ja'son hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Ce'sar, [g]saying that there is another king, one Jesus.

15 Tim'o-thy abode there still. But they that conducted Paul brought him as far as Ath'ens: and receiving a commandment unto Si'las and Tim'o-thy that they should come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Ath'ens, his spirit was provoked within him, as he beheld the 17 city full of idols. So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with them that met with him.
18 And certain also of the Ep-i-cu-re'an and Sto'ic philosophers encountered him. And some said, What would this babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange [1]gods: because he preached Jesus
19 and the resurrection. And they took hold of him, and brought him [2]unto [3]the A-re-op'a-gus, saying, May we know what this new teaching is, which is spoken
20 by thee? For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things
21 mean. (Now all the A-the'ni-ans and the strangers sojourning there [4]spent their time in nothing else, 22 but either to tell or to hear some new thing.) And Paul stood in the midst of the A-re-op'a-gus, and said,

Ye men of Ath'ens, in all things I perceive that ye 23 are somewhat [5]superstitious. For as I passed along, and observed the objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription, [6]TO AN UNKNOWN GOD. What therefore ye worship in ignorance, this 24 set I forth unto you. The God that made the world and all things therein, he, being Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in [7]temples made with hands;
25 neither is he served by men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he himself giveth to all life,
26 and breath, and all things; and he made of one every nation of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, having determined their appointed sea-
27 sons, and the bounds of their habitation; that they should seek God, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he is not far from each one of 28 us: for in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain even of your own poets have said,
29 For we are also his offspring. Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that [8]the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven
30 by art and device of man. The times of ignorance therefore God overlooked; but now he [9]commandeth 31 men that they should all everywhere repent: inasmuch as he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge [10]the world in righteousness [11]by [12]the man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

CHAPTER XVIII.

Paul accused before Gallio.

A. D. 55.

AFTER these things Paul departed from Ath'ens, and came to Cor'inth;

[a]Rom. 16. 3. 1Cor. 16. 19. 2 Tim. 4. 19.

2 And found a certain Jew named [a]Aq'ui-la, born in Pon'tus, lately come from It'a-ly, with his wife Pris-cil'la, (because that Clau'di-us had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome,) and came unto them.

5 And [d]when Si'las and Ti-mo'the-us were come from Mac-e-do'ni-a, Paul was [e]pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus ‖was Christ.

6 And [f]when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, [g]he shook his raiment, and said unto them, [h]Your blood be upon your own heads; [i]I am clean: [k]from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.

7 ¶And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house named Jus'tus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.

8 [l]And Cris'pus, the chief ruler of the synagogue believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Co-rin'thi-ans hearing believed, and were baptized.

11 And he †continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 ¶And when Gal'li-o was the deputy of A-cha'ia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat, 13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gal'li-o said unto the Jews, [o]If it were a matter of wrong, or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you:

15 But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.

17 Then all the Greeks took [p]Sos'the-nes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gal'li-o cared for none of those things.

18 ¶And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syr'i-a, and with him Pris-cil'la, and Aq'ui-la; having [q]shorn his head in [r]Cen'chre-a: for he had a vow.

19 And he came to Eph'e-sus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not;

21 But bade them farewell, saying, [s]I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Je-ru'sa-lem: but I will return again unto you, [t]if God will. And he sailed from Eph'e-sus.

22 And when he had landed at Ces-a-re'a, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to An'ti-och.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of [u]Ga-la'ti-a and Phryg'i-a in order, [x]strengthening all the disciples.

32 Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, We will hear
33 thee concerning this yet again. Thus Paul went 34 out from among them. But certain men clave unto him, and believed: among whom also was Di-o-ny'si-us the A-re-op'a-gite, and a woman named Dam'a-ris, and others with them.

A. D. 54.

18 After these things he departed from Ath'ens, and
2 came to Cor'inth. And he found a certain Jew named Aq'ui-la, a man of Pon'tus by race, lately come from It'a-ly, with his wife Pris-cil'la, because Clau'di-us had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome:
3 and he came unto them; and because he was of the same trade, he abode with them, and they wrought;

5 But when Si'las and Tim'o-thy came down from Mac-e-do'ni-a, Paul was constrained by the word,

12 But when Gal'li-o was proconsul of A-cha'ia, the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul, and 13 brought him before the judgement-seat, saying, This man persuadeth men to worship God contrary
14 to the law. But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gal'li-o said unto the Jews, If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of wicked villany, O ye Jews,
15 reason would that I should bear with you: but if they are questions about words and names and your own law, look to it yourselves; I am not minded
16 to be a judge of these matters. And he drave them
17 from the judgement-seat. And they all laid hold on Sos'the-nes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgement-seat. And Gal'li-o cared for none of these things.
18 And Paul having tarried after this yet many days, took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence for Syr'i-a, and with him Pris-cil'la and Aq'ui-la; having shorn his head in Cen'chre-æ: for he had a vow.
19 And they came to Eph'e-sus, and he left them there:
20 but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews. And when they asked him
21 to abide a longer time, he consented not; but taking his leave of them, and saying, I will return again unto you, if God will, he set sail from Eph'e-sus.
22 And when he had landed at Cæs-a-re'a, he went up and saluted the church, and went down to An'ti-och.
23 And having spent some time there, he departed, and went through the region of Ga-la'ti-a and Phryg'i-a in order, stablishing all the disciples.

A. D. 55.

24 ¶ [v]And a certain Jew named Apol'los, born at Al-ex-an'dri-a, an eloquent man, and mighty in the Scriptures, came to Eph'e-sus.

25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being [x]fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, [a]knowing only the baptism of John.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aq'ui-la and Pris-cil'la had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into A-cha'ia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, [b]helped them much which had believed through grace:

28 For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publicly, [c]shewing by the Scriptures that Jesus || was Christ.

CHAPTER XIX.

The Holy Ghost given.

AND it came to pass, that, while [a]A-pol'los was at Cor'inth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Eph'e-sus; and finding certain disciples,

2 He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, [c]We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, [d]Unto John's baptism.

4 Then said Paul, [e]John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

5 When they heard this, they were baptized [f]in the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had [g]laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and [h]they spake with tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 [i]And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things [k]concerning the kingdom of God.

9 But [l]when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil [m]of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Ty-ran'nus.

A. D. 57.

10 And [n]this continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in A'si-a heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And [o]God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul:

12 [p]So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

13 ¶ [q]Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, [r]took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sce'va a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Eph'e-sus; and [s]fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

18 And many that believed came, and [t]confessed, and shewed their deeds.

19 Many of them also which used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men; and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 [u]So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.

24 Now a certain Jew named A-pol'los, an Al-ex-an'dri-an by race, [1]a learned man, came to Eph'e-sus, and he
25 was mighty in the scriptures. This man had been [2]instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he spake and taught carefully the things concerning Jesus, knowing only the baptism
26 of John: and he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. But when Pris-cil'la and Aq'ui-la heard him, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him
27 the way of God more carefully. And when he was minded to pass over into A-cha'ia, the brethren encouraged him, and wrote to the disciples to receive him: and when he was come, he [3]helped them
28 much which had believed through grace: for he powerfully confuted the Jews, [4]and that publicly, shewing by the scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

19 And it came to pass, that, while A-pol'los was at Cor'inth, Paul having passed through the upper country came to Eph'e-sus, and found certain disciples:
2 and he said unto them, Did ye receive the Holy Ghost when ye believed? And they said unto him, Nay, we did not so much as hear whether [5]the Holy
3 Ghost was given. And he said, Into what then were ye baptized? And they said, Into John's baptism.
4 And Paul said, John baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is,
5 on Jesus. And when they heard this, they were 6 baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues,
7 and prophesied. And they were in all about twelve men.
8 And he entered into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, reasoning and persuading as to the things concerning the kingdom
9 of God. But when some were hardened and disobedient, speaking evil of the Way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Ty-ran'nus.
10 And this continued for the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in A'si-a heard the word of 11 the Lord, both Jews and Greeks. And God wrought
12 special [6]miracles by the hands of Paul: insomuch that unto the sick were carried away from his body handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed
13 from them, and the evil spirits went out. But certain also of the strolling Jews, exorcists, took upon them to name over them which had the evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, I adjure you by 14 Jesus whom Paul preacheth. And there were seven sons of one Sce'va, a Jew, a chief priest, which did 15 this. And the evil spirit answered and said unto them, Jesus I [7]know, and Paul I know; but who are 16 ye? And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and mastered both of them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that 17 house naked and wounded. And this became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, that dwelt at Eph'e-sus; and fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord
18 Jesus was magnified. Many also of them that had believed came, confessing, and declaring their deeds.
19 And not a few of them that practised [8]curious arts brought their books together, and burned them in the sight of all: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.
20 So mightily grew the word of the Lord and prevailed.

21 ¶ [x]After these things were ended, Paul [y]purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Mac-e-do'ni-a and A-cha'ia, to go to Je-ru'-sa-lem, saying, After I have been there [z]I must also see Rome.

22 So he sent into Mac-e-do'ni-a two of [a]them that ministered unto him, Ti-mo'the-us and [b]E-ras'tus: but he himself stayed in A'si-a for a season.

23 And [c]the same time there arose no small stir about [d]that way.

24 For a certain man named De-me'tri-us, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Di-an'a, brought [e]no small gain unto the craftsmen;

25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Eph'e-sus, but almost throughout all A'si-a, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that [f]they be no gods, which are made with hands:

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at naught; but also that the temple of the great goddess Di-an'a should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all A'si-a and the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Di-an'a of the E-phe'si-ans.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught [g]Ga'ius and [h]Ar-is-tar'chus, men of Mac-e-do'ni-a, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the chief of A'si-a, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Al-ex-an'der out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And [i]Al-ex-an'der [k]beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Di-an'a of the E-phe'si-ans.

35 And when the townclerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Eph'e-sus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the E-phe'si-ans is †a worshipper of the great goddess Di-an'a, and of the image which fell down from Ju'pi-ter?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.

38 Wherefore if De-me'tri-us, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, ||the law is open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another.

39 But if ye inquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a ||lawful assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

AND after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and [a]departed for to go into Mac-e-do'ni-a.

33 wherefore they were come together. [4]And they brought Al-ex-an'der out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Al-ex-an'der beckoned with the hand, and would have made a defence unto 34 the people. But when they perceived that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours
35 cried out, Great is [1]Di-an'a of the E-phe'si-ans. And when the townclerk had quieted the multitude, he saith, Ye men of Eph'e-sus, what man is there who knoweth not how that the city of the E-phe'si-ans is temple-keeper of the great [1]Di-an'a, and of the image
36 which fell down from [5]Ju'pi-ter? Seeing then that these things cannot be gainsaid, ye ought to be 37 quiet, and to do nothing rash. For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of tem-
38 ples nor blasphemers of our goddess. If therefore De-me'tri-us, and the craftsmen that are with him, have a matter against any man, [6]the courts are open, and there are proconsuls: let them accuse one an-39 other. But if ye seek anything about other matters,
40 it shall be settled in the regular assembly. For indeed we are in danger to be [7]accused concerning this day's riot, there being no cause for it: and as touching it we shall not be able to give account of 41 this concourse. And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

20 And after the uproar was ceased, Paul having sent for the disciples and exhorted them, took leave of 2 them, and departed for to go into Mac-e-do'ni-a. And when he had gone through those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece.

3 And there abode three months. And [b]when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syr'i-a, he purposed to return through Mac-e-do'ni-a.

4 And there accompanied him into A'si-a, Sop'a-ter of Be-re'a; and of the Thes-sa-lo'ni-ans, [c]Ar-is-tar'chus and Se-cun'dus; and [d]Ga'ius of Der'be, and [e]Ti-mo'the-us; and of A'si-a, [f]Tych'i-cus and [g]Troph'i-mus.

5 These going before tarried for us at Tro'as.

6 And we sailed away from Phi-lip'pi, after [h]the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them [i]to Tro'as in five days; where we abode seven days.

7 And upon [k]the first day of the week, when the disciples came together [l]to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights [m]in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eu'ty-chus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, and [n]fell on him, and embracing him said, [o]Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 ¶And we went before to ship, and sailed unto As'sos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

14 And when he met with us at As'sos, we took him in, and came to Mit-y-le'ne.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chi'os; and the next day we arrived at Sa'mos, and tarried at Tro-gyl'li-um; and the next day we came to Mi-le'tus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Eph'e-sus, because he would not spend the time in A'si-a: [p]for he hasted, if it were possible for him, [q]to be at Je-ru'sa-lem [r]the day of Pentecost.

17 ¶And from Mi-le'tus he sent to Eph'e-sus, and called the elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, [s]from the first day that I came to A'si-a, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations which befell me [t]by the lying in wait of the Jews:

20 And how [u]I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house,

21 [x]Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, [y]repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 And now, behold, [z]I go bound in the spirit unto Je-ru'sa-lem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

23 Save that [a]the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying, that bonds and afflictions ‖abide me.

24 But [b]none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, [c]so that I might finish my course with joy, [d]and the ministry, [e]which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now, behold, [f]I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am [g]pure from the blood of all men.

27 For [h]I have not shunned to declare unto you all [i]the counsel of God.

28 ¶[k]Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost [l]hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, [m]which he hath purchased [n]with his own blood.

3 And when he had spent three months there, and a plot was laid against him by the Jews, as he was about to set sail for Syr'i-a, he determined to return
4 through Mac-e-do'ni-a. And there accompanied him [1]as far as A'si-a Sop'a-ter of Be-rœ'a, the son of Pyr'rhus; and of the Thes-sa-lo'ni-ans, Ar-is-tar'chus and Se-cun'dus; and Ga'ius of Der'be, and Tim'o-thy; and 5 of A'si-a, Tych'i-cus, and Troph'i-mus. But these [2]had gone before, and were waiting for us at Tro'as.
6 And we sailed away from Phi-lip'pi after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Tro'as in five days; where we tarried seven days.
7 And upon the first day of the week, when we were gathered together to break bread, Paul discoursed with them, intending to depart on the morrow; and prolonged his speech until midnight.
8 And there were many lights in the upper chamber,
9 where we were gathered together. And there sat in the window a certain young man named Eu'ty-chus, borne down with deep sleep; and as Paul discoursed yet longer, being borne down by his sleep he fell down from the third story, and was 10 taken up dead. And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him, said, Make ye no ado; for 11 his life is in him. And when he was gone up, and had broken the bread, and eaten, and had talked with them a long while, even till break of day, so
12 he departed. And they brought the lad alive, and were not a little comforted.
13 But we, going before to the ship, set sail for As'sos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, intending himself to go [3]by land.
14 And when he met us at As'sos, we took him in, and 15 came to Mit-y-le'ne. And sailing from thence, we came the following day over against Chi'os; and the next day we touched at Sa'mos; and [4]the day after we 16 came to Mi-le'tus. For Paul had determined to sail past Eph'e-sus, that he might not have to spend time in A'si-a; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be at Je-ru'sa-lem the day of Pentecost.
17 And from Mi-le'tus he sent to Eph'e-sus, and called 18 to him the [5]elders of the church. And when they were come to him, he said unto them,

Ye yourselves know, from the first day that I set foot in A'si-a, after what manner I was with you all
19 the time, serving the Lord with all lowliness of mind, and with tears, and with trials which befell
20 me by the plots of the Jews: how that I shrank not from declaring unto you anything that was profitable, and teaching you publicly, and from house to 21 house, testifying both to Jews and to Greeks repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord
22 Jesus [6]Christ. And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Je-ru'sa-lem, not knowing the things that 23 shall befall me there: save that the Holy Ghost testifieth unto me in every city, saying that bonds
24 and afflictions abide me. But I hold not my life of any account, as dear unto myself, [7]so that I may accomplish my course, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of 25 the grace of God. And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I went about preaching the king-
26 dom, shall see my face no more. Wherefore I testify unto you this day, that I am pure from the blood of 27 all men. For I shrank not from declaring unto you
28 the whole counsel of God. Take heed unto yourselves, and to all the flock, in the which the Holy Ghost hath made you [8]bishops, to feed the church of [9]God, which he [10]purchased with his own blood.

CHAPTER XXI.

Paul goeth to Jerusalem.

AND it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Co'os, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Pat'a-ra:
2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phe-ni'ci-a, we went aboard, and set forth.
3 Now when we had discovered Cy'prus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syr'i-a, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.
4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: [a]who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Je-ru'sa-lem.
5 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and [b]we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.
6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned [c]home again.
7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptol-e-ma'is, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.
8 And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Ces-a-re'a; and we entered into the house of Phil'ip [d]the evangelist, [e]which was one of the seven; and abode with him.
9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, [f]which did prophesy.
10 And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Ju-de'a a certain prophet, named [g]Ag'a-bus.
11 And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, [h]So shall the Jews at Je-ru'sa-lem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.
12 And when he heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Je-ru'sa-lem.
13 Then Paul answered, [i]What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Je-ru'sa-lem for the name of the Lord Jesus.
14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, [k]The will of the Lord be done.
15 And after those days we took up our carriages, and went up to Je-ru'sa-lem.
16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Ces-a-re'a,

29 I know that after my departing grievous wolves shall 30 enter in among you, not sparing the flock; and from among your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them.
31 Wherefore watch ye, remembering that by the space of three years I ceased not to admonish every one 32 night and day with tears. And now I commend you to [1]God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you the inheritance among 33 all them that are sanctified. I coveted no man's sil-
34 ver, or gold, or apparel. Ye yourselves know that these hands ministered unto my necessities, and to 35 them that were with me. In all things I gave you an example, how that so labouring ye ought to help the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he himself said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.
36 And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down,
37 and prayed with them all. And they all wept sore,
38 and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, sorrowing most of all for the word which he had spoken, that they should behold his face no more. And they brought him on his way unto the ship.

21 And when it came to pass that we were parted from them, and had set sail, we came with a straight course unto Cos, and the next day unto Rhodes, and
2 from thence unto Pat'a-ra: and having found a ship crossing over unto Phœ-ni'ci-a, we went aboard, and
3 set sail. And when we had come in sight of Cy'prus, leaving it on the left hand, we sailed unto Syr'i-a, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her
4 burden. And having found the disciples, we tarried there seven days: and these said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not set foot in Je-ru'sa-lem.
5 And when it came to pass that we had accomplished the days, we departed and went on our journey; and they all, with wives and children, brought us on our way, till we were out of the city: and kneeling down
6 on the beach, we prayed, and bade each other farewell; and we went on board the ship, but they returned home again.
7 And when we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptol-e-ma'is; and we saluted the breth-
8 ren, and abode with them one day. And on the morrow we departed, and came unto Cæs-a-re'a: and entering into the house of Phil'ip the evangelist, who 9 was one of the seven, we abode with him. Now this man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesy.
10 And as we tarried there [2]many days, there came down from Ju-dæ'a a certain prophet, named Ag'a-bus.
11 And coming to us, and taking Paul's girdle, he bound his own feet and hands, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Je-ru'sa-lem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him
12 into the hands of the Gentiles. And when we heard these things, both we and they of that place besought
13 him not to go up to Je-ru'sa-lem. Then Paul answered, What do ye, weeping and breaking my heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at 14 Je-ru'sa-lem for the name of the Lord Jesus. And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.
15 And after these days we [3]took up our bag-
16 gage, and went up to Je-ru'sa-lem. And there went with us also certain of the disciples from Cæs-a-re'a,

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them;

24 Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may [q]shave their heads: and all may know that those things whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

A. D. 60.

17 And when we were come to Je-ru'sa-lem, the brethren received us gladly. And the day following Paul 18 went in with us unto James; and all the elders were 19 present. And when he had saluted them, he rehearsed one by one the things which God had wrought
20 among the Gentiles by his ministry. And they, when they heard it, glorified God; and they said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many [1]thousands there are among the Jews of them which have believed; and 21 they are all zealous for the law: and they have been informed concerning thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Mo'ses, telling them not to circumcise their children, neither 22 to walk after the customs. What is it therefore?
23 they will certainly hear that thou art come. Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men
24 which have a vow on them; these take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges for them, that they may shave their heads: and all shall know that there is no truth in the things whereof they have been informed concerning thee; but that thou thy-
25 self also walkest orderly, keeping the law. But as touching the Gentiles which have believed, we [2]wrote, giving judgement that they should keep themselves from things sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and 26 from what is strangled, and from fornication. Then Paul [3]took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them went into the temple, declaring the fulfilment of the days of purification, until the offering was offered for every one of them.
27 And when the seven days were almost completed, the Jews from A'si-a, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the multitude, and laid hands on 28 him, crying out, Men of Is'ra-el, help: This is the man, that teacheth all men everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place: and moreover he brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath 29 defiled this holy place. For they had before seen with him in the city Troph'i-mus the E-phe'si-an, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.
30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they laid hold on Paul, and dragged him out of the temple: and straightway the doors
31 were shut. And as they were seeking to kill him, tidings came up to the [4]chief captain of the [5]band,
32 that all Je-ru'sa-lem was in confusion. And forthwith he took soldiers and centurions, and ran down upon them: and they, when they saw the chief captain
33 and the soldiers, left off beating Paul. Then the chief captain came near, and laid hold on him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and 34 inquired who he was, and what he had done. And some shouted one thing, some another, among the crowd: and when he could not know the certainty for the uproar, he commanded him to be brought into 35 the castle. And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the vio-
36 lence of the crowd; for the multitude of the people followed after, crying out, Away with him.
37 And as Paul was about to be brought into the castle, he saith unto the chief captain, May I say something unto thee? And he said, Dost thou know
38 Greek? Art thou not then the E-gyp'tian, which before these days stirred up to sedition and led out into the wilderness the four thousand men of the 39 Assassins? But Paul said, I am a Jew, of Tar'sus

CHAPTER XXII.

Paul declareth how he was converted.

MEN, [a]brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence which I make now unto you.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the He'brew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith,)

3 [b]I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tar'sus, a city in Ci-li'ci-a, yet brought up in this city [c]at the feet of [d]Ga-ma'li-el, and taught [e]according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and [f]was zealous toward God, [g]as ye all are this day.

4 [h]And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and [i]all the estate of the elders: [k]from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Da-mas'cus, to bring them, which were there bound unto Je-ru'sa-lem, for to be punished.

6 And [l]it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Da-mas'cus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Naz'a-reth, whom thou persecutest.

9 And [m]they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Da-mas'cus, and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Da-mas'cus.

12 And [n]one An-a-ni'as, a devout man according to the law, [o]having a good report of all the [p]Jews which dwelt there, 13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, [q]The God of our fathers [r]hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and [s]see [t]that Just One, and [u]shouldest hear the voice of his mouth.

15 [x]For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of [y]what thou hast seen and heard.

16 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, [z]and wash away thy sins, [a]calling on the name of the Lord.

17 And [b]it came to pass, that, when I was come again to Je-ru'sa-lem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance;

18 And [c]saw him saying unto me, [d]Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Je-ru'sa-lem; for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, [e]they know that I imprisoned and [f]beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:

20 [g]And when the blood of thy martyr Ste'phen was shed, I also was standing by, and [h]consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart: [i]for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.

22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, [k]Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that [l]he should live.

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air, 24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

22 Brethren and fathers, hear ye the defence which I now make unto you.

2 And when they heard that he spake unto them in the He'brew language, they were the more quiet: and he saith,

3 I am a Jew, born in Tar'sus of Ci-li'ci-a, but brought up in this city, at the feet of Ga-ma'li-el, instructed according to the strict manner of the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, even as ye all are this

5 women. As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and journeyed to Da-mas'cus, to bring them also which were there unto Je-ru'sa-lem in bonds, for to be punished.

12 I came into Da-mas'cus. And one An-a-ni'as, a devout man according to the law, well reported of by all the 13 Jews that dwelt there, came unto me, and standing by me said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight.
14 And in that very hour I [1]looked up on him. And he said, The God of our fathers hath appointed thee to know his will, and to see the Righteous One, and 15 to hear a voice from his mouth. For thou shalt be a witness for him unto all men of what thou hast 16 seen and heard. And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on 17 his name. And it came to pass, that, when I had returned to Je-ru'sa-lem, and while I prayed in the 18 temple, I fell into a trance, and saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Je-ru'salem: because they will not receive of thee testimony
19 concerning me. And I said, Lord, they themselves know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue
20 them that believed on thee: and when the blood of Ste'phen thy witness was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting, and keeping the garments of 21 them that slew him. And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee forth far hence unto the Gentiles.
22 And they gave him audience unto this word; and they lifted up their voice, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should 23 live. And as they cried out, and threw off their gar-
24 ments, and cast dust into the air, the chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, bidding that he should be examined by scourging, that he might know for what cause they so shouted against him.

A. D. 60.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, [m]Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Ro'man, and uncondemned?

[m]ch. 16. 37.

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest; for this man is a Ro'man.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Ro'man? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have ||examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Ro'man, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

CHAPTER XXIII.

Paul pleadeth his cause.

AND Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, [a]I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and [c]commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

[c]Lev. 19. 35. Deut. 25.1, 2. John 7. 51.

4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, [d]I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, [e]Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sad'du-cees, and the other Phar'i-sees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, [f]I am a Phar'i-see, the son of a Phar'i-see: [g]of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

[f]ch. 26. 5. Phil. 3. 5. [g]ch. 24. 15, 21. & 26. 6. & 28. 20.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Phar'i-sees and the Sad'du-cees: and the multitude was divided.

8 [h]For the Sad'du-cees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Phar'i-sees confess both.

[h]Matt. 22. 23. Mark 12. 18. Luke 20. 27.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Phar'i-sees' part arose, and strove, saying, [i]We find no evil in this man: but [k]if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, [l]let us not fight against God.

[i]ch. 25. 25. & 26. 31. [k]ch. 22. 7, 17, 18. [l]ch. 5. 39.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And [m]the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Je-ru'sa-lem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

[m]ch. 18. 9. & 27. 23,24.

12 And when it was day, [n]certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves ||under a curse, saying, That they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul,

[n]ver. 21, 30. ch. 25. 3.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to-morrow, as though ye would inquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and 25 And when they had tied him up [1]with the thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Ro'man,

[1]Or, for

26 and uncondemned? And when the centurion heard it, he went to the chief captain, and told him, saying, What art thou about to do? for this man is

27 a Ro'man. And the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Ro'man? And he

28 said, Yea. And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this citizenship. And Paul

29 said, But I am a Ro'man born. They then which were about to examine him straightway departed from him: and the chief captain also was afraid, when he knew that he was a Ro'man, and because he had bound him.

30 But on the morrow, desiring to know the certainty, wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him, and commanded the chief priests and all the council to come together, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

23 And Paul, looking stedfastly on the council, said, Brethren, I have lived before God in all good con-

2 science until this day. And the high priest An-a-ni'as commanded them that stood by him to smite him

3 on the mouth. Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: and sittest thou to judge me according to the law, and commandest me

4 to be smitten contrary to the law? And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 And Paul said, I wist not, brethren, that he was high priest: for it was written, Thou shalt not speak evil

6 of a ruler of thy people. But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sad'du-cees, and the other Phar'i-sees, he cried out in the council, Brethren, I am a Phar'i-see, a son of Phar'i-sees: touching the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Phar'i-sees and Sad'du-cees: and the as-

8 sembly was divided. For the Sad'du-cees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit:

9 but the Phar'i-sees confess both. And there arose a great clamor: and some of the scribes of the Phar'i-sees' part stood up, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: and what if a spirit hath spoken

10 to him, or an angel? And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should be torn in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and bring him into the castle.

11 And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer: for as thou hast testified concerning me at Je-ru'sa-lem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had

13 killed Paul. And they were more than forty which

14 made this conspiracy. And they came to the chief priests and the elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, to taste nothing un-

15 til we have killed Paul. Now therefore do ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you, as though ye would judge of his case more exactly: and we, or ever he

[2]Or, having come in upon them, and he entered, &c.

16 come near, are ready to slay him. But Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, [2]and he came

17 and entered into the castle, and told Paul. And Paul called unto him one of the centurions, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

[o]ver. 12. 20 And he said, [o]The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to-morrow into the council, as though they would inquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Ces-a-re'a, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Fe'lix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Clau'di-us Lys'i-as unto the most excellent governor Fe'lix sendeth greeting.

[p]ch. 21. 33. & 24. 7. 27 [p]This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army and rescued him, having understood that he was a Ro'man.

[q]ch. 22. 30. 28 [q]And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:

[r]ch. 18. 15. & 25. 19. [s]ch. 26. 31. 29 Whom I perceived to be accused [r]of questions of their law, [s]but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

[t]ver. 20. [u]ch. 24. 8. & 25. 6. 30 And [t]when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and [u]gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to An-tip'a-tris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle:

33 Who, when they came to Ces-a-re'a, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of [x]Ci-li'ci-a;

CHAPTER XXIV.

Paul accused by Tertullus, and his defence.

[a]ch. 21. 27. [b]ch. 23. 2, 30, 35. & 25. 2. AND after [a]five days [b]An-a-ni'as the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Ter-tul'lus, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Ter-tul'lus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Fe'lix, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

[c]Luke 23. 2. ch. 6. 13. & 16. 20. &17. 6. & 21. 28. 1 Pet. 2. 12, 15. 5 [c]For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Naz'a-renes:

A. D. 60.

said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain:
18 for he hath something to tell him. So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and saith, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and asked me to bring this young man unto thee, who 19 hath something to say to thee. And the chief captain took him by the hand, and going aside asked him privately, What is that thou hast to tell me?
20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to ask thee to bring down Paul to-morrow unto the council, as though thou wouldest inquire somewhat more 21 exactly concerning him. Do not thou therefore yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves under a curse, neither to eat nor to drink till they have slain him: and now are they ready, look-
22 ing for the promise from thee. So the chief captain let the young man go, charging him, Tell no man
23 that thou hast signified these things to me. And he called unto him two of the centurions, and said, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go as far as Cæs-a-re'a, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the 24 night: and he bade them provide beasts, that they might set Paul thereon, and bring him safe unto 25 Fe'lix the governor. And he wrote a letter after this form:
26 Clau'di-us Lys'i-as unto the most excellent governor
27 Fe'lix, greeting. This man was seized by the Jews, and was about to be slain of them, when I came upon them with the soldiers, and rescued him, hav-
28 ing learned that he was a Ro'man. And desiring to know the cause wherefore they accused him, [1]I brought 29 him down unto their council: whom I found to be accused about questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of 30 bonds. And when it was shewn to me that there would be a plot against the man, I sent him to thee forthwith, charging his accusers also to speak against him before thee.[2]
31 So the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took 32 Paul, and brought him by night to An-tip'a-tris. But on the morrow they left the horsemen to go with 33 him, and returned to the castle: and they, when they came to Cæs-a-re'a, and delivered the letter to 34 the governor, presented Paul also before him. And when he had read it, he asked of what province he was;
35 and when he understood that he was of Ci-li'ci-a, I will hear thy cause, said he, when thine accusers also are come: and he commanded him to be kept in Her'od's [3]palace.

[1]Some ancient authorities omit I brought him down unto their council.

[3]Gr. Prætorium.

24 And after five days the high priest An-a-ni'as came down with certain elders, and with an orator, one Ter-tul'lus; and they informed the governor against
2 Paul. And when he was called, Ter-tul'lus began to accuse him, saying,

Seeing that by thee we enjoy much peace, and that by thy providence evils are corrected for this 3 nation, we accept it in all ways and in all places,
4 most excellent Fe'lix with all thankfulness. But, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I intreat thee
5 to hear us of thy clemency a few words. For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of insurrections among all the Jews throughout [4]the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Naz'a-renes:

[4]Gr. the inhabited earth.

A. D. 60.

6 [d]Who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would [e]have judged according to our law.
7 [f]But the chief captain Lys'i-as came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,
8 [g]Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.
9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

A. D. 53. Felix made procurator over Judea.

10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:
11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Je-ru'sa-lem [h]for to worship.
12 [i]And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:
13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.
14 But this I confess unto thee, that after [k]the way which they call heresy, so worship I the [l]God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in [m]the law and in the prophets:
15 And [n]have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, [o]that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.
16 And [p]herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.
17 Now, after many years [q]I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.
18 [r]Whereupon certain Jews from A'si-a found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.
19 [s]Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had aught against me.
20 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council,
21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried, standing among them, [t]Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.
22 And when Fe'lix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When [u]Lys'i-as the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.
23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and [x]that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.
24 And after certain days, when Fe'lix came with his wife Dru-sil'la, which was a Jew'ess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.
25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Fe'lix trembled and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.
26 He hoped also that [y]money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

A. D. 62.

27 But after two years Por'ci-us Fes'tus came into Fe'lix' room: and Fe'lix, [z]willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

CHAPTER XXV.

Paul accused before Festus.

NOW when Fes'tus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Ces-a-re'a to Je-ru'sa-lem.
2 [a]Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,
3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Je-ru'sa-lem, [b]laying wait in the way to kill him.
4 But Fes'tus answered, that Paul should be kept at Ces-a-re'a, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

6 who moreover assayed to profane the temple: on 8 whom also we laid hold:[1] from whom thou wilt be able, by examining him thyself, to take knowledge 9 of all these things, whereof we accuse him. And the Jews also joined in the charge, affirming that these things were so.
10 And when the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, Paul answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do cheerfully make 11 my defence: seeing that thou canst take knowledge, that it is not more than twelve days since I went up 12 to worship at Je-ru'sa-lem: and neither in the temple did they find me disputing with any man or stirring up a crowd, nor in the synagogues, nor in the city.
13 Neither can they prove to thee the things whereof 14 they now accuse me. But this I confess unto thee, that after the Way which they call [2]a sect, so serve
I the God of our fathers, believing all things which are according to the law, and which are written in 15 the prophets: having hope toward God, which these also themselves [3]look for, that there shall be a resur-16 rection both of the just and unjust. Herein do
I also exercise myself to have a conscience void of 17 offence toward God and men alway. Now after [4]many years I came to bring alms to my nation, and 18 offerings: [5]amidst which they found me purified in the temple, with no crowd, nor yet with tumult: but 19 there were certain Jews from A'si-a—who ought to have been here before thee, and to make accusation, 20 if they had aught against me. Or else let these men themselves say what wrong-doing they found, when 21 I stood before the council, except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question before you this day.
22 But Fe'lix, having more exact knowledge concern-in the Way, deferred them, saying, When Lys'i-as the chief captain shall come down, I will determine 23 your matter. And he gave order to the centurion that he should be kept in charge, and should have indulgence; and not to forbid any of his friends to minister unto him.
24 But after certain days, Fe'lix came with Dru-sil'la, [6]his wife, which was a Jew'ess, and sent for Paul, and 25 heard him concerning the faith in Christ Jesus. And as he reasoned of righteousness, and [7]temperance, and the judgement to come, Fe'lix was terrified, and answered, Go thy way for this time; and when I have a convenient season, I will call thee unto me.
26 He hoped withal that money would be given him of Paul: wherefore also he sent for him the oftener, 27 and communed with him. But when two years were fulfilled, Fe'lix was succeeded by Por'ci-us Fes'tus; and desiring to gain favour with the Jews, Fe'lix left Paul in bonds.

25 Fes'tus therefore, [8]having come into the province, after three days went up to Je-ru'sa-lem from 2 Cæs-a-re'a. And the chief priests and the principal men of the Jews informed him against Paul; and 3 they besought him, asking favour against him, that he would send for him to Je-ru'sa-lem; laying wait 4 to kill him on the way. Howbeit Fes'tus answered, that Paul was kept in charge at Cæs-a-re'a, and that he himself was about to depart thither shortly.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, [c]if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them ||more than ten days, he went down unto Ces-a-re'a; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Je-ru'sa-lem stood round about, [d]and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove.

8 While he answered for himself, [e]Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Ce'sar have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Fes'tus, [f]willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, [g]Wilt thou go up to Je-ru'sa-lem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Ce'sar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 [h]For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. [i]I appeal unto Ce'sar.

12 Then Fes'tus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Ce'sar? unto Ce'sar shalt thou go.

13 And after certain days king A-grip'pa and Ber-ni'ce came unto Ces-a-re'a to salute Fes'tus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Fes'tus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, [k]There is a certain man left in bonds by Fe'lix:

15 [l]About whom, when I was at Je-ru'sa-lem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

16 [m]To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Ro'mans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have license to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore, when they were come hither, [n]without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 [o]But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because ||I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Je-ru'sa-lem, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the ||hearing of Au-gus'tus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Ce'sar.

22 Then [p]A-grip'pa said unto Fes'tus, I would also hear the man myself. To-morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow, when A-grip'pa was come, and Ber-ni'ce, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains and principal men of the city, at Fes'tus' commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Fes'tus said, King A-grip'pa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom [q]all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Je-ru'sa-lem, and also here, crying that he ought [r]not to live any longer.

25 But when I found that [s]he had committed nothing worthy of death, [t]and that he himself hath appealed to Au-gus'tus, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you,

5 Let them therefore, saith he, which are of power among you, go down with me, and if there is anything amiss in the man, let them accuse him.

6 And when he had tarried among them not more than eight or ten days, he went down unto Cæs-a-re'a; and on the morrow he sat on the judgement-seat, and

7 commanded Paul to be brought. And when he was come, the Jews which had come down from Je-ru'salem stood round about him, bringing against him many and grievous charges, which they could not

8 prove; while Paul said in his defence, Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor

9 against Cæ'sar, have I sinned at all. But Fes'tus, desiring to gain favour with the Jews, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Je-ru'sa-lem, and there

10 be judged of these things before me? But Paul said, I am standing before Cæ'sar's judgment-seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I

11 done no wrong, as thou also very well knowest. If then I am a wrong-doer, and have committed anything worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if none of those things is true, whereof these accuse me, no man can [1]give me up unto them. I appeal

12 unto Cæ'sar. Then Fes'tus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Thou hast appealed unto Cæ'sar: unto Cæ'sar shalt thou go.

13 Now when certain days were passed, A-grip'pa the king and Ber-ni'ce arrived at Cæs-a-re'a, [2]and saluted

14 Fes'tus. And as they tarried there many days, Fes'tus laid Paul's case before the king, saying, There is

15 a certain man left a prisoner by Fe'lix: about whom, when I was at Je-ru'sa-lem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, asking for sentence

16 against him. To whom I answered, that it is not the custom of the Ro'mans to give up any man, before that the accused have the accusers face to face, and have had opportunity to make his defence

17 concerning the matter laid against him. When therefore they were come together here, I made no delay, but on the next day sat down on the judgement-seat, and commanded the man to be brought.

18 Concerning whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no charge of such evil things as I supposed;

19 but had certain questions against him of their own [3]religion, and of one Jesus, who was dead, whom

20 Paul affirmed to be alive. And I, being perplexed how to inquire concerning these things, asked whether he would go to Je-ru'sa-lem, and there be

21 judged of these matters. But when Paul had appealed to be kept for the decision of [4]the emperor, I commanded him to be kept till I should send him

22 to Cæ'sar. And A-grip'pa said unto Fes'tus, I also [5]could wish to hear the man myself. To-morrow, saith he, thou shalt hear him.

23 So on the morrow, when A-grip'pa was come, and Ber-ni'ce, with great pomp, and they were entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and the principal men of the city, at the command

24 of Fes'tus Paul was brought in. And Fes'tus saith, King A-grip'pa, and all men which are here present with us, behold ye this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews made suit to me, both at Je-ru'sa-lem and here, crying that he ought not to live any

CHAPTER XXVI.

Of Paul's life and conversion.

THEN A-grip'pa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself:

2 I think myself happy, king A-grip'pa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

3 Especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Je-ru'sa-lem, know all the Jews;

5 Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after [c]the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Phar'i-see.

6 [b]And now I stand and am judged for the hope of [e]the promise made of God unto our fathers:

7 Unto which promise [d]our twelve tribes, instantly serving God †[e]day and night, [f]hope to come. For which hope's sake, king A-grip'pa, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

9 [g]I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Naz'a-reth.

10 [h]Which thing I also did in Je-ru'sa-lem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority [i]from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 [k]And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 [l]Whereupon as I went to Da-mas'cus with authority and commission from the chief priests,

13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the He'brew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, [m]to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, [n]unto whom now I send thee,

18 [o]To open their eyes, and [p]to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Sa'tan unto God, [q]that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and [r]inheritance among them which are [s]sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O king A-grip'pa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

20 But [t]shewed first unto them of Da-mas'cus, and at Je-ru'sa-lem, and throughout all the coasts of Ju-de'a, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do [u]works meet for repentance.

21 For these causes [x]the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying,

26 And A-grip'pa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth his hand, and made his defence:

2 I think myself happy, king A-grip'pa, that I am to make my defence before thee this day touching all the things whereof I am accused by the Jews:

3 [1]especially because thou art expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore

4 I beseech thee to hear me patiently. My manner of life then from my youth up, which was from the beginning among mine own nation, and at Je-ru'sa-

7 unto which promise our twelve tribes, earnestly serving God night and day, hope to attain. And concerning this hope I am accused by the Jews, O

8 king! Why is it judged incredible with you, if God

9 doth raise the dead? I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name

10 of Jesus of Naz'a-reth. And this I also did in Je-ru'-sa-lem: and I both shut up many of the saints in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests, and when they were put to death, I gave my 11 vote against them. And punishing them oftentimes in all the synagogues, I strove to make them blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I

12 persecuted them even unto foreign cities. [2]Whereupon as I journeyed to Da-mas'cus with the authority

13 and commission of the chief priests, at midday, O king, I saw on the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and

14 them that journeyed with me. And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice saying unto me in the He'brew language, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against 15 [3]the goad. And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But arise, and stand upon thy feet: for to this end have I appeared unto thee, to appoint thee a minister and a witness both of the things [4]wherein thou hast seen me, and of the things wherein I will ap-

17 pear unto thee; delivering thee from the people,

18 and from the Gentiles, unto whom I send thee, to open their eyes, [5]that they may turn from darkness to light, and from the power of Sa'tan unto God, that they may receive remission of sins and an inheritance among them that are sanctified by

19 faith in me. Wherefore, O king A-grip'pa, I was

20 not disobedient unto the heavenly vision: but declared both to them of Da-mas'cus first, and at Je-ru'sa-lem, and throughout all the country of Ju-dæ'a, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, doing works worthy of [6]repent-

23 [a]That Christ should suffer, and [b]that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and [c]should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Fes'tus said with a loud voice, Paul, [d]thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Fes'tus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

28 Then A-grip'pa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.

29 And Paul said, [e]I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Ber-ni'ce, and they that sat with them:

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, [f]This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.

CHAPTER XXVII.

Paul shippeth for Rome.

AND when [a]it was determined, that we should sail into It'a-ly, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Ju'li-us, a centurion of Au-gus'tus' band.

2 And entering into a ship of Ad-ra-myt'ti-um, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of A'si-a; one [b]Ar-is-tar'chus, a Mac-e-do'ni-an of Thes-sa-lo-ni'ca, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Si'don. And Ju'li-us [c]courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cy'prus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Ci-li'ci-a and Pam-phyl'i-a, we came to My'ra, a city of Ly'ci-a.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Al-ex-an'dri-a sailing into It'a-ly; and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cni'dus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under || Crete, over against Sal-mo'ne:

8 And, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called the Fair Havens; nigh whereunto was the city of La-se'a.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, [d]because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with || hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phe-ni'ce, and there to winter; which is a haven of Crete, and lieth toward the southwest and northwest.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there || arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Eu-roc'ly-don.

nothing but what the prophets and Mo'ses did say
23 should come; [1]how that the Christ [2]must suffer, and [1]how that he first by the resurrection of the dead should proclaim light both to the people and to the Gentiles.
24 And as he thus made his defence, Fes'tus saith with a loud voice, Paul, thou art mad; thy much
25 learning doth turn thee to madness. But Paul saith, I am not mad, most excellent Fes'tus; but speak
26 forth words of truth and soberness. For the king knoweth of these things, unto whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him; for this hath not been done in a 27 corner. King A-grip'pa, believest thou the prophets?
28 I know that thou believest. And A-grip'pa said unto Paul, With but little persuasion thou wouldest fain
29 make me a Christian. And Paul said, I would to God, that whether with little or with much, not thou only, but also all that hear me this day, might become such as I am, except these bonds.
30 And the king rose up, and the governor, and 31 Ber-ni'ce, and they that sat with them: and when they had withdrawn, they spake one to another, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of

[2]Or, is subject to suffering

27 And when it was determined that we should sail for It'a-ly, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Ju'li-us, of the Au-
2 gus'tan [3]band. And embarking in a ship of Ad-ramyt'ti-um, which was about to sail unto the places on the coast of A'si-a, we put to sea, Ar-is-tar'chus, a Mac-e-
3 do'ni-an of Thes-sa-lo-ni'ca, being with us. And the next day we touched at Si'don: and Ju'li-us treated Paul kindly, and gave him leave to go unto his 4 friends and [4]refresh himself. And putting to sea from thence, we sailed under the lee of Cy'prus, be-
5 cause the winds were contrary. And when we had sailed across the sea which is off Ci-li'ci-a and Pam-
6 phyl'i-a, we came to My'ra, a city of Ly'ci-a. And there the centurion found a ship of Al-ex-an'dri-a sail-
7 ing for It'a-ly; and he put us therein. And when we had sailed slowly many days, and were come with difficulty over against Cni'dus, the wind not [5]further suffering us, we sailed under the lee of Crete,
8 over against Sal-mo'ne; and with difficulty coasting along it we came unto a certain place called Fair Havens; nigh whereunto was the city of La-se'a.
9 And when much time was spent, and the voyage was now dangerous, because the Fast was now al-
10 ready gone by, Paul admonished them, and said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with injury and much loss, not only of the lading
11 and the ship, but also of our lives. But the centurion gave more heed to the master and to the owner of the ship, than to those things which were 12 spoken by Paul. And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to put to sea from thence, if by any means they could reach Phœ'nix, and winter there; which is a haven
13 of Crete, looking [6]north-east and south-east. And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor, and sailed along Crete, close in shore.
14 But after no long time there beat down from it a tempestuous wind, which is called Eu-raq'ui-lo:

A. D. 62.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.
16 And running under a certain island which is called Clau'da, we had much work to come by the boat:
17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.
18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;
[c]Jonah 1. 5. 19 And the third day [c]we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.
20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.
21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.
22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.
[f]ch. 23. 11. 23 [f]For there stood by me this night the angel of God, [g]Dan. 6. 16. Rom. 1. 9. 2 Tim. 1. 3. whose I am, and [g]whom I serve,
24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Ce'sar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.
[h]Luke 1. 45. Rom. 4. 20, 21. 2 Tim. 1. 12. 25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: [h]for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.
26 Howbeit [i]we must be cast upon a certain island.
[i]ch. 28. 1. 27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in A'dri-a, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;
28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.
29 Then fearing lest they should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.
30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship,
31 Paul said to the centurion, and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.
32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.
33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.
34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat; for this is for your health: for [k]there shall not a hair fall from the head of any of you.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.
39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.
‖ Or, cut the anchors, they left them in the sea, &c. 40 And when they had ‖ taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoisted up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.
[n]2 Cor. 11. 25. 41 And falling into a place where two seas met, [n]they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.
42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

A. D. 62.

15 and when the ship was caught, and could not face
16 the wind, we gave way to it, and were driven. And running under the lee of a small island called [1]Cau'da,
17 we were able, with difficulty, to secure the boat: and when they had hoisted it up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should be cast upon the Syr'tis, they lowered the gear, and so 18 were driven. And as we laboured exceedingly with the storm, the next day they began to throw the 19 freight overboard; and the third day they cast out
20 with their own hands the [2]tackling of the ship. And when neither sun nor stars shone upon us for many days, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope
21 that we should be saved was now taken away. And when they had been long without food, then Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have set sail from Crete, and have gotten this injury and 22 loss. And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of life among you, but 23 only of the ship. For there stood by me this night an angel of the God whose I am, whom also I serve,
24 saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must stand before Cæ'sar: and lo, God hath granted thee all them that 25 sail with thee. Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even so as it hath 26 been spoken unto me. Howbeit we must be cast upon a certain island.
27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven to and fro in the sea of A'dri-a, about midnight the sailors surmised that they were draw-
28 ing near to some country; and they sounded, and found twenty fathoms: and after a little space, they 29 sounded again, and found fifteen fathoms. And fearing lest haply we should be cast ashore on rocky ground, they let go four anchors from the stern, and 30 [3]wished for the day. And as the sailors were seeking to flee out of the ship, and had lowered the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would lay 31 out anchors from the foreship, Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the 32 ship, ye cannot be saved. Then the soldiers cut
33 away the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off. And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take some food, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye wait and continue fasting, having 34 taken nothing. Wherefore I beseech you to take some food: for this is for your safety: for there shall not a hair perish from the head of any of you.
35 And when he had said this, and had taken bread, he gave thanks to God in the presence of all: and 36 he brake it, and began to eat. Then were they all
37 of good cheer, and themselves also took food. And we were in all in the ship [4]two hundred threescore 38 and sixteen souls. And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, throwing out the 39 wheat into the sea. And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they perceived a certain bay with a beach, and they took counsel whether they
40 could [5]drive the ship upon it. And casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time loosing the bands of the rudders; and hoisting up the foresail to the wind, they made for the 41 beach. But lighting upon a place where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground; and the foreship struck and remained unmoveable, but the stern began to break up by the violence of the waves.
42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

Paul in the island of Melita.

[a] ch. 27. 26.

AND when they were escaped, then they knew that [a]the island was called Mel'i-ta.
2 And the [b]barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.
3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.
4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.
5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and [c]felt no harm.
6 Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and [d]said that he was a god.
7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Pub'li-us; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.
8 And it came to pass that the father of Pub'li-us lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and [e]prayed, and [f]laid his hands on him, and healed him.
9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:
10 Who also honoured us with many [g]honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.
11 And after three months, we departed in a ship of Al-ex-an'dri-a, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Cas'tor and Pol'lux.
12 And landing at Syr'a-cuse, we tarried there three days.
13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhe'gi-um: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Pu-te'o-li:
14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome.
15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Ap'pi-i Fo'rum, and the Three Taverns; whom when Paul saw he thanked God, and took courage.
16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but [h]Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.
17 And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, [i]though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet [k]was I delivered prisoner from Je-ru'sa-lem into the hands of the Ro'mans:
18 Who, [l]when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.
19 But when the Jews spake against it, [m]I was constrained to appeal unto Ce'sar; not that I had aught to accuse my nation of.
20 For this cause therefore have I called for you to see you, and to speak with you: because that [n]for the hope of Is'ra-el I am bound with [o]this chain.
21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Ju-de'a concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harm of thee.
22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where [p]it is spoken against.

28 And when we were escaped, then we knew that
2 the island was called [1]Mel'i-ta. And the barbarians shewed us no common kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us all, because of the present

5 hath not suffered to live. Howbeit he shook off
6 the beast into the fire, and took no harm. But they expected that he would have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but when they were long in expectation, and beheld nothing amiss come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.
7 Now in the neighbourhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, named Pub'li-us; who received us, and entertained
8 us three days courteously. And it was so, that the father of Pub'li-us lay sick of fever and dysentery: unto whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laying
9 his hands on him healed him. And when this was done, the rest also which had diseases in the island
10 came, and were cured: who also honoured us with many honours; and when we sailed, they put on board such things as we needed.
11 And after three months we set sail in a ship of Al-ex-an'dri-a, which had wintered in the island,
12 whose sign was [3]The Twin Brothers. And touching 13 at Syr'a-cuse, we tarried there three days. And from thence we [4]made a circuit, and arrived at Rhe'gi-um: and after one day a south wind sprang up, and on 14 the second day we came to Pu-te'o-li: where we found brethren, and were intreated to tarry with them
15 seven days: and so we came to Rome. And from thence the brethren, when they heard of us, came to meet us as far as The Market of Ap'pi-us, and The Three Taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.
16 And when we entered into Rome, [5]Paul was suffered to abide by himself with the soldier that guarded him.
17 And it came to pass, that after three days he called together [6]those that were the chief of the Jews: and when they were come together, he said unto them, I, brethren, though I had done nothing against the people, or the customs of our fathers, yet was delivered prisoner from Je-ru'sa-lem into the hands of the 18 Ro'mans: who, when they had examined me, desired to set me at liberty, because there was no cause of 19 death in me. But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Cæ'sar; not that I
20 had aught to accuse my nation of. For this cause therefore did I [7]intreat you to see and to speak with me: for because of the hope of Is'ra-el I am bound with 21 this chain. And they said unto him, We neither received letters from Ju-dæ'a concerning thee, nor did any of the brethren come hither and report or speak

1 Paul, a [1]servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an
2 apostle, separated unto the gospel of God, which he promised afore [2]by his prophets in the holy scriptures,
3 concerning his son, who was born of the seed of 4 Da'vid according to the flesh, who was [3]declared to be the Son of God [4]with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection of the dead;
5 even Jesus Christ our Lord, through whom we received grace and apostleship, unto obedience [5]of faith
6 among all the nations, for his name's sake: among 7 whom are ye also, called to be Jesus Christ's: to all that are in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, [6]that your faith is proclaimed throughout 9 the whole world. For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the gospel of his Son, how unceasingly I make mention of you, always in my pray-
10 ers making request, if by any means now at length I may be prospered [7]by the will of God to come unto 11 you. For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be estab-
12 lished; that is, that I with you may be comforted in you, each of us by the other's faith, both yours and 13 mine. And I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you (and was hindered hitherto), that I might have some fruit in you also, even as in the rest of the Gentiles.

14 [c]I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For [d]I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for [e]it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; [f]to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

17 For [g]therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, [h]The just shall live by faith.

18 [i]For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness;

19 Because [k]that which may be known of God, is manifest ‖ in them; for [l]God hath shewed it unto them.

20 For [m]the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; ‖ so that they are without excuse:

21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but [n]became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 [o]Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,

23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible [p]God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

24 [q]Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness, through the lusts of their own hearts, [r]to dishonour their own bodies [s]between themselves:

25 Who changed [t]the truth of God [u]into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature ‖ more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto [x]vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was meet.

28 And even as they did not like ‖ to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to ‖ a reprobate mind, to do those things [z]which are not convenient;

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

31 Without understanding, covenant-breakers, ‖ without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful:

32 Who, [a]knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things [b]are worthy of death, not only do the same, but ‖ [c]have pleasure in them that do them.

CHAPTER II.

The Jews who sin are inexcusable.

THEREFORE thou art [a]inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: [b]for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

4 Or despisest thou [c]the riches of his goodness and [d]forbearance and [e]longsuffering; [f]not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But, after thy hardness and impenitent heart, [g]treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;

6 [h]Who will render to every man according to his deeds:

14 I am debtor both to Greeks and to Barbarians, both
15 to the wise and to the foolish. So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you also 16 that are in Rome. For I am not ashamed of the gospel: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also 17 to the Greek. For therein is revealed a righteousness of God [1]by faith unto faith: as it is written, But the righteous shall live [1]by faith.

18 For [2]the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men,
19 who [3]hold down the truth in unrighteousness; because that which may be known of God is manifest
20 in them; for God manifested it unto them. For the invisible things of him since the creation of the world are clearly seen, being perceived through the things that are made, even his everlasting power and divin-
21 ity; [4]that they may be without excuse: because that, knowing God, they glorified him not as God, neither gave thanks; but became vain in their reasonings,
22 and their senseless heart was darkened. Professing
23 themselves to be wise, they became fools, and changed the glory of the incorruptible God for the likeness of an image of corruptible man, and of birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

24 Wherefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts unto uncleanness, that their bodies should be 25 dishonoured among themselves: for that they exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshipped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed [5]for ever. Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto [6]vile passions: for their women changed the natural use into 27 that which is against nature: and likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another, men with men working unseemliness, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was due.

28 And even as they [7]refused to have God in their knowledge, God gave them up unto a reprobate mind,
29 to do those things which are not fitting; being filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit,
30 malignity; whisperers, backbiters, [8]hateful to God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil things,
31 disobedient to parents, without understanding, covenant-breakers, without natural affection, unmerciful:
32 who, knowing the ordinance of God, that they which practise such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but also consent with them that practise them.

2 Wherefore thou art without excuse, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest [9]another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou
2 that judgest dost practise the same things. [10]And we know that the judgement of God is according to truth against them that practise such things.
3 And reckonest thou this, O man, who judgest them that practise such things, and doest the same, that
4 thou shalt escape the judgement of God? Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering, not knowing that the 5 goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? but after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up for thyself wrath in the day of wrath and rev-
6 elation of the righteous judgement of God; who will render to every man according to his works:

7 To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life:
8 But unto them that are contentious, and [t]do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath,
9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil; of the Jew [k]first, and also of the †Gentile;
10 [l]But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good; to the Jew first, and also to the †Gentile;
11 For [m]there is no respect of persons with God.
12 For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law;
13 (For [n]not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.
14 For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves:
15 Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, ‖their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts ‖the mean while accusing, or else excusing one another;)
16 [o]In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men [p]by Jesus Christ [q]according to my gospel.
17 Behold, [r]thou art called a Jew, and [s]restest in the law, [t]and makest thy boast of God,
18 And [u]knowest his will, and ‖[x]approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law;
19 And [y]art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,
20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, [z]which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.
21 [a]Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?
22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, [b]dost thou commit sacrilege?
23 Thou that [c]makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?
24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is [d]written.
25 [e]For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.
26 Therefore, [f]if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?
27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, [g]judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?
28 For [h]he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:
29 But he is a Jew, [i]which is one inwardly; and [k]circumcision is that of the heart, [l]in the spirit, and not in the letter; [m]whose praise is not of men, but of God.

CHAPTER III.

The Jews' perogative, &c.

WHAT advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?
2 Much every way: chiefly, because that [a]unto them were committed the oracles of God.
3 For what if [b]some did not believe? [c]shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?
4 [d]God forbid: yea, let [e]God be true, but [f]every man a liar; as it is written, [g]That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

A. D. 60.

7 to them that by patience in well-doing seek for 8 glory and honour and incorruption, eternal life: but unto them that are factious, and obey not the truth, but obey unrighteousness, shall be wrath and in-
9 dignation, tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that worketh evil, of the Jew first, and also 10 of the Greek; but glory and honour and peace to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also 11 to the Greek: for there is no respect of persons
12 with God. For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned under law shall be judged by law;
13 for not the hearers of a law are [1]just before God,
14 but the doers of a law shall be [2]justified: for when Gentiles which have no law do by nature the things of the law, these, having no law, are a law unto
15 themselves; in that they shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience bearing witness therewith, and their [3]thoughts one with another
16 accusing or else excusing them; in the day when God [4]shall judge the secrets of men, according to my gospel, by Jesus Christ.
17 But if thou bearest the name of a Jew, and restest
18 upon [5]the law, and gloriest in God, and knowest [6]his will, and [7]approvest the things that are excellent,
19 being instructed out of the law, and art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light
20 of them that are in darkness, [8]a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of babes, having in the law the 21 form of knowledge and of the truth; thou therefore that teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou
22 steal? thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that ab-
23 horrest idols, dost thou [9]rob temples? thou who gloriest in [5]the law, through thy transgression of the 24 law dishonourest thou God? For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you, 25 even as it is written. For circumcision indeed profiteth, if thou be a doer of the law: but if thou be a transgressor of the law, thy circumcision is 26 become uncircumcision. If therefore the uncircumcision keep the ordinances of the law, shall not his 27 uncircumcision be reckoned for circumcision? and shall not the uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge thee, who with the letter and 28 circumcision art a transgressor of the law? For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is 29 that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: but he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

3 What advantage then hath the Jew? or what is
2 the profit of circumcision? Much every way: first of all, that they were intrusted with the oracles of 3 God. For what if some were without faith? shall their want of faith make of none effect the faithful-
4 ness of God? [10]God forbid: yea, let God be found true, but every man a liar; as it is written,

That thou mightest be justified in thy words,
And mightest prevail when thou comest into judgement.

A. D. 60.

5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? ([h]I speak as a man.)
6 God forbid: for then [i]how shall God judge the world?
7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?
8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) [k]Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.
9 What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before †proved both Jews and Gentiles, that [l]they are all under sin:
10 As it is written, [m]There is none righteous, no, not one:
11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.
12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.
13 [n]Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; [o]the poison of asps is under their lips:
14 [p]Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:
15 [q]Their feet are swift to shed blood:
16 Destruction and misery are in their ways:
17 And the way of peace have they not known:
18 [r]There is no fear of God before their eyes.
19 Now we know that what things soever [s]the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that [t]every mouth may be stopped, and [u]all the world may become ‖guilty before God.
20 Therefore [x]by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for [y]by the law is the knowledge of sin.
21 But [z]now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, [a]being witnessed by the law [b]and the prophets;
22 Even the righteousness of God which is [c]by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe; for [d]there is no difference:
23 For [e]all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;
24 Being justified freely [f]by his grace [g]through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:
25 Whom God hath ‖set forth [h]to be a propitiation, through faith [i]in his blood, to declare his righteousness [k]for the ‖remission of [l]sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;
26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.
27 [m]Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay; but by the law of faith.
28 Therefore we conclude [n]that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.
29 Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:
30 Seeing [o]it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.
31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

CHAPTER IV.

Abraham justified by faith.

WHAT shall we then say that [a]A'bra-ham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?
2 For if A'bra-ham were [b]justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.
3 For what saith the Scripture? [c]A'bra-ham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.
4 Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.
5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth [d]the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

A. D. 60.

5 But if our unrighteousness commendeth the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who visiteth with wrath? (I speak after 6 the manner of men.) God forbid: for then how
7 shall God judge the world? [1]But if the truth of God through my lie abounded unto his glory, why
8 am I also still judged as a sinner? and why not (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say), Let us do evil, that good may come? whose condemnation is just.
9 What then? [2]are we in worse case than they? No, in no wise: for we before laid to the charge both 10 of Jews and Greeks, that they are all under sin; as it is written,
There is none righteous, no, not one;
11 There is none that understandeth,
There is none that seeketh after God;
12 They have all turned aside, they are together become unprofitable;
There is none that doeth good, no, not so much as one:
13 Their throat is an open sepulchre;
With their tongues they have used deceit:
The poison of asps is under their lips:
14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:
15 Their feet are swift to shed blood;
16 Destruction and misery are in their ways;
17 And the way of peace have they not known:
18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.
19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it speaketh to them that are under the law; that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world
20 may be brought under the judgment of God: because [3]by [4]the works of the law shall no flesh be [5]justified in his sight: for [6]through the law cometh
21 the knowledge of sin. But now apart from the law a righteousness of God hath been manifested, being 22 witnessed by the law and the prophets; even the righteousness of God through faith [7]in Jesus Christ unto all [8]them that believe; for there is no distinc-
23 tion; for all have sinned, and fall short of the glory
24 of God; being justified freely by his grace through 25 the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: whom God [9]set forth [10]to be a propitiation, through [11]faith, by his blood, to shew his righteousness, because of the passing over of the sins done aforetime, in the for-
26 bearance of God; for the shewing, I say, of his righteousness at this present season: that he might himself be [12]just, and the [12]justifier of him that [13]hath 27 faith [7]in Jesus. Where then is the glorying? It is excluded. By what manner of law? of works? Nay:
28 but by a law of faith. [14]We reckon therefore that a man is justified by faith apart from [4]the works of the 29 law. Or is God the God of Jews only? is he not the 30 God of Gentiles also? Yea, of Gentiles also: if so be that God is one, and he shall justify the circumcision
31 [3]by faith, and the uncircumcision [15]through faith. Do we then make [16]the law of none effect [15]through faith? God forbid: nay, we establish [16]the law.

4 What then shall we say [17]that A'bra-ham, our fore-
2 father according to the flesh, hath found? For if A'bra-ham was justified [3]by works, he hath whereof
3 to glory; but not toward God. For what saith the scripture? And A'bra-ham believed God, and 4 it was reckoned unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh, the reward is not reckoned
5 as of grace, but as of debt. But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is reckoned for righteousness.

A. D. 60.

6 Even as Da'vid also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,
7 Saying, [f]Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.
8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.
9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to A'bra-ham for righteousness.
10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.
11 And [g]he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that [h]he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also;
12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father A'bra-ham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.
13 For the promise, that he should be the [r]heir of the world, was not to A'bra-ham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.
14 For [k]if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:
15 Because [l]the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.
16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be [m]by grace; [n]to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of A'bra-ham; [o]who is the father of us all,
17 (As it is written, [p]I have made thee a father of many nations,) ‖ before him whom he believed, even God, [q]who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those [r]things which be not as though they were:
18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, [s]So shall thy seed be.
19 And being not weak in faith, [t]he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about a hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sa'rah's womb;
20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;
21 And being fully persuaded, that what he had promised, [u]he was able also to perform.
22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.
23 Now [x]it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;
24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe [y]on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead;
25 [z]Who was delivered for our offences, and [a]was raised again for our justification.

CHAPTER V.

Of justification by faith.

5 THEREFORE [a]being justified by faith, we have [b]peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:
2 [c]By whom also we have access by faith into this grace [d]wherein we stand, and [e]rejoice in hope of the glory of God.
3 And not only so, but [f]we glory in tribulations also; [g]knowing that tribulation worketh patience;
4 [h]And patience, experience; and experience, hope:
5 [i]And hope maketh not ashamed; [k]because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.
6 For when we were yet without strength, ‖ in due time [l]Christ died for the ungodly.
7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

6 Even as Da'vid also pronounceth blessing upon the man, unto whom God reckoneth righteousness apart
7 from works, saying,
Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven,
And whose sins are covered.
8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not reckon sin.
9 Is this blessing then pronounced upon the circumcision, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say, To A'bra-ham his faith was reckoned for righteous-
10 ness. How then was it reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circum-
11 cision, but in uncircumcision: and he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was in uncircumcision: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be in uncircumcision, that
12 righteousness might be reckoned unto them; and the father of circumcision to them who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father A'bra-ham which he had 13 in uncircumcision. For not [1]through the law was the promise to A'bra-ham or to his seed, that he should be heir of the world, but through the right-
14 eousness of faith. For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is 15 made of none effect: for the law worketh wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there transgression.
16 For this cause it is of faith, that it may be according to grace; to the end that the promise may be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of A-bra'ham,
17 who is the father of us all (as it is written, [o]A father of many nations have I made thee) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth the things that are not, as though they 18 were. Who in hope believed against hope, to the end that he might become a father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, So shall 19 thy seed be. And without being weakened in faith he considered his own body [2]now as good as dead (he being about a hundred years old), and the dead-
20 ness of Sa'rah's womb: yea, looking unto the promise of God, he wavered not through unbelief, but waxed 21 strong through faith, giving glory to God, and being fully assured that, what he had promised, he was 22 able also to perform. Wherefore also it was reck-
23 oned unto him for righteousness. Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was reckoned unto 24 him; but for our sake also, unto whom it shall be reckoned, who believe on him that raised Jesus our 25 Lord from the dead, who was delivered up for our trespasses, and was raised for our justification.

5 Being therefore justified [3]by faith, [4]let us have peace
2 with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; through whom also we have had our access [5]by faith into this grace wherein we stand; and [6]let us [7]rejoice in 3 hope of the glory of God. And not only so, but [8]let us also [7]rejoice in our tribulations: knowing that trib-
4 ulation worketh patience; and patience, probation;
5 and probation, hope: and hope putteth not to shame; because the love of God hath been shed abroad in our hearts through the [9]Holy Ghost which was 6 given unto us. For while we were yet weak, in due
7 season Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: for peradventure for [10]the good man some one would even dare to die.

8 But [m]God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.
9 Much more then, being now justified [n]by his blood, we shall[l] be saved [o]from wrath through him.
10 For [p]if, when we were enemies, [q]we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son; much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved [r]by his life.
11 And not only so, but we also [s]joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the ||atonement.
12 Wherefore, as [t]by one man sin entered into the world, and [u]death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, ||for that all have sinned:
13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but [x]sin is not imputed when there is no law.
14 Nevertheless death reigned from Ad'am to Mo'ses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Ad'am's transgression, [y]who is the figure of him that was to come.
15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift: for if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded [z]unto many.
16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.
17 For if ||by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)
18 Therefore, as ||by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so ||by the righteousness of one the free gift came [a]upon all men unto justification of life.
19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.
20 Moreover [b]the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much [c]more abound:
21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER VI.

We may not live in sin, &c.

WHAT shall we say then? [a]Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?
2 God forbid. How shall we, that are [b]dead to sin, live any longer therein?
3 Know ye not, that [c]so many of us as ||were baptized into Jesus Christ [d]were baptized into his death?
4 Therefore we are [e]buried with him by baptism into death: that [f]like as Christ was raised up from the dead by [g]the glory of the Father, [h]even so we also should walk in newness of life.
5 [i]For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:
6 Knowing this, that [k]our old man is crucified with him, that [l]the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.
7 For [m]he that is dead is †freed from sin.
8 Now [n]if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:
9 Knowing that [o]Christ, being raised from the dead, dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.
10 For in that he died, [p]he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, [q]he liveth unto God.
11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be [r]dead indeed unto sin, but [s]alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.
12 [t]Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.
13 Neither yield ye your [u]members as †instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but [x]yield yourselves unto God,

A. D. 60.

8 But God commendeth his own love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.
9 Much more then, being now justified [1]by his blood, shall we be saved from the wrath of God through 10 him. For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, shall we be saved [1]by his 11 life; and not only so, [2]but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.
12 Therefore, as through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin; and so death
13 passed unto all men, for that all sinned:—for until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed
14 when there is no law. Nevertheless death reigned from Ad'am until Mo'ses, even over them that had not sinned after the likeness of Ad'am's transgression,
15 who is a figure of him that was to come. But not as the trespass, so also is the free gift. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by the grace of the 16 one man, Jesus Christ, abound unto the many. And not as through one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgement came of one unto condemnation, but the free gift came of many trespasses unto [3]justification.
17 For if, by the trespass of the one, death reigned through the one; much more shall they that receive the abundance of grace and [4]of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one, even Jesus Christ.
18 So then as through one trespass the judgement came unto all men to condemnation; even so through one act of righteousness the free gift came unto all men
19 to justification of life. For as through the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, even so through the obedience of the one shall the many be 20 made righteous. And [5]the law came in beside, that the trespass might abound; but where sin abounded, grace
21 did abound more exceedingly: that, as sin reigned in death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

6 What shall we say then? Shall we continue in 2 sin, that grace may abound? God forbid. We who died to sin, how shall we any longer live
3 therein? Or are ye ignorant that all we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his
4 death? We were buried therefore with him through baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so
5 we also might walk in newness of life. For if we have become [6]united with him by the likeness of his death, we shall be also by the likeness of his resur-
6 rection; knowing this, that our old man was crucified with him, that the body of sin might be done away, that so we should no longer be in bondage to 7 sin; for he that hath died is justified from sin.
8 But if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall 9 also live with him; knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death no more
10 hath dominion over him. For [7]the death that he died, he died unto sin [8]once: but [7]the life that he 11 liveth, he liveth unto God. Even so reckon ye also yourselves to be dead unto sin, but alive unto God in Christ Jesus.
12 Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body,
13 that ye should obey the lusts thereof: neither present your members unto sin as [9]instruments of unrighteousness; but present yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

14 For [v]sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? shall we sin, [z]because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that [a]to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin; but ye have obeyed from the heart [b]that form of doctrine †which was delivered you.

18 Being then [c]made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

19 I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

20 For when ye were [d]the servants of sin, ye were free †from righteousness.

21 [e]What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for [f]the end of those things is death.

22 But now [g]being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

23 For [h]the wages of sin is death; but [i]the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER VII.

The law hath power only during life.

KNOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For [e]the woman which hath a husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then [k]if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law, so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become [c]dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should [d]bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the †motions of sins, which were by the law, [e]did work in our members [f]to bring forth fruit unto death:

6 But now we are delivered from the law, ‖ that being dead wherein we were held: that we should serve [g]in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, [h]I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known ‖ lust, except the law had said, [i]Thou shalt not covet.

8 But [k]sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For [l]without the law sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment, [m]which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore [n]the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

A. D. 60.

as alive from the dead, and your members as [1]instruments of righteousness unto God. For sin shall not 14 have dominion over you: for ye are not under law, but under grace.
15 What then? shall we sin, because we are not 16 under law, but under grace? God forbid. Know ye not, that to whom ye present yourselves as [2]servants unto obedience, his [2]servants ye are whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience
17 unto righteousness? But thanks be to God, [3]that, whereas ye were [2]servants of sin, ye became obedient from the heart to that [4]form of teaching where-18 unto ye were delivered; and being made free from 19 sin, ye became [2]servants of righteousness. I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye presented your members as servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity, even so now present your members as servants
20 to righteousness unto sanctification. For when ye were [2]servants of sin, ye were free in regard of 21 righteousness. What fruit then had ye at that time in the things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the 22 end of those things is death. But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto sanctification, and the end eternal 23 life. For the wages of sin is death; but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

7 Or are ye ignorant, brethren (for I speak to men that know [5]the law), how that the law hath domin-
2 ion over a man for so long time as he liveth? For the woman that hath a husband is bound by law to the husband while he liveth; but if the husband die, she is discharged from the law of the husband.
3 So then if, while the husband liveth, she be joined to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if the husband die, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she be joined to
4 another man. Wherefore, my brethren, ye also were made dead to the law through the body of Christ; that ye should be joined to another, even to him who was raised from the dead, that we might
5 bring forth fruit unto God. For when we were in the flesh, the [6]sinful passions, which were through the law, wrought in our members to bring forth
6 fruit unto death. But now we have been discharged from the law, having died to that wherein we were holden; so that we serve in newness of the spirit, and not in oldness of the letter.
7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Howbeit, I had not known sin, except through [5]the law: for I had not known [7]coveting, except the law had said, Thou shalt not [7]covet:
8 but sin, finding occasion, wrought in me through the commandment all manner of [7]coveting: for apart
9 from [5]the law sin is dead. And I was alive apart from [5]the law once: but when the commandment
10 came, sin revived, and I died; and the commandment, which was unto life, this I found to be unto 11 death: for sin, finding occasion, through the com-
12 mandment beguiled me, and through it slew me. So that the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and 13 righteous, and good. Did then that which is good become death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might be shown to be sin, by working death to me through that which is good;—that through the commandment sin might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, [o]sold under sin.

15 For that which I do, I †allow not: for [p]what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that [q]in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

19 For the good that I would, I do not; but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For I [r]delight in the law of God after [s]the inward man:

23 But [t]I see another law in [u]my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from ‖the body of this death?

25[x] I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

CHAPTER VIII.

Who are free from condemnation.

THERE is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who [a]walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For [b]the law of [c]the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from [d]the law of sin and death.

3 For [e]what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, [f]God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and ‖for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, [g]who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For [h]they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit, [i]the things of the Spirit.

6 For [k]†to be carnally minded is death; but †to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

7 Because †[l]the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, [m]neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that [n]the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not [o]the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of [p]him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, [q]he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies ‖by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 [r]Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For [s]if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do [t]mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For [u]as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For [x]ye have not received the spirit of bondage again [y]to fear; but ye have received the [z]Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, [a]Abba, Father.

16 [b]The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

17 And if children, then heirs: [c]heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ; [d]if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For [f]the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the [g]manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For [h]the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope;

21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that ||the whole creation [i]groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have [k]the firstfruits of the Spirit, [l]even we ourselves groan within ourselves, [m]waiting for the adoption, to wit, the [n]redemption of our body.

24 For we are saved by hope: but [o]hope that is seen, is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for [p]we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but [q]the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which can not be uttered.

27 And [r]he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, ||because he maketh intercession for the saints [s]according to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them [t]who are the called according to his purpose.

29 For whom [u]he did foreknow, [x]he also did predestinate [y]to be conformed to the image of his Son, [z]that he might be the firstborn among many brethren.

30 Moreover, whom did he predestinate, them he also [a]called: and whom he called, them he also [b]justified: and whom he justified, them he also [c]glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? [d]If God be for us, who can be against us?

32 [e]He that spared not his own Son, but [f]delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? [g]It is God that justifieth.

34 [h]Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, [i]who is even at the right hand of God, [k]who also maketh intercession for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36 As it is written, [l]For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

37 [m]Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor [n]principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

CHAPTER IX.

The calling of the Gentiles.

I [a]SAY the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost,

2 [b]That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

3 For [c]I could wish that myself were ||accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

4 [d]Who are Is'ra-el-ites; [e]to whom pertaineth the adoption, and [f]the glory, and [g]the ||covenants, and [h]the giving of the law, and [i]the service of God, and [k]the promises;

5 [l]Whose are the fathers, and [m]of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

are not worthy to be compared with the glory which 19 shall be revealed to us-ward. For the earnest expectation of the creation waiteth for the revealing of 20 the sons of God. For the creation was subjected to vanity, not of its own will, but by reason of him who 21 subjected it, [1]in hope that the creation itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the liberty of the glory of the children of God.
22 For we know that the whole creation groaneth and 23 travaileth in pain [2]together until now. And not only so, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for our adoption, to wit, the re-
24 demption of our body. For by hope were we saved: but hope that is seen is not hope: [3]for who [4]hopeth
25 for that which he seeth? But if we hope for that which we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.
26 And in like manner the Spirit also helpeth our infirmity: for we know not how to pray as we ought; but the Spirit himself maketh intercession
27 for us with groanings which cannot be uttered; and he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, [5]because he maketh intercession
28 for the saints according to the will of God. And we know that to them that love God [6]all things work together for good, even to them that are called according to his purpose. For whom he foreknew, he 29 also foreordained to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many 30 brethren: and whom he foreordained, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.
31 What then shall we say to these things? If God
32 is for us, who is against us? He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall 33 he not also with him freely give us all things? Who shall lay anything to the charge of God's elect? [7]It
34 is God that justifieth; who is he that shall condemn? [8]It is Christ Jesus that died, yea rather, that was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.
35 Who shall separate us from the love [9]of Christ? shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution, or 36 famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? Even as it is written,

For thy sake we are killed all the day long;
We were accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

37 Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors
38 through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor 39 powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other [10]creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

9 I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience bearing witness with me in the Holy Ghost,
2 that I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in 3 my heart. For I could [11]wish that I myself were anathema from Christ for my brethren's sake, my 4 kinsmen according to the flesh: who are Is'ra-el-ites; whose is the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the serv-
5 ice of God, and the promises; whose are the fathers, and of whom is Christ as concerning the flesh, [12]who is over all, God blessed [13]for ever. Amen.

23 And that he might make known [l]the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had [m]afore prepared unto glory,
24 Even us, whom he hath called, [n]not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?
25 As he saith also in O-se'e, [o]I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.
26 [p]And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God.
27 E-sa'ias also crieth concerning Is'ra-el, [q]Though the number of the children of Is'ra-el be as the sand of the sea, [r]a remnant shall be saved:
28 For he will finish ||the work, and cut it short in righteousness: [s]because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.
29 And as E-sa'ias said before, [t]Except the Lord of Sab'a-oth had left us a seed, [u]we had been as Sod'o-ma, and been made like unto Go-mor'rah.
30 What shall we say then? [x]That the Gentiles which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, [y]even the righteousness which is of faith:
31 But Is'ra-el, [z]which followed after the law of righteousness, [a]hath not attained to the law of righteousness.
32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For [b]they stumbled at that stumblingstone;
33 As it is written, [c]Behold, I lay in Si'on a stumblingstone, and rock of offence: and [d]whosoever believeth on him shall not be ||ashamed.

6 But it is not as though the word of God hath come to nought. For they are not all Is'ra-el, which are of 7 Is'ra-el: neither, because they are A'bra-ham's seed, are they all children: but, In I'saac shall thy seed be 8 called. That is, it is not the children of the flesh that are children of God; but the children of the 9 promise are reckoned for a seed. For this is a word of promise, According to this season will I come,
10 and Sa'rah shall have a son. And not only so; but Re-bec'ca also having conceived by one, even by our 11 father I'saac—for the children being not yet born, neither having done anything good or bad, that the purpose of God according to election might stand,
12 not of works, but of him that calleth, it was said un-
13 to her, The elder shall serve the younger. Even as it is written, Ja'cob I loved, but E'sau I hated.
14 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteous-
15 ness with God? God forbid. For he saith to Mo'ses, I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will 16 have compassion on whom I have compassion. So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that 17 runneth, but of God that hath mercy. For the scripture saith unto Pha'raoh, For this very purpose did I raise thee up, that I might shew in thee my power, and that my name might be published abroad
18 in all the earth. So then he hath mercy on whom he will, and whom he will he hardeneth.
19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he still find
20 fault? For who withstandeth his will? Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it,
21 Why didst thou make me thus? Or hath not the potter a right over the clay, from the same lump to make one part a vessel unto honour, and another
22 unto dishonour? What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering vessels of wrath fitted unto de-
23 struction: [1]and that he might make known the riches of his glory upon vessels of mercy, which he afore
24 prepared unto glory, even us, whom he also called, not from the Jews only, but also from the Gentiles?
25 As he saith also in Ho-se'a,

I will call that my people, which was not my people;
And her beloved, which was not beloved.

26 And it shall be, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people,
There shall they be called sons of the living God.
27 And I-sa'iah crieth concerning Is'ra-el, If the number of the children of Is'ra-el be as the sand of the sea,
28 it is the remnant that shall be saved: for the Lord will execute his word upon the earth, finishing it
29 and cutting it short. And, as I-sa'iah hath said before,

Except the Lord of Sab'a-oth had left us a seed,
We had become as Sod'om, and had been made like unto Go-mor'rah.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of 31 faith: but Is'ra-el, following after a law of righteous-
32 ness, did not arrive at that law. Wherefore? [2]Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by works. They stumbled at the stone of stumbling;
33 even as it is written,

Behold, I lay in Zi'on a stone of stumbling and a rock of offence:
And he that believeth on [3]him shall not be put to shame.

CHAPTER X.

Righteousness of the law, and of faith.

BRETHREN, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Is'ra-el is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record [a]that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they, being ignorant of [b]God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own [c]righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

4 For [d]Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

5 For Mo'ses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, [e]That the man which doeth those things shall live by them.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, [f]Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.)

8 But what saith it? [g]The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach:

9 That [h]if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the Scripture saith, [i]Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

12 For [k]there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for [l]the same Lord over all [m]is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 [n]For whosoever shall call [o]upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear [p]without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, [q]How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But [r]they have not all obeyed the gospel. For E-sa'ias saith, [s]Lord, who hath believed †our ‖ report?

17 So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, [t]their sound went into all the earth, [u]and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Is'ra-el know? First Mo'ses saith, [x]I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a [y]foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But E-sa'ias is very bold, and saith, [z]I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Is'ra-el he saith, [a]All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

CHAPTER XI.

A remnant of Israel saved.

I SAY then, [a]Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For [b]I also am an Is'ra-el-ite, of the seed of A'bra-ham, of the tribe of Ben'ja-min.

2 God hath not cast away his people which [c]he foreknew. Wot ye not what the Scripture saith †of E-li'as? how he maketh intercession to God against Is'ra-el, saying,

3 [d]Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? [e]I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Ba'al.

5 [f]Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 And [g]if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise

A. D. 60.

10 Brethren, my heart's [1]desire and my supplication
2 to God is for them, that they may be saved. For I bear them witness that they have a zeal for God, 3 but not according to knowledge. For being ignorant of God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own, they did not subject themselves to the 4 righteousness of God. For Christ is the end of the law unto righteousness to every one that believeth.
5 For Mo'ses writeth that the man that doeth the righteousness which is of the law shall live thereby.
6 But the righteousness which is of faith saith thus,
Say not in thy heart, Who shall ascend into heaven?
7 (that is, to bring Christ down:) or, Who shall descend into the abyss? (that is, to bring Christ up from the 8 dead.) But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of 9 faith, which we preach: [2]because if thou shalt [3]confess with thy mouth Jesus as Lord, and shalt believe in thy heart that God raised him from the dead, thou 10 shalt be saved: for with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is 11 made unto salvation. For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be put to shame.
12 For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek:
for the same Lord is Lord of all, and is rich unto all 13 that call upon him: for, Whosoever shall call upon 14 the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear with-15 out a preacher? and how shall they preach, except they be sent? even as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that bring [4]glad tidings of good things!
16 But they did not all hearken to the [5]glad tidings.
For I-sa'iah saith, Lord, who hath believed our report?
17 So belief cometh of hearing, and hearing by the word
18 of Christ. But I say, Did they not hear? Yea, verily,

Their sound went out into all the earth,
And their words unto the ends of [6]the world.

19 But I say, Did Is'ra-el not know? First Mo'ses saith,

I will provoke you to jealousy with that which is no nation,
With a nation void of understanding will I anger you.

20 And I-sa'iah is very bold, and saith,

I was found of them that sought me not;
I became manifest unto them that asked not of me.

21 But as to Is'ra-el he saith, All the day long did I spread out my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

[3] Some ancient authorities read confess the word with thy mouth, that Jesus is Lord.

11 I say then, Did God cast off his people? God forbid. For I also am an Is'ra-el-ite, of the seed 2 of A'bra-ham, of the tribe of Ben'ja-min. God did not cast off his people which he foreknew. Or wot ye not what the scripture saith [7]of E-li'jah?
3 how he pleadeth with God against Is'ra-el, Lord, they have killed thy prophets, they have digged down thine altars: and I am left alone, and they 4 seek my life. But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have left for myself seven thousand 5 men, who have not bowed the knee to Ba'al. Even so then at this present time also there is a rem-6 nant according to the election of grace. But if it is by grace, it is no more of works: otherwise

[7] Or, in

A. D. 60.

grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

7 What then? [h]Is'ra-el hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were ||blinded

8 (According as it is written, [i]God hath given them the spirit of ||slumber, [k]eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day.

9 And Da'vid saith, [l]Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumblingblock, and a recompense unto them:

10 [m]Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather [n]through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the ||diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness?

13 For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as [o]I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office:

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and [p]might save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For if [q]the firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

17 And if [r]some of the branches be broken off, [s]and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert graffed in ||among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree;

18 [t]Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be graffed in.

20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. [u]Be not highminded, but [x]fear:

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, [y]if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise [z]thou also shalt be cut off.

23 And they also, [a]if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graff them in again.

24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert graffed contrary to nature into a good olive tree; how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be graffed into their own olive tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be [b]wise in your own conceits, that [c]||blindness in part is happened to Is'ra-el, [d]until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so all Is'ra-el shall be saved: as it is written, [e]There shall come out of Si'on the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Ja'cob:

27 [f]For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are [g]beloved for the fathers' sakes.

29 For the gifts and calling of God are [h]without repentance.

30 For as ye [i]in times past have not ||believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:

31 Even so have these also now not ||believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

32 For [k]God hath ||concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! [l]how unsearchable are his judgments, and [m]his ways past finding out!

7 grace is no more grace. What then? That which Is'ra-el seeketh for, that he obtained not; but the elec-
8 tion obtained it, and the rest were hardened: according as it is written, God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they 9 should not hear, unto this very day. And Da'vid saith,

Let their table be made a snare, and a trap,
And a stumblingblock, and a recompense unto them:

10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see,
And bow thou down their back alway.

11 I say then, Did they stumble that they might fall? God forbid: but by their [1]fall salvation is come unto 12 the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy. Now if their fall is the riches of the world, and their loss the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness?

13 But I speak to you that are Gentiles. Inasmuch then as I am an apostle of Gentiles, I glorify my 14 ministry: if by any means I may provoke to jealousy them that are my flesh, and may save some of them.
15 For if the casting away of them is the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but 16 life from the dead? And if the firstfruit is holy, so is the lump: and if the root is holy, so are the 17 branches. But if some of the branches were broken off, and thou, being a wild olive, wast grafted in among them, and didst become partaker with them
18 [2]of the root of the fatness of the olive tree; glory not over the branches: but if thou gloriest, it is not 19 thou that bearest the root, but the root thee. Thou wilt say then, Branches were broken off, that I might 20 be grafted in. Well; by their unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by thy faith. Be not 21 highminded, but fear: for if God spared not the 22 natural branches, neither will he spare thee. Behold then the goodness and severity of God: toward them that fell, severity; but toward thee, God's goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou
23 also shalt be cut off. And they also, if they continue not in their unbelief, shall be grafted in: for 24 God is able to graft them in again. For if thou wast cut out of that which is by nature a wild olive tree, and wast grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, have you ignorant of this mystery, lest ye be wise in your own conceits, that a hardening in part hath befallen Is'ra-el, until 26 the fulness of the Gentiles be come in; and so all Is'ra-el shall be saved: even as it is written,

There shall come out of Zi'on the Deliverer;
He shall turn away [3]ungodliness from Ja'cob:
27 And this is [4]my covenant unto them,
When I shall take away their sins.

28 As touching the gospel, they are enemies for your sake: but as touching the election, they are beloved
29 for the fathers' sake. For the gifts and the calling
30 of God are [5]without repentance. For as ye in time past were disobedient to God, but now have obtained 31 mercy by their disobedience, even so have these also now been disobedient, that by the mercy shewn to 32 you they also may now obtain mercy. For God hath shut up all unto disobedience, that he might have mercy upon all.

33 O the depth [6]of the riches [7]both of the wisdom and the knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgements, and his ways past tracing out!

God to be praised for his mercies.

I [a]BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, [b]that ye [c]present your bodies [d]a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

2 And [e]be not conformed to this world: but [f]be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may [g]prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God.

3 For I say, [h]through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, [i]not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think †soberly, according as God hath dealt [k]to every man the measure of faith.

4 For [l]as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

5 So [m]we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

6 [n]Having then gifts differing [o]according to the grace that is given to us, whether [p]prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

7 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering; or [q]he that teacheth, on teaching;

8 Or [r]he that exhorteth, on exhortation: [s]he that ‖ giveth, let him do it ‖ with simplicity; [t]he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, [u]with cheerfulness.

9 [x]Let love be without dissimulation. [y]Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

10 [z]Be kindly affectioned one to another ‖ with brotherly love; [a]in honour preferring one another;

11 Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

12 [b]Rejoicing in hope; [c]patient in tribulation; [d]continuing instant in prayer;

13 [e]Distributing to the necessity of saints; [f]given to hospitality.

14 [g]Bless them which persecute you; bless, and curse not.

15 [h]Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

16 [i]Be of the same mind one toward another. [k]Mind not high things, but ‖ condescend to men of low estate. [l]Be not wise in your own conceits.

17 [m]Recompense to no man evil for evil. [n]Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, [o]live peaceably with all men.

19 Dearly beloved, [p]avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, [q]Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

20 [r]Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

21 Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

CHAPTER XIII.

Of subjection to magistrates.

LET every soul [a]be subject unto the higher powers. For [b]there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ‖ ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth [c]the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? [d]do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the

35 who hath been his counsellor? or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him

12 I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, [2]acceptable to God, which is your [3]reasonable [4]serv-
2 ice. And be not fashioned according to this [5]world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is [6]the good and [2]acceptable and perfect will of God.

3 For I say, through the grace that was given me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but so to think as to think soberly, according as God hath 4 dealt to each man a measure of faith. For even as we have many members in one body, and all the
5 members have not the same office: so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and severally members
6 one of another. And having gifts differing according to the grace that was given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of [7]our

8 try; or he that teacheth, to his teaching; or he that exhorteth, to his exhorting: he that giveth, let him do it with [8]liberality; he that ruleth, with diligence;
9 he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness. Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor that which is evil;
10 cleave to that which is good. In love of the brethren be tenderly affectioned one to another; in hon-
11 our preferring one another; in diligence not sloth-
12 ful; fervent in spirit, serving [9]the Lord; rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing stedfastly 13 in prayer; communicating to the necessities of the 14 saints; [10]given to hospitality. Bless them that persecute you; bless, and curse not. Rejoice with them 15 that rejoice; weep with them that weep. Be of the 16 same mind one toward another. Set not your mind on high things, but [11]condescend to [12]things that are 17 lowly. Be not wise in your own conceits. Render to no man evil for evil. Take thought for things
18 honourable in the sight of all men. If it be possible, as much as in you lieth, be at peace with all men.
19 Avenge not yourselves, beloved, but give place unto [13]wrath: for it is written, Vengeance belongeth unto

Not to censure one another, &c.

HIM that [a]is weak in the faith receive ye, but ‖ not to doubtful disputations.

2 For one believeth that he [b]may eat all things; another, who is weak, eateth herbs.

3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and [c]let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.

4 [d]Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth; yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.

5 [e]One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be ‖ fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that [f]‖ regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for [g]he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For [h]none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

CHAPTER XV.

The strong ought to bear with the weak.

WE [a]then that are strong ought to bear the [b]infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

2 [c]Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good [d]to edification.

3 [e]For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, [f]The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

4 For [g]whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope.

5 [h]Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another ‖ according to Christ Jesus:

6 That ye may [i]with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Wherefore [k]receive ye one another, [l]as Christ also received us, to the glory of God.

8 Now I say that [m]Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, [n]to confirm the promises made unto the fathers:

9 And [o]that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, [p]For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.

10 And again he saith, [q]Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again, [r]Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people.

12 And again E-sa'ias saith, [s]There shall be a root of Jes'se, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all [t]joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

14 And [u]I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, [x]filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, [y]because of the grace that is given to me of God,

16 That [z]I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the ‖ [a]offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

17 I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ [b]in those things which pertain to God.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things [c]which Christ hath not wrought by me, [d]to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed,

19 [e]Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of 15 For if because of meat thy brother is grieved, thou walkest no longer in love. Destroy not with thy 16 meat him for whom Christ died. Let not then

17 your good be evil spoken of: for the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness
18 and peace and joy in the Holy Ghost. For he that herein serveth Christ is well-pleasing to God,
19 and approved of men. So then [1]let us follow after things which make for peace, and things whereby
20 we may edify one another. Overthrow not for meat's sake the work of God. All things indeed are clean; howbeit it is evil for that man who eateth
21 with offence. It is good not to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor to do anything whereby thy brother
22 stumbleth[2]. The faith which thou hast, have thou to thyself before God. Happy is he that judgeth not 23 himself in that which he [3]approveth. But he that doubteth is condemned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith; and whatsoever is not of faith is sin.[4]

15 Now we that are strong ought to bear the infirm-
2 ities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Let each one of us please his neighbour for that which is
3 good, unto edifying. For Christ also pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that
4 reproached thee fell upon me. For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that through patience and through comfort of 5 the scriptures we might have hope. Now the God of patience and of comfort grant you to be of the same
6 mind one with another according to Christ Jesus: that with one accord ye may with one mouth glorify the 7 God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive ye one another, even as Christ also 8 received [5]you, to the glory of God. For I say that Christ hath been made a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, that he might confirm the 9 promises given unto the fathers, and that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written,

Therefore will I [6]give praise unto thee among the Gentiles,
And sing unto thy name.

10 And again he saith,
Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again,
Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles;
And let all the peoples praise him.

12 And again, I-sa'iah saith,
There shall be the root of Jes'se,
And he that ariseth to rule over the Gentiles;
On him shall the Gentiles hope.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, in the power of the Holy Ghost.

14 And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one an-
15 other. But I write the more boldly unto you in some measure, as putting you again in remembrance, because of the grace that was given me of God,
16 that I should be a minister of Christ Jesus unto the Gentiles, [7]ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be made acceptable,
17 being sanctified by the Holy Ghost. I have therefore my glorifying in Christ Jesus in things per-18 taining to God. For I will not dare to speak of any [8]things save those which Christ wrought through me, for the obedience of the Gentiles, by word and deed, the Spirit of God; so that from Je-ru'sa-lem, and round about unto Il-lyr'i-cum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, [f]lest I should build upon another man's foundation:
21 But as it is written, [g]To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.
22 For which cause also [h]I have been ||much hindered from coming to you.
23 But now having no more place in these parts, and [i]having a great desire these many years to come unto you;
24 Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, [k]and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled †with your company.
25 But now [l]I go unto Je-ru'sa-lem to minister unto the saints.
26 For [m]it hath pleased them of Mac-e-do'ni-a and A-cha'ia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Je-ru'sa-lem.
27 It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For [n]if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, [o]their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.
28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them [p]this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.
29 [q]And I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.
30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and [r]for the love of the Spirit, [s]that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;
31 [t]That I may be delivered from them that ||do not believe in Ju-de'a; and that [u]my service which I have for Je-ru'sa-lem may be accepted of the saints;
32 [x]That I may come unto you with joy [y]by the will of God, and may with you [z]be refreshed.
33 Now [a]the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

CHAPTER XVI.

Salutations and praise.

I COMMEND unto you Phe'be our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at [a]Cen'chre-a:
2 [b]That ye receive her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also.
3 Greet [c]Pris-cil'la and Aq'ui-la, my helpers in Christ Jesus:
4 Who have for my life laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.
5 Likewise greet [d]the church that is in their house. Salute my well beloved E-pen'e-tus, who is [e]the firstfruits of A-cha'ia unto Christ.
6 Greet Ma'ry, who bestowed much labour on us.
7 Salute An-dro-ni'cus and Ju'ni-a, my kinsmen, and my fellow prisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also [f]were in Christ before me.
8 Greet Am'pli-as, my beloved in the Lord.
9 Salute Ur'bane, our helper in Christ, and Sta'chys my beloved.
10 Salute A-pel'les, approved in Christ. Salute them which are of A-ris-to-bu'lus' ||household.
11 Salute He-ro'di-on my kinsman. Greet them that be of the ||household of Nar-cis'sus, which are in the Lord.
12 Salute Try-phe'na and Try-pho'sa, who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Per'sis, which laboured much in the Lord.
13 Saute Ru'fus, [g]chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.
14 Salute A-syn'cri-tus, Phle'gon, Her'mas, Pa-tro'bas, Her'mes, and the brethren which are with them.
15 Salute Phi-lol'o-gus, and Ju'li-a, Ne're-us, and his sister, and O-lym'pas, and all the saints which are with them.
16 [h]Salute one another with a holy kiss. The churches of Christ salute you.

[1]the Holy Ghost; so that from Je-ru'sa-lem, and round about even unto Il-lyr'i-cum, I have [2]fully preached
20 the gospel of Christ; yea, [3]making it my aim so to preach the gospel, not where Christ was already named, that I might not build upon another man's 21 foundation; but, as it is written,

They shall see, to whom no tidings of him came,
And they who have not heard shall understand.

22 Wherefore also I was hindered these many times
23 from coming to you: but now, having no more any place in these regions, and having these many years
24 a longing to come unto you, whensoever I go unto Spain (for I hope to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first in some measure I shall have been satisfied with 25 your company)—but now, I say, I go unto Je-ru'-
26 sa-lem, ministering unto the saints, for it hath been the good pleasure of Mac-e-do'ni-a and A-cha'ia to make a certain contribution for the poor among the 27 saints that are at Je-ru'sa-lem. Yea, it hath been their good pleasure; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, they owe it to them also to minister
28 unto them in carnal things. When therefore I have accomplished this, and have sealed to them this fruit,
29 I will go on by you unto Spain. And I know that, when I come unto you I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of Christ.
30 Now I beseech you, brethren, by our Lord Jesus Christ, and by the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;
31 that I may be delivered from them that are disobedient in Ju-dæ'a, and that my ministration which I have for Je-ru'sa-lem may be acceptable to the saints;
32 that I may come unto you in joy through the will 33 of God, and together with you find rest. Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

16 I commend unto you Phœ'be our sister, who is a
2 [4]servant of the church that is at Cen'chre-æ: that ye receive her in the Lord worthily of the saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever matter she may have need of you: for she herself also hath been a succourer of many, and of mine own self.
3 Salute Pris'ca and Aq'ui-la my fellow-workers in 4 Christ Jesus, who for my life laid down their own necks; unto whom not only I give thanks, but also 5 all the churches of the Gentiles: and salute the church that is in their house. Salute E-pæn'e-tus my beloved, who is the firstfruits of A'si-a unto Christ.
6 Salute Ma'ry, who bestowed much labour on you.
7 Salute An-dro-ni'cus and [5]Ju'ni-as, my kinsmen, and my fellow-prisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also have been in Christ before me.
8 9 Salute Am-pli-a'tus my beloved in the Lord. Salute
Ur-ba'nus our fellow-worker in Christ, and Sta'chys
10 my beloved. Salute A-pel'les the approved in Christ. Salute them which are of the household of A-ris-to-bu'-
11 lus. Salute He-ro'di-on my kinsman. Salute them of the household of Nar-cis'sus, which are in the Lord.
12 Salute Try-phæ'na and Try-pho'sa, who labour in the Lord. Salute Per'sis the beloved, which laboured 13 much in the Lord. Salute Ru'fus the chosen in the 14 Lord, and his mother and mine. Salute A-syn'cri-tus, Phle'gon, Her'mes, Pa-tro'bas, Her'mas, and the breth-
15 ren that are with them. Salute Phi-lol'o-gus and Ju'li-a, Ne're-us and his sister, and O-lym'pas, and all the 16 saints that are with them. Salute one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ salute you.

CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER I.

Paul exhorteth to unity.

1 PAUL, [a]called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ [b]through the will of God, and [c]Sos'the-nes our brother,

2 Unto the church of God which is at Cor'inth, [d]to them that [e]are sanctified in Christ Jesus, [f]called to be saints, with all that in every place [g]call upon the name of Jesus Christ [h]our Lord, [i]both theirs and ours:

3 [k]Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 [l]I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ;

5 That in every thing ye are enriched by him, [m]in all utterance, and in all knowledge;

6 Even as [n]the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:

7 So that ye come behind in no gift; [o]waiting for the †coming of our Lord Jesus Christ:

9 [r]God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto [s]the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, [t]that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no †divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chlo'e, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, [u]that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of [x]A-pol'los; and I of [y]Ce'phas; and I of Christ.

THE
FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE
TO THE CORINTHIANS.

1 Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sos'the-nes [1]our brother,
2 unto the church of God which is at Cor'inth, even them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place, their Lord and ours:
3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
4 I thank [2]my God always concerning you, for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus;
5 that in everything ye were enriched in him, in all
6 [3]utterance and all knowledge; even as the testimony
7 of Christ was confirmed in you: so that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the revelation of our 8 Lord Jesus Christ; who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye be unreproveable in the day of our 9 Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful, through whom ye were called into the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.
10 Now I beseech you, brethren, through the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfected together in the same
11 mind and in the same judgement. For it hath been signified unto me concerning you, my brethren, by them which are of the household of Chlo'e
12 that there are contentions among you. Now this I mean, that each one of you saith, I am of Paul? and I of A-pol'los; and I of Ce'phas; and I of Christ.

[1] Gr. the brother.
[2] Some ancient authorities omit my.
[3] Gr. word.

A. D. 59.

13 [a]Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but [c]Cris'pus and [b]Ga'ius;

15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the household of [c]Steph'a-nas; besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: [d]not with wisdom of ‖ words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is to [e]them that perish, [f]foolishness; but unto us [g]which are saved, it is the [h]power of God.

19 For it is written, [i]I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 [k]Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? [l]hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

21 [m]For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22 For the [n]Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

23 But we preach Christ crucified, [o]unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks [p]foolishness;

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ [q]the power of God, and [r]the wisdom of God.

25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that [s]not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble are called:

27 But [t]God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;

28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and [u]things which are not, [z]to bring to nought things that are:

29 [v]That no flesh should glory in his presence.

30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us [a]wisdom, and [a]righteousness, and [b]sanctification, and [c]redemption:

31 That, according as it is written, [d]He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

CHAPTER II.

How Paul preached the gospel.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, [a]came not with excellency of speech, or of wisdom, declaring unto you [b]the testimony of God.

2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, [c]save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 And [d]I was with you [e]in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech and my preaching [f]was not with ‖ enticing words of man's wisdom, [g]but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:

5 That your faith should not †stand in the wisdom of men, but [h]in the power of God.

6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them [i]that are perfect: yet not [k]the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, [l]that come to nought:

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, [m]which God ordained before the world unto our glory;

8 [n]Which none of the princes of this world knew: for [o]had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, [p]Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But [q]God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit; for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, [r]save the spirit

13 [1]Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or 14 were ye baptized into the name of Paul? [2]I thank God that I baptized none of you, save Cris'pus and 15 Ga'ius; lest any man should say that ye were bap-
16 tized into my name. And I baptized also the household of Steph'a-nas: besides, I know not whether I 17 baptized any other. For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not in wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made void.
18 For the word of the cross is to them that are perishing foolishness; but unto us which are being 19 saved it is the power of God. For it is written,

I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,
And the prudence of the prudent will I reject.

20 Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this [3]world? hath not God made 21 foolish the wisdom of the world? For seeing that in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom knew not God, it was God's good pleasure through the foolishness of the [4]preaching to save them that 22 believe. Seeing that Jews ask for signs, and Greeks 23 seek after wisdom: but we preach [5]Christ crucified, unto Jews a stumblingblock, and unto Gentiles fool-24 ishness; but unto [6]them that are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of 25 God. Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.
26 For [7]behold your calling, brethren, how that not many wise after the flesh, not many mighty, not 27 many noble, [8]are called: but God chose the foolish things of the world, that he might put to shame them that are wise; and God chose the weak things of the world, that he might put to shame the things that 28 are strong; and the base things of the world, and the things that are despised, did God choose, yea [9]and the things that are not, that he might bring to 29 nought the things that are: that no flesh should 30 glory before God. But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who was made unto us wisdom from God, [10]and right-31 eousness and sanctification, and redemption: that, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

2 And I, brethren, when I came unto you, came not with excellency of [11]speech or of wisdom, proclaim-2 ing to you the [12]mystery of God. For I determined not to know anything among you, save Jesus Christ, 3 and him crucified. And I was with you in weak-
4 ness, and in fear, and in much trembling. And my [11]speech and my [13]preaching were not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit 5 and of power: that your faith should not [14]stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.
6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among the [15]perfect: yet a wisdom not of this [16]world, nor of the rulers of this 7 [16]world, which are coming to nought: but we speak God's wisdom in a mystery, even the wisdom that hath been hidden, which God foreordained before the 8 worlds unto our glory: which none of the rulers of this world knoweth: for had they known it, they would not 9 have crucified the Lord of glory: but as it is written,

Things which eye saw not, and ear heard not,
And which entered not into the heart of man, Whatsoever things God prepared for them that love him.

10 [17]But unto us God revealed [18]them through the Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, 11 the deep things of God. For who among men knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? [e]even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but [f]the Spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 [u]Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 [x]But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: [y]for they are foolishness unto him: [z]neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 [a]But he that is spiritual ‖judgeth all things, yet he himself is ‖judged of no man.

16 [b]For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he †may instruct him? [c]But we have the mind of Christ.

CHAPTER III.

How Paul dealt with weak believers.

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto [a]spiritual, but as unto [b]carnal, even as unto [c]babes in Christ.

2 I have fed you with [d]milk, and not with meat: [e]for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for [f]whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and ‖divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk †as men?

4 For while one saith, [g]I am of Paul; and another, I am of A-pol'los; are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Paul, and who is A-pol'los, but [h]ministers by whom ye believed, [i]even as the Lord gave to every man?

6 [k]I have planted, [l]A-pol'los watered; [m]but God gave the increase.

7 So then [n]neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: [o]and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

9 For [p]we are labourers together with God: ye are God's ‖husbandry, ye are [q]God's building.

10 [r]According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid [s]the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But [t]let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

11 For other foundation can no man lay than [u]that is laid, [x]which is Jesus Christ.

12 Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

13 [v]Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day [s]shall declare it, because [a]it †shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, [b]he shall receive a reward.

15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; [c]yet so as by fire.

16 [d]Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man ‖defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 [e]Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For [f]the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God: for it is written, [g]He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

20 And again, [h]The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 Therefore [i]let no man glory in men: for [k]all things are yours;

22 Whether Paul, or A-pol'los, or Ce'phas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;

23 And [l]ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

of the man, which is in him? even so the things of 12 God none knoweth, save the Spirit of God. But we received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things
13 that are freely given to us by God. Which things also we speak, not in words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Spirit teacheth; [1] [2]compar-
14 ing spiritual things with spiritual. Now the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him; and he cannot 15 know them, because they are spiritually [3]judged. But he that is spiritual [4]judgeth all things, and he him-
16 self is [3]judged of no man. For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he should instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

3 And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, as unto babes in Christ.
2 I fed you with milk, not with meat; for ye were not
3 yet able to bear it: nay, not even now are ye able; for ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you jealousy and strife, are ye not carnal, and walk after 4 the manner of men? For when one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of A-pol'los; are ye not 5 men? What then is A-pol'los? and what is Paul? Ministers through whom ye believed; and each as 6 the Lord gave to him. I planted, A-pol'los watered:
7 but God gave the increase. So then neither is he that planteth anything, neither he that watereth; but God
8 that giveth the increase. Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: but each shall receive his 9 own reward according to his own labour. For we are God's fellow-workers: ye are God's [5]husbandry, God's building.

10 According to the grace of God which was given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder I laid a foundation; and another buildeth thereon. But let each man
11 take heed how he buildeth thereon. For other foundation can no man lay than that which is laid, which 12 is Jesus Christ. But if any man buildeth on the foundation gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay,
13 stubble; each man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it is revealed in fire; [6]and the fire itself shall prove each man's work
14 of what sort it is. If any man's work shall abide 15 which he built thereon, he shall receive a reward. If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as through fire.

16 Know ye not that ye are a [7]temple of God, and 17 that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man destroyeth the [7]temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the [7]temple of God is holy, [8]which temple ye are.

18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man thinketh that he is wise among you in this [9]world, let him
19 become a fool, that he may become wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He that taketh the wise in their crafti-
20 ness: and again, The Lord knoweth the reasonings
21 of the wise, that they are vain. Wherefore let no
22 one glory in men. For all things are yours; whether Paul, or A-pol'los, or Ce'phas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all 23 are yours; and ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

CHAPTER IV.

How to account of ministers, &c.

LET a man so account of us, as of [a]the ministers of Christ, [b]and stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's †judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.

4 For I know nothing by myself; [c]yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 [d]Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, [e]who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and [f]then shall every man have praise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, [g]I have in a figure transferred to myself, and to A-pol'los, for your sakes; [h]that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you [i]be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who †maketh thee to differ from another? and [k]what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

8 Now ye are full, [l]now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth || us the apostles last, [m]as it were appointed to death: for [n]we are made a †spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 [o]We are [p]fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; [q]we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised.

11 [r]Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and [s]are naked, and [t]are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace;

12 [u]And labour, working with our own hands: [x]being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it;

13 Being defamed, we entreat: [y]we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but [z]as my beloved sons I warn you.

15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for [a]in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.

16 Wherefore I beseech you, [b]be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause have I sent unto you [c]Ti-mo'the-us, [d]who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you [e]into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I [f]teach every where [g]in every church.

18 [h]Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.

19 [i]But I will come to you shortly, [k]if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

20 For [l]the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What will ye? [m]shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

CHAPTER V.

Paul reproveth for sundry sins.

IT is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as [a]named among the Gentiles, [b]that one should have his [c]father's wife.

2 [d]And ye are puffed up, and have not rather [e]mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

3 [f]For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have ||judged already as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed,

4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, [g]with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,

5 [h]To deliver such a one unto [i]Sa'tan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

4 Let a man so account of us, as of ministers of Christ,
2 and stewards of the mysteries of God. Here, moreover, it is required in stewards, that a man be found
3 faithful. But with me it is a very small thing that I should be [1]judged of you, or of man's [2]judgement:
4 yea, I [3]judge not mine own self. For I know nothing against myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but 5 he that [4]judgeth me is the Lord. Wherefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and make manifest the counsels of the hearts; and then shall each man have his praise from God.

6 Now these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and A-pol'los for your sakes; that in us ye might learn not to go beyond the things which are written; that no one of you be puffed up
7 for the one against the other. For who maketh thee to differ? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? but if thou didst receive it, why dost
8 thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it? Already are ye filled, already ye are become rich, ye have reigned without us: yea and I would that ye
9 did reign, that we also might reign with you. For, I think, God hath set forth us the apostles last of all, as men doomed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, [5]and to angels, and to 10 men. We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye 11 have glory, but we have dishonour. Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwell-
12 ingplace; and we toil, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we en-
13 dure; being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the [6]filth of the world, the offscouring of all things, even until now.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but to ad-
15 monish you as my beloved children. For though ye should have ten thousand tutors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I begat
16 you through the gospel. I beseech you therefore,
17 be ye imitators of me. For this cause have I sent unto you Tim'o-thy, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who shall put you in remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, even as I
18 teach everywhere in every church. Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you.
19 But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will; and I will know, not the word of them which are 20 puffed up, but the power. For the kingdom of God
21 is not in word, but in power. What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of meekness?

5 It is actually reported that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not even among the Gentiles, that one of you hath his father's
2 wife. And [7]ye are puffed up, and [8]did not rather mourn, that he that had done this deed might be
3 taken away from among you. For I verily, being absent in body but present in spirit, have already, as though I were present, judged him that hath so
4 wrought this thing, in the name of our Lord Jesus, ye being gathered together, and my spirit, with the 5 power of our Lord Jesus, to deliver such a one unto Sa'tan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord [9]Jesus.

6 [k]Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that [l]a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even [m]Christ our [n]passover ‖ is sacrificed for us:

8 Therefore [o]let us keep ‖ the feast, [p]not with old leaven, neither [q]with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle [r]not to company with fornicators:

10 [s]Yet not altogether with the fornicators [t]of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go [u]out of the world.

11 But now I have written unto you not to keep company, [z]if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a one [y]no not to eat.

12 For what have I to do to judge [a]them also that are without? do not ye judge [a]them that are within?

13 But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore [b]put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

CHAPTER VI.

Of controversies before heathen judges.

DARE any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?

2 Do ye not know that [c]the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall [b]judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?

4 [c]If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. [d]Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, [e]and that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived; [f]neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were [g]some of you: [h]but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 [i]All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not ‖ expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

13 [k]Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but [l]for the Lord; [m]and the Lord for the body.

14 And [n]God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us [o]by his own power.

15 Know ye not that [p]your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of a harlot? God forbid.

16 What! know ye not that he which is joined to a harlot is one body? for [q]two, saith he, shall be one flesh.

17 [r]But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.

18 [s]Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth [t]against his own body.

CHAPTER VII.

Use of marriage.

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: [a]It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 [b]Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5 [c]Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that [d]Sa'tan tempt ye not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this by permission, [e]and not of commandment.

7 For [f]I would that all men were [g]even as I myself. But [h]every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, [i]It is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But [k]if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 And unto the married I command, [l]yet not I, but the Lord, [m]Let not the wife depart from her husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I, [n]not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath a husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else [o]were your children unclean; but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases; but God hath called us [p]†to peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt [q]save thy husband? or †how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And [r]so ordain I in all churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? [s]let him not be circumcised.

19 [u]Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but [x]the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is [y]the Lord's †freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is [z]Christ's servant.

23 [a]Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, [b]let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins [c]I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one [d]that hath obtained mercy of the Lord [e]to be faithful.

26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present ‖distress, I say, [f]that it is good for a man so to be.

the [1]Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have 20 from God? and ye are not your own; for ye were bought with a price: glorify God therefore in your body.

7 Now concerning the things whereof ye wrote: It
2 is good for a man not to touch a woman. But, because of fornications, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband.
3 Let the husband render unto the wife her due: and
4 likewise also the wife unto the husband. The wife hath not power over her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power
5 over his own body, but the wife. Defraud ye not one the other, except it be by consent for a season, that ye may give yourselves unto prayer, and may be together again, that Sa'tan tempt you not because
6 of your incontinency. But this I say by way of 7 permission, not of commandment. [2]Yet I would that all men were even as I myself. Howbeit each man hath his own gift from God, one after this manner, and another after that.
8 But I say to the unmarried and to widows, It is 9 good for them if they abide even as I. But if they have not continency, let them marry: for it is better
10 to marry than to burn. But unto the married I give charge, yea not I, but the Lord, That the wife de-11 part not from her husband (but and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband); and that the husband leave not his wife.
12 But to the rest say I, not the Lord: If any brother hath an unbelieving wife, and she is content to dwell
13 with him, let him not leave her. And the woman which hath an unbelieving husband, and he is content to dwell with her, let her not leave her hus-
14 band. For the unbelieving husband is sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified in the brother: else were your children unclean; but now
15 are they holy. Yet if the unbelieving departeth, let him depart: the brother or the sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called [3]us in 16 peace. For how knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O husband, whether thou shalt save thy wife?
17 Only, as the Lord hath distributed to each man, as God hath called each, so let him walk. And so or-
18 dain I in all the churches. Was any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Hath any been called in uncircumcision?
19 let him not be circumcised. Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing; but the keeping 20 of the commandments of God. Let each man abide 21 in that calling wherein he was called. Wast thou called being a bondservant? care not for it: [4]but if 22 thou canst become free, use it rather. For he that was called in the Lord, being a bondservant, is the Lord's freedman: likewise he that was called, being 23 free, is Christ's bondservant. Ye were bought with 24 a price; become not bondservants of men. Brethren, let each man, wherein he was called, therein abide with God.
25 Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: but I give my judgement, as one that hath 26 obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful. I think therefore that this is good by reason of the present distress, namely, that it is good for a man [5]to be as he is.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 But [o]this I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

31 And they that use this world, as not [h]abusing it: for [i]the fashion of this world passeth away.

32 But I would have you without carefulness. [k]He that is unmarried careth for the things †that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman [l]careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

37 Nevertheless he that standeth steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.

38 [m]So then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.

39 [n]The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; [o]only in the Lord.

40 But she is happier if she so abide [p]after my judgment: and [q]I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

CHAPTER VIII.

To abstain from forbidden meats.

NOW [a]as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have [b]knowledge. [c]Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

2 And [d]if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God, [e]the same is known of him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that [f]an idol is nothing in the world, [g]and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that are [h]called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many and lords many,)

6 But [i]to us there is but one God, the Father, [k]of whom are all things, and we ‖in him; and [l]one Lord Jesus Christ, [m]by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some [n]with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is [o]defiled.

8 But [p]meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, ‖are we the better; neither, if we eat not, ‖are we the worse.

9 But [q]take heed lest by any means this ‖liberty of yours become [r]a stumblingblock to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not [t]the conscience of him which is weak be †emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

11 And [u]through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed.
28 Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife. But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Yet such shall have tribulation in the flesh: and I would 29 spare you. But this I say, brethren, the time [1]is shortened, that henceforth both those that have 30 wives may be as though they had none; and those that weep, as though they wept not; and those that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and those that
31 buy, as though they possessed not; and those that use the world, as not [2]abusing it: for the fashion
32 of this world passeth away. But I would have you to be free from cares. He that is unmarried is careful for the things of the Lord, how he may 33 please the Lord: but he that is married is careful for the things of the world, how he may please his 34 [3]wife. And there is a difference also between the wife and the virgin. She that is unmarried is careful for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married is careful for the things of the world, how she may 35 please her husband. And this I say for your own profit; not that I may cast a [4]snare upon you, but for that which is seemly, and that ye may attend
36 upon the Lord without distraction. But if any man thinketh that he behaveth himself unseemly toward his [5]virgin daughter, if she be past the flower of her age, and if need so requireth, let him do what he 37 will; he sinneth not; let them marry. But he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power as touching his own will, and hath determined this in his own heart, to keep his own [5]vir-
38 gin daughter, shall do well. So then both he that giveth his own [5]virgin daughter in marriage doeth well; and he that giveth her not in marriage shall do bet-
39 ter. A wife is bound for so long time as her husband liveth; but if the husband be [6]dead, she is free to be 40 married to whom she will; only in the Lord. But she is happier if she abide as she is, after my judgement: and I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

8 Now concerning things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge
2 puffeth up, but love [7]edifieth. If any man thinketh that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth not yet as 3 he ought to know; but if any man loveth God, the 4 same is known of him. Concerning therefore the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that no idol is anything in the world, and that there is no
5 God but one. For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or on earth; as there are
6 gods many, and lords many; yet to us there is one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we unto him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom 7 are all things, and we through him. Howbeit in all men there is not that knowledge: but some, being used until now to the idol, eat as of a thing sacrificed to an idol: and their conscience being weak is 8 defiled. But meat will not commend us to God: neither, if we eat not, [8]are we the worse; nor if 9 we eat [9]are we the better. But take heed lest by any means this [10]liberty of yours become a stum-
10 blingblock to the weak. For if a man see thee which hast knowledge sitting at meat in an idol's temple, will not his conscience, if he is weak, [11]be emboldened to eat things sacrificed to idols?
11 For [12]through thy knowledge he that is weak perisheth, the brother for whose sake Christ died.

12 But [z]when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

CHAPTER IX.

Ministers have a right to a maintenance.

AM [a]I not an apostle? am I not free? [b]have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? [c]are not ye my work in the Lord?
2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for [d]the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.
3 Mine answer to them that do examine me is this:
4 [e]Have we not power to eat and to drink?
5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a || wife, as well as other apostles, and as [f]the brethren of the Lord, and [g]Ce'phas?
6 Or I only and Bar'na-bas, [h]have not we power to forbear working?
7 Who [i]goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who [k]planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who [l]feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?
8 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?
9 For it is written in the law of Mo'ses, [m]Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?
10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes no doubt, this is written: that [n]he that plougheth should plough in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope, should be partaker of his hope.
11 [o]If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?
12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? [p]Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, [q]lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.
13 [r]Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things || live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?
14 Even so [s]hath the Lord ordained [t]that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.
15 But [u]I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for [x]it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.
16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for [y]necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!
17 For if I do this thing willingly, [z]I have a reward: but if against my will, [a]a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.
18 What is my reward then? Verily that, [b]when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I [c]abuse not my power in the gospel.
19 For though I be [d]free from all men, yet have [e]I made myself servant unto all, [f]that I might gain the more.
20 And [g]unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;
21 [h]To [i]them that are without law, as without law, ([k]being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.
22 [l]To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: [m]I am made all things to all men, [n]that I might by all means save some.
23 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.
24 Know ye not, that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? [o]So run that ye may obtain.
25 And every man that [p]striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we [q]an incorruptible.

12 And thus, sinning against the brethren, and wounding their conscience when it is weak, ye sin against 13 Christ. Wherefore, if meat maketh my brother to stumble, I will eat no flesh for evermore, that I make not my brother stumble.

9 Am I not free? am I not an apostle? have I not seen Jesus our Lord? are not ye my work in the 2 Lord? If to others I am not an apostle, yet at least I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye
3 in the Lord. My defence to them that examine me
4 is this. Have we no right to eat and to drink?
5 Have we no right to lead about a wife that is a [1]believer, even as the rest of the apostles, and the brethren of the Lord, and Ce'phas?
6 Or I only and Bar'na-bas, have we not a right to forbear working?
7 What soldier ever serveth at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk
8 of the flock? Do I speak these things after the manner of men? or saith not the law also the same?
9 For it is written in the law of Mo'ses, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn. Is it
10 for the oxen that God careth, or [2]saith he it altogether for our sake? Yea, for our sake it was written: because he that ploweth ought to plow in hope, and he that thresheth, to thresh in hope of partaking.
11 If we sowed unto you spiritual things, is it a great
12 matter if we shall reap your carnal things? If others partake of this right over you, do not we yet more? Nevertheless we did not use this right; but we bear all things, that we may cause no hindrance to the 13 gospel of Christ. Know ye not that they which minister about sacred things eat of the things of the temple, and they which wait upon the altar have 14 their portion with the altar? Even so did the Lord ordain that they which proclaim the gospel should 15 live of the gospel. But I have used none of these things: and I write not these things that it may be so done in my case: for it were good for me rather to die, than that any man should make my glorying
16 void. For if I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; for woe
17 is unto me, if I preach not the gospel. For if I do this of mine own will, I have a reward: but if not of mine own will, I have a stewardship intrusted to 18 me. What then is my reward? That, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel without charge, so as not to use to the full my right in the gospel.
19 For though I was free from all men, I brought myself under bondage to all, that I might gain the more.
20 And to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, not being myself under the law, that I might 21 gain them that are under the law; to them that are without law, as without law, not being without law to God, but under law to Christ, that I might gain
22 them that are without law. To the weak I became weak, that I might gain the weak: I am become all things to all men, that I may by all means save 23 some. And I do all things for the gospel's sake,
24 that I may be a joint partaker thereof. Know ye not that they which run in a [3]race run all, but one receiveth the prize? Even so run, that ye may at-
25 tain. And every man that striveth in the games is temperate in all things. Now they do it to receive a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible.

CHAPTER X.

Of the Jewish sacraments.

MOREOVER, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under [a]the cloud, and all passed through [b]the sea;

2 And were all baptized unto Mo'ses in the cloud and in the sea;

3 And did all eat the same [c]spiritual meat;

4 And did all drink the same [d]spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that ||followed them: and that Rock was Christ.

5 But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they [e]were overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now these things were †our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as [f]they also lusted.

7 [g]Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, [h]The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

8 [i]Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and [k]fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

9 Neither let us tempt Christ, as [l]some of them also tempted, and [m]were destroyed of serpents.

10 Neither murmur ye, as [n]some of them also murmured, and [o]were destroyed of [p]the destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened unto them for ||ensamples: and [q]they are written for our admonition, [r]upon whom the ends of the world are come.

12 Wherefore [s]let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

13 There hath no temptation taken you but ||such as is common to man: but [t]God is faithful, [u]who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also [x]make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, [y]flee from idolatry.

15 I speak as to wise [z]men; judge ye what I say.

16 [a]The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? [b]The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

17 For [c]we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.

18 Behold [d]Is'ra-el [e]after the flesh: [f]are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? [g]that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?

20 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles [h]sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

21 [i]Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and [k]the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.

22 Do we [l]provoke the Lord to jealousy? [m]are we stronger than he?

23 [n]All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.

24 [o]Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.

25 [p]Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience' sake:

26 For [q]the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.

27 If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; [r]whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience' sake.

28 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not [s]for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience' sake: for [t]the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof:

18 for we all partake [10]of the one [8]bread. Behold Is'ra-el after the flesh: have not they which eat the sacrifices

31 [y]Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.
32 [z]Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the †Gentiles, nor to [a]the church of God:
33 Even as [b]I please all men in all things, [c]not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

CHAPTER XI.

Of covering heads in prayer.

BE [a]ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.
2 Now I praise you, brethren, [b]that ye remember me in all things, and [c]keep the ‖ ordinances, as I delivered them to you.
3 But I would have you know, that [d]the head of every man is Christ; and [e]the head of the woman is the man; and [f]the head of Christ is God.
4 Every man praying or [g]prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.
5 But [h]every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were [i]shaven.
6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be [k]a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.
7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as [l]he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.
8 For [m]the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.
9 [n]Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.
10 For this cause ought the woman [o]to have ‖ power on her head [p]because of the angels.
11 Nevertheless [q]neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.
12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; [r]but all things of God.
13 Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?
14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?
15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a ‖ covering.
16 But [s]if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, [t]neither the churches of God.
17 Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.
18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, [u]I hear that there be ‖ divisions among you; and I partly believe it.
19 For [x]there must be also ‖ heresies among you, [v]that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.
20 When ye come together therefore into one place, ‖ this is not to eat the Lord's supper.
21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and [z]another is drunken.
22 What! have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye [a]the church of God, and [b]shame ‖ them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.
23 For [c]I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, [d]That the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread:
24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat; this is my body, which is broken for you: this do ‖ in remembrance of me.

11 they may be saved. Be ye imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ.
2 Now I praise you that ye remember me in all things, and hold fast the traditions, even as I delivered them
3 to you. But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman
4 is the man; and the head of Christ is God. Every man praying or prophesying, having his head cov-
5 ered, dishonoureth his head. But every woman praying or prophesying with her head unveiled dishonoureth her head: for it is one and the same thing as
6 if she were shaven. For if a woman is not veiled, let her also be shorn: but if it is a shame to a woman
7 to be shorn or shaven, let her be veiled. For a man indeed ought not to have his head veiled, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman
8 is the glory of the man. For the man is not of the 9 woman; but the woman of the man: for neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for 10 the man: for this cause ought the woman to [2]have a sign of authority on her head, because of the angels.
11 Howbeit neither is the woman without the man, nor 12 the man without the woman, in the Lord. For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by the 13 woman; but all things are of God. Judge ye [3]in ye yourselves: is it seemly that a woman pray unto God 14 unveiled? Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a dishonour to 15 him? But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory
16 to her: for her hair is given her for a covering. But if any man seemeth to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.
17 But in giving you this charge, I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better but for the 18 worse. For first of all, when ye come together [4]in the church, I hear that [5]divisions exist among you;
19 and I partly believe it. For there must be also [6]heresies among you, that they which are approved
20 may be made manifest among you. When therefore ye assemble yourselves together, it is not possible

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, || ye do shew the Lord's death [e]till he come.

27 [f]Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But [g]let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh || damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

31 For [h]if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, [i]we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34 And if any man [k]hunger, let him eat at [l]home: that ye come not together unto || condemnation. And the rest [m]will I set in order when [n]I come.

CHAPTER XII.

Diversity of spiritual gifts.

NOW [a]concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know [b]that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these [c]dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, [d]that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus || accursed: and [e]that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

4 Now [f]there are diversities of gifts, but [g]the same Spirit.

5 [h]And there are differences of || administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God [i]which worketh all in all.

7 [k]But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit [l]the word of wisdom; to another [m]the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

9 [n]To another faith by the same Spirit; to another [o]the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;

10 [p]To another the working of miracles; to another [q]prophecy; [r]to another discerning of spirits; to another [s]divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues;

11 But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, [t]dividing to every man severally [u]as he will.

12 For [x]as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: [y]so also is Christ.

13 For [z]by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, [a]whether we be Jews or †Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and [b]have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath [c]God set the members every one of them in the body, [d]as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less blood: this do, as oft as ye drink it, in remem-

26 brance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink the cup, ye proclaim the Lord's death
27 till he come. Wherefore whosoever shall eat the bread or drink the cup of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and the blood of the 28 Lord. But let a man prove himself, and so let him
29 eat of the bread, and drink of the cup. For he that eateth and drinketh, eateth and drinketh judgement 30 unto himself, if he [1]discern not the body. For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and 31 not a few sleep. But if we [2]discerned ourselves, we 32 should not be judged. But [3]when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we may not be 33 condemned with the world. Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, wait one for 34 another. If any man is hungry, let him eat at home; that your coming together be not unto judgement. And the rest will I set in order whensoever I come.

A. D. 59.

12 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would
2 not have you ignorant. Ye know that when ye were Gentiles ye were led away unto those dumb idols,
3 howsoever ye might be led. Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking in the Spirit of God saith, Jesus is anathema; and no man can say, Jesus is Lord, but in the Holy Spirit.
4 Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same
5 Spirit. And there are diversities of ministrations,
6 and the same Lord. And there are diversities of workings, but the same God, who worketh all things
7 in all. But to each one is given the manifestation
8 of the Spirit to profit withal. For to one is given through the Spirit the word of wisdom; and to another the word of knowledge, according to the same
9 Spirit: to another faith, in the same Spirit; and to 10 another gifts of healings, in the one Spirit; and to another workings of [4]miracles; and to another prophecy; and to another discernings of spirits: to another divers kinds of tongues; and to another the 11 interpretation of tongues: but all these worketh the one and the same Spirit, dividing to each one severally even as he will.
12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, being many, are 13 one body; so also is Christ. For in one Spirit were we all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were all made to 14 drink of one Spirit. For the body is not one mem-
15 ber, but many. If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; it is not there-
16 fore not of the body. And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; it
17 is not therefore not of the body. If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole 18 were hearing, where were the smelling? But now hath God set the members each one of them in the 19 body, even as it pleased him. And if they were all 20 one member, where were the body? But now they

CHAPTER XIII.

Gifts are nothing without charity.

THOUGH I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift of [a]prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, [b]so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And [c]though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 [d]Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity ‖ vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, [e]seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

6 [f]Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but [f]rejoiceth ‖ in the truth;

7 [h]Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 [i]For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I ‖ thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For [k]now we see through a glass, †darkly; but then [l]face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

CHAPTER XIV.

Prophecy commended, &c.

FOLLOW after charity, and [a]desire spiritual gifts, [b]but rather that ye may prophesy.

2 For he that [c]speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man †understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

honourable, upon these we [1]bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant 24 comeliness; whereas our comely parts have no need: but God tempered the body together, giving more
25 abundant honour to that part which lacked; that there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.
26 And whether one member suffereth, all the members suffer with it; or one member is [2]honoured, all the 27 members rejoice with it. Now ye are the body of

5 love vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not its own, is not
6 provoked, taketh not account of evil; rejoiceth not in unrighteousness, but rejoiceth with the truth;
7 [7]beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all
8 things, endureth all things. Love never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall be done away; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether 9 there be knowledge, it shall be done away. For we 10 know in part, and we prophesy in part: but when that which is perfect is come, that which is in part
11 shall be done away. When I was a child, I spake as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child: now that I am become a man, I have put away childish
12 things. For now we see in a mirror, [8]darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I [9]know even as also I have been [10]known.
13 But now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; [11]and the [12]greatest of these is love.

3 but in the spirit he speaketh mysteries. But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men edification,
4 and comfort, and consolation. He that speaketh in a tongue [14]edifieth himself; but he that proph-
5 esieth [14]edifieth the church. Now I would have you all speak with tongues, but rather that ye should prophesy: and greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by [d]revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?
7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the ||sounds, how
8 shall it be known what is piped or harped? For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?
9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words †easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.
10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.
11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.
12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous †of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.
13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue, pray that he may interpret.
14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.
15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: [e]I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing [f]with the understanding also.
16 Else, when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen [g]at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?
17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.
18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:
19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.
20 Brethren, [h]be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice [i]be ye children, but in understanding be †men.
21 [k]In the law it is [l]written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.
22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.
23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, [m]will they not say that ye are mad?
24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:
25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face, he will worship God, and report [n]that God is in you of a truth.
26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, [o]hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. [p]Let all things be done unto edifying.
27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.
28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.
29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and [q]let the other judge.
30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, [r]let the first hold his peace.
31 For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.
32 And [s]the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.
33 For God is not the author of †confusion, but of peace, [t]as in all churches of the saints.

6 But now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, unless I speak to you either by way of revelation, or of knowledge, or of prophesying, or of teaching?
7 Even things without life, giving a voice, whether pipe or harp, if they give not a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or 8 harped? For if the trumpet give an uncertain voice,
9 who shall prepare himself for war? So also ye, unless ye utter by the tongue speech easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken?
10 for ye will be speaking into the air. There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and 11 [1]no kind is without signification. If then I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be to him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh will be a 12 barbarian [2]unto me. So also ye, since ye are zealous of [3]spiritual gifts, seek that ye may abound unto the 13 edifying of the church. Wherefore let him that speaketh in a tongue pray that he may interpret.
14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my 15 understanding is unfruitful. What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and 16 I will sing with the understanding also. Else if thou bless with the spirit, how shall he that filleth the place of [4]the unlearned say the Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he knoweth not what thou 17 sayest? For thou verily givest thanks well, but the 18 other is not [5]edified. I thank God, I speak with 19 tongues more than you all: howbeit in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.
20 Brethren, be not children in mind: howbeit in 21 malice be ye babes, but in mind be [6]men. In the law it is written, By men of strange tongues and by the lips of strangers will I speak unto this people; and not even thus will they hear me, saith the Lord.
22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to the unbelieving: but prophesying is for a sign, not to the unbelieving, but to them that 23 believe. If therefore the whole church be assembled together, and all speak with tongues, and there come in men unlearned or unbelieving, will they not say
24 that ye are mad? But if all prophesy, and there come in one unbelieving or unlearned, he is [7]re-
25 proved by all, he is judged by all; the secrets of his heart are made manifest; and so he will fall down on his face and worship God, declaring that God is [8]among you indeed.
26 What is it then, brethren? When ye come together, each one hath a psalm, hath a teaching, hath a revelation, hath a tongue, hath an interpretation.
27 Let all things be done unto edifying. If any man speaketh in a tongue, let it be by two, or at the most 28 three, and that in turn; and let one interpret: but if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.
29 And let the prophets speak by two or three, and let 30 the others [9]discern. But if a revelation be made to 31 another sitting by, let the first keep silence. For ye all can prophesy one by one, that all may learn, 32 and all may be [10]comforted; and the spirits of the 33 prophets are subject to the prophets; for God is not a God of confusion, but of peace; as in all the churches of the saints.

CHAPTER XV.

Of Christ's resurrection.

MOREOVER, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel [a]which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and [b]wherein ye stand;

2 [c]By which also ye are saved, if ye || keep in memory †what I preached unto you, unless [d]ye have believed in vain.

3 For [e]I delivered unto you first of all that [f]which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins [g]according to the Scriptures;

4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day [h]according to the Scriptures:

5 [i]And that he was seen of Ce'phas, then [k]of the twelve:

6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

7 After that, he was seen of James; then [l]of all the apostles.

8 [m]And last of all he was seen of me also, as of || one born out of due time.

9 For I am [n]the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because [o]I persecuted the church of God.

10 But [p]by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but [q]I laboured more abundantly than they all: [r]yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, [s]then is Christ not risen:

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because [t]we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; [u]ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

19 [x]If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now [y]is Christ risen from the dead, and become [z]the firstfruits of them that slept.

21 For [a]since by man came death, [b]by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Ad'am all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But [c]every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up

34 Let the women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak: but let them
35 be in subjection, as also saith the law. And if they would learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home: for it is shameful for a woman to 38 of the Lord. [1]But if any man is ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, my brethren, desire earnestly to proph-
40 esy, and forbid not to speak with tongues. But let all things be done decently and in order.

15 Now I make known unto you, brethren, the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye received,
2 wherein also ye stand, by which also ye are [2]saved; I make known, I say, [3]in what words I preached it unto you, if ye hold it fast, except ye believed [4]in 3 vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which also I received, how that Christ died for our
4 sins according to the scriptures; and that he was buried; and that he hath been raised on the third
5 day according to the scriptures; and that he appeared to Ce'phas; then to the twelve; then he 6 appeared to above five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain until now, but some 7 are fallen asleep; then he appeared to James; then
8 to all the apostles; and last of all, as unto one born
9 out of due time, he appeared to me also. For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of 11 with me. Whether then it be I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ is preached that he hath been raised from the dead, how say some among you that there
13 is no resurrection of the dead? But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither hath Christ been 14 raised: and if Christ hath not been raised, then is our 15 preaching [5]vain, [6]your faith also is [5]vain. Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we witnessed of God that he raised up [7]Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead are not 16 raised. For if the dead are not raised, neither hath 17 Christ been raised: and if Christ hath not been raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.
18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ
19 have perished. [8]If in this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all men most pitiable.
20 But now hath Christ been raised from the dead, the 21 firstfruits of them that are asleep. For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the 22 dead. For as in Ad'am all die, so also in [7]Christ shall [d] the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule, and all authority and power.

25 For he must reign, [e] till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 [f] The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

27 For he [g] hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith, All things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.

28 [h] And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then [i] shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And [k] why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by ‖ [l] your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, [m] I die daily.

32 If ‖ after the manner of men [n] I have fought with beasts at Eph'e-sus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? [o] let us eat and drink; for to-morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived: [p] evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 [q] Awake to righteousness, and sin not; [r] for some have not the knowledge of God: [s] I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, [t] How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, [u] that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die:

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 [x] So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption:

43 [y] It is sown in dishonour, it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, The first man Ad'am [a] was made a living soul, [a] the last Ad'am was made [b] a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 [c] The first man is of the earth, [d] earthy: the second man is the Lord [e] from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: [f] and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And [g] as we have borne the image of the earthy, [h] we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that [i] flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery; [k] We shall not all sleep, [l] but we shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: [m] for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and [n] this mortal must put on immortality.

28 And when all things have been subjected unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subjected to him that did subject all things unto him, that God may be all in all.
29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why 30 then are they baptized for them? why do we also 31 stand in jeopardy every hour? I protest by [3] that glorying in you, brethren, which I have in Christ
32 Jesus our Lord, I die daily. If after the manner of men I fought with beasts at Eph'e-sus, [4] what doth it profit me? If the dead are not raised, let us eat 33 and drink, for to-morrow we die. Be not deceived:
34 Evil company doth corrupt good manners. [5] Awake up righteously, and sin not; for some have no knowledge of God: I speak this to move you to shame.
35 But some one will say, How are the dead raised? and with what manner of body do they come?
36 Thou foolish one, that which thou thyself sowest is 37 not quickened, except it die: and that which thou sowest, thou sowest not the body that shall be, but a bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some 38 other kind; but God giveth it a body even as it pleased him, and to each seed a body of its own.
39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another
40 flesh of birds, and another of fishes. There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terres-
41 trial is another. There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differeth from another star in 42 glory. So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is 43 sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption: it is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown
44 in weakness; it is raised in power: it is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there
45 is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body. So also it is written, The first man Ad'am became a living soul. The last Ad'am became a life-giving spirit.
46 Howbeit that is not first which is spiritual, but that 47 which is natural; then that which is spiritual. The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is 48 of heaven. As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they 49 also that are heavenly. And as we have borne the image of the earthy, [6] we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.
50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth
51 corruption inherit incorruption. Behold, I tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all 52 be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall 53 be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

[1] Gr. the God and Father.
[2] Or, But when he shall have said, All things are put in subjection (evidently excepting him that did subject all things unto him), when, I say, all things &c.
[3] Or, your glorying
[4] Or, what doth it profit me, if the dead are not raised? Let us eat &c.
[5] Gr. Awake out of drunkenness righteously.
[6] Many ancient authorities read let us also bear.

A. D. 59.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, [o]Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 [p]O death, where is thy sting? O ‖ grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sin; and [q]the strength of sin is the law.

57 [r]But thanks be to God, which giveth us [s]the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 [t]Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know [u]that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

CHAPTER XVI.

Exhortations to charity, &c.

NOW concerning [a]the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Ga-la'ti-a, even so do ye.

2 [b]Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I come [c]whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your †liberality unto Je-ru'sa-lem.

4 [d]And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come unto you [e]when I shall pass through Mac-e-do'ni-a: for I do pass through Mac-e-do'ni-a.

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may [f]bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.

7 For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, [g]if the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry at Eph'e-sus until Pentecost.

9 For [h]a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and [i]there are many adversaries.

10 Now [k]if Ti-mo'the-us come, see that he may be with you without fear; for [l]he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 [m]Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth [n]in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother [o]A-pol'los, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

13 [p]Watch ye, [q]stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, [r]be strong.

14 [s]Let all your things be done with charity.

15 I beseech you, brethren, (ye know [t]the house of Steph'a-nas, that it is [u]the firstfruits of A-cha'ia, and that they have addicted themselves to [x]the ministry of the saints.)

16 [y]That ye submit yourselves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and [z]laboureth.

17 I am glad of the coming of Steph'a-nas, and For-tu-na'tus, and A-cha'i-cus: [a]for that which was lacking on your part, they have supplied.

18 [b]For they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore [c]acknowledge ye them that are such.

19 The churches of A'si-a salute you. Aq'ui-la and Pris-cil'la salute you much in the Lord, [d]with the church that is in their house.

20 All the brethren greet you. [e]Greet ye one another with a holy kiss.

21 [f]The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand.

22 If any man [g]love not the Lord Jesus Christ, [h]let him be A-nath'e-ma, [i]Ma'ran a'tha.

23 [k]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

CHAPTER I.

The church comforted, &c.

[a] 1 Cor. 1. 1. Eph. 1. 1. Col. 1. 1. 1 Tim. 1. 1. [b] Phil. 1. 1. Col. 1. 2.

PAUL, [a]an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Tim'o-thy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Cor'inth, [b]with all the saints which are in all A-cha'ia:

[c] Rom. 1. 7. 1 Cor. 1. 3. Gal. 1. 3. Phil. 1. 2. Col. 1. 2. 1 Thess. 1. 1. 2 Thess. 1. 2. Philem. 3.

2 [c]Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

[d] Eph. 1. 3. 1 Pet. 1. 3.

3 [d]Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

[e] Acts 9. 4. ch. 4. 10. Col. 1. 24. [f] ch. 4. 15. ‖ Or, is wrought.

5 For as [e]the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, [f]it is for your consolation and salvation, which ‖is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

[g] Rom. 8. 17. 2 Tim. 2. 12.

7 And our hope of you is steadfast, knowing, that [g]as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

[h] Acts 19. 23. 1 Cor. 15. 32. & 16. 9.

‖ Or, answer. [i] Jer. 17. 5, 7. [k] 2 Pet. 2. 9.

9 But we had the ‖sentence of death in ourselves, that we should [i]not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead:

12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and [n]godly sincerity, [o]not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

13 For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end;

20 [z]For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

21 Now he which establisheth us with you in Christ, and [a]hath anointed us, is God;

22 Who [b]hath also sealed us, and [c]given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

A. D. 60.

THE

SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO THE

CORINTHIANS.

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Tim'o-thy [1]our brother, unto the church of God which is at Cor'inth, with all the saints
2 which are in the whole of A-cha'ia: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all com-
4 fort; who comforteth us in all our affliction, that we may be able to comfort them that are in any affliction, through the comfort wherewith we ourselves are
5 comforted of God. For as the sufferings of Christ abound unto us, even so our comfort also aboundeth
6 through Christ. But whether we be afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation; or whether we be comforted, it is for your comfort, which worketh in the patient enduring of the same sufferings which 7 we also suffer: and our hope for you is stedfast; knowing that, as ye are partakers of the sufferings,
8 so also are ye of the comfort. For we would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning our affliction which befell us in A'si-a, that we were weighed down exceedingly, beyond our power, insomuch that we 9 despaired even of life: [2]yea, we ourselves have had the [3]answer of death within ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the
10 dead: who delivered us out of so great a death, and will deliver: on whom we have [4]set our hope that
11 he will also still deliver us; ye also helping together on our behalf by your supplication; that, for the gift bestowed upon us by means of many, thanks may be given by many persons on our behalf.

12 For our glorying is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in holiness and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God, we behaved ourselves in the world, and more abundantly to you-
13 ward. For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or even acknowledge, and I hope 14 ye will acknowledge unto the end: as also ye did acknowledge us in part, that we are your glorying, even as ye also are ours, in the day of our Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence I was minded to come before unto you, that ye might have a second [5]benefit;
16 and by you to pass into Mac-e-do'ni-a, and again from Mac-e-do'ni-a to come unto you, and of you to be set
17 forward on my journey unto Ju-dæ'a. When I therefore was thus minded, did I shew fickleness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be the yea yea and 18 the nay nay? But as God is faithful, our word to-
19 ward you is not yea and nay. For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you [6]by us, even [6]by me and Sil-va'nus and Tim'o-thy, was not yea
20 and nay, but in him is yea. For how many soever be the promises of God, in him is the yea: wherefore also through him is the Amen, unto the glory
21 of God through us. Now he that stablisheth us with 22 you [7]in Christ, and anointed us, is God; [8]who also sealed us, and gave us the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

[1] Gr. the brother.

[4] Some ancient authorities read set our hope; and still will he deliver us.

[5] Or, grace Some ancient authorities read joy.

[6] Gr. through.

[7] Gr. into.

[8] Or, seeing that he both sealed us

A. D. 60.

23 Moreover [d]I call God for a record upon my soul, [e]that to spare you I came not as yet unto Cor'inth.

24 Not for [f]that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for [g]by faith ye stand.

CHAPTER II.

Paul's preaching and success.

BUT I determined this with myself, [a]that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, [b]I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; [c]having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; [d]not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But [e]if any have caused grief, he hath not [f]grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this ‖ punishment, which was inflicted [g]of many.

7 [h]So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be [i]obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it ‖ in the person of Christ;

11 Lest Sa'tan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, [k]when I came to Tro'as to preach Christ's gospel, and [l]a door was opened unto me of the Lord,

13 [m]I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Ti'tus my brother; but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Mac-e-do'ni-a.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest [n]the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, [o]in them that are saved, and [p]in them that perish:

16 [q]To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And [r]who is sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not as many, which ‖ [s]corrupt the word of God: but as [t]of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we ‖ in Christ.

CHAPTER III.

Of the law and the gospel.

DO [a]we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, [b]epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 [c]Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ [d]ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not [e]in tables of stone, but [f]in fleshly tables of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:

5 [g]Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but [h]our sufficiency is of God;

6 Who also hath made us able [i]ministers of [k]the new testament; not [l]of the letter, but of the spirit: for [m]the letter killeth, [n]but the spirit ‖ giveth life.

7 But if [o]the ministration of death, [p]written and engraven in stones, was glorious, [q]so that the children of Is'ra-el could

23 But I call God for a witness upon my soul, that 24 to spare you I forbare to come unto Co'rinth. Not
2 that we have lordship over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by [1]faith ye stand. [2]But I determined this for myself, that I would not come again
2 to you with sorrow. For if I make you sorry, who then is he that maketh me glad, but he that is made
3 sorry by me? And I wrote this very thing, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you
4 all, that my joy is the joy of you all. For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be made sorry, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.
5 But if any hath caused sorrow, he hath caused sorrow, not to me, but in part (that I press not too
6 heavily) to you all. Sufficient to such a one is this 7 punishment which was inflicted by [3]the many; so that contrariwise ye should [4]rather forgive him and comfort him, lest by any means such a one should be 8 swallowed up with his overmuch sorrow. Wherefore I beseech you to confirm your love toward him.
9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, [5]whether ye are obedient in all
10 things. But to whom ye forgive anything, I forgive also: for what I also have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, for your sakes have I forgiven it in the 11 [6]person of Christ; that no advantage may be gained over us by Sa'tan: for we are not ignorant of his devices.
12 Now when I came to Tro'as for the gospel of Christ, and when a door was opened unto me in the Lord,
13 I had no relief for my spirit, because I found not Ti'tus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I
14 went forth into Mac-e-do'ni-a. But thanks be unto God, which always leadeth us in triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest through us the savour of his knowl-
15 edge in every place. For we are a sweet savour of Christ unto God, in them that are being saved, and 16 in them that are perishing; to the one a savour from death unto death; to the other a savour from life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things?
17 For we are not as the many, [7]corrupting the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, speak we in Christ.

3 Are we beginning again to commend ourselves? or need we, as do some, epistles of commendation
2 to you or from you? Ye are our epistle, written in
3 our hearts, known and read of all men; being made manifest that ye are an epistle of Christ, ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in tables
4 that are hearts of flesh. And such confidence have 5 we through Christ to God-ward: not that we are sufficient of ourselves, to account anything as from 6 ourselves; but our sufficiency is from God; who also made us sufficient as ministers of a new [8]covenant; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the let-
7 ter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. But if the ministration of death, [9]written, and engraven on stones, came [10]with glory, so that the children of Is'ra-el could not steadfastly behold the face of Mo'ses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away;

8 How shall not [r]the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration [s]of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, [t]we use great ‖ plainness of speech:

13 And not as Mo'ses, [u]which put a veil over his face, that the children of Is'ra-el could not steadfastly look to [x]the end of that which is abolished:

14 But [y]their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same veil untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which veil is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Mo'ses is read, the veil is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless, [z]when it shall turn to the Lord, [a]the veil shall be taken away.

17 Now [b]the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all, with open face beholding [c]as in a glass [d]the glory of the Lord, [e]are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as ‖ by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAPTER IV.

Paul's comfort in distress.

THEREFORE, seeing we have [e]this ministry, [b]as we have received mercy, we faint not;

2 But have renounced the hidden things of †dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, [c]nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but, [d]by manifestation of the truth, [e]commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 But if our gospel be hid, [f]it is hid to them that are lost:

4 In whom [g]the god of this world [h]hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest [i]the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, [k]who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

5 [l]For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and [m]ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.

6 For God, [n]who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, †hath [o]shined in our hearts, to give [p]the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in [q]earthen vessels, [r]that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are [s]troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but ‖ not in despair;

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; [t]cast down, but not destroyed;

10 [u]Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, [x]that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live [y]are alway delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then [z]death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 We having [a]the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, [b]I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

14 Knowing that [c]he which raised up the Lord Jesus, shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 For [d]all things are for your sakes, that [e]the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet [f]the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For [g]our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

not look stedfastly upon the face of Mo'ses for the glory of his face; which glory [1]was passing away:
8 how shall not rather the ministration of the spirit
9 be with glory? [2]For if the ministration of condemnation is glory, much rather doth the ministra-
10 tion of righteousness exceed in glory. For verily that which hath been made glorious hath not been made glorious in this respect, by reason of the glory
11 that surpasseth. For if that which [3]passeth away was [4]with glory, much more that which remaineth is in glory.
12 Having therefore such a hope, we use great bold-
13 ness of speech, and are not as Mo'ses, who put a veil upon his face, that the children of Is'ra-el should not look stedfastly [5]on the end of that which [1]was 14 passing away: but their [6]minds were hardened: for until this very day at the reading of the old [7]covenant the same veil [8]remaineth unlifted; which veil
15 is done away in Christ. But unto this day, whensoever Mo'ses is read, a veil lieth upon their heart.
16 But whensoever [9]it shall turn to the Lord, the veil
17 is taken away. Now the Lord is the Spirit: and 18 where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. But we all, with unveiled face [10]reflecting as a mirror the glory of the Lord, are transformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from [11]the Lord the Spirit.

4 Therefore seeing we have this ministry, even as
2 we obtained mercy, we faint not: but we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by the manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the 3 sight of God. But and if our gospel is veiled, it is
4 veiled in them that are perishing: in whom the god of this [12]world hath blinded the [6]minds of the unbelieving, [13]that the [14]light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should not
5 dawn upon them. For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your [15]serv-
6 ants [16]for Jesus' sake. Seeing it is God, that said, Light shall shine out of darkness, who shined in our hearts, to give the [14]light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.
7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the exceeding greatness of the power may be of 8 God, and not from ourselves; we are pressed on every side, yet not straitened; perplexed, yet not unto 9 despair; pursued, yet not [17]forsaken; smitten down,
10 yet not destroyed; always bearing about in the body the [18]dying of Jesus, that the life also of Jesus may 11 be manifested in our body. For we which live are alway delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal
12 flesh. So then death worketh in us, but life in you.
13 But having the same spirit of faith, according to that which is written, I believed, and therefore did I speak; we also believe, and therefore also we speak;
14 knowing that he which raised up [19]the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also with Jesus, and shall present us
15 with you. For all things are for your sakes, that the grace, being multiplied through [20]the many, may cause the thanksgiving to abound unto the glory of God.
16 Wherefore we faint not; but though our outward man is decaying, yet our inward man is 17 renewed day by day. For our light affliction, which is for the moment, worketh for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory;

CHAPTER V.

Paul's hope of immortal glory.

FOR we know that, if [c]our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this [b]we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 If so be that [c]being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but [d]clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now [e]he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also [f]hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing, that whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For [g]we walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 We are confident, I say, and [h]willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we ||labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

10 [i]For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; [k]that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore [l]the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but [m]we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For [n]we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion [o]to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory †in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For [p]whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that [q]if one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, [r]that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 [s]Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, [t]yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man [u]be in Christ, ||he is [x]a new creature: [y]old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, [z]who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 To wit, that [a]God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath †committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are [b]ambassadors for Christ, as [c]though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For [d]he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made [e]the righteousness of God in him.

CHAPTER VI.

Paul's sufferings and patience in the ministry.

WE then, as [a]workers together with him, [b]beseech you also [c]that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 (For he saith, [d]I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

18 while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

5 For we know that if the earthly house of our [1]tabernacle be dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal, in the 2 heavens. For verily in this we groan, longing to be clothed upon with our habitation which is from 3 heaven: if so be that being clothed we shall not be 4 found naked. For indeed we that are in this [1]tabernacle do groan, [2]being burdened; not for that we would be unclothed, but that we would be clothed upon, that what is mortal may be swallowed up of 5 life. Now he that wrought us for this very thing is God, who gave unto us the earnest of the Spirit. 6 Being therefore always of good courage, and knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body we are 7 absent from the Lord (for we walk by faith, not by 8 [3]sight); we are of good courage, I say, and are willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be at 9 home with the Lord. Wherefore also we [4]make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be well-10 pleasing unto him. For we must all be made manifest before the judgement-seat of Christ; that each one may receive the things done [5]in the body, according to what he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord, we persuade men, but we are made manifest unto God; and I hope that we are made manifest also in your con-12 sciences. We are not again commending ourselves unto you, but speak as giving you occasion of glorying on our behalf, that ye may have wherewith to answer them that glory in appearance, and not in 13 heart. For whether we [6]are beside ourselves, it is unto God; or whether we are of sober mind, it 14 is unto you. For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that one died for all, 15 therefore all died; and he died for all, that they which live should no longer live unto themselves, but unto him who for their sakes died and rose 16 again. And working together with him we intreat also that ye receive not the grace of God in 2 vain (for he saith,

At an acceptable time I hearkened unto thee,
And in a day of salvation did I succour thee:

behold, now is the acceptable time; behold, now is the 3 day of salvation): giving no occasion of stumbling in anything, that our ministration be not blamed; 4 but in everything commending ourselves, as ministers

8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true;

9 As unknown, and [l]yet well known; [m]as dying, and, behold, we live; [n]as chastened, and not killed;

10 As sorrowful, yet alway rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O ye Co-rin'thi-ans, our mouth is open unto you, [o]our heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but [p]ye are straitened in your own bowels.

13 Now for a recompense in the same, ([q]I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.

14 [r]Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for [s]what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

15 And what concord hath Christ with Be'li-al? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for [t]ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, [u]I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 [x]Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,

18 [y]And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

CHAPTER VII.

Paul exhorteth to purity of life.

HAVING [a]therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, [b]we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you: for [c]I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 [d]Great is my boldness of speech toward you, [e]great is my glorying of you: [f]I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For, [g]when we were come into Mac-e-do'ni-a, our flesh had no rest, but [h]we were troubled on every side; [i]without were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless [k]God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by [l]the coming of Ti'tus;

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, [m]though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season:

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry ‖ after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For [n]godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: [o]but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in neces-
5 sities, in distresses, in stripes, in imprisonments, in 6 tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings; in pureness, in knowledge, in longsuffering, in kind-
7 ness, in the [1]Holy Ghost, in love unfeigned, in the word of truth, in the power of God; [2]by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on 8 the left, by glory and dishonour, by evil report and
9 good report; as deceivers, and yet true; as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live;
10 as chastened, and not killed; as sorrowful, yet alway rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.
11 Our mouth is open unto you, O Co-rin'thi-ans, our 12 heart is enlarged. Ye are not straitened in us, but 13 ye are straitened in your own affections. Now for a recompense in like kind (I speak as unto my children), be ye also enlarged.
14 Be not unequally yoked with unbelievers: for what fellowship have righteousness and iniquity?
15 or what communion hath light with darkness? And what concord hath Christ with [3]Be'li-al? or what por-
16 tion hath a believer with an unbeliever? And what agreement hath a [4]temple of God with idols? for we are a [4]temple of the living God; even as God said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.
17 Wherefore

Come ye out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord,
And touch no unclean thing;
And I will receive you,
18 And will be to you a Father,
And ye shall be to me sons and daughters,
7 saith the Lord Almighty. Having therefore these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 [5]Open your hearts to us: we wronged no man, we corrupted no man, we took advantage of no man.
3 I say it not to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die together and live to-
4 gether. Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying on your behalf: I am filled with comfort, I overflow with joy in all our affliction.
5 For even when we were come into Mac-e-do'ni-a, our flesh had no relief, but we were afflicted on every side; without were fightings, within were fears.
6 Nevertheless he that comforteth the lowly, even
7 God, comforted us by the [6]coming of Ti'tus; and not by his [6]coming only, but also by the comfort wherewith he was comforted in you, while he told us your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me:
8 so that I rejoiced yet more. For though I made you sorry with my epistle, I do not regret it, though I did regret; [7]for I see that that epistle made you
9 sorry, though but for a season. Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye were made sorry unto repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly sort, that ye might suffer loss by us in noth-
10 ing. For godly sorrow worketh repentance [8]unto salvation, a repentance which bringeth no regret:
11 but the sorrow of the world worketh death. For behold, this selfsame thing, that ye were made sorry after a godly sort, what earnest care it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what longing, yea, what zeal, yea, what avenging! In everything ye approved yourselves to be pure in the matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, [p]but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Ti'tus, because his spirit [q]was refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Ti'tus, is found a truth.

15 And his †inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth [r]the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

16 I rejoice therefore that [s]I have confidence in you in all things.

CHAPTER VIII.

Paul exhorteth to liberality.

MOREOVER, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Mac-e-do'ni-a;

2 How that in a great trial of affliction, the abundance of their joy and [a]their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their †liberality.

3 For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power, they were willing of themselves;

4 Praying us with much entreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us [b]the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

6 Insomuch that [c]we desired Ti'tus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same ‖ grace also.

7 Therefore, as [d]ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see [e]that ye abound in this grace also.

8 [f]I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, [g]that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein [h]I give my advice: for [i]this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be †[k]forward a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

12 For [l]if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and you burdened:

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want; that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, [m]He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Ti'tus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted [n]the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him [o]the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;

19 And not that only, but who was also [p]chosen of the churches to travel with us with this ‖ grace, which is administered by us [q]to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

20 Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

21 [r]Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

12 So although I wrote unto you, I wrote not for his cause that did the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest care for us might be made manifest unto you in the sight of God.

13 Therefore we have been comforted: and in our comfort we joyed the more exceedingly for the joy of Ti'tus, because his spirit hath been refreshed by you

14 all. For if in anything I have gloried to him on your behalf, I was not put to shame; but as we spake all things to you in truth, so our glorying also, which I

15 made before Ti'tus, was found to be truth. And his inward affection is more abundantly toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all,

16 how with fear and trembling you received him. I rejoice that in everything I am of good courage concerning you.

8 Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God which hath been given in the churches

2 of Mac-e-do'ni-a; how that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty

3 abounded unto the riches of their [1]liberality. For according to their power, I bear witness, yea and beyond their power, they gave of their own accord,

4 beseeching us with much intreaty in regard of this grace, and the fellowship in the ministering to the

5 saints: and this, not as we had hoped, but first they gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us by the

6 will of God. Insomuch that we exhorted Ti'tus, that as he had made a beginning before, so he would also

7 complete in you this grace also. But as ye abound in everything, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all earnestness, and in [2]your love to us,

8 see that ye abound in this grace also. I speak not by way of commandment, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity also of your

9 love. For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might

10 become rich. And herein I give my judgement: for this is expedient for you, who were the first to make a beginning a year ago, not only to do, but

11 also to will. But now complete the doing also; that as there was the readiness to will, so there may

12 be the completion also out of your ability. For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according as a

13 man hath, not according as he hath not. For I say not this, that others may be eased, and ye distressed:

14 but by equality; your abundance being a supply at this present time for their want, that their abundance also may become a supply for your want; that there

15 may be equality: as it is written, He that gathered much had nothing over; and he that gathered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which putteth the same

17 earnest care for you into the heart of Ti'tus. For indeed he accepted our exhortation; but being himself very earnest, he went forth unto you of his own

18 accord. And we have sent together with him the brother whose praise in the gospel is spread through

19 all the churches; and not only so, but who was also appointed by the churches to travel with us in the matter of this grace, which is ministered by us to the glory

20 of the Lord, and to shew our readiness: avoiding this, that any man should blame us in the matter

21 of this bounty which is ministered by us: for we take thought for things honourable, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

23 Whether any do inquire of Ti'tus, he is my partner and fellow helper concerning you: or our brethren be inquired of, they are [c] the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our [f] boasting on your behalf.

CHAPTER IX.

Bountiful giving recommended.

FOR as touching [a] the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:

2 For I know [b] the forwardness of your mind, [c] for which I boast of you to them of Mac-e-do'ni-a, that [d] A-cha'ia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 [e] Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready:

4 Lest haply if they of Mac-e-do'ni-a come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your †bounty, || whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

6 [f] But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; [g] not grudgingly, or of necessity: for [h] God loveth a cheerful giver.

8 [i] And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

9 (As it is written, [k] He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever.

10 Now he that [l] ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your [m] righteousness:)

11 Being enriched in every thing to all || †bountifulness, [n] which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

12 For the administration of this service not only [o] supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God;

13 While by the experiment of this ministration they [p] glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal [q] distribution unto them, and unto all men;

14 And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding [r] grace of God in you.

15 Thanks be unto God [s] for his unspeakable gift.

CHAPTER X.

Of Paul's spiritual power.

NOW [a] I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, [b] who || in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you:

2 But I beseech you, [c] that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which ||think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

4 ([d] For the weapons [e] of our warfare are not carnal, but [f] mighty ||through God [g] to the pulling down of strong holds;)

5 [h] Casting down || imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great con-
23 fidence which he hath in you. Whether any inquire about Ti'tus, he is my partner and my fellow-worker to you-ward; or our brethren, they are the [1] messengers
24 of the churches, they are the glory of Christ. [2] Shew ye therefore unto them in the face of the churches the proof of your love, and of our glorying on your behalf.

9 For as touching the ministering to the saints, it
2 is superfluous for me to write to you: for I know your readiness, of which I glory on your behalf to them of Mac-e-do'ni-a, that A-cha'ia hath been prepared for a year past; and [3] your zeal hath stirred up [4] very
3 many of them. But I have sent the brethren, that our glorying on your behalf may not be made void in this respect; that, even as I said, ye may be pre-
4 pared: lest by any means, if there come with me any of Mac-e-do'ni-a, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be put to shame in this
5 confidence. I thought it necessary therefore to intreat the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your aforepromised [5] bounty, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not of [6] extortion.

6 But this I say, He that soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he that soweth [7] bountifully
7 shall reap also [7] bountifully. Let each man do according as he hath purposed in his heart; not [8] grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a
8 cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound unto you; that ye, having always all sufficiency in everything, may abound unto every good 9 work: as it is written,

He hath scattered abroad, he hath given to the poor;
His righteousness abideth for ever.

10 And he that supplieth seed to the sower and bread for food, shall supply and multiply your seed for sowing, and increase the fruits of your righteous-
11 ness: ye being enriched in everything unto all [9] liberality, which worketh through us thanksgiving
12 to God. For the ministration of this service not only filleth up the measure of the wants of the saints, but aboundeth also through many thanks-
13 givings unto God; seeing that through the proving of you by this ministration they glorify God for the obedience of your confession unto the gospel of Christ, and for the [9] liberality of your contribution
14 unto them and unto all; while they themselves also, with supplication on your behalf, long after you by reason of the exceeding grace of God in you.
15 Thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift.

10 Now I Paul myself intreat you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, I who in your presence am lowly among you, but being absent am of good
2 courage toward you: yea, I beseech you, that I may not when present shew courage with the confidence wherewith I count to be bold against some, which count of us as if we walked according to the flesh.
3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war ac-
4 cording to the flesh (for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but mighty before God to the 5 casting down of strong holds); casting down [10] imaginations, and every high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ;

6 [k]And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when [l]your obedience is fulfilled.

7 [m]Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? [n]If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are [o]we Christ's.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more [p]of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, [q]I should not be ashamed:

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 For his letters, †say they, are weighty and powerful; but [r]his bodily presence is weak, and his [s]speech contemptible.

11 Let such a one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

12 [t]For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, ||are not wise.

13 [u]But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the || rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you; [v]for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:

15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, [x]of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be ||enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly.

16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's || line of things made ready to our hand.

17 [y]But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

18 For [z]not he that commendeth himself is approved, but [a]whom the Lord commendeth.

CHAPTER XI.

Paul declineth being chargeable.

WOULD to God ye could bear with me a little in [a]my folly: and indeed ||bear with me.

2 For I am [b]jealous over you with godly jealousy: for [c]I have espoused you to one husband, [d]that I may present you [e]as a chaste virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, as [f]the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds [g]should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or [h]another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear ||with him.

5 For I suppose [i]I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

6 But though [k]I be rude in speech, yet not [l]in knowledge; but [m]we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence [n]in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, [o]I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me [p]the brethren which came from Mac-e-do'ni-a supplied: and in all things I have kept myself [q]from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

10 [r]As the truth of Christ is in me, †[s]no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of A-cha'ia.

11 Wherefore? [t]because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, [u]that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

6 and being in readiness to avenge all disobedience,
7 when your obedience shall be fulfilled. [1]Ye look at the things that are before your face. If any man trusteth in himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this again with himself, that, even as he is 8 Christ's, so also are we. For though I should glory somewhat abundantly concerning our authority (which the Lord gave for building you up, and not for casting you down), I shall not be put to shame:
9 that I may not seem as if I would terrify you by my 10 letters. For, His letters, they say, are weighty and strong; but his bodily presence is weak, and his 11 speech of no account. Let such a one reckon this, that, what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such are we also in deed when we are present.
12 For we are not bold [2]to number or compare ourselves with certain of them that commend themselves: but they themselves, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with them-
13 selves, are without understanding. But we will not glory beyond our measure, but according to the measure of the [3]province which God apportioned to 14 us as a measure, to reach even unto you. For we stretch not ourselves overmuch, as though we reached not unto you: for we [4]came even as far as
15 unto you in the gospel of Christ: not glorying beyond our measure, that is, in other men's labours; but having hope that, as your faith groweth, we shall be magnified in you according to our [3]province unto 16 further abundance, so as to preach the gospel even unto the parts beyond you, and not to glory in another's [3]province in regard of things ready to our 17 hand. But he that glorieth, let him glory in the 18 Lord. For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

11 Would that ye could bear with me in a little
2 foolishness: [5]nay indeed bear with me. For I am jealous over you with [6]a godly jealousy: for I espoused you to one husband, that I might present
3 you as a pure virgin to Christ. But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve in his craftiness, your [7]minds should be corrupted from the simplicity and the purity that is toward Christ.
4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we did not preach, or if ye receive a different spirit, which ye did not receive, or a different gospel, which ye did not accept, ye do well to bear with 5 him. For I reckon that I am not a whit behind
6 [8]the very chiefest apostles. But though I be rude in speech, yet am I not in knowledge; nay, in everything we have made it manifest among all men to 7 you-ward. Or did I commit a sin in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I preached
8 to you the gospel of God for nought? I robbed other churches, taking wages of them that I might 9 minister unto you; and when I was present with you and was in want, I was not a burden on any man; for the brethren, when they came from Mac-e-do'ni-a, supplied the measure of my want; and in everything I kept myself from being burdensome
10 unto you, and so will I keep myself. As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this 11 glorying in the regions of A-cha'ia. Wherefore?
12 because I love you not? God knoweth. But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off [9]occasion from them which desire an occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the [a]ministers of righteousness; [b]whose end shall be according to their works.

16 [c]I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool ‖receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which I speak, [d]I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, [e]in this confidence of boasting.

20 For ye suffer, [h]if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

30 If I must needs glory, [b]I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

31 [c]The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, [d]which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 [e]In Da-mas'cus the governor under Ar'e-tas the king kept the city of the Dam'as-cenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me;

33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAPTER XII.

Paul's wonderful revelations.

IT is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. †I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man [a]in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such a one [b]caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body I can not tell: God knoweth;)

4 How that he was caught up into [c]paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not ‖lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such a one will I glory: [d]yet of myself I will not glory, but in my infirmities.

6 For [e]though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given me a [f]thorn

13 For such men are false apostles, deceitful workers, 14 fashioning themselves into apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for even Sa'tan fashioneth himself into 15 an angel of light. It is no great thing therefore if his ministers also fashion themselves as ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.
16 I say again, Let no man think me foolish; but if ye do, yet as foolish receive me, that I also may glory 17 a little. That which I speak, I speak not after the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this confidence of 18 glorying. Seeing that many glory after the flesh,
19 I will glory also. For ye bear with the foolish 20 gladly, being wise yourselves. For ye bear with a man, if he bringeth you into bondage, if he devoureth you, if he taketh you captive, if he exalteth him-21 self, if he smiteth you on the face. I speak by way of disparagement, as though we had been weak. Yet whereinsoever any is bold (I speak in foolishness), I 22 am bold also. Are they He'brews? so am I. Are they Is'ra-el-ites? so am I. Are they the seed of 23 A'bra-ham? so am I. Are they ministers of Christ?
(I speak as one beside himself) I more; in labours more abundantly, in prisons more abundantly, in 24 stripes above measure, in deaths oft. Of the Jews
25 five times received I forty stripes save one. Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day have I been 26 in the deep; in journeyings often, in perils of rivers, in perils of robbers, in perils from my [1]countrymen, in perils from the Gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils 27 among false brethren; in labour and travail, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings 28 often, in cold and nakedness. [2]Beside those things that are without, there is that which presseth upon 29 me daily, anxiety for all the churches. Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is made to stumble, 30 and I burn not? If I must needs glory, I will 31 glory of the things that concern my weakness. The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, he who is blessed 32 [3]forever more, knoweth that I lie not. In Da-mas'- cus the governor under Ar'e-tas the king guarded the city of the Dam'as-cenes, in order to take me:
33 and through a window was I let down in a basket by the wall, and escaped his hands.

12 [4]I must needs glory, though it is not expedient; but I will come to visions and revelations of the 2 Lord. I know a man in Christ, fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I know not; or whether out of the body, I know not; God knoweth), such a 3 one caught up even to the third heaven. And I know such a man (whether in the body, or apart 4 from the body, I know not; God knoweth), how that he was caught up into Paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to 5 utter. On behalf of such a one will I glory: but on mine own behalf I will not glory, save in my 6 weaknesses. For if I should desire to glory, I shall not be foolish; for I shall speak the truth: but I forbear, lest any man should account of me above that which he seeth me to be, or heareth from me.
7 And by reason of the exceeding greatness of the revelations—wherefore that I should not be exalted overmuch, there was given to me a [5]thorn in the flesh, [g]the messenger of Sa'tan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 [h]For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore [i]will I rather glory in my infirmities, [k]that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore [l]I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: [m]for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become [n]a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for [o]in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though [p]I be nothing.

12 [q]Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 [r]For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that [s]I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me [t]this wrong.

14 [u]Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for [x]I seek not yours, but you: [y]for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And [z]I will very gladly spend and be spent [a]for †you; though [b]the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 But be it so, [c]I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 [d]Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 [e]I desired Ti'tus, and with him I sent a [f]brother. Did Ti'tus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 [g]Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? [h]we speak before God in Christ: [i]but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that [k]I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

21 And lest, when I come again, my God [l]will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many [m]which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and [n]fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

CHAPTER XIII.

Obstinate sinners threatened.

THIS is [a]the third time I am coming to you. [b]In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 [c]I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them [d]which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, [e]I will not spare:

3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ [f]speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty [g]in you.

4 [h]For though he was crucified through weakness, yet [i]he liveth by the power of God. For [k]we also are weak ‖in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

5 [l]Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, [m]how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be [n]reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though [o]we be as reprobates.

in the flesh, a messenger of Sa'tan to buffet me, that 8 I should not be exalted overmuch. Concerning this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might de-
9 part from me. And he hath said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my weaknesses, that the strength
10 of Christ may [1]rest upon me. Wherefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in injuries, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become foolish: ye compelled me; for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing was I behind [2]the very chiefest apostles,
12 though I am nothing. Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, by 13 signs and wonders and [3]mighty works. For what is there wherein ye were made inferior to the rest of the churches, except it be that I myself was not a burden to you? forgive me this wrong.

14 Behold, this is the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be a burden to you: for I seek not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the chil-
15 dren. And I will most gladly spend and be [4]spent for your souls. If I love you more abundantly, am 16 I loved the less? But be it so, I did not myself burden you; but, being crafty, I caught you with 17 guile. Did I take advantage of you by any one of 18 them whom I have sent unto you? I exhorted Ti'tus, and I sent the brother with him. Did Ti'tus take any advantage of you? walked we not by the same Spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 [5]Ye think all this time that we are excusing ourselves unto you. In the sight of God speak we in Christ. But all things, beloved, are for your edify-
20 ing. For I fear, lest by any means, when I come, I should find you not such as I would, and should myself be found of you such as ye would not; lest by any means there should be strife, jealousy, wraths, factions, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, [6]tu-
21 mults; lest, when I come again, my God should humble me before you, and I should mourn for many of them that have sinned heretofore, and repented not of the uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they committed.

13 This is the third time I am coming to you. At the mouth of two witnesses or three shall every
2 word be established. I have said [7]beforehand, and I do say [7]beforehand, [8]as when I was present the second time, so now, being absent, to them that have sinned heretofore, and to all the rest, that, if I come
3 again, I will not spare; seeing that ye seek a proof of Christ that speaketh in me; who to you-ward is
4 not weak, but is powerful in you: for he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth through the power of God. For we also are weak [9]in him, but we shall live with him through the power of God
5 toward you. Try your own selves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Or know ye not as to your own selves, that Jesus Christ is in
6 you? unless indeed ye be reprobate. But I hope
7 that ye shall know that we are not reprobate. Now we pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we may appear approved, but that ye may do that which is honourable, [10]though we be as reprobate.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE GALATIANS.

CHAPTER I.

Of their leaving the gospel.

PAUL, an apostle, ([a]not of men, neither by man, but [b]by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, [c]who raised him from the dead;)
2 And all the brethren [d]which are with me, [e]unto the churches of Ga-la'ti-a:
3 [f]Grace be to you, and peace, from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,
4 [g]Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us [h]from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father:
5 To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.
6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed [i]from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:
7 [k]Which is not another; but there be some [l]that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.
8 But though [m]we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.
9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you [n]than that ye have received, let him be accursed.
10 For [o]do I now [p]persuade men, or God? or [q]do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.
11 [r]But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.
12 For [s]I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but [t]by the revelation of Jesus Christ.
13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that [u]beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and [z]wasted it:
14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my †equals in mine own nation, [v]being more exceedingly zealous [z]of the traditions of my fathers.
15 But when it pleased God, [a]who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,
16 [b]To reveal his Son in me, that [c]I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with [d]flesh and blood:
17 Neither went I up to Je-ru'sa-lem to them which were apostles before me: but I went into A-ra'bi-a, and returned again unto Da-mas'cus.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE GALATIANS.

1 Paul, an apostle (not from men, neither through [1]man, but through Jesus Christ, and God the Father,
2 who raised him from the dead), and all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Ga-la'ti-a:
3 Grace to you and peace [2]from God the Father, and 4 our Lord Jesus Christ, who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of this present evil [3]world, according to the will of our God and 5 Father: to whom be the glory [4]for ever and ever. Amen.
6 I marvel that ye are so quickly removing from him that called you in the grace of Christ unto a 7 different gospel; which is not another gospel: only there are some that trouble you, and would pervert
8 the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, should preach [5]unto you any gospel [6]other than that which we preached unto you, let 9 him be anathema. As we have said before, so say I now again, If any man preacheth unto you any gospel other than that which ye received, let him
10 be anathema. For am I now persuading men, or God? or am I seeking to please men? if I were still pleasing men, I should not be a [7]servant of Christ.
11 For I make known to you, brethren, as touching the gospel which was preached by me, that it is not
12 after man. For neither did I receive it from [1]man, nor was I taught it, but it came to me through reve-
13 lation of Jesus Christ. For ye have heard of my manner of life in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of 14 God and make havock of it: and I advanced in the Jews' religion beyond many of mine own age [8]among my countrymen, being more exceedingly 15 zealous for the traditions of my fathers. But when it was the good pleasure of God, who separated me, even from my mother's womb, and called me through 16 his grace, to reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the Gentiles; immediately I con-
17 ferred not with flesh and blood: neither went I up to Je-ru'sa-lem to them which were apostles before me: but I went away into A-ra'bi-a; and again I returned unto Da-mas'cus.

18 Then after three years, [e]I || went up to Je-ru'sa-lem to see Pe'ter, and abode with him fifteen days.
19 But [f]other of the apostles saw I none, save [g]James the Lord's brother.
20 Now the things which I write unto you, [h]behold, before God, I lie not.
21 [i]Afterwards I came into the regions of Syr'i-a and Ci-li'ci-a;
22 And was unknown by face [k]unto the churches of Ju-de'a which [l]were in Christ:
23 But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past, now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.
24 And they glorified God in me.

CHAPTER II.

Of justification by faith.

THEN fourteen years after [a]I went up again to Je-ru'sa-lem with Bar'na-bas, and took Ti'tus with me also.
2 And I went up by revelation, [b]and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but ||privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means [c]I should run, or had run, in vain.
3 But neither Ti'tus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:
4 And that because of [d]false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our [e]liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, [f]that they might bring us into bondage:
5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that [g]the truth of the gospel might continue with you.
6 But of those [h]who seemed to be somewhat, whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: [i]God accepteth no man's person: for they who seemed to be somewhat [k]in conference added nothing to me:
7 But contrariwise, [l]when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision [m]was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Pe'ter;
8 (For he that wrought effectually in Pe'ter to the apostleship of the circumcision, [n]the same was [o]mighty in me toward the Gentiles;)
9 And when James, Ce'phas, and John, who seemed to be [p]pillars, perceived [q]the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Bar'na-bas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.
10 Only they would that we should remember the poor; [r]the same which I also was forward to do.
11 [s]But when Pe'ter was come to An'ti-och, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.
12 For before that certain came from James, [t]he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.
13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Bar'na-bas also was carried away with their dissimulation.
14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to [u]the truth of the gospel, I said unto Pe'ter [x]before them all, [y]If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?
15 [z]We who are Jews by nature, and not [a]sinners of the Gentiles,
16 [b]Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but [c]by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for [d]by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.
17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found [e]sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.
18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

6 the gospel might continue with you. But from those who [4]were reputed to be somewhat ([6]whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth not man's person)—they, I say, who were 7 of repute imparted nothing to me: but contrariwise, when they saw that I had been intrusted with the gospel of the uncircumcision, even as Pe'ter with the
8 gospel of the circumcision (for he that wrought for Pe'ter unto the apostleship of the circumcision

16 yet knowing that a man is not justified by [7]the works of the law, [2]save through faith in Jesus Christ, even we believed on Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law: because by the works of the 17 law shall no flesh be justified. But if, while we sought to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found sinners, is Christ a minister of sin?

19 For I [f]through the law [g]am dead to the law, that I might [h]live unto God.
20 I am [i]crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh [k]I live by the faith of the Son of God, [l]who loved me, and gave himself for me.
21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for [m]if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

CHAPTER III.

Believers are justified by faith.

O FOOLISH Ga-la'ti-ans, [a]who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey [b]the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?
2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye [c]the Spirit by the works of the law, [d]or by the hearing of faith?
3 Are ye so foolish? [e]having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the [f]flesh?
4 [g]Have ye suffered || so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.
5 He therefore [h]that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?
6 Even as [i]A'bra-ham believed God, and it was || accounted to him for righteousness.
7 Know ye therefore, that [k]they which are of faith, the same are the children of A'bra-ham.
8 And [l]the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto A'bra-ham, saying, [m]In thee shall all nations be blessed.
9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful A'bra-ham.
10 For as many as are of the works of the law, are under the curse: for it is written, [n]Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.
11 But [o]that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, [p]The just shall live by faith.
12 And [q]the law is not of faith: but, [r]The man that doeth them shall live in them.
13 [s]Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, [t]Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:
14 [u]That the blessing of A'bra-ham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive [x]the promise of the Spirit through faith.
15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; [y]Though it be but a man's || covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.
16 Now [z]to A'bra-ham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is [a]Christ.
17 And this I say, That the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, [b]which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, [c]that it should make the promise of none effect.
18 For if [d]the inheritance be of the law, [e]it is no more of promise: but God gave it to A'bra-ham by promise.
19 Wherefore then serveth the law? [f]It was added because of transgressions, till [g]the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was [h]ordained by angels in the hand [i]of a mediator.
20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, [k]but God is one.
21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: [l]for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.
22 But [m]the Scripture hath concluded [n]all under sin, [o]that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

19 For I through [1]the law died unto [1]the law, that I
20 might live unto God. I have been crucified with Christ; [2]yet I live; and yet no longer I, but Christ liveth in me: and that life which I now live in the flesh I live in faith, the faith which is in the Son of 21 God, who loved me, and gave himself up for me. I do not make void the grace of God: for if righteousness is through [1]the law, then Christ died for nought.

3 O foolish Ga-la'ti-ans, who did bewitch you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was openly set forth cruci-
2 fied? This only would I learn from you. Received ye the Spirit by [3]the works of the law, or by the 3 [4]hearing of faith? Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, [5]are ye now perfected in the flesh?
4 Did ye suffer so many things in vain? if it be indeed
5 in vain. He therefore that supplieth to you the Spirit, and worketh [6]miracles [7]among you, doeth he it by [3]the works of the law, or by the [4]hearing of faith?
6 Even as A'bra-ham believed God, and it was reckoned
7 unto him for righteousness. [8]Know therefore that they which be of faith, the same are sons of A'bra-ham.
8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God [9]would justify the [10]Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand unto A'bra-ham, saying, In thee shall all the 9 nations be blessed. So then they which be of faith
10 are blessed with the faithful A'bra-ham. For as many as are of [3]the works of the law are under a curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one which continueth not in all things that are written in the book of the 11 law, to do them. Now that no man is justified [11]by the law in the sight of God, is evident: for, The 12 righteous shall live by faith; and the law is not of faith; but, He that doeth them shall live in them.
13 Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is 14 every one that hangeth on a tree: that upon the Gentiles might come the blessing of A'bra-ham in Christ Jesus; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.
15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men: Though it be but a man's [12]covenant, yet when it hath been confirmed, no one maketh it void, or addeth thereto.
16 Now to A'bra-ham were the promises spoken, and to his seed. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.
17 Now this I say; A [12]covenant confirmed beforehand by God, the law, which came four hundred and thirty years after, doth not disannul, so as to make the 18 promise of none effect. For if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise: but God hath 19 granted it to A'bra-ham by promise. What then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise hath been made; and it was ordained through angels by 20 the hand of a mediator. Now a mediator is not a
21 mediator of one; but God is one. Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could make alive, verily righteousness would have been of the law.
22 Howbeit the scripture hath shut up all things under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

24 Wherefore [p]the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, [q]that we might be justified by faith.
25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.
26 For ye [r]are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.
27 For [s]as many of you as have been baptized into Christ [t]have put on Christ.
28 [u]There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all [z]one in Christ Jesus.
29 And [v]if ye be Christ's, then are ye A'bra-ham's seed, and [s]heirs according to the promise.

CHAPTER IV.

Christ freeth us from the law.

NOW I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;
2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.
3 Even so we, when we were children, [a]were in bondage under the ||elements of the world:
4 But [b]when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, [c]made [d]of a woman, [e]made under the law,
5 [f]To redeem them that were under the law, [g]that we might receive the adoption of sons.
6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth [h]the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.
7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; [i]and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.
8 Howbeit then, [k]when ye knew not God, [l]ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.
9 But now, [m]after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, [n]how turn ye ||again to [o]the weak and beggarly ||elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?
10 [p]Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years.
11 I am afraid of you, [q]lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.
12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: [r]ye have not injured me at all.
13 Ye know how [s]through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you [t]at the first.
14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me [u]as an angel of God, [z]even as Christ Jesus.
15 ||Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.
16 Am I therefore become your enemy [v]because I tell you the truth?
17 They [z]zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude ||you, that ye might affect them.
18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.
19 [a]My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you,
20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for ||I stand in doubt of you.
21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?
22 For it is written, that A'bra-ham had two sons; [b]the one by a bondmaid, [c]the other by a free woman.
23 But he who was of the bondwoman [d]was born after the flesh; [e]but he of the free woman was by promise.
24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two ||covenants; the one from the mount †Si'nai, which gendereth to bondage, which is A'gar.

23 But before [1]faith came, we were kept in ward under the law, shut up unto the faith which should after-
24 wards be revealed. So that the law hath been our tutor to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justi-
25 fied by faith. But now that faith is come, we are no
26 longer under a tutor. For ye are all sons of God,
27 through faith, in Christ Jesus. For as many of you
28 as were baptized into Christ did put on Christ. There can be neither Jew nor Greek, there can be neither bond nor free, there can be no male and female: for 29 ye all are one man in Christ Jesus. And if ye are Christ's, then are ye A'bra-ham's seed, heirs according to promise.

4 But I say that so long as the heir is a child, he differeth nothing from a bondservant, though he is
2 lord of all; but is under guardians and stewards until 3 the term appointed of the father. So we also, when we were children, were held in bondage under the 4 [2]rudiments of the world: but when the fulness of the time came, God sent forth his Son, born of a
5 woman, born under the law, that he might redeem them which were under the law, that we might re-
6 ceive the adoption of sons. And because ye are sons, God sent forth the Spirit of his Son into our hearts,
7 crying, Abba, Father. So that thou art no longer a bondservant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir through God.
8 Howbeit at that time, not knowing God, ye were in bondage to them which by nature are no gods:
9 but now that ye have come to know God, or rather to be known of God, how turn ye back again to the weak and beggarly [2]rudiments, whereunto ye desire
10 to be in bondage over again? Ye observe days, and 11 months, and seasons, and years. I am afraid of you, lest by any means I have bestowed labour upon you in vain.
12 I beseech you, brethren, be as I am, for I am as 13 ye are. Ye did me no wrong: but ye know that because of an infirmity of the flesh I preached the 14 gospel unto you the [3]first time: and that which was a temptation to you in my flesh ye despised not, nor [4]rejected; but ye received me as an angel of God,
15 even as Christ Jesus. Where then is that gratulation [5]of yourselves? for I bear you witness, that, if possible, ye would have plucked out your eyes and given 16 them to me. So then am I become your enemy,
17 because I [6]tell you the truth? They zealously seek you in no good way; nay, they desire to shut you 18 out, that ye may seek them. But it is good to be zealously sought in a good matter at all times, and 19 not only when I am present with you. My little children, of whom I am again in travail until Christ
20 be formed in you, yea, I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I am perplexed about you.
21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law,
22 do ye not hear the law? For it is written, that A'bra-ham had two sons, one by the handmaid, and 23 one by the freewoman. Howbeit the son by the handmaid is born after the flesh; but the son by 24 the freewoman is born through promise. Which things contain an allegory: for these women are two covenants; one from mount Si'nai, bearing chil-
25 dren unto bondage, which is Ha'gar. [7]Now this Ha'gar is mount Si'nai in A-ra'bi-a, and answereth to Je-ru'sa-lem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 But [o]Je-ru'sa-lem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, [h]Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath a husband.

28 Now we, brethren, as I'saac was, are [i]the children of promise.

29 But as then [k]he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, [l]even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless what saith [m]the Scripture? [n]Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for [o]the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the free woman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, [p]but of the free.

CHAPTER V.

The liberty of the gospel.

5 STAND fast therefore in [a]the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again [b]with the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that [c]if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, [d]that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 [e]Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; [f]ye are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit [g]wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

6 For [h]in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but [i]faith which worketh by love.

7 Ye [k]did run well; [l]|| who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?

8 This persuasion cometh not of him [m]that calleth you.

9 [n]A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 [o]I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but [p]he that troubleth you [q]shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be.

11 [r]And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, [s]why do I yet suffer persecution? then is [t]the offence of the cross ceased.

12 [u]I would they were even cut off [z]which trouble you.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only [y]use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but [z]by love serve one another.

14 For [a]all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this, [b]Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, [c]Walk in the Spirit, and || ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

17 For [d]the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other; [e]so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But [f]if ye be led by the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 Now [g]the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these, Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that [h]they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But [i]the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, [k]gentleness, [l]goodness, [m]faith, 23 Meekness, temperance: [n]against such there is no law.

24 And they that are Christ's [o]have crucified the flesh, with the || affections and lusts.

25 [p]If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 [q]Let us not be desirous of vainglory, provoking one another, envying one another.

to the Je-ru'sa-lem that now is: for she is in bondage 26 with her children. But the Je-ru'sa-lem that is above
27 is free, which is our mother. For it is written,

Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not;
Break forth and cry, thou that travailest not:
For more are the children of the desolate than of her which hath the husband.

28 Now [1]we, brethren, as I'saac was, are children of 29 promise. But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, 30 even so it is now. Howbeit what saith the scripture? Cast out the handmaid and her son: for the son of the handmaid shall not inherit with the son of 31 the freewoman. Wherefore, brethren, we are not children of a handmaid, but of the freewoman.

5 [2]With freedom did Christ set us free: stand fast therefore, and be not entangled again in a yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that, if ye receive
3 circumcision, Christ will profit you nothing. Yea,
I testify again to every man that receiveth circum-
4 cision, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. Ye are [3]severed from Christ, ye who would be justified 5 by the law; ye are fallen away from grace. For we through the Spirit by faith wait for the hope of right-6 eousness. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision; but faith 7 [4]working through love. Ye were running well; who did hinder you that ye should not obey the 8 truth? This persuasion came not of him that calleth
9 you. A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.
10 I have confidence to you-ward in the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgement, whosoever he be.
11 But I, brethren, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? then hath the stumblingblock 12 of the cross been done away. I would that they which unsettle you would even [5]cut themselves off.
13 For ye, brethren, were called for freedom; only use not your freedom for an occasion to the flesh, 14 but through love be servants one to another. For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; 15 Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 But I say, Walk by the Spirit, and ye shall not 17 fulfil the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are contrary the one to the other; that ye 18 may not do the things that ye would. But if ye 19 are led by the Spirit, ye are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these, 20 fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousies, wraths, factions, 21 divisions, [6]heresies, envyings, drunkenness, revel-lings, and such like: of the which I [7]forewarn you, even as I did [7]forewarn you, that they which practise such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.
22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-
23 suffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, meekness, 24 [8]temperance: against such there is no law. And they that are of Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with the passions and the lusts thereof.
25 If we live by the Spirit, by the Spirit let us also 26 walk. Let us not be vainglorious, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAPTER VI.

To bear one another's burdens.

BRETHREN, [a]||if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye [b]which are spiritual restore such a one [c]in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself,[d] lest thou also be tempted.
2 [e]Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil [f]the law of Christ.
3 For [g]if a man think himself to be something, when [h]he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.
4 But [i]let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and [k]not in another.
5 [l]For every man shall bear his own burden.
6 [m]Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.
7 [n]Be not deceived; [o]God is not mocked: for [p]whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.
8 [q]For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.
9 And [r]let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, [s]if we faint not.
10 [t]As we have therefore opportunity, [u]let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of [z]the household of faith.
11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.
12 As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, [v]they constrain you to be circumcised; [x]only lest they should [a]suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.
13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.
14 [b]But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, ||by whom the world is [c]crucified unto me, and I unto the world.
15 For [d]in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but [e]a new creature.
16 [f]And as many as walk [g]according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon [h]the Is'ra-el of God.
17 From henceforth let no man trouble me: for [i]I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.
18 Brethren, [k]the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

6 Brethren, even if a man be overtaken in any trespass, ye which are spiritual, restore such a one in a spirit of meekness; looking to thyself, lest thou also

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE EPHESIANS.

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, to the saints which are [1]at Eph'e-sus, and 2 the faithful in Christ Jesus: Grace to you, and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with every spiritual
4 blessing in the heavenly places in Christ: even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blemish before
5 [2]him in love: having foreordained us unto adoption as sons through Jesus Christ unto himself, according
6 to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of the glory of his grace, [3]which he freely bestowed
7 on us in the Beloved: in whom we have our redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace,

[1] Some very ancient authorities omit at Ephesus
[2] Or, him: having in love foreordained us
[3] Or, wherewith he endued us

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence;
9 [q]Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure [r]which he hath purposed in himself:
10 That in the dispensation of [s]the fulness of times [t]he might gather together in one [u]all things in Christ, both which are in †heaven, and which are on earth; even in him:
11 [x]In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, [y]being predestinated according to [z]the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will:
12 [a]That we should be to the praise of his glory, [b]who first ‖ trusted in Christ.
13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard [c]the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also, after that ye believed, [d]ye were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise, 14 [e]Which is the earnest of our inheritance [f]until the redemption of [g]the purchased possession, [h]unto the praise of his glory.
15 Wherefore I also, [i]after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints, 16 [k]Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;
17 That [l]the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, [m]may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation ‖ in the knowledge of him:
18 [n]The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is [o]the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his [p]inheritance in the saints, 19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, [q]according to the working †of his mighty power,
20 Which he wrought in Christ, when [r]he raised him from the dead, and [s]set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, 21 [t]Far above all [u]principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come:
22 And [x]hath put all things under his feet, and gave him
[y]to be the head over all things to the church,
23 [z]Which is his body, [a]the fulness of him [b]that filleth all in all.

CHAPTER II.

All are created for good works.

AND [a]you hath he quickened, [b]who were dead in trespasses and sins;
2 [c]Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to [d]the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in [e]the children of disobedience:
3 [f]Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in [g]the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling †the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and [h]were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.
4 But God, [i]who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,
5 [k]Even when we were dead in sins, hath [l]quickened us together with Christ, (‖ by grace ye are saved;)
6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together
[m]in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:
7 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace, in [n]his kindness toward us, through Christ Jesus.
8 [o]For by grace are ye saved [p]through faith; and that not of yourselves: [q]it is the gift of God:
9 [r]Not of works, lest any man should boast.
10 For we are his [s]workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, [t]which God hath before ‖ ordained that we should walk in them.
11 Wherefore [u]remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called [x]the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands;
12 [y]That at that time ye were without Christ, [z]being aliens

8 [1]which he made to abound toward us in all wisdom
9 and prudence, having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which 10 he purposed in him unto a dispensation of the ful-ness of the [2]times, to sum up all things in Christ, the things [3]in the heavens, and the things upon the earth; 11 in him, I say, in whom also we were made a heritage, having been foreordained according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his 12 will; to the end that we should be unto the praise of 13 his glory, we who [4]had before hoped in Christ: in whom ye also, having heard the word of the truth, the gospel of your salvation,—in whom, having also believed, ye were sealed with the Holy Spirit of 14 promise, which is an earnest of our inheritance, unto the redemption of God's own possession, unto the praise of his glory.
15 For this cause I also, having heard of the faith in the Lord Jesus which is [5]among you, and [6]which ye 16 shew toward all the saints, cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;
17 that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ the Father of glory, may give unto you a spirit of wisdom and 18 revelation in the knowledge of him; having the eyes of your heart enlightened, that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, what the riches of 19 the glory of his inheritance in the saints, and what the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to that working of the 20 strength of his might which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and made him 21 to sit at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule, and authority, and power, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in 22 this [7]world, but also in that which is to come: and he put all things in subjection under his feet, and gave him to be head over all things to the church, 23 which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all.

2 And you did he quicken, when ye were dead through
2 your trespasses and sins, wherein aforetime ye walked according to the [8]course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, of the spirit that now worketh in the sons of disobedience;
3 among whom we also all once lived in the lusts of our flesh, doing the desires of the flesh and of the [9]mind, and were by nature children of wrath, even 4 as the rest:—but God, being rich in mercy, for his 5 great love wherewith he loved us, even when we were dead through our trespasses, quickened us together [10]with Christ (by grace have ye been saved), 6 and raised us up with him, and made us to sit with 7 him in the heavenly places, in Christ Jesus: that in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ 8 Jesus: for by grace have ye been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of 9 God: not of works, that no man should glory.
10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God afore prepared that we should walk in them.
11 Wherefore remember, that aforetime ye, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called Circumcis-12 ion, in the flesh, made by hands; that ye were at that time separate from Christ, alienated

CHAPTER III.

Salvation for the Gentiles.

FOR this cause I Paul, [a]the prisoner of Jesus Christ [b]for you Gentiles,

2 If ye have heard of [c]the dispensation of the grace of God [d]which is given me to you-ward:

3 [e]How that [f]by revelation [g]he made known unto me the mystery; ([h]as I wrote ||afore in few words;

4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge [i]in the mystery of Christ,)

5 [k]Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, [l]as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

6 That the Gentiles [m]should be fellow heirs, and [n]of the same body, and [o]partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel:

7 [p]Wherefore I was made a minister, [q]according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by [r]the effectual working of his power.

8 Unto me, [s]who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that [t]I should preach among the Gentiles [u]the unsearchable riches of Christ;

9 And to make all men see what is the fellowship of [z]the mystery, [v]which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, [x]who created all things by Jesus Christ:

10 [a]To the intent that now [b]unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places [c]might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God,

11 [d]According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:

12 In whom we have boldness and [e]access [f]with confidence by the faith of him.

13 [g]Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations [h]for you, [i]which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

15 Of whom [k]the whole family in heaven and earth is named, from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of the promise, having no hope and 13 without God in the world. But now in Christ Jesus ye that once were far off are made nigh in the blood

14 of Christ. For he is our peace, who made both one,
15 and brake down the middle wall of partition, having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; that he might create in himself of the twain one new man, so making
16 peace; and might reconcile them both in one body unto God through the cross, having slain the enmity
17 thereby: and he came and [1]preached peace to you that were far off, and peace to them that were nigh:
18 for through him we both have our access in one
19 Spirit unto the Father. So then ye are no more strangers and sojourners, but ye are fellow-citizens
20 with the saints, and of the household of God, being built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the chief cor-
21 ner stone; in whom [2]each several building, fitly framed together, groweth into a holy [3]temple in the 22 Lord; in whom ye also are builded together [4]for a habitation of God in the Spirit.

2 in behalf of you Gentiles,—if so be that ye have heard of the [5]dispensation of that grace of God
3 which was given me to you-ward; how that by revelation was made known unto me the mystery, as I
4 wrote afore in few words, whereby, when ye read, ye can perceive my understanding in the mystery of
5 Christ; which in other generations was not made known unto the sons of men, as it hath now been revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets in the 6 Spirit; to wit, that the Gentiles are fellow-heirs, and fellow-members of the body, and fellow-partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel,
7 whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of that grace of God which was given me ac-
8 cording to the working of his power. Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, was this grace given, to preach unto the Gentiles the un-
9 searchable riches of Christ; and to [6]make all men see what is the [5]dispensation of the mystery which from all ages hath been hid in God who created all
10 things; to the intent that now unto the principalities and the powers in the heavenly places might be made known through the church the manifold wis-
11 dom of God, according to the [7]eternal purpose
12 which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord: in whom we have boldness and access in confidence
13 through [8]our faith in him. Wherefore I ask that [9]ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which [10]are your glory.

15 from whom every [11]family in heaven and on earth
16 is named, that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, that ye may be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inward man;
17 that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; to the end that ye, being rooted and grounded in 18 love, may be strong to apprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and

20 Now [t]unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly [u]above all that we ask or think, [x]according to the power that worketh in us, 21 [y]Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

CHAPTER IV.

Exhortation to unity.

I THEREFORE, [h]the prisoner || of the Lord, beseech you that ye [b]walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

2 [c]With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love;

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit [d]in the bond of peace.

4 [e]There is one body, and [f]one Spirit, even as ye are called in one [g]hope of your calling;

5 [h]One Lord, [i]one faith, [k]one baptism,

6 [l]One God and Father of all, who is above all, and [m]through all, and in you all.

7 But [n]unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saith, [o]When he ascended up on high, [p]he led || captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

9 ([q]Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?

10 He that descended is the same also [r]that ascended up, far above all heavens, [s]that he might || fill all things.)

11 [t]And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, [u]evangelists; and some, [x]pastors and [y]teachers;

12 [z]For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, [a]for the edifying of [b]the body of Christ:

13 Till we all come || in the unity of the faith, [c]and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto [d]a perfect man, unto the measure of the || stature of the fulness of Christ:

14 That we henceforth be no more [e]children, [f]tossed to and fro, and carried about with every [g]wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, [h]whereby they lie in wait to deceive:

15 But [i]|| speaking the truth in love, [k]may grow up into him in all things, [l]which is the head, even Christ:

16 [m]From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that [n]ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, [o]in the vanity of their mind,

18 [p]Having the understanding darkened, [q]being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the [r]|| blindness of their heart:

19 [s]Who being past feeling [t]have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ;

21 [u]If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:

22 That ye [x]put off concerning [y]the former conversation [z]the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

23 And [a]be renewed in the spirit of your mind;

24 And that ye [b]put on the new man, which after God [c]is created in righteousness and || true holiness.

25 Wherefore putting away lying, [d]speak every man truth with his neighbour: for [e]we are members one of another.

26 [f]Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:

27 [g]Neither give place to the devil.

28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather [h]let him knowledge, that ye may be filled unto all the fulness of God.

20 Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, accord-
21 ing to the power that worketh in us, unto him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus unto [1]all generations for ever and ever. Amen.

4 I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beseech you to walk worthily of the calling wherewith ye were 2 called, with all lowliness and meekness, with long-
3 suffering, forbearing one another in love; giving diligence to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond
4 of peace. There is one body, and one Spirit, even as also ye were called in one hope of your calling;
5 6 one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and 7 in all. But unto each one of us was the grace given according to the measure of the gift of Christ.
8 Wherefore he saith,

When he ascended on high, he led captivity captive,
And gave gifts unto men.

9 (Now this, He ascended, what is it but that he also 10 descended [2]into the lower parts of the earth? He that descended is the same also that ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.)
11 And he gave some to be apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and 12 teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, unto the work of ministering, unto the building up of the body
13 of Christ: till we all attain unto the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a fullgrown man, unto the measure of the stature of 14 the fulness of Christ: that we may be no longer children, tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, in
15 craftiness, after the wiles of error; but [3]speaking truth in love, may grow up in all things into him, which 16 is the head, even Christ; from whom all the body fitly framed and knit together [4]through that which every joint supplieth, according to the working in due measure of each several part, maketh the increase of the body unto the building up of itself in love.
17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye no longer walk as the Gentiles also walk, in the 18 vanity of their mind, being darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the harden-
19 ing of their heart; who being past feeling gave themselves up to lasciviousness, [5]to work all un-
20 cleanness with [6]greediness. But ye did not so learn
21 Christ; if so be that ye heard him, and were taught
22 in him, even as truth is in Jesus: that ye put away, as concerning your former manner of life, the old man, which waxeth corrupt after the lusts of deceit;
23 and that ye be renewed in the spirit of your mind,
24 and put on the new man, [7]which after God hath been created in righteousness and holiness of truth.
25 Wherefore, putting away falsehood, speak ye truth each one with his neighbour: for we are 26 members one of another. Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your 27 28 [8]wrath: neither give place to the devil. Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him

CHAPTER V.

Exhortation against divers sins.

BE [a]ye therefore followers of God, as dear children;

2 And [b]walk in love, [c]as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God [d]for a sweetsmelling savour.

3 But [e]fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, [f]let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints;

4 [g]Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, [h]which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.

5 For this ye know, that [i]no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, [k]who is an idolater, [l]hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

6 [m]Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things [n]cometh the wrath of God [o]upon the children of || disobedience.

7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them.

8 [p]For ye were sometime darkness, but now [q]are ye light in the Lord: walk as [r]children of light;

9 (For [s]the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;)

10 [t]Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.

11 And [u]have no fellowship with [x]the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather [y]reprove them.

12 [z]For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

13 But [a]all things that are ||reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.

14 Wherefore ||he saith, [b]Awake, thou that sleepest, and [c]arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

15 [d]See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, 16 [e]Redeeming the time, [f]because the days are evil.

17 [g]Wherefore be ye not unwise, but [h]understanding [i]what the will of the Lord is.

18 And [k]be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;

19 Speaking to yourselves [l]in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord;

20 [m]Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father, [n]in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;

21 [o]Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

22 [p]Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, [q]as unto the Lord.

23 For [r]the husband is the head of the wife, even as [s]Christ is the head of the church: and he is the Saviour of [t]the body.

24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands [u]in every thing.

25 [x]Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and [y]gave himself for it;

26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it [z]with the washing of water [a]by the word,

27 [b]That he might present it to himself a glorious church, [c]not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing; [d]but that it should be holy and without blemish.

labour, working with his hands the thing that is good, that he may have whereof to give to him that 29 hath need. Let no corrupt speech proceed out of your mouth, but such as is good for [1]edifying as the need may be, that it may give grace to them that 30 hear. And grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, in whom ye were sealed unto the day of redemption.
31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and railing, be put away from you, with all malice:
32 and be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving each other, even as God also in Christ forgave [2]you.

5 Be ye therefore imitators of God, as beloved
2 children; and walk in love, even as Christ also loved you, and gave himself up for [3]us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for an odour of a sweet smell.
3 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not even be named among you, as becometh
4 saints; nor filthiness, nor foolish talking, or jesting, which are not befitting: but rather giving of thanks.
5 For this ye know of a surety, that no fornicator, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, which is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ
6 and God. Let no man deceive you with empty words: for because of these things cometh the 7 wrath of God upon the sons of disobedience. Be 8 not ye therefore partakers with them; for ye were once darkness, but are now light in the Lord: walk
9 as children of light (for the fruit of the light is in all 10 goodness and righteousness and truth), proving 11 what is well-pleasing unto the Lord; and have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, 12 but rather even [4]reprove them; for the things which are done by them in secret it is a shame even to 13 speak of. But all things when they are [5]reproved are made manifest by the light: for everything that is 14 made manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall shine upon thee.
15 Look therefore carefully how ye walk, not as un-16 wise, but as wise; [6]redeeming the time, because the 17 days are evil. Wherefore be ye not foolish, but 18 understand what the will of the Lord is. And be not drunken with wine, wherein is riot, but be 19 filled [7]with the Spirit; speaking [8]one to another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and 20 making melody with your heart to the Lord; giving thanks always for all things in the name of our 21 Lord Jesus Christ to [9]God, even the Father; subjecting yourselves one to another in the fear of Christ.
22 Wives, be in subjection unto your own husbands, as 23 unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the head of the church, being 24 himself the saviour of the body. But as the church is subject to Christ, [10]so let the wives also be to their 25 husbands in everything. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave him-
26 self up for it; that he might sanctify it, having cleansed it by the [11]washing of water with the word,
27 that he might present the church to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.

31 [f]For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they [g]two shall be one flesh.

CHAPTER VI.

Reciprocal duties recommended.

CHILDREN, [a]obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.
2 [b]Honour thy father and mother, which is the first commandment with promise;
3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.
4 And, [c]ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but [d]bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.
5 [e]Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, [f]with fear and trembling, [g]in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ;
6 [h]Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;
7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:
8 [i]Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, [k]whether he be bond or free.
9 And, ye [l]masters, do the same things unto them, ‖ [m]forbearing threatening: knowing that ‖ [n]your Master also is in heaven; [o]neither is there respect of persons with him.
10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and [p]in the power of his might.
11 [q]Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.
12 For we wrestle not against †[r]flesh and blood, but against [s]principalities, against powers, against [t]the rulers of the darkness of this world, against ‖ spiritual wickedness in ‖ high places.
13 [u]Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand [x]in the evil day, and ‖ having done all, to stand.
14 Stand therefore, [y]having your loins girt about with truth, and [z]having on the breastplate of righteousness;
15 [a]And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;
16 Above all, taking [b]the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.
17 And [c]take the helmet of salvation, and [d]the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:
18 [e]Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and [f]watching thereunto with all perseverance and [g]supplication for all saints;
19 [h]And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth [i]boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel,
20 For which [k]I am an ambassador [l]‖ in bonds; that ‖ therein [m]I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.
21 But [n]that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, [o]Tych'i-cus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things:
22 [p]Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.
23 [q]Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
24 Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ [r]‖ in sincerity. Amen.

¶ Written from Rome unto the Ephesians, by Tychicus.

28 Even so ought husbands also to love their own wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his own 29 wife loveth himself: for no man ever hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as 30 Christ also the church; because we are members
31 of his body. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife;
32 and the twain shall become one flesh. This mystery is great: but I speak in regard of Christ and 33 of the church. Nevertheless do ye also severally love each one his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she fear her husband.

6 Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this
2 is right. Honour thy father and mother (which is 3 the first commandment with promise), that it may be well with thee, and thou [1]mayest live long on the 4 [2]earth. And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but nurture them in the chastening and admonition of the Lord.
5 [3]Servants, be obedient unto them that according to the flesh are your [4]masters, with fear and trembling,
6 in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ; not in the way of eyeservice, as men-pleasers; but as [3]servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the 7 [5]heart; with good will doing service, as unto the 8 Lord, and not unto men: knowing that whatsoever good thing each one doeth, the same shall he receive again from the Lord, whether he be bond or 9 free. And, ye [4]masters, do the same things unto them, and forbear threatening: knowing that both their Master and yours is in heaven, and there is no respect of persons with him.
10 [6]Finally, [7]be strong in the Lord, and in the strength
11 of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.
12 For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world-rulers of this darkness, against the spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places.
13 Wherefore take up the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and,
14 having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having girded your loins with truth, and having put on the 15 breastplace of righteousness, and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace;
16 withal taking up the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil
17 one. And take the helmet of salvation, and the 18 sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: with all prayer and supplication praying at all seasons in the Spirit, and watching thereunto in all perseverance
19 and supplication for all the saints, and on my behalf, that utterance may be given unto me [8]in opening my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of 20 the gospel, for which I am an ambassador in [9]chains; that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.
21 But that ye also may know my affairs, how I do, Tych'i-cus, the beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things:
22 whom I have sent unto you for this very purpose, that ye may know our state, and that he may comfort your hearts.
23 Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith, from 24 God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in uncorruptness.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS.

CHAPTER I.

Paul's readiness to suffer.

PAUL and Ti-mo'the-us, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints [c]in Christ Jesus which are at Phi-lip'pi, with the bishops and deacons:

2 [b]Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [c]I thank my God upon every ||remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 [d]For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun [e]a good work in you ||will perform it [f]until the day of Jesus Christ:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because ||I have you [g]in my heart; inasmuch as both in [h]my bonds, and in [i]the defence and confirmation of the gospel, [k]ye all are ||partakers of my grace.

8 For [l]God is my record, [m]how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, [n]that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all ||judgment;

10 That [o]ye may ||approve things that ||are excellent; [p]that ye may be sincere and without offence [q]till the day of Christ;

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, [r]which are by Jesus Christ, [s]unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

13 So that my bonds ||in Christ are manifest [t]in all ||the palace, and ||in all other places;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and [u]strife; and some also of good will:

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for [x]the defence of the gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation [y]through your prayer, and the supply of [z]the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

20 According to my [a]earnest expectation, and my hope, that [b]in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that [c]with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not.

23 For [d]I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to [e]depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:

24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

25 And [f]having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith;

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS.

1 Paul and Tim'o-thy, [1]servants of Christ Jesus, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Phi-lip'pi, 2 with the [2]bishops and deacons: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 I thank my God upon all my remembrance of you,
4 always in every supplication of mine on behalf of 5 you all making my supplication with joy, for your fellowship in furtherance of the gospel from the first 6 day until now; being confident of this very thing, that he which began a good work in you will perfect 7 it until the day of Jesus Christ: even as it is right for me to be thus minded on behalf of you all, because [3]I have you in my heart, inasmuch as, both in my bonds and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers with me of grace.
8 For God is my witness, how I long after you all in 9 the tender mercies of Christ Jesus. And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in 10 knowledge and all discernment; so that ye may [4]approve the things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and void of offence unto the day of Christ; 11 being filled with the [5]fruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.
12 Now I would have you know, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather 13 unto the progress of the gospel; so that my bonds became manifest in Christ [6]throughout the whole 14 prætorian guard, and to all the rest; and that most of the brethren in the Lord, [7]being confident through my bonds, are more abundantly bold to speak the 15 word of God without fear. Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of 16 good will: the one do it of love, knowing that I am 17 set for the defence of the gospel: but the other proclaim Christ of faction, not sincerely, thinking to 18 raise up affliction for me in my bonds. What then? only that in every way, whether in pretence or in truth, Christ is proclaimed; and therein I rejoice, 19 yea, and will rejoice. For I know that this shall turn to my salvation, through your supplication 20 and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, according to my earnest expectation and hope, that in nothing shall I be put to shame, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether by life, or by 21 death. For to me to live is Christ, and to die is 22 gain. [8]But if to live in the flesh,—if this is the fruit of my work, then [9]what I shall choose [10]I wot 23 not. But I am in a strait betwixt the two, having the desire to depart and be with Christ; for 24 it is very far better: yet to abide in the flesh is 25 more needful for your sake. And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide, yea, and abide with you all, for your progress and joy [11]in the faith;

[1]Gr. bond-servants.
[2]Or, overseers
[3]Or, ye have me in your heart
[4]Or, prove the things that differ
[5]Gr. fruit.
[6]Gr. in the whole Prætorium.
[7]Gr. trusting in my bonds.
[8]Or, But if to live in the flesh be my lot, this is the fruit of my work: and what I shall choose I wot not.
[9]Or, what shall I choose?
[10]Or, I do not make known
[11]Or, of faith

26 That [e]your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again.

27 Only [h]let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, [i]that ye stand fast in one spirit, [k]with one mind [l]striving together for the faith of the gospel;

28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: [m]which is to them an evident token of perdition, [n]but to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you [o]it is given in the behalf of Christ, [p]not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;

30 [q]Having the same conflict [r]which you saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAPTER II.

Love and unity recommended.

IF there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, [s]if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any [t]bowels and mercies,

2 [u]Fulfil ye my joy, [d]that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

3 [v]Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but [f]in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

4 [g]Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 [h]Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6 Who [i]being in the form of God, [k]thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

7 [l]But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form [m]of a servant, and [n]was made in the ||likeness of men:

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and [o]became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore God also [p]hath highly exalted him, and [q]given him a name which is above every name:

10 [r]That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

11 And [s]that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, [t]as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with [u]fear and trembling:

13 For [x]it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things [y]without murmurings and [z]disputings:

15 That ye may be blameless and ||harmless, [a]the sons of God, without rebuke, [b]in the midst of [c]a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ||[d]ye shine as lights in the world;

16 Holding forth the word of life; that [e]I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that [f]I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

17 Yea, and if [g]I be †offered upon the sacrifice [h]and service of your faith, [i]I joy and rejoice with you all.

18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

19 ||But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send [k]Ti-mo'the-us shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I have no man [l]||likeminded, who will naturally care for your state.

21 For all [m]seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.

22 But ye know the proof of him, [n]that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

24 But [o]I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.

26 that your glorying may abound in Christ Jesus in 27 me through my presence with you again. Only [1]let your manner of life be worthy of the gospel of Christ: that, whether I come and see you or be absent, I may hear of your state, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one soul striving [2]for the 28 faith of the gospel; and in nothing affrighted by the adversaries: which is for them an evident token of perdition, but of your salvation, and that 29 from God; because to you it hath been granted in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him,
30 but also to suffer in his behalf: having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

2 If there is therefore any comfort in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit,
2 if any tender mercies and compassions, fulfil ye my joy, that ye be of the same mind, having the same
3 love, being of one accord, [3]of one mind; doing nothing through faction or through vainglory, but in lowliness of mind each counting other better than him-
4 self; not looking each of you to his own things, but 5 each of you also to the things of others. Have this 6 mind in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: who [4]being in the form of God, counted it not [5]a prize to 7 be on an equality with God, but emptied himself, taking the form of a [6]servant, [7]being made in the 8 likeness of men; and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, becoming obedient even 9 unto death, yea, the death of the cross. Wherefore also God highly exalted him, and gave unto him the 10 name which is above every name; that in the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven
11 and things on earth and [8]things under the earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 So then, my beloved, even as ye have always obeyed, not [9]as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation
13 with fear and trembling; for it is God which worketh in you both to will and to work, for his good pleas-
14 ure. Do all things without murmurings and dis-
15 putings; that ye may be blameless and harmless, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom ye
16 are seen as [10]lights in the world, holding forth the word of life; that I may have whereof to glory in the day of Christ, that I did not run in vain neither
17 labour in vain. Yea, and if I am [11]offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice 18 with you all: and in the same manner do ye also joy, and rejoice with me.

19 But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Tim'o-thy shortly unto you, that I also may be of good com-
20 fort, when I know your state. For I have no man
21 likeminded, who will care [12]truly for your state. For they all seek their own, not the things of Jesus Christ.
22 But ye know the proof of him, that as a child serveth a father, so he served with me in furtherance of the 23 gospel. Him therefore I hope to send forthwith,
24 so soon as I shall see how it will go with me: but I trust in the Lord that I myself also shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you [p]E-paph-ro-di'tus, my brother, and companion in labour, and [q]fellow-soldier, [r]but your messenger, and [s]he that ministered to my wants.

26 [t]For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and ‖ [u]hold such in reputation:

30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, to [x]supply your lack of service toward me.

CHAPTER III.

To beware of false teachers.

FINALLY, my brethren, [a]rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 [b]Beware of dogs, beware of [c]evil workers, [d]beware of the concision.

3 For we are [e]the circumcision, [f]which worship God in the Spirit, and [g]rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though [h]I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

5 [i]Circumcised the eighth day, [k]of the stock of Is'ra-el, [l]of the tribe of Ben'ja-min, [m]a He'brew of the He'brews; as touching the law, [n]a Phar'i-see;

6 [o]Concerning zeal, [p]persecuting the church; [q]touching the righteousness which is in the law, [r]blameless.

7 But [s]what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss [t]for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,

9 And be found in him, not having [u]mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but [x]that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and [y]the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

11 If by any means I might [z]attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already [a]attained, either were already [b]perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, [c]forgetting those things which are behind, and [d]reaching forth unto those things which are before,

14 [e]I press toward the mark for the prize of [f]the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us therefore, as many as be [g]perfect, [h]be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, [i]let us walk [k]by the same rule, [l]let us mind the same thing.

17 Brethren, [m]be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as [n]ye have us for an ensample.

18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are [o]the enemies of the cross of Christ:

19 [p]Whose end is destruction, [q]whose God is their belly, and [r]whose glory is in their shame, [s]who mind earthly things.)

25 But I counted it necessary to send to you E-paph-ro-di'tus, my brother and fellow-worker and fellow-soldier, and your [1]messenger and minister to my 26 need; since he longed [2]after you all, and was sore troubled, because ye had heard that he was sick:
27 for indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow upon sor-
28 row. I have sent him therefore the more diligently, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice,
29 and that I may be the less sorrowful. Receive him therefore in the Lord with all joy; and hold 30 such in honour: because for the work of [3]Christ he came nigh unto death, hazarding his life to supply that which was lacking in your service toward me.

3 Finally, my brethren, [4]rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not
2 irksome, but for you it is safe. Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the concision:
3 for we are the circumcision, who worship by the Spirit of God, and glory in Christ Jesus, and have no con-
4 fidence in the flesh: though I myself might have confidence even in the flesh: if any other man [5]thinketh
5 to have confidence in the flesh, I yet more: circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Is'ra-el, of the tribe of Ben'ja-min, a He'brew of He'brews; as touch-
6 ing the law, a Phar'i-see; as touching zeal, persecuting the church; as touching the righteousness which is 7 in the law, found blameless. Howbeit what things were [6]gain to me, these have I counted loss for Christ.
8 Yea verily, and I count all things to be loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but [7]dung, that I may gain Christ,
9 and be found in him, [8]not having a righteousness of mine own, even that which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness
10 which is of God [9]by faith: that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, becoming conformed unto his death;
11 if by any means I may attain unto the resurrection
12 from the dead. Not that I have already obtained, or am already made perfect: but I press on, if so be that I may [10]apprehend that for which also I was ap-
13 prehended by Christ Jesus. Brethren, I count not myself [11]yet to have apprehended: but one thing I do, forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching 14 forward to the things which are before, I press on toward the goal unto the prize of the [12]high calling
15 of God in Christ Jesus. Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in anything ye are otherwise minded, even this shall God reveal unto 16 you: only, whereunto we have already attained, by that same rule let us walk.
17 Brethren, be ye imitators together of me, and mark them which so walk even as ye have us for 18 an ensample. For many walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they 19 are the enemies of the cross of Christ: whose end is perdition, whose god is the belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.

20 For [t]our conversation is in heaven; [u]from whence also we [x]look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ:

CHAPTER IV.

General exhortations.

THEREFORE, my brethren dearly beloved and [c]longed for, [b]my joy and crown, so [c]stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.
2 I beseech Eu-o'di-as, and beseech Syn'ty-che, [d]that they be of the same mind in the Lord.
3 And I entreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which [e]laboured with me in the gospel, with Clem'ent also, and with other my fellow labourers, whose names are in [f]the book of life.
4 [g]Rejoice in the Lord always: and again I say, Rejoice.
5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. [h]The Lord is at hand.
6 [i]Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.
7 And [k]the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.
8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are ‖ honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, [l]whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.
9 [m]Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and [n]the God of peace shall be with you.
10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last [o]your care of me ‖ hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.
11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, [p]therewith to be content.
12 [q]I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.
13 I can do all things [r]through Christ, which strengtheneth me.
14 Notwithstanding, ye have well done, that [s]ye did communicate with my affliction.
15 Now ye Phi-lip'pi-ans know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Mac-e-do'ni-a, [t]no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.
16 For even in Thes-sa-lo-ni'ca ye sent once and again unto my necessity.
17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire [u]fruit that may abound to your account.
18 But ‖ I have all, and abound: I am full, having received [x]of E-paph-ro-di'tus the things which were sent from you, [y]an odour of a sweet smell, [z]a sacrifice acceptable, well pleasing to God.
19 But my God [a]shall supply all your need [b]according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.
20 [c]Now unto God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.
21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren [d]which are with me greet you.
22 All the saints salute you, [e]chiefly they that are of Ce'sar's household.
23 [f]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

20 For our [1]citizenship is in heaven; from whence also 21 we wait for a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: who shall fashion anew the body of our humiliation, that it may be conformed to the body of his glory, according to the working whereby he is able even to subject all things unto himself.

4 Wherefore, my brethren beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my beloved.

4 [2]Rejoice in the Lord alway: again I will say,
5 [2]Rejoice. Let your [3]forbearance be known unto all

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS.

CHAPTER I.

Paul describeth the true Christ.

PAUL, [c]an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Ti-mo'the-us our brother,

2 To the saints [b]and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Co-los'se: [c]Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [d]We give thanks to God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you.

4 [e]Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the [f]love which ye have to all the saints,

5 For the hope [g]which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;

6 Which is come unto you, [h]as it is in all the world; and [i]bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew [k]the grace of God in truth:

7 As ye also learned of [l]Ep'a-phras our dear fellow servant, who is for you [m]a faithful minister of Christ;

8 Who also declared unto us your [n]love in the Spirit.

9 [o]For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire [p]that ye might be filled with [q]the knowledge of his will [r]in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;

10 [s]That ye might walk worthy of the Lord [t]unto all pleasing, [u]being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;

11 [x]Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, [y]unto all patience and longsuffering [z]with joyfulness;

12 [a]Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of [b]the inheritance of the saints in light:

13 Who hath delivered us from [c]the power of darkness, [d]and hath translated us into the kingdom of †his dear Son:

14 [e]In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:

15 Who is [f]the image of the invisible God, [g]the firstborn of every creature:

16 For [h]by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or [i]dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created [k]by him, and for him;

17 [l]And he is before all things, and by him all things consist:

18 And [m]he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, [n]the firstborn from the dead; that ‖in all things he might have the preeminence.

19 For it pleased the Father that [o]in him should all fulness dwell;

20 And, ‖[p]having made peace through the blood of his cross, [q]by him to reconcile [r]all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

21 And you, [s]that were sometime alienated and enemies ‖in your mind [t]by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled

22 [u]In the body of his flesh through death, [x]to present you holy and unblameable and unreproveable in his sight:

23 If ye continue in the faith [y]grounded and settled, and be [z]not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, [a]and which was preached [b]to every creature which is under heaven; [c]whereof I Paul am made a minister;

24 [d]Who now rejoice in my sufferings [e]for you, and fill up [f]that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for [g]his body's sake, which is the church:

25 Whereof I am made a minister, according to [h]the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, ‖to fulfil the word of God;

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS.

1 Paul an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will
2 of God, and Tim'o-thy [1]our brother, [2]to the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Co-los'sæ: Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

3 We give thanks to God the Father of our Lord
4 Jesus Christ, praying always for you, having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which
5 ye have toward all the saints, because of the hope which is laid up for you in the heavens, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel,
6 which is come unto you; even as it is also in all the world bearing fruit and increasing, as it doth in you also, since the day ye heard and knew the grace of 7 God in truth; even as ye learned of Ep'a-phras our beloved fellow-servant, who is a faithful minister of 8 Christ on [3]our behalf, who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray and make request for you, that ye may be filled with the knowledge of his will in 10 all spiritual wisdom and understanding, to walk worthily of the Lord [4]unto all pleasing, bearing fruit in every good work, and increasing [5]in the knowl-
11 edge of God; [6]strengthened [7]with all power, according to the might of his glory, unto all patience and 12 longsuffering with joy; giving thanks unto the Father, who made [8]us meet to be partakers of the 13 inheritance of the saints in light; who delivered us out of the power of darkness, and translated us into 14 the kingdom of the Son of his love; in whom we have our redemption, the forgiveness of our sins:
15 who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn
16 of all creation; for in him were all things created, in the heavens and upon the earth, things visible and things invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things have been created,
17 through him, and unto him; and he is before all
18 things, and in him all things [9]consist. And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; [10]that in all
19 things he might have the preeminence. [11]For it was the good pleasure of the Father that in him should 20 all the fulness dwell; and through him to reconcile all things [12]unto [13]himself, having made peace through the blood of his cross; through him, I say, whether things upon the earth, or things in the heavens.
21 And you, being in time past alienated and enemies in your mind in your evil works, yet now [14]hath he 22 reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and without blemish and unre-
23 proveable before him: if so be that ye continue in the faith, grounded and stedfast, and not moved away from the hope of the gospel which ye heard, which was preached in all creation under heaven; whereof I Paul was made a minister.

24 Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and fill up on my part that which is lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake,
25 which is the church; whereof I was made a minister, according to the [15]dispensation of God which was given me to you-ward, to fulfil the word of God,

CHAPTER II.

Exhortation to constancy.

FOR I would that ye knew what great ‖ [s]conflict I have for you, and for them at La-od-i-ce'a, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;
2 [b]That their hearts might be comforted, [c]being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, [d]to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ;
3 ‖ [e]In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.
4 And this I say, [f]lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.
5 For [g]though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding [h]your order, and the [i]steadfastness of your faith in Christ.
6 [k]As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him:
7 [l]Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.
8 [m]Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after [n]the tradition of men, after the ‖ [o]rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.
9 For [p]in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.
10 [q]And ye are complete in him, [r]which is the head of all [s]principality and power:
11 In whom also ye are [t]circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in [u]putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:
12 [x]Buried with him in baptism, wherein also [y]ye are risen with him through [z]the faith of the operation of God, [a]who hath raised him from the dead.
13 [b]And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses;
14 [c]Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;
15 And [d]having spoiled [e]principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them ‖ in it.
16 Let no man therefore [f]judge you ‖ [g]in meat, or in drink, or ‖ in respect [h]of a holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days:
17 [i]Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.
18 [k]Let no man ‖ beguile you of your reward †in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things [l]which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind,
19 And not holding [m]the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.
20 Wherefore if ye be [n]dead with Christ from [o]the ‖ rudiments of the world, [p]why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances,
21 (q[Touch not; taste not; handle not;
22 Which all are to perish with the using;) [r]after the commandments and doctrines of men?
23 [s]Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in

26 even the mystery which hath been hid [1]from all ages and generations: but now hath it been manifested
27 to his saints, to whom God was pleased to make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the 28 hope of glory: whom we proclaim, admonishing every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ;
29 whereunto I labour also, striving according to his working, which worketh in me [2]mightily.

2 For I would have you know how greatly I strive for you, and for them at La-od-i-ce'a, and for as many
2 as have not seen my face in the flesh; that their hearts may be comforted, they being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the [3]full assurance of understanding, that they may know the mystery of 3 God, [4]even Christ, in whom are all the treasures of 4 wisdom and knowledge hidden. This I say, that no one may delude you with persuasiveness of 5 speech. For though I am absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ.
6 As therefore ye received Christ Jesus the Lord, so
7 walk in him, rooted and builded up in him, and stablished [5]in your faith, even as ye were taught, abounding [6]in thanksgiving.
8 [7]Take heed lest there shall be any one that maketh spoil of you through his philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the [8]rudiments of the 9 world, and not after Christ: for in him dwelleth all
10 the fulness of the Godhead bodily, and in him ye are made full, who is the head of all principality and 11 power: in whom ye were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of the body of the flesh, in the circumcision of 12 Christ; having been buried with him in baptism, wherein ye were also raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the 13 dead. And you, being dead through your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, you, I say, did he quicken together with him, having for-
14 given us all our trespasses; having blotted out [9]the bond written in ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us: and he hath taken it out 15 of the way, nailing it to the cross; [10]having put off from himself the principalities and the powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.
16 Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of a feast day or a new moon or 17 a sabbath day: which are a shadow of the things to 18 come; but the body is Christ's. Let no man rob you of your prize [11]by a voluntary humility and worshipping of the angels, [12]dwelling in the things which he hath [13]seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly
19 mind, and not holding fast the Head, from whom all the body, being supplied and knit together through the joints and bands, increaseth with the increase of God.
20 If ye died with Christ from the [8]rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, do ye 21 subject yourselves to ordinances, Handle not, nor 22 taste, nor touch (all which things are to perish with the using), after the precepts and doctrines of men?

CHAPTER III.

Exhortation to sundry duties.

IF ye then [c]be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where [b]Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Set your ||affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3 [c]For ye are dead, [d]and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 [e]When Christ, who is [f]our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him [g]in glory.

5 [h]Mortify therefore [i]your members which are upon the earth; [k]fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, [l]evil concupiscence, and covetousness, [m]which is idolatry:

6 [n]For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on [o]the children of disobedience:

7 [p]In the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.

8 [q]But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, [r]filthy communication out of your mouth.

9 [s]Lie not one to another, [t]seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds;

10 And have put on the new man, which [u]is renewed in knowledge [x]after the image of him that [y]created him:

11 Where there is neither [z]Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scyth'i-an, bond nor free: [a]but Christ is all, and in all.

12 [b]Put on therefore, [c]as the elect of God, holy and beloved, [d]bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering;

13 [e]Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a ||quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

14 [f]And above all these things [g]put on charity, which is the [h]bond of perfectness.

15 And let [i]the peace of God rule in your hearts, [k]to the which also ye are called [l]in one body; [m]and be ye thankful.

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another [n]in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing [o]with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 And [p]whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, [q]giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

18 [r]Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, [s]as it is fit in the Lord.

19 [t]Husbands, love your wives, and be not [u]bitter against them.

20 [x]Children, obey your parents [y]in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.

21 [z]Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 [a]Servants, obey [b]in all things your masters [c]according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God:

23 [d]And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men;

24 [e]Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: [f]for ye serve the Lord Christ.

25 But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and [g]there is no respect of persons.

CHAPTER IV.

Fervent prayer recommended.

MASTERS, [a]give unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

2 [b]Continue in prayer, and watch in the same [c]with thanksgiving;

3 [d]Withal praying also for us, that God would [e]open unto us a door of utterance, to speak [f]the mystery of Christ, [g]for which I am also in bonds:

will-worship, and humility, and severity to the body; but are not of any [1]value against the indulgence of the flesh.

3 If then ye were raised together with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated on 2 the right hand of God. Set your mind on the things that are above, not on the things that are upon the
3 earth. For ye died, and your life is hid with Christ
4 in God. When Christ, who is [2]our life, shall be manifested, then shall ye also with him be manifested in glory.

5 [3]Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil
6 desire, and covetousness, the which is idolatry; for which things' sake cometh the wrath of God [4]upon 7 the sons of disobedience; [5]in the which ye also walked aforetime, when ye lived in these things.
8 But now put ye also away all these; anger, wrath, malice, railing, shameful speaking out of your 9 mouth: lie not one to another; seeing that ye have 10 put off the old man with his doings, and have put on the new man, which is being renewed unto knowledge after the image of him that created
11 him: where there cannot be Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scyth'i-an, bondman, freeman: but Christ is all, and in all.

12 Put on therefore, as God's elect, holy and beloved, a heart of compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, 13 longsuffering; forbearing one another, and forgiving each other, if any man have a complaint against any;
14 even as [6]the Lord forgave you, so also do ye: and above all these things put on love, which is the bond
15 of perfectness. And let the peace of Christ [7]rule in your hearts, to the which also ye were called in one
16 body; and be ye thankful. Let the word of [8]Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing [9]one another with psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your 17 hearts unto God. And whatsoever ye do, in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

18 Wives, be in subjection to your husbands, as is 19 fitting in the Lord. Husbands, love your wives, 20 and be not bitter against them. Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is well-pleasing in the 21 Lord. Fathers, provoke not your children, that 22 they be not discouraged. [10]Servants, obey in all things them that are your [11]masters according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers, but in 23 singleness of heart, fearing the Lord: whatsoever ye do, work [12]heartily, as unto the Lord, and not 24 unto men; knowing that from the Lord ye shall receive the recompense of the inheritance: ye serve 25 the Lord Christ. For he that doeth wrong shall [13]receive again for the wrong that he hath done:
4 and there is no respect of persons. [11]Masters, render unto your [10]servants that which is just and [14]equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

2 Continue stedfastly in prayer, watching therein
3 with thanksgiving; withal praying for us also, that God may open unto us a door for the word, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds;

CHAPTER I.

Paul sheweth his remembrance of them in thanksgiving and prayer.

PAUL, and [a]Sil-va'nus, and Ti-mo'the-us, unto the church of the Thes-sa-lo'ni-ans which is in God the Father, and in the Lord Jesus Christ: [b]Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.
2 [c]We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;
3 [d]Remembering without ceasing [e]your work of faith, [f]and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;
4 Knowing, brethren ‖beloved, [g]your election of God.
5 For [h]our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and [i]in the Holy Ghost, [k]and in much assurance; as [l]ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.
6 And [m]ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, [n]with joy of the Holy Ghost:
7 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Mac-e-do'ni-a and A-cha'ia.
8 For from you [o]sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Mac-e-do'ni-a and A-cha'ia, but also [p]in every place

FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE
TO THE

THESSALONIANS.

A. D. 64.

CHAPTER I.

1 Paul, and Sil-va'nus, and Tim'o-thy, unto the church of the Thes-sa-lo'ni-ans in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace.
2 We give thanks to God always for you all, mak-
3 ing mention of you in our prayers; remembering without ceasing your work of faith and labour of love and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ,
4 before our God and Father; knowing, brethren be-
5 loved of God, your election, [1]how that our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the [2]Holy Ghost, and in much [3]assurance; even as ye know what manner of men we shewed
6 ourselves toward you for your sake. And ye became imitators of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the 7 [2]Holy Ghost; so that ye became an ensample to all
8 that believe in Mac-e-do'ni-a and in A-cha'ia. For from you hath sounded forth the word of the Lord, not only in Mac-e-do'ni-a and A-cha'ia, but in every place

[1] Or, because our gospel &c.
[2] Or, Holy Spirit
[3] Or, fulness

your faith to God-ward is spread abroad: so that we need not to speak anything.

9 For they themselves shew of us [c]what manner of entering in we had unto you, [r]and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God;

10 And [s]to wait for his Son [t]from heaven, [u]whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us [x]from the wrath to come.

CHAPTER II.

How they received the gospel.

FOR [y]yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Phi-lip'pi, [c]we were bold in our God [d]to speak unto you the gospel of God [e]with much contention.

3 [f]For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

4 But as [g]we were allowed of God [h]to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; [i]not as pleasing men, but God, [k]which trieth our hearts.

5 For [l]neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak of covetousness; [m]God is witness:

6 [n]Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when [o]we might have ‖been [p]burdensome, [q]as the apostles of Christ.

7 But [r]we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing [s]to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also [t]our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for [u]labouring night and day, [x]because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 [y]Ye are witnesses, and God also, [z]how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children,

12 [a]That ye would walk worthy of God, [b]who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God [c]without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it, [d]not as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers [e]of the churches of God which in Ju-de'a are in Christ Jesus; for [f]ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, [g]even as they have of the Jews:

15 [h]Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and [i]their own prophets, and have ‖persecuted us; and they please not God, [k]and are contrary to all men:

16 [l]Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, [m]to fill up their sins always: for [n]the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time, [o]in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly [p]to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but [q]Sa'tan hindered us.

19 For [r]what is our hope, or joy, or [s]crown of ‖rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ [t]at his coming?

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAPTER III.

Why Paul sent Timotheus to them.

WHEREFORE, [a]when we could no longer forbear, [b]we thought it good to be left at Ath'ens alone;

your faith to God-ward is gone forth; so that we 9 need not to speak anything. For they themselves report concerning us what manner of entering in we had unto you; and how ye turned unto God from 10 idols, to serve a living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivereth us from the wrath to come.

2 For yourselves, brethren, know our entering in 2 unto you, that it hath not been found vain: but having suffered before, and been shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Phi-lip'pi, we waxed bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God in 3 much conflict. For our exhortation is not of error, 4 nor of uncleanness, nor in guile: but even as we have been approved of God to be intrusted with the gospel, so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God 5 which proveth our hearts. For neither at any time were we found using words of flattery, as ye know, 6 nor a cloke of covetousness, God is witness; nor seeking glory of men, neither from you, nor from others, when we might have [1]been burdensome, as 7 apostles of Christ. But we were [2]gentle in the midst of you, as when a nurse cherisheth her own 8 children: even so, being affectionately desirous of you, we were well pleased to impart unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, be-9 cause ye were become very dear to us. For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: working night and day, that we might not burden any of you, 10 we preached unto you the gospel of God. Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and righteously and unblameably we behaved ourselves toward you 11 that believe: as ye know how we dealt with each one of you, as a father with his own children exhorting you, and encouraging you, and testifying, to 12 the end that ye should walk worthily of God, who [3]calleth you into his own kingdom and glory.

13 And for this cause we also thank God without ceasing, that, when ye received from us [4]the word of the message, even the word of God, ye accepted it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which also worketh in you that be-14 lieve. For ye, brethren, became imitators of the churches of God which are in Ju-dæ'a in Christ Jesus: for ye also suffered the same things of your own countrymen, even as they did of the Jews;
15 who both killed the Lord Jesus and the prophets, and drove out us, and please not God, and are con-16 trary to all men; forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved; to fill up their sins alway: but the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being bereaved of you for [5]a short season, in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more exceedingly to see your face with great 18 desire: because we would fain have come unto you,
19 I Paul once and again; and Sa'tan hindered us.
For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of glorying?
Are not even ye, before our Lord Jesus at his [6]com-
20 ing? For ye are our glory and our joy.

3 Wherefore when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left behind at Ath'ens alone;

2 And sent [c]Ti-mo'the-us, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellow labourer in the gospel of Christ to establish you and to comfort you concerning your faith:

3 [d]That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that [e]we are appointed thereunto.

4 [f]For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5 For this cause, [g]when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, [h]lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and [i]our labour be in vain.

6 [k]But now when Ti-mo'the-us came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, [l]as we also to see you:

7 Therefore, brethren, [m]we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:

8 For now we live, if ye [n]stand fast in the Lord.

9 [o]For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God;

10 [p]Night and day [q]praying exceedingly [r]that we might see your face, [s]and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, ||[t]direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord [u]make you to increase and abound in love [x]one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you:

13 To the end he may [y]stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ [z]with all his saints.

CHAPTER IV.

Of the resurrection.

FURTHERMORE then we ||beseech you, brethren, and ||exhort you by the Lord Jesus, [a]that as ye have received of us [b]how ye ought to walk [c]and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is [d]the will of God, even [e]your sanctification, [f]that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 [g]That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour;

5 [h]Not in the lust of concupiscence, [i]even as the Gentiles [k]which know not God:

6 [l]That no man go beyond and ||defraud his brother ||in any matter: because that the Lord [m]is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, [n]but unto holiness.

8 [o]He therefore that ||despiseth, despiseth not man but God, [p]who hath also given unto us his Holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love [q]ye need not that I write unto you: for [r]ye yourselves are taught of God [s]to love one another.

10 [t]And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Mac-e-do'ni-a: but we beseech you, brethren, [u]that ye increase more and more;

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and [x]to do your own business, and [y]to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

12 [z]That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack ||of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, [a]even as others [b]which have no hope.

14 For [c]if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even

A. D. 54.

2 and sent Tim'o-thy, our brother and [1]God's minister in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to com-
3 fort you concerning your faith; that no man be moved by these afflictions; for yourselves know that here-
4 unto we are appointed. For verily, when we were with you, we told you [2]beforehand that we are to suffer affliction; even as it came to pass, and ye
5 know. For this cause I also, when I could no longer forbear, sent that I might know your faith, lest by any means the tempter had tempted you, and our
6 labour should be in vain. But when Tim'o-thy came even now unto us from you, and brought us glad tidings of your faith and love, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, longing to see us, even 7 as we also to see you; for this cause, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our distress and af-
8 fliction through your faith: for now we live, if ye
9 stand fast in the Lord. For what thanksgiving can we render again unto God for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God;
10 night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face, and may perfect that which is lacking in your faith?
11 Now may our God and Father himself, and our 12 Lord Jesus, direct our way unto you: and the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we
13 also do toward you; to the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before our God and Father at the [3]coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.[4]

4 Finally then, brethren, we beseech and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that, as ye received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, even as
2 ye do walk,—that ye abound more and more. For ye know what [5]charge we gave you through the 3 Lord Jesus. For this is the will of God, even your 4 sanctification, that ye abstain from fornication; that each one of you know how to possess himself of
5 his own vessel in sanctification and honour, not in the passion of lust, even as the Gentiles which know
6 not God; that no man [6]transgress, and wrong his brother in the matter: because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as also we [7]forewarned
7 you and testified. For God called us not for un-
8 cleanness, but in sanctification. Therefore he that rejecteth, rejecteth not man, but God, who giveth his Holy Spirit unto you.
9 But concerning love of the brethren ye have no need that one write unto you: for ye yourselves are 10 taught of God to love one another; for indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brethren, that ye abound
11 more and more; and that ye [8]study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your 12 hands, even as we charged you; that ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and may have need of nothing.
13 But we would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning them that fall asleep; that ye sorrow
14 not, even as the rest, which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even

CHAPTER V.

Of Christ's second coming.

BUT of [a]the times and the seasons, brethren, [b]ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For yourselves know perfectly that [c]the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then [d]sudden destruction cometh upon them, [e]as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

4 [f]But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all [g]the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6 [h]Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but [i]let us watch and be sober.

7 For [k]they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken [l]are drunken in the night.

8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, [m]putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for a helmet, the hope of salvation.

9 For [n]God hath not appointed us to wrath, [o]but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ,

10 [p]Who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

11 [q]Wherefore ‖ comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.

12 And we beseech you, brethren, [r]to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you;

13 And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. [s]And be at peace among yourselves.

14 Now we ‖ exhort you, brethren, [t]warn them that are ‖ unruly, [u]comfort the feebleminded, [x]support the weak, [y]be patient toward all men.

15 [z]See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever [a]follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men.

16 [b]Rejoice evermore.

17 [c]Pray without ceasing.

18 [d]In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

19 [e]Quench not the Spirit.

20 [f]Despise not prophesyings.

21 [g]Prove all things; [h]hold fast that which is good.

22 [i]Abstain from all appearance of evil.

23 And [k]the very God of peace [l]sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body [m]be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

24 [n]Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it.

25 Brethren, [o]pray for us.

26 [p]Greet all the brethren with a holy kiss.

27 I ‖ charge you by the Lord that this [q]epistle be read unto all the holy brethren.

28 [r]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

¶ The first epistle unto the Thessalonians was written from Athens.

so them also that are fallen asleep [1]in Jesus will God
15 bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we that are alive, that are left unto the [2]coming of the Lord, shall in no wise pre-
16 cede them that are fallen asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven, with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump
17 of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we that are alive, that are left, shall together with them be caught up in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the 18 Lord. Wherefore [3]comfort one another with these words.

5 But concerning the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that aught be written unto you.
2 For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the 3 Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. When they are saying, Peace and safety, then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman
4 with child; and they shall in no wise escape. But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should 5 overtake you [4]as a thief: for ye are all sons of light, and sons of the day: we are not of the night, nor 6 of darkness; so then let us not sleep, as do the rest,
7 but let us watch and be sober. For they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken are 8 drunken in the night. But let us, since we are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for a helmet, the hope of salvation.
9 For God appointed us not unto wrath, but unto the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ,
10 who died for us, that, whether we [5]wake or sleep, we 11 should live together with him. Wherefore [6]exhort one another, and build each other up, even as also ye do.
12 But we beseech you, brethren, to know them that labour among you, and are over you in the Lord,
13 and admonish you; and to esteem them exceeding highly in love for their work's sake. Be at peace
14 among yourselves. And we exhort you, brethren, admonish the disorderly, encourage the fainthearted, 15 support the weak, be longsuffering toward all. See that none render unto any one evil for evil; but alway follow after that which is good, one toward an-16 17 other and toward all. Rejoice alway; pray without 18 ceasing; in everything give thanks: for this is the will 19 of God in Christ Jesus to you-ward. Quench not the 20 21 Spirit; despise not prophesyings; [7]prove all things;
22 hold fast that which is good: abstain from every [8]form of evil.
23 And the God of peace himself sanctify you wholly; and may your spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame at the [9]coming of our Lord 24 Jesus Christ. Faithful is he that calleth you, who will also do it.
25 Brethren, pray for us.[10]
26 27 Salute all the brethren with a holy kiss. I adjure you by the Lord that this epistle be read unto all the [11]brethren.
28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE
TO THE THESSALONIANS.

CHAPTER I.

Paul's comfort against persecution.

PAUL, [a]and Sil-va'nus, and Ti-mo'the-us, unto the church of the Thes-sa-lo'ni-ans [b]in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 [c]Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [d]We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth;

4 So that [e]we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God, [f]for your patience and faith [g]in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure:

5 Which is [h]a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, [i]for which ye also suffer:

6 [k]Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;

7 And to you who are troubled [l]rest with us, when [m]the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with †his mighty angels,

8 [n]In flaming fire ‖taking vengeance on them [o]that know not God, and [p]that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:

9 [q]Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and [r]from the glory of his power;

10 [s]When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, [t]and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

11 Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would ‖[u]count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and [z]the work of faith with power:

12 [v]That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER II.

Of steadfastness in the truth.

NOW we beseech you, brethren, [a]by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, [b]and by our gathering together unto him,

2 [c]That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

3 [d]Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, [e]except there come a falling away first, and [f]that man of sin be revealed, [g]the son of perdition;

4 Who opposeth and [h]exalteth himself [i]above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what ‖withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For [k]the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, [l]whom the Lord shall consume [m]with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy [n]with the brightness of his coming:

THE
SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE
TO THE THESSALONIANS.

1 Paul, and Sil-va'nus, and Tim'o-thy, unto the church of the Thes-sa-lo'ni-ans in God our Father and the
2 Lord Jesus Christ; Grace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
3 We are bound to give thanks to God alway for you, brethren, even as it is meet, for that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the love of each one of
4 you all toward one another aboundeth; so that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and
5 in the afflictions which ye endure; which is a manifest token of the righteous judgement of God; to the end that ye may be counted worthy of the king-
6 dom of God, for which ye also suffer: if so be that it is a righteous thing with God to recompense afflic-
7 tion to them that afflict you, and to you that are afflicted rest with us, at the revelation of the Lord
8 Jesus from heaven with the angels of his power in flaming fire, rendering vengeance to them that know not God, and to them that obey not the gospel of 9 our Lord Jesus: who shall suffer punishment, even eternal destruction from the face of the Lord and 10 from the glory of his might, when he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be marvelled at in all them that believed (because our testimony unto 11 you was believed) in that day. To which end we also pray always for you, that our God may count you worthy of your calling, and fulfil every [1]desire of goodness and every work of faith, with power;
12 that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

[1] Gr. good pleasure of goodness.

2 Now we beseech you, brethren, [2]touching the [3]coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and our gathering
2 together unto him; to the end that ye be not quickly shaken from your mind, nor yet be troubled, either by spirit or by word, or by epistle as from us, as that
3 the day of the Lord is now present; let no man beguile you in any wise: for it will not be, except the falling away come first, and the man of [4]sin be re-
4 vealed, the son of perdition, he that opposeth and exalteth himself against all that is called God or [5]that is worshipped; so that he sitteth in the [6]temple
5 of God, setting himself forth as God. Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you
6 these things? And now ye know that which restraineth, to the end that he may be revealed in his
7 own season. For the mystery of lawlessness doth already work: [7]only there is one that restraineth now,
8 until he be taken out of the way. And then shall be revealed the lawless one, whom the Lord [8]Jesus shall [9]slay with the breath of his mouth, and bring to nought by the manifestation of his [3]coming;

[2] Gr. in behalf of
[3] Gr. presence.
[4] Many ancient authorities read lawlessness.
[5] Gr. an object of worship.
[6] Or, sanctuary
[7] Or, only until he that now restraineth be taken &c.
[8] Some ancient authorities omit Jesus.
[9] Some ancient authorities read consume.

A. D. 54.

9 Even him, whose coming is [o]after the working of Sa'tan with all power and [p]signs and lying wonders,
10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in [q]them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth that they might be saved.
11 And [r]for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, [s]that they should believe a lie:
12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but [t]had pleasure in unrighteousness.
13 But [u]we are bound to give thanks always to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God [x]hath [y]from the beginning chosen you to salvation [z]through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:
14 Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to [a]the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.
15 Therefore, brethren, [b]stand fast, and hold [c]the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.
16 [d]Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, [e]which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and [f]good hope through grace,
17 Comfort your hearts, [g]and stablish you in every good word and work.

CHAPTER III.

Divers precepts given them.

FINALLY, brethren, [a]pray for us, that the word of the Lord †may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you:
2 And [b]that we may be delivered from †unreasonable and wicked men: [c]for all men have not faith.
3 But [d]the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and [e]keep you from evil.
4 And [f]we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.
5 And [g]the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and ‖into the patient waiting for Christ.
6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, [h]that ye withdraw yourselves [i]from every brother that walketh [k]disorderly, and not after [l]the tradition which he received of us.
7 For yourselves know [m]how ye ought to follow us: for [n]we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you;
8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but [o]wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:
9 [p]Not because we have not power, but to make [q]ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us.
10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, [r]that if any would not work, neither should he eat.
11 For we hear that there are some [s]which walk among you disorderly, [t]working not at all, but are busybodies.
12 [u]Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, [x]that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.
13 But ye, brethren, [y]‖ be not weary in well doing.
14 And if any man obey not our word ‖by this epistle, note that man, and [z]have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.
15 [a]Yet count him not as an enemy, [b]but admonish him as a brother.
16 Now [c]the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.
17 [d]The salutation of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write.
18 [e]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

¶ The second epistle to the Thessalonians was written from Athens.

9 even he, whose [1]coming is according to the working of Sa'tan with all [2]power and signs and lying wonders,
10 and with all deceit of unrighteousness for them that are perishing; because they received not the love of 11 the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God sendeth them a working of error, that 12 they should believe a lie: that they all might be judged who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.
13 But we are bound to give thanks to God alway for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, for that God chose you [3]from the beginning unto salvation in sanctification of the Spirit and [4]belief of the truth:
14 whereunto he called you through our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.
15 So then, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye were taught, whether by word, or by epistle of ours.
16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father which loved us and gave us eternal com-
17 fort and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts and stablish them in every good work and word.

3 Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may run and be glorified, even as also it is with
2 you; and that we may be delivered from unreason-
3 able and evil men; for all have not [5]faith. But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and guard
4 you from [6]the evil one. And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do
5 the things which we command. And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patience of Christ.
6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not
7 after the tradition which [7]they received of us. For yourselves know how ye ought to imitate us: for we
8 behaved not ourselves disorderly among you; neither did we eat bread for nought at any man's hand, but in labour and travail, working night and day, that 9 we might not burden any of you: not because we have not the right, but to make ourselves an ensam-
10 ple unto you, that ye should imitate us. For even when we were with you, this we commanded you,
11 If any will not work, neither let him eat. For we hear of some that walk among you disorderly, that 12 work not at all, but are busybodies. Now them that are such we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their 13 own bread. But ye, brethren, be not weary in well-
14 doing. And if any man obeyeth not our word by this epistle, note that man, that ye have no company
15 with him, to the end that he may be ashamed. And yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.
16 Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in all ways. The Lord be with you all.
17 The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand,
18 which is the token in every epistle: so I write. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

1 PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ [a]by the commandment [b]of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, [c]which is our hope;
2 Unto [d]Tim'o-thy, [e]my own son in the faith: [f]Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.
3 As I besought thee to abide still at Eph'e-sus, [g]when I went into Mac-e-do'ni-a, that thou mightest charge some [h]that they teach no other doctrine,
4 [i]Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, [k]which minister questions rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do.
5 Now [l]the end of the commandment is charity [m]out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:
6 From which some ‖ having swerved have turned aside unto [n]vain jangling;
7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; [o]understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.
8 But we know that [p]the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;
9 [q]Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers, and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,
10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary [r]to sound doctrine;
11 According to the glorious gospel of [s]the blessed God, [t]which was committed to my trust.
12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, [u]who hath enabled me, [v]for that he counted me faithful, [w]putting me into the ministry;
13 [x]Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because [y]I did it ignorantly in unbelief.
14 [z]And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant [a]with faith [b]and love which is in Christ Jesus.
15 [c]This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that [d]Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.
16 Howbeit for this cause [e]I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all longsuffering, [f]for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.
17 Now unto [g]the King eternal, [h]immortal, [i]invisible, [k]the only wise God, [l]be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.
18 This charge [m]I commit unto thee, son Tim'o-thy, [n]according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest [o]war a good warfare;
19 [p]Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away, concerning faith [q]have made shipwreck:
20 Of whom is [r]Hy-me-ne'us and [s]Al-ex-an'der; whom I have [t]delivered unto Sa'tan; that they may learn not to [u]blaspheme.

CHAPTER II.

Prayers and thanks to be made for all men.

I ‖ EXHORT therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men;
2 [a]For kings, and [b]for all that are in ‖ authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.
3 For this is [c]good and acceptable in the sight [d]of God our Saviour;

‖ Or, desire [a]Ezra 6.10. [b]Rom. 13. 1. ‖ Or, eminent place. [c]Rom.12.2. [d]ch. i. 1. 2 Tim. 1.9.

THE

FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO

TIMOTHY.

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus according to the commandment of God our Saviour, and Christ Jesus
2 our hope; unto Tim'o-thy, my true child in faith: Grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.
3 As I exhorted thee to tarry at Eph'e-sus, when I was going into Mac-e-do'ni-a, that thou mightest charge
4 certain men not to teach a different doctrine, neither to give heed to fables and endless genealogies, the which minister questionings, rather than a [1]dispen-
5 sation of God which is in faith; so do I now. But the end of the charge is love out of a pure heart and 6 a good conscience and faith unfeigned: from which things some having [2]swerved have turned aside unto 7 vain talking; desiring to be teachers of the law, though they understood neither what they say, nor
8 whereof they confidently affirm. But we know that 9 the law is good, if a man use it lawfully, as knowing this, that law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and unruly, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for [3]murderers of fathers and [3]murderers of mothers, for manslayers,
10 for fornicators, for abusers of themselves with men, for men-stealers, for liars, for false swearers, and if there be any other thing contrary to the [4]sound
11 [5]doctrine; according to the gospel of the glory of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.
12 I thank him that [6]enabled me, even Christ Jesus our Lord, for that he counted me faithful, appoint-
13 ing me to his service; though I was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: howbeit I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in un-
14 belief: and the grace of our Lord abounded exceedingly with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.
15 Faithful is the saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save
16 sinners; of whom I am chief: howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me as chief might Jesus Christ shew forth all his longsuffering, for an ensample of them which should hereafter believe on him
17 unto eternal life. Now unto the King [7]eternal, incorruptible, invisible, the only God, be honour and glory [8]for ever and ever. Amen.
18 This charge I commit unto thee, my child Tim'o-thy, according to the prophecies which [9]went before on thee, that by them thou mayest war the good
19 warfare; holding faith and a good conscience; which some having thrust from them made shipwreck con-
20 cerning the faith; of whom is Hy-me-næ'us and Al-ex-an'der; whom I delivered unto Sa'tan, that they might be taught not to blaspheme.

2 I exhort therefore, first of all, [10]that supplications, prayers, intercessions, thanksgivings, be made
2 for all men; for kings and all that are in high place; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet
3 life in all godliness and gravity. This is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour;

[1] Or, stewardship
[2] Gr. missed the mark.
[3] Or, smiters
[4] Gr. healthful.
[5] Or, teaching
[6] Some ancient authorities read enableth
[7] Gr, of the ages.
[8] Gr. unto the ages of the ages.
[9] Or, led the way to thee
[10] Gr. to make supplications, &c.

4 [e]Who will have all men to be saved, [f]and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 [g]For there is one God, and [h]one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;

6 [i]Who gave himself a ransom for all, [k]||to be testified [l]in due time.

7 [m]Whereunto I am ordained a preacher and an apostle, ([n]I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not,) [o]a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray [p]every where, [q]lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manner also, that [r]women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with braided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10 [s]But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But [t]I suffer not a woman to teach, [u]nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13 For [z]Ad'am was first formed, then Eve.

14 And [v]Ad'am was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

15 Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

CHAPTER III.

The qualifications of bishops, etc.

THIS [a]is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a [b]bishop, he desireth a good [c]work.

2 [d]A bishop then must be blameless, [e]the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, ||of good behaviour, given to hospitality, [f]apt to teach;

3 [g]||Not given to wine, [h]no striker, [i]not greedy of filthy lucre; but [k]patient, not a brawler, not covetous;

4 One that ruleth well his own house, [l]having his children in subjection with all gravity;

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)

6 Not ||a novice, lest being lifted up with pride [m]he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover he must have a good report [n]of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach [o]and the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must [p]the deacons be grave, not double-tongued, [q]not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

9 [r]Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 [s]Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.

13 For [t]they that have ||used the office of a deacon well, purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself [u]in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ||ground of the truth.

16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: [z]God was †manifest in the flesh, [v]justified in the Spirit, [s]seen of angels, [a]preached unto the Gentiles, [b]believed on in the world, [c]received up into glory.

CHAPTER IV.

A great apostasy foretold.

NOW the Spirit [c]speaketh expressly, that [b]in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed [c]to seducing spirits, [d]and doctrines of devils;

4 who willeth that all men should be saved, and come
5 to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God, one mediator also between God and men, him-
6 self man, Christ Jesus, who gave himself a ransom for all; the testimony to be borne in its own times;
7 whereunto I was appointed a [1]preacher and an apostle (I speak the truth, I lie not), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

8 I desire therefore that the men pray in every place, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and [2]dis-
9 puting. In like manner, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefastness and sobriety; not with braided hair, and gold or pearls or 10 costly raiment; but (which becometh women pro-11 fessing godliness) through good works. Let a 12 woman learn in quietness with all subjection. But I permit not a woman to teach, nor to have dominion 13 over a man, but to be in quietness. For Ad'am was 14 first formed, then Eve; and Ad'am was not beguiled, but the woman being beguiled hath fallen into trans-
15 gression: but she shall be saved through [3]the childbearing, if they continue in faith and love and sanctification with sobriety.

3 [4]Faithful is the saying, If a man seeketh the office
2 of a [5]bishop, he desireth a good work. The [5]bishop therefore must be without reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, soberminded, orderly, given to 3 hospitality, apt to teach; [6]no brawler, no striker;
4 but gentle, not contentious, no lover of money; one that ruleth well his own house, having his children
5 in subjection with all gravity; (but if a man knoweth not how to rule his own house, how shall he take 6 care of the church of God?) not a novice, lest being puffed up he fall into the [7]condemnation of the devil.
7 Moreover he must have good testimony from them that are without; lest he fall into reproach and the 8 snare of the devil. Deacons in like manner must be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much 9 wine, not greedy of filthy lucre; holding the mys-
10 tery of the faith in a pure conscience. And let these also first be proved; then let them serve as 11 deacons, if they be blameless. Women in like manner must be grave, not slanderers, temperate, faithful
12 in all things. Let deacons be husbands of one wife,
13 ruling their children and their own houses well. For they that have served well as deacons gain to themselves a good standing, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come
15 unto thee shortly; but if I tarry long, that thou mayest know [8]how men ought to behave themselves in the house of God, which is the church of the liv-
16 ing God, the pillar and [9]ground of the truth. And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness; [10]He who was manifested in the flesh, justified in the spirit, seen of angels, preached among the nations, believed on in the world, received up in glory.

4 But the Spirit saith expressly, that in later times some shall fall away from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of [11]devils,

A. D. 65.

2 [c]Speaking lies in hypocrisy; [f]having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

3 [g]Forbidding to marry, [h]and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created [i]to be received [k]with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

4 For [l]every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, [m]nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 But [n]refuse profane and old wives' fables, and [o]exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

8 For [p]bodily exercise profiteth ‖ little: [q]but godliness is profitable unto all things, [r]having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 [s]This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation.

10 For therefore [t]we both labour and suffer reproach, because we [u]trust in the living God, [x]who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.

11 [y]These things command and teach.

12 [z]Let no man despise thy youth; but [a]be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 [b]Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee [c]by prophecy, [d]with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

15 Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear ‖ to all.

16 [e]Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both [f]save thyself, and [g]them that hear thee.

CHAPTER V.

Of widows and elders.

REBUKE [a]not an elder, but entreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren;

2 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 Honour widows [b]that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew ‖ piety at home, and [c]to requite their parents: [d]for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 [e]Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and [f]continueth in supplications and prayers [g]night and day.

6 [h]But she that liveth ‖ in pleasure is dead while she liveth.

7 [i]And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

8 But if any provide not for his own, and [k]specially for those of his own ‖ house, [l]he hath denied the faith, [m]and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be ‖ taken into the number under threescore years old, [n]having been the wife of one man,

10 Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have [o]lodged strangers, if she have [p]washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry;

12 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

13 [q]And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 [r]I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, [s]give none occasion to the adversary †to speak reproachfully.

11 followed every good work. But younger widows refuse: for when they have waxed wanton against 12 Christ, they desire to marry, having condemnation,

18 For the Scripture saith, [y]Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, [z]The labourer is worthy of his reward.
19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but ‖ [a]before two or three witnesses.
20 [b]Them that sin rebuke before all, [c]that others also may fear.

23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine [g]for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities.
24 [h]Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.
25 Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

CHAPTER VI.

The gain of godliness.

LET as many [a]servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, [b]that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed.
2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, [c]because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are ‖ faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. [d]These things teach and exhort.
3 If any man [e]teach otherwise, and consent [f]not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, [g]and to the doctrine which is according to godliness;
4 He is ‖ proud, [h]knowing nothing, but ‖ doting about [i]questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings,
5 [k]‖ Perverse disputings of [l]men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, [m]supposing that gain is godliness: [n]from such withdraw thyself.
6 But [o]godliness with contentment is great gain.
7 For [p]we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.
8 And [q]having food and raiment, let us be therewith content.
9 But [r]they that will be rich fall into temptation [s]and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, [t]which drown men in destruction and perdition.
10 [u]For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have ‖ erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.
11 [x]But thou, [y]O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.
12 [z]Fight the good fight of faith, [a]lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, [b]and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.
13 [c]I give thee charge in the sight of God, [d]who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus, [e]who before Pon'ti-us Pi'late witnessed a good ‖ confession;
14 That thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukable, [f]until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ:
15 Which in his times he shall shew, who is [g]the blessed and only Potenate, [h]the King of kings, and Lord of lords;
16 [i]Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; [k]whom no man hath seen, nor can see: [l]to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen.

16 If any woman that believeth hath widows, let her relieve them, and let not the church be burdened; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.
17 Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially those who labour in 18 the word and in teaching. For the scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn. And, The labourer is worthy of his hire.
19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, except 20 at the mouth of two or three witnesses. Them that sin reprove in the sight of all, that the rest also may 21 be in fear. I charge thee in the sight of God, and Christ Jesus, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without [1]prejudice, doing nothing by 22 partiality. Lay hands hastily on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure.
23 Be no longer a drinker of water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirm-
24 ities. Some men's sins are evident, going before unto judgement; and some men also they follow
25 after. In like manner also [2]there are good works that are evident; and such as are otherwise cannot be hid.

6 Let as many as are [3]servants under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and the doctrine be not blasphemed.
2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but let them serve them the rather, because they that [4]partake of the benefit are believing and beloved. These things teach and exhort.
3 If any man teacheth a different doctrine, and consenteth not to [5]sound words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is 4 according to godliness; he is puffed up, knowing nothing, but [6]doting about questionings and disputes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil
5 surmisings, wranglings of men corrupted in mind and bereft of the truth, supposing that godliness is 6 a way of gain. But godliness with contentment is 7 great gain: for we brought nothing into the world,
8 for neither can we carry anything out; but having food and covering [7]we shall be therewith content.
9 But they that desire to be rich fall into a temptation and a snare and many foolish and hurtful lusts, such as drown men in destruction and perdition.

11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, pa-
12 tience, meekness. Fight the good fight of the faith, lay hold on the life eternal, whereunto thou wast called, and didst confess the good confession in the 13 sight of many witnesses. I charge thee in the sight of God, who [9]quickeneth all things, and of Christ Jesus, who before Pon'ti-us Pi'late witnessed the good 14 confession; that thou keep the commandment, without spot, without reproach, until the appearing of 15 our Lord Jesus Christ: which in [10]its own times he shall shew, who is the blessed and only Potentate,

CHAPTER I.

Paul's love to Timothy.

A. D. 66.

PAUL, [a]an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to [b]the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,
2 [c]To Tim'o-thy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.
3 [d]I thank God, [e]whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that [f]without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;
4 [g]Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

THE

SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE

TO

TIMOTHY.

A. D. 66

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus [1]by the will of God, according to the promise of the life which is in
2 Christ Jesus, to Tim'o-thy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.
3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers in a pure conscience, how unceasing is my remembrance of thee in my supplications, night and day
4 longing to see thee, remembering thy tears, that I
5 may be filled with [2]joy; having been reminded of the unfeigned faith that is in thee; which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lo'is, and thy mother Eu'nice; and,
6 I am persuaded, in thee also. For the which cause I put thee in remembrance that thou [3]stir up the gift of God, which is in thee through the laying on of 7 my hands. For God gave us not a spirit of fearfulness; but of power and love and [4]discipline. Be 8 not ashamed therefore of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but suffer hardship with the 9 gospel according to the power of God; who saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before times
10 eternal, but hath now been manifested by the appearing of our Saviour Christ Jesus, who abolished death, and brought life and incorruption to light
11 through the gospel, whereunto I was appointed a 12 [5]preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher. For the which cause I suffer also these things: yet I am not ashamed; for I know him whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that he is able to guard [6]that which I have committed unto him against that day.
13 Hold the pattern of [7]sound words which thou hast heard from me, in faith and love which is in Christ
14 Jesus. [8]That good thing which was committed unto thee guard through the [9]Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us.
15 This thou knowest, that all that are in A'si-a turned away from me; of whom are Phy-ge'lus
16 and Her-mog'e-nes. The Lord grant mercy unto the house of On-e-siph'o-rus: for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain;

CHAPTER II.

Timothy exhorted to constancy.

THOU therefore, [a]my son, [b]be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 [c]And the things that thou hast heard of me ‖among many witnesses, [d]the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be [e]able to teach others also.

3 [f]Thou therefore endure hardness, [g]as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

4 [h]No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And [i]if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 [k]‖The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ [l]of the seed of Da'vid [m]was raised from the dead, [n]according to my gospel:

9 [o]Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, [p]even unto bonds; [q]but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore [r]I endure all things for the elect's sakes, [s]that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

11 [t]It is a faithful saying: For [u]if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:

12 [z]If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: [v]if we deny him, he also will deny us:

13 [z]If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: [a]he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, [b]charging them before the Lord [c]that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

16 But [d]shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

17 And their word will eat as doth a ‖canker: of whom is [e]Hy-me-ne'us and Phi-le'tus;

18 Who [f]concerning the truth have erred, [g]saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless [h]the foundation of God standeth ‖sure, having this seal, The Lord [i]knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

20 [k]But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; [l]and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 [m]If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and [n]prepared unto every good work.

22 Flee also youthful lusts: but [o]follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that [p]call on the Lord [q]out of a pure heart.

23 But [r]foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 And [s]the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, [t]apt to teach, ‖patient;

25 [u]In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; [z]if God peradventure will give them repentance [v]to the acknowledging of the truth;

26 And that they may †recover themselves [s]out of the snare of the devil, who are †taken captive by him at his will.

17 but, when he was in Rome, he sought me dili-
18 gently, and found me (the Lord grant unto him to find mercy of the Lord in that day); and in how many things he ministered at Eph'e-sus, thou knowest very well.

A. D. 60.

2 Thou therefore, my child, be strengthened in the 2 grace that is in Christ Jesus. And the things which thou hast heard from me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able
3 to teach others also. [1]Suffer hardship with me, as a
4 good soldier of Christ Jesus. No soldier on service entangleth himself in the affairs of this life; that he
5 may please him who enrolled him as a soldier. And if also a man contend in the games, he is not crowned,
6 except he have contended lawfully. The husbandman that laboureth must be the first to partake of 7 the fruits. Consider what I say; for the Lord shall 8 give thee understanding in all things. Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, of the seed of 9 Da'vid, according to my gospel: wherein I suffer hardship unto bonds, as a malefactor; but the word
10 of God is not bound. Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sake, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.
11 Faithful is the [2]saying: For if we died with him, we 12 shall also live with him: if we endure, we shall also reign with him: if we shall deny him, he also will 13 deny us: if we are faithless, he abideth faithful; for he cannot deny himself.
14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them in the sight of [3]the Lord, that they strive not about words, to no profit, to the subverting of 15 them that hear. Give diligence to present thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to 16 be ashamed, [4]handling aright the word of truth. But shun profane babblings: for they will proceed fur-
17 ther in ungodliness, and their word will [5]eat as doth a gangrene: of whom is Hy-me-næ'us and Phi-le'tus;
18 men who concerning the truth have [6]erred, saying that [7]the resurrection is past already, and overthrow
19 the faith of some. Howbeit the firm foundation of God standeth, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his: and, Let every one that nameth the name of the Lord depart from unrighteousness.
20 Now in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some unto honour, and some unto dishonour.
21 If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, meet for the mas-
22 ter's use, prepared unto every good work. But flee youthful lusts, and follow after righteousness, faith, love, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of 23 a pure heart. But foolish and ignorant questionings
24 refuse, knowing that they gender strifes. And the Lord's [8]servant must not strive, but be gentle to-
25 wards all, apt to teach, forbearing, in meekness [9]correcting them that oppose themselves; if peradventure God may give them repentance unto the 26 knowledge of the truth, and they may [10]recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, having been [11]taken captive [12]by the Lord's servant unto the will of God.

CHAPTER III.

Enemies of the truth described.

A. D. 66.

THIS know also, that [a]in the last days perilous times shall come.
2 For men shall be [b]lovers of their own selves, [c]covetous, [d]boasters, [e]proud, [f]blasphemers, [g]disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,
3 [h]Without natural affection, [i]trucebreakers, ||false accusers, [k]incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,
4 [l]Traitors, heady, highminded, [m]lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God:
5 Having a form of godliness, but [n]denying the power thereof: [o]from such turn away.
6 For [p]of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts,
7 Ever learning, and never able [q]to come to the knowledge of the truth.
8 [r]Now as Jan'nes and Jam'bres withstood Mo'ses, so do these also resist the truth: [s]men of corrupt minds, [t]|| reprobate concerning the faith.
9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, [u]as theirs also was.
10 [x]But ||thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience,
11 Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me [y]at An'ti-och, [z]at I-co'ni-um, [a]at Lys'tra; what persecutions I endured: but [b]out of them all the Lord delivered me.
12 Yea, and [c]all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.
13 [d]But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.
14 But [e]continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them;
15 And that from a child thou hast known [f]the holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.
16 [g]All scripture is given by inspiration of God, [h]and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:
17 [i]That the man of God may be perfect, ||[k]thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

CHAPTER IV.

Paul's solemn charge to Timothy.

I [a]CHARGE thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, [b]who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;
2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, [c]rebuke, [d]exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.
3 [e]For the time will come, when they will not endure [f]sound doctrine; [g]but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;
4 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and [h]shall be turned unto fables.
5 But watch thou in all things, [i]endure afflictions, do the work of [k]an evangelist, ||make full proof of thy ministry.
6 For [l]I am now ready to be offered, and the time of [m]my departure is at hand.
7 [n]I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:
8 Henceforth there is laid up for me [o]a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me [p]at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.
9 Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me:
10 For [q]De'mas hath forsaken me, [r]having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thes-sa-lo-ni'ca; Cres'cens to Ga-la'ti-a, Ti'tus unto Dal-ma'ti-a.
11 [s]Only [t]Luke is with me. Take [u]Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry.

3 But know this, that in the last days grievous times
2 shall come. For men shall be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, haughty, railers, diso-
3 bedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, implacable, slanderers, without 4 self-control, fierce, no lovers of good, traitors, headstrong, puffed up, lovers of pleasure rather than 5 lovers of God; holding a form of godliness, but having denied the power thereof: from these also 6 turn away. For of these are they that creep into houses, and take captive silly women laden with 7 sins, led away by divers lusts, ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.
8 And like as Jan'nes and Jam'bres withstood Mo'ses, so do these also withstand the truth; men cor-
9 rupted in mind, reprobate concerning the faith. But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be evident unto all men, as theirs also came to be.
10 But thou didst follow my teaching, conduct, pur-
11 pose, faith, longsuffering, love, patience, persecutions, sufferings; what things befell me at An'ti-och, at I-co'ni-um, at Lys'tra; what persecutions I endured:
12 and out of them all the Lord delivered me. Yea, and all that would live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer
13 persecution. But evil men and impostors shall wax worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived.
14 But abide thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of [1]whom thou 15 hast learned them; and that from a babe thou hast known the sacred writings which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in 16 Christ Jesus. [2]Every scripture inspired of God is also profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correc-
17 tion, for [3]instruction which is in righteousness: that the man of God may be complete, furnished completely unto every good work.

4 [4]I charge thee in the sight of God, and of Christ Jesus, who shall judge the quick and the dead, and 2 by his appearing and his kingdom; preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; [5]reprove, rebuke, exhort, with all longsuffering and teaching.
3 For the time will come when they will not endure the [6]sound [7]doctrine; but, having itching ears, will heap to themselves teachers after their own lusts;
4 and will turn away their ears from the truth, and
5 turn aside unto fables. But be thou sober in all things, suffer hardship, do the work of an evangelist,
6 fulfil thy ministry. For I am already being [8]offered,
7 and the time of my departure is come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I
8 have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give to me at that day: and not only to me, but also to all them that have loved his appearing.
9 10 Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me: for De'mas forsook me, having loved this present [9]world, and went to Thes-sa-lo-ni'ca; Cres'cens
11 to [10]Ga-la'ti-a, Ti'tus to Dal-ma'ti-a. Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is useful to me for ministering.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS.

CHAPTER I.

Qualifications of ministers.

PAUL, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and [a]the acknowledging of the truth [b]which is after godliness;
2 [c]In hope of eternal life, which God, [d]that can not lie, promised [e]before the world began;
3 [f]But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, [g]which is committed unto me, [h]according to the commandment of God our Saviour;
4 To [i]Ti'tus, [k]mine own son after [l]the common faith: [m]Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.
5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest [n]set in order the things that are wanting, and [o]ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee:
6 [p]If any be blameless, [q]the husband of one wife, [r]having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly.
7 For a bishop must be blameless, as [s]the steward of God: not selfwilled, not soon angry, [t]not given to wine, no striker, [u]not given to filthy lucre;
8 [x]But a lover of hospitality, a lover of ‖good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;
9 [v]Holding fast [z]the faithful word ‖as he hath been taught, that he may be able [a]by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.
10 For [b]there are many unruly and vain talkers and [c]deceivers, [d]especially they of the circumcision:
11 Whose mouths must be stopped, [e]who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, [f]for filthy lucre's sake.
12 [g]One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cre'ti-ans are always liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO

TITUS.

1 Paul, [1]a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the knowledge of the truth which is according to god-
2 liness, in hope of eternal life, which God, who can
3 not lie, promised before times eternal; but in [2]his own seasons manifested his word in the [3]message, wherewith I was intrusted according to the com-
4 mandment of God our Saviour; to Ti'tus, my true child after a common faith: Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Saviour.
5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that were wanting, and appoint elders in every city, as I gave thee
6 charge; if any man is blameless, the husband of one wife, having children that believe, who are not 7 accused of riot or unruly. For the [4]bishop must be blameless, as God's steward; not selfwilled, not soon angry, [5]no brawler, no striker, not greedy of 8 filthy lucre; but given to hospitality, a lover of 9 good, soberminded, just, holy, temperate; holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able both to exhort in the [6]sound [7]doctrine, and to convict the gainsayers.
10 For there are many unruly men, vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcis-

CHAPTER II.

Directions for doctrine and life.

BUT speak thou the things which become [a]sound doctrine:
2 That the aged men be || sober, grave, temperate, [b]sound in faith, in charity, in patience.
3 [c]The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh || holiness, not || false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;
4 That they may teach the young women to be || sober, [d]to love their husbands, to love their children,
5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, [e]obedient to their own husbands, [f]that the word of God be not blasphemed.
6 Young men likewise exhort to be || soberminded.
7 [g]In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, [h]sincerity,
8 [i]Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; [k]that he that is of the contrary part [l]may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.
9 Exhort [m]servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well [n]in all things; not || answering again;
10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; [o]that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.
11 For [p]the grace of God || that bringeth salvation [q]hath appeared to all men,
12 Teaching us [r]that, denying ungodliness [s]and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;
13 [t]Looking for that blessed [u]hope, and the glorious [x]appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;
14 [y]Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, [z]and purify unto himself [a]a peculiar people, [b]zealous of good works.
15 These things speak, and [c]exhort, and rebuke with all authority. [d]Let no man despise thee.

CHAPTER III

Titus directed what to teach.

PUT them in mind [a]to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, [b]to be ready to every good work,
2 [c]To speak evil of no man, [d]to be no brawlers, but [e]gentle, shewing all [f]meekness unto all men.
3 For [g]we ourselves also were sometime foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.
4 But after that [h]the kindness and || love of [i]God our Saviour toward man appeared,
5 [k]Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by [l]the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;
6 [m]Which he shed on us †abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour;
7 [n]That being justified by his grace, [o]we should be made heirs [p]according to the hope of eternal life.
8 [q]This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful [r]to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.
9 But [s]avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and 13 This testimony is true. For which cause reprove them sharply, that they may be [1]sound in the 14 faith, not giving heed to Jew'ish fables, and commandments of men who turn away from the truth.

15 To the pure all things are pure: but to them that are defiled and unbelieving nothing is pure; but both their mind and their conscience are defiled.
16 They profess that they know God; but by their works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

2 But speak thou the things which befit the [2]sound
2 [3]doctrine: that aged men be temperate, grave, sober-
3 minded, [1]sound in faith, in love, in patience: that aged women likewise be reverent in demeanour, not slanderers nor enslaved to much wine, teachers of 4 that which is good; that they may train the young women to love their husbands, to love their chil-
5 dren, to be soberminded, chaste, workers at home, kind, being in subjection to their own husbands,
6 that the word of God be not blasphemed: the younger men likewise exhort to be soberminded:
7 in all things shewing thyself an ensample of good works; in thy doctrine shewing uncorruptness, grav-
8 ity, sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed,
9 having no evil thing to say of us. Exhort [4]servants to be in subjection to their own masters, and to be well-pleasing to them in all things; not gainsaying;
10 not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in 11 all things. For the grace of God [5]hath appeared,
12 bringing salvation to all men, instructing us, to the intent that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly and righteously and godly
13 in this present [6]world; looking for the blessed hope and appearing of the glory [7]of our great God and 14 Saviour Jesus Christ; who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a people for his own possession, zealous of good works.
15 These things speak and exhort and reprove with all [8]authority. Let no man despise thee.

3 Put them in mind to be in subjection to rulers, to authorities, to be obedient, to be ready unto every
2 good work, to speak evil of no man, not to be contentious, to be gentle, shewing all meekness toward
3 all men. For we also were aforetime foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, hating one
4 another. But when the kindness of God our Saviour,
5 and his love toward man, appeared, not by works done in righteousness, which we did ourselves, but according to his mercy he saved us, through the [9]washing of regeneration [10]and renewing of the [11]Holy 6 Ghost, which he poured out upon us richly, through
7 Jesus Christ our Saviour; that, being justified by his grace, we might be made [12]heirs according to the 8 hope of eternal life. Faithful is the saying, and concerning these things I will that thou affirm confidently, to the end that they which have believed God may be careful to [13]maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men:
9 but shun foolish questionings, and genealogies, and

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON.

Paul intercedeth for Onesimus.

PAUL, [c]a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Tim'o-thy our brother, unto Phi-le'mon our dearly beloved, [b]and fellow labourer,

2 And to our beloved Ap'phi-a, and [c]Ar-chip'pus, [d]our fellow soldier, and to [e]the church in thy house:

3 [f]Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 [g]I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

5 [h]Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints;

6 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual [i]by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus.

7 For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints [k]are refreshed by thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, [l]though I might be much bold in Christ to enjoin thee that which is convenient,

9 Yet for love's sake I rather beseech thee, being such a one as Paul the aged, [m]and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my son [n]O-nes'i-mus, [o]whom I have begotten in my bonds:

11 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me:

12 Whom I have sent again: thou therefore receive him, that is, mine own bowels:

13 Whom I would have retained with me, [p]that in thy stead he might have ministered unto me in the bonds of the gospel:

14 But without thy mind would I do nothing; [q]that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly.

15 [r]For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever;

16 Not now as a servant, but above a servant, [s]a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, [t]both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If thou count me therefore [u]a partner, receive him as myself.

18 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee aught, put that on mine account;

19 I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides.

20 Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: [x]refresh my bowels in the Lord.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON.

1 Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Tim'o-thy [1]our brother, to Phi-le'mon our beloved and fellow-
2 worker, and to Ap'phi-a [2]our sister, and to Ar-chip'pus our fellow-soldier, and to the church in thy 3 house: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God always, making mention of thee
5 in my prayers, hearing of [3]thy love, and of the faith which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward 6 all the saints; that the fellowship of thy faith may become effectual, in the knowledge of every good
7 thing which is in [4]you, unto Christ. For I had much joy and comfort in thy love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, though I have all boldness in Christ
9 to enjoin thee that which is befitting, yet for love's sake I rather beseech, being such a one as Paul [5]the 10 aged, and now a prisoner also of Christ Jesus: I beseech thee for my child, whom I have begotten
11 in my bonds, [6]O-nes'i-mus, who was aforetime unprofitable to thee, but now is profitable to thee and 12 to me: whom I have sent back to thee in his own
13 person, that is, my very heart: whom I would fain have kept with me, that in thy behalf he might min-
14 ister unto me in the bonds of the gospel: but without thy mind I would do nothing; that thy goodness
15 should not be as of necessity, but of free will. For perhaps he was therefore parted from thee for a sea-
16 son, that thou shouldest have him for ever; no longer as a [7]servant, but more than a [7]servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much rather to thee, both in the flesh and in the Lord.
17 If then thou countest me a partner, receive him as 18 myself. But if he hath wronged thee at all, or 19 oweth thee aught, put that to mine account; I Paul write it with mine own hand, I will repay it: that I say not unto thee how that thou owest to me even

CHAPTER I.

Christ far above the angels.

GOD, who at sundry times and [a]in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,
2 Hath [b]in these last days [c]spoken unto us by his Son, [d]whom he hath appointed heir of all things, [c]by whom also he made the worlds;
3 [f]Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and [g]upholding all things by the word of his power, [h]when he had by himself purged our sins, [i]sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;
4 Being made so much better than the angels, as [k]he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.
5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, [l]Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, [m]I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?
6 ‖ And again, when he bringeth in [n]the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, [o]And let all the angels of God worship him.
7 And †of the angels he saith, [p]Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.
8 But unto the Son he saith, [q]Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of †righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom;
9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, [r]hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.
10 And, [s]Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands.
11 [t]They shall perish, but thou remainest: and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;
12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.
13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, [u]Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?
14 [x]Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be [y]heirs of salvation?

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE HEBREWS.

1 God, having of old time spoken unto the fathers in the prophets by divers portions and in divers manners,
2 hath at the end of these days spoken unto us in [1]his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through
3 whom also he made the [2]worlds; who being the effulgence of his glory, and [3]the very image of his substance, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had made purification of sins, sat
4 down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; having become by so much better than the angels, as he
5 hath inherited a more excellent name than they. For unto which of the angels said he at any time,
Thou art my Son,
This day have I begotten thee?
and again,
I will be to him a Father,
And he shall be to me a Son?
6 [4]And when he again [5]bringeth in the firstborn into [6]the world he saith, And let all the angels of God
7 worship him. And of the angels he saith,
Who maketh his angels [7]winds,
And his ministers a flame of fire:
8 but of the Son he saith,
Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever,
And the sceptre of uprightness is the sceptre of [8]thy kingdom.
9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity;
Therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee
With the oil of gladness above thy fellows.
10 And, [of the earth,
Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation
And the heavens are the works of thy hands:
11 They shall perish; but thou continuest:
And they all shall wax old as doth a garment;
12 And as a mantle shalt thou roll them up,
As a garment, and they shall be changed:
But thou art the same,
And thy years shall not fail.
13 But of which of the angels hath he said at any time,
Sit thou on my right hand,
Till I make thine enemies the footstool of thy feet?
14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to do service for the sake of them that shall inherit salvation?

2 Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things that were heard, lest haply we drift
2 away from them. For if the word spoken through angels proved stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward;

[1]Gr. a Son.

[8]The two oldest Greek manuscripts read his.

A. D. 64.

3 [c]How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; [d]which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was [e]confirmed unto us by them that heard him;
4 [f]God also bearing them witness, [g]both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and ||[h]gifts of the Holy Ghost, [i]according to his own will?
5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection [k]the world to come whereof we speak.
6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, [l]What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?
7 Thou madest him ||a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:
8 [m]Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now [n]we see not yet all things put under him.
9 But we see Jesus, [o]who was made a little lower than the angels || for the suffering of death, [p]crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death [q]for every man.
10 [r]For it became him, [s]for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make [t]the Captain of their salvation [u]perfect through sufferings.
11 For [x]both he that sanctifieth, and they who are sanctified, [y]are all of one: for which cause [z]he is not ashamed to call them brethren,
12 Saying, [a]I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.
13 And again, [b]I will put my trust in him. And again, [c]Behold I and the children [d]which God hath given me.
14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he [e]also himself likewise took part of the same; [f]that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;
15 And deliver them, who [g]through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.
16 For verily †he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of A'bra-ham.
17 Wherefore in all things it behooved him [k]to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be [i]a merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.
18 [k]For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAPTER III.

Christ more worthy than Moses.

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of [a]the heavenly calling, consider [b]the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus;
2 Who was faithful to him that †appointed him, as also [c]Mo'ses was faithful in all his house.
3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Mo'ses, inasmuch as [d]he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.
4 For every house is builded by some man; but [e]he that built all things is God.
5 [f]And Mo'ses verily was faithful in all his house as [g]a servant, [h]for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;
6 But Christ as [i]a son over his own house: [k]whose house are we, [l]if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.
7 Wherefore (as [m]the Holy Ghost saith, [n]To-day if ye will hear his voice,
8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:
9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.

3 how shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation? which having at the first been spoken through the Lord, was confirmed unto us by them that
4 heard; God also bearing witness with them, both by signs and wonders, and by manifold powers, and by [1]gifts of the [2]Holy Ghost, according to his own will.
5 For not unto angels did he subject [3]the world to 6 come, whereof we speak. But one hath somewhere testified, saying,
What is man, that thou art mindful of him?
Or the son of man, that thou visitest him?
7 Thou madest him [4]a little lower than the angels;
Thou crownedst him with glory and honour,
[5]And didst set him over the works of thy hands:
8 Thou didst put all things in subjection under his feet.
For in that he subjected all things unto him, he left nothing that is not subject to him. But now we 9 see not yet all things subjected to him. But we behold him who hath been made [4]a little lower than the angels, even Jesus, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honour, that by the grace of God he should taste death for every man.
10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, [6]in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the [7]author of their salva-
11 tion perfect through sufferings. For both he that sanctifieth and they that are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them
12 brethren, saying,
I will declare thy name unto my brethren,
In the midst of the [8]congregation will I sing thy praise.
13 And again, I will put my trust in him. And again,
Behold, I and the children which God hath given 14 me. Since then the children are sharers in [9]flesh and blood, he also himself in like manner partook of the same; that through death he [10]might bring to nought him that [11]had the power of death, that 15 is, the devil; and [10]might deliver all them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject
16 to bondage. For verily not of angels doth he take hold, but he taketh hold of the seed of A'bra-ham.
17 Wherefore it behoved him in all things to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people.
18 [12]For [13]in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

3 Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of
2 our confession, even Jesus; who was faithful to him that [14]appointed him, as also was Mo'ses in all [15]his
3 house. For he hath been counted worthy of more glory than Mo'ses, by so much as he that [16]built the 4 house hath more honour than the house. For every house is [16]builded by some one; but he that
5 [16]built all things is God. And Mo'ses indeed was faithful in all [15]his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were afterward to be spoken;
6 but Christ as a son, over [15]his house; whose house are we, if we hold fast our boldness and the glory-
7 ing of our hope firm unto the end. Wherefore, even as the Holy Ghost saith,
To-day if ye shall hear his voice,
8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation,
Like as in the day of the temptation in the wilderness,
9 [17]Wherewith your fathers tempted me by proving me,
And saw my works forty years.

CHAPTER IV.

Rest attained by faith.

LET ᵘus therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but †the word preached did not profit them, ‖ not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

3 ᵇFor we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, ᶜAs I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, ᵈAnd God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, ᵉand they to whom ‖ it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:

7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in Da'vid, To-day, after so long a time; as it is said, ᶠTo-day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if ‖ Je'sus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a ‖ rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall ᵍafter the same example of ‖ unbelief.

12 For the word of God is ʰquick, and powerful, and ⁱsharper than any ʰtwoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is ⁱa discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 ᵐNeither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked ⁿand opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have °a great High Priest, ᵖthat is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, ᵠlet us hold fast our profession.

15 For ʳwe have not an high priest which can not be touched with the feeling of our infirmities: but ˢwas in all points tempted like as we are, ᵗ*yet* without sin.

10 Wherefore I was displeased with this generation,
And said, They do alway err in their heart:
But they did not know my ways;

12 Take heed, brethren, lest haply there shall be in any one of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away

Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.
16 For who, when they heard, did provoke? nay, did not all they that came out of E'gypt by Mo'ses?

4 Let us fear therefore, lest haply, a promise being left of entering into his rest, any one of you should
2 seem to have come short of it. For indeed we have had [4]good tidings preached unto us, even as also they: but the word of hearing did not profit them, because [5]they were not [6] united by faith with them that heard.
3 [6]For we which have believed do enter into that rest; even as he hath said,
As I sware in my wrath,
[1]They shall not enter into my rest:
although the works were finished from the foundation
4 of the world. For he hath said somewhere of the seventh day on this wise, And God rested on the sev-
5 enth day from all his works; and in this place again,
[1]They shall not enter into my rest.
6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some should enter thereinto, and they to whom [7]the good tidings were before preached failed to enter in because of disobedi-
7 ence, he again defineth a certain day, [8]saying in Da'vid, after so long a time, To-day, as it hath been before said,
To-day if ye shall hear his voice,
Harden not your hearts.
8 For if [9]Josh'u-a had given them rest, he would not have 9 spoken afterward of another day. There remaineth
10 therefore a sabbath rest for the people of God. For he that is entered into his rest hath himself also rested
11 from his works, as God did from his. Let us therefore give diligence to enter into that rest, that no man
12 fall [10]after the same example of disobedience. For the word of God is living, and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and quick to discern the thoughts and intents of the 13 heart. And there is no creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and laid open before the eyes of him with whom we have to do.
14 Having then a great high priest, who hath passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us
15 hold fast our confession. For we have not a high priest that cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but one that hath been in all points 16 tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore draw near with boldness unto the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace to help us in time of need.

CHAPTER V.

Of Christ's priesthood.

A. D. 64.

FOR every high priest taken from among men [a]is ordained for men [b]in things pertaining to God, [c]that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

2 [d]Who ||can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that [e]are out of the way; for that [f]he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

3 And [f]by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

4 [g]And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as [h]was Aa'ron:

5 [i]So also Christ glorified not himself to be made a high priest; but he that said unto him, [k]Thou art my Son, to-day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place, [l]Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Mel-chis'e-dec.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had [m]offered up prayers and supplications [n]with strong crying and tears unto him [o]that was able to save him from death, and was heard ||[p]in that he feared;

8 [q]Though he were a Son, yet learned he [r]obedience by the things which he suffered;

9 And [s]being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;

10 Called of God a high priest [t]after the order of Mel-chis'e-dec.

11 Of whom [u]we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are [x]dull of hearing.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be [y]the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of [z]milk, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milk, †is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is [a]a babe.

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are ||of full age, even those who by reason ||of use have their senses exercised [b]to discern both good and evil.

CHAPTER VI.

The danger of apostasy.

THEREFORE [a]leaving ||the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance [b]from dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 [c]Of the doctrine of baptisms, [d]and of laying on of hands, [e]and of resurrection of the dead, [f]and of eternal judgment.

3 And this will we do, [g]if God permit.

4 For [h]it is impossible for those [i]who were once enlightened, and have tasted of [k]the heavenly gift, and [l]were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,

5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of [m]the world to come,

6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; [n]seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them ||by whom it is dressed, [o]receiveth blessing from God:

8 [p]But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 [q]For [r]God is not unrighteous to forget [s]your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have [t]ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that [u]every one of you do shew the same diligence [x]to the full assurance of hope unto the end:

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience [y]inherit the promises.

5 For every high priest, being taken from among men, is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for
2 sins: who can bear gently with the ignorant and erring, for that he himself also is compassed with 3 infirmity; and by reason thereof is bound, as for the 4 people, so also for himself, to offer for sins. And no man taketh the honour unto himself, but when he
5 is called of God, even as was Aa'ron. So Christ also glorified not himself to be made a high priest, but he that spake unto him,

Thou art my Son,
This day have I begotten thee:

6 as he saith also in another place,

Thou art a priest for ever
After the order of Mel-chiz'e-dek.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, having offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him [1]from death, and having been heard for his godly fear,
8 though he was a Son, yet learned obedience by the 9 things which he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became unto all them that obey him the 10 [2]author of eternal salvation; named of God a high priest after the order of Mel-chiz'e-dek.

11 Of [3]whom we have many things to say, and hard of interpretation, seeing ye are become dull of hear-12 ing. For when by reason of the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need again [4]that some one teach you the rudiments of the [5]first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have 13 need of milk, and not of solid food. For every one that partaketh of milk is without experience of the 14 word of righteousness; for he is a babe. But solid food is for [6]fullgrown men, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern good and evil.

6 Wherefore let us [7]cease to speak of the first principles of Christ, and press on unto [8]perfection; not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead
2 works, and of faith toward God, [9]of the teaching of [10]baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resur-
3 rection of the dead, and of eternal judgement. And 4 this will we do, if God permit. For as touching those who were once enlightened [11]and tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy 5 Ghost, and [12]tasted the good word of God, and the 6 powers of the age to come, and then fell away, it is impossible to renew them again unto repentance; [13]seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God
7 afresh, and put him to an open shame. For the land which hath drunk the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them for whose sake it is also tilled, receiveth blessing from God:
8 but if it beareth thorns and thistles, it is rejected and nigh unto a curse; whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that [14]accompany salvation, though
10 we thus speak: for God is not unrighteous to forget your work and the love which ye shewed toward his name, in that ye ministered unto the saints, and
11 still do minister. And we desire that each one of you may shew the same diligence unto the [15]fulness
12 of hope even to the end: that ye be not sluggish, but imitators of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to A'bra-ham, because he could swear by no greater, [z]he sware by himself,
14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.
15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.
16 For men verily swear by the greater: and [a]an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.
17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto [b]the heirs of promise [c]the immutability of his counsel, †confirmed it by an oath:
18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope [d]set before us:
19 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, [e]and which entereth into that within the veil;
20 [f]Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, [g]made a high priest for ever after the order of Mel-chis'e-dec.

CHAPTER VII.

Melchisedec and Christ.

FOR this [a]Mel-chis'e-dec, king of Sa'lem, priest of the most high God, who met A'bra-ham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;
2 To whom also A'bra-ham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Sa'lem, which is, King of peace;
3 Without father, without mother, †without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually.
4 Now consider how great this man was, [b]unto whom even the patriarch A'bra-ham gave the tenth of the spoils.
5 And verily [c]they that are of the sons of Le'vi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of A'bra-ham:
6 But he whose ‖descent is not counted from them received tithes of A'bra-ham, [d]and blessed [e]him that had the promises.
7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.
8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, [f]of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.
9 And as I may so say, Le'vi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in A'bra-ham.
10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Mel-chis'e-dec met him.
11 [g]If therefore perfection were by the Le-vit'i-cal priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Mel-chis'e-dec, and not be called after the order of Aa'ron?
12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.
13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.
14 For it is evident that [h]our Lord sprang out of Ju'da; of which tribe Mo'ses spake nothing concerning priesthood.
15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Mel-chis'e-dec there ariseth another priest,
16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.
17 For he testifieth, [i]Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Mel-chis'e-dec.
18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for [k]the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.
19 For [l]the law made nothing perfect, ‖but the bringing in of [m]a better hope did; by the which we [n]draw nigh unto God.
20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest:
21 (For those priests were made ‖without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him,

13 For when God made promise to A'bra-ham, since he could swear by none greater, he sware by him-
14 self, saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and 15 multiplying I will multiply thee. And thus, having 16 patiently endured, he obtained the promise. For men swear by the greater: and in every dispute of 17 theirs the oath is final for confirmation.* Wherein God, being minded to shew more abundantly unto the heirs of the promise the immutability of his 18 counsel, [1]interposed with an oath: that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we may have a strong encouragement, who have fled for refuge to lay hold of the hope set before us;
19 which we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and stedfast and entering into that which is 20 within the veil; whither as a forerunner Jesus entered for us, having become a high priest for ever after the order of Mel-chiz'e-dek.

7 For this Mel-chiz'e-dek, king of Sa'lem, priest of God Most High, who met A'bra-ham returning from 2 the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him, to whom also A'bra-ham divided a tenth part of all (being first, by interpretation, King of righteousness, and then
3 also King of Sa'lem, which is, King of peace; without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like unto the Son of God), abideth a priest continually.
4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom A'bra-ham, the patriarch, gave a tenth out of the chief
5 spoils. And they indeed of the sons of Le'vi that receive the priest's office have commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though these have come out of the 6 loins of A'bra-ham: but he whose genealogy is not counted from them hath taken tithes of A'bra-ham,
7 and hath blessed him that hath the promises. But without any dispute the less is blessed of the better.
8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there one,
9 of whom it is witnessed that he liveth. And, so to say, through A'bra-ham even Le'vi, who receiveth
10 tithes, hath paid tithes; for he was yet in the loins of his father, when Mel-chiz'e-dek met him.
11 Now if there was perfection through the Le-vit'i-cal priesthood (for under it hath the people received the law), what further need was there that another priest should arise after the order of Mel-chiz'e-dek, and not
12 be reckoned after the order of Aa'ron? For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity 13 a change also [2]of the law. For he of whom these things are said [3]belongeth to another tribe, from which no man hath given attendance at the altar.
14 For it is evident that our Lord hath sprung out of Ju'dah; as to which tribe Mo'ses spake nothing con-
15 cerning priests. And what we say is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of Mel-chiz'e-dek 16 there ariseth another priest, who hath been made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the 17 power of an [4]endless life: for it is witnessed of him,
Thou art a priest for ever
After the order of Mel-chiz'e-dek.
18 For there is a disannulling of a foregoing commandment because of its weakness and unprofitableness 19 (for the law made nothing perfect), and a bringing in thereupon of a better hope, through which we 20 draw nigh unto God. And inasmuch as it is not 21 without the taking of an oath (for they indeed have been made priests without an oath; but he with an oath [5]by him that saith [6]of him,

A. D. 64.

[o] The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Mel-chis'e-dec:)

22 By so much [p] was Jesus made a surety of a better testament.

23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:

24 But this man, because he continueth ever, hath || an unchangeable priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them || to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth [q] to make intercession for them.

26 For such a high priest became us, [r] who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, [s] and made higher than the heavens;

27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, [t] first for his own sins, [u] and then for the people's: for [x] this he did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh [y] men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, [z] who is †consecrated for evermore.

CHAPTER VIII.

Excellency of Christ's priesthood.

NOW of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such a high priest, [a] who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;

2 A minister || of [b] the sanctuary, and of [c] the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For [d] every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore [e] it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that || there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

5 Who serve unto the example and [f] shadow of heavenly things, as Mo'ses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: [g] for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now [h] hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better || covenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 [i] For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, [k] Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Is'ra-el and with the house of Ju'dah:

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of E'gypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For [l] this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Is'ra-el after those days, saith the Lord; I will †put my laws into their mind, and write them || in their hearts: and [m] I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

11 And [n] they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, [o] and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 [p] In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

CHAPTER IX.

Efficacy of the blood of Christ.

THEN verily the first covenant had also || ordinances of divine service, and [a] a worldly sanctuary.

2 [b] For there was a tabernacle made; the first, [c] wherein

The Lord sware and will not repent himself,
Thou art a priest for ever);

22 by so much also hath Jesus become the surety of a
23 better [1] covenant. And they indeed have been made priests many in number, because that by death they 24 are hindered from continuing: but he, because he abideth for ever, [2] hath his priesthood [3] unchangeable.
25 Wherefore also he is able to save [4] to the uttermost them that draw near unto God through him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.
26 For such a high priest became us, holy, guileless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and made higher
27 than the heavens; who needeth not daily, like those high priests, to offer up sacrifices, first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people: for this he
28 did once for all, when he offered up himself. For the law appointeth men high priests, having infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was after the law, appointeth a Son, perfected for evermore.

8 [5] Now [6] in the things which we are saying the chief point is this: We have such a high priest, who sat down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty
2 in the heavens, a minister of [7] the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, not
3 man. For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is necessary that this high priest also have somewhat to offer.
4 Now if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, seeing there are those who offer the gifts ac-
5 cording to the law; who serve that which is a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, even as Mo'ses is warned of God when he is about to [8] make the tabernacle: for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern that was shewed thee in the 6 mount. But now hath he obtained a ministry the more excellent, by how much also he is the mediator of a better [1] covenant, which hath been enacted upon
7 better promises. For if that first covenant had been faultless, then would no place have been sought for 8 a second. For finding fault with them, he saith,

Behold, the days come, saith the Lord,
That I will [9] make a new [1] covenant with the house of Is'ra-el and with the house of Ju'dah;
9 Not according to the [1] covenant that I made with their fathers
In the day that I took them by the hand to lead them forth out of the land of E'gypt;
For they continued not in my [1] covenant,
And I regarded them not, saith the Lord.
10 For this is the [1] covenant that [10] I will make with the house of Is'ra-el
After those days, saith the Lord;
I will put my laws into their mind,
And on their heart also will I write them:
And I will be to them a God,
And they shall be to me a people:
11 And they shall not teach every man his fellow-citizen,
And every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord:
For all shall know me,
From the least to the greatest of them.
12 For I will be merciful to their iniquities,
And their sins will I remember no more.
13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. But that which is becoming old and waxeth aged is nigh unto vanishing away.

9 Now even the first covenant had ordinances of divine service, and its sanctuary, a sanctuary of this world.
2 For there was a tabernacle prepared, the first, wherein was [d]the candlestick, and [e]the table, and the shewbread; which is called ||the sanctuary.

3 [f]And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the holiest of all;

4 Which had the golden censer, and [g]the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was [h]the golden pot that had manna, and [i]Aa'ron's rod that budded, and [k]the tables of the covenant;

5 And [l]over it the cherubim of glory shadowing the mercy seat; of which we can not now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, [m]the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God:

7 But into the second went the high priest alone [n]once every year, not without blood, [o]which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people:

8 [p]The Holy Ghost this signifying, that [q]the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

9 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, [r]that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience;

10 Which stood only in [s]meats and drinks, and [t]divers washings, [u]and carnal ||ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come [x]a high priest [y]of good things to come, [z]by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

12 Neither [a]by the blood of goats and calves, but [b]by his own blood he entered in [c]once into the holy place, [d]having obtained eternal redemption for us.

13 For if [e]the blood of bulls and of goats, and [f]the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh;

14 How much more [g]shall the blood of Christ, [h]who through the eternal Spirit [i]offered himself without ||spot to God, [k]purge your conscience from [l]dead works [m]to serve the living God?

15 [n]And for this cause [o]he is the mediator of the new testament, [p]that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, [q]they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity ||be the death of the testator.

17 For [r]a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

18 [s]Whereupon neither the first testament was ||dedicated without blood.

19 For when Mo'ses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, [t]he took the blood of calves and of goats, [u]with water, and ||scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book and all the people,

20 Saying, [x]This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

21 Moreover [y]he sprinkled likewise with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and [z]without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that [a]the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For [b]Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of [c]the true; but into heaven itself, now [d]to appear in the presence of God for us:

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as [e]the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now [f]once [g]in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

[1]were the candlestick, and the table, and [2]the shew-
3 bread; which is called the Holy place. And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holy
4 of holies; having a golden [3]censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein [4]was a golden pot holding the manna, and Aa'ron's
5 rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant; and above it cherubim of glory overshadowing [5]the mercy-seat; of which things we cannot now speak severally.
6 Now these things having been thus prepared, the priests go in continually into the first tabernacle, ac-
7 complishing the services; but into the second the high priest alone, once in the year, not without blood, which he offereth for himself, and for the [6]errors of the 8 people: the Holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the holy place hath not yet been made manifest,
9 while as the first tabernacle is yet standing; which is a parable for the time now present; according to which are offered both gifts and sacrifices that cannot, as touching the conscience, make the worshipper per-
10 fect, being only (with meats and drinks and divers washings) carnal ordinances, imposed until a time of reformation.

11 But Christ having come a high priest of [7]the good things to come, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not
12 of this creation, nor yet through the blood of goats and calves, but through his own blood, entered in once for all into the holy place, having obtained eter-
13 nal redemption. For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling them that have been defiled, sanctify unto the cleanness of the flesh:
14 how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish unto God, cleanse [8]your conscience from 15 dead works to serve the living God? And for this cause he is the mediator of a new [9]covenant, that a death having taken place for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first [9]covenant, they that have been called may receive the promise
16 of the eternal inheritance. For where a [9]testament is, there must of necessity [10]be the death of him that 17 made it. For a [9]testament is of force [11]where there hath been death: [12]for doth it ever avail while he that 18 made it liveth? Wherefore even the first covenant
19 hath not been dedicated without blood. For when every commandment had been spoken by Mo'ses unto all the people according to the law, he took the blood of the calves and the goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself, 20 and all the people, saying, This is the blood of the [9]covenant which God commanded to you-ward.
21 Moreover the tabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry he sprinkled in like manner with the blood.
22 And according to the law, I may almost say, all things are cleansed with blood, and apart from shedding of blood there is no remission.
23 It was necessary therefore that the copies of the things in the heavens should be cleansed with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacri-
24 fices than these. For Christ entered not into a holy place made with hands, like in pattern to the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear before the face
25 of God for us: nor yet that he should offer himself often; as the high priest entereth into the holy place
26 year by year with blood not his own; else must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once at the [13]end of the ages hath he been manifested to put away sin [14]by the sacrifice of himself.

CHAPTER X.

Christ's perfect sacrifice.

FOR the law having [a]a shadow [b]of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, [c]can never with those sacrifices which they offer year by year continually, make the comers thereunto [d]perfect.

2 For then ||would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 [e]But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

4 For [f]it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore, when he cometh into the world, he saith, [g]Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body ||hast thou prepared me:

6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law;

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 [h]By the which will we are sanctified [i]through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest standeth [k]daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, [l]which can never take away sins:

12 [m]But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth expecting [n]till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering [o]he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 [p]This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 †And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren, [q]||boldness to enter [r]into the holiest by the blood of Jesus,

20 By [s]a new and living way, which he hath ||consecrated for us, [t]through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

21 And having [u]a high priest over [x]the house of God;

22 [y]Let us draw near with a true heart [z]in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled [a]from an evil conscience, and [b]our bodies washed with pure water.

23 [c]Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; for [d]he is faithful that promised;

24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:

25 [e]Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and [f]so much the more, as ye see [g]the day approaching.

26 For [h]if we sin wilfully [i]after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,

27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and [k]fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

27 And inasmuch as it is [1]appointed unto men once to 28 die, and after this cometh judgement; so Christ also, having been once offered to bear the sins of many, shall appear a second time, apart from sin, to them that wait for him, unto salvation.

10 For the law having a shadow of the good things to come, not the very image of the things, [2]they can never with the same sacrifices year by year, which they offer continually, make perfect them that draw
2 nigh. Else would they not have ceased to be offered, because the worshippers, having been once cleansed,
3 would have had no more conscience of sins? But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance made of 4 sins year by year. For it is impossible that the blood of bulls and goats should take away sins.
5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith,
Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not,
But a body didst thou prepare for me;
6 In whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hadst no pleasure:
7 Then said I, Lo, I am come
(In the roll of the book it is written of me)
To do thy will, O God.
8 Saying above, Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein (the which are 9 offered according to the law), then hath he said, Lo, I am come to do thy will. He taketh away the first,
10 that he may establish the second. [3]By which will we have been sanctified through the offering of the 11 body of Jesus Christ once for all. And every [4]priest indeed standeth day by day ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, the which can never 12 take away sins: but he, when he had offered one sacrifice for [5]sins for ever, sat down on the right hand
13 of God; from henceforth expecting till his enemies
14 be made the footstool of his feet. For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.
15 And the Holy Ghost also beareth witness to us: for after he hath said,
16 This is the [6]covenant that [7]I will make with them
After those days, saith the Lord;
I will put my laws on their heart,
And upon their mind also will I write them;
then saith he,
17 And their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.
18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.
19 Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into 20 the holy place by the blood of Jesus, by the way which he dedicated for us, a new and living way, 21 through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; and having
22 a great priest over the house of God; let us draw near with a true heart in [8]fulness of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil [9]conscience, and our 23 body washed with pure water: let us hold fast the confession of our hope that it waver not; for he is 24 faithful that promised: and let us consider one an-
25 other to provoke unto love and good works; not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the custom of some is, but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as ye see the day drawing nigh.
26 For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remain-
27 eth no more a sacrifice for sins, but a certain fearful expectation of judgement, and a [10]fierceness of fire which shall devour the adversaries.

CHAPTER XI.

Of faith and its fruits.

NOW faith is the ‖ substance of things hoped for, the evidence [a]of things not seen.

2 For [b]by it the elders obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand that [c]the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith [d]A'bel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead [e]‖ yet speaketh.

5 By faith [f]E'noch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 By faith, [g]No'ah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, ‖ moved with fear, [h]prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of [i]the righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith [k]A'bra-ham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, [l]dwelling in tabernacles with I'saac and Ja'cob, [m]the heirs with him of the same promise:

10 For he looked for a [n]city which hath foundations, [o]whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith also [p]Sa'rah herself received strength to conceive seed, and [q]was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him [r]faithful who had promised.

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and [s]him as good as dead, [t]so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

13 These all died †in faith, [u]not having received the

A. D. 64.

28 A man that hath set at nought Mo'ses' law dieth without compassion on the word of two or three wit-
29 nesses: of how much sorer punishment, think ye, shall he be judged worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, [1]an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of 30 grace? For we know him that said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense. And again, 31 The Lord shall judge his people. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were enlightened, ye endured a great con-
33 flict of sufferings; partly, being made a gazingstock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, be-
34 coming partakers with them that were so used. For ye both had compassion on them that were in bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your possessions, knowing [2]that [3]ye yourselves have a better posses-
35 sion and an abiding one. Cast not away therefore your boldness, which hath great recompense of 36 reward. For ye have need of patience, that, having done the will of God, ye may receive the promise.

37 For yet a very little while,
He that cometh shall come, and shall not tarry.
38 But [4]my righteous one shall live by faith:
And if he shrink back, my soul hath no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not [5]of them that shrink back unto perdition; but of them that have faith unto the [6]saving of the soul.

11 Now faith is [7]the assurance of things hoped for,
2 the [8]proving of things not seen. For therein the
3 elders had witness borne to them. By faith we understand that the [9]worlds have been framed by the word of God, so that what is seen hath not been
4 made out of things which do appear. By faith A'bel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he had witness borne to him that he was righteous, [10]God bearing witness [11]in respect of his gifts: and through it he being dead yet
5 speaketh. By faith E'noch was translated that he should not see death; and he was not found, because God translated him: for before his translation he hath had witness borne to him that he had been
6 well-pleasing unto God: and without faith it is impossible to be well-pleasing unto him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he
7 is a rewarder of them that seek after him. By faith No'ah, being warned of God concerning things not seen as yet, moved with godly fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; through which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteous-
8 ness which is according to faith. By faith A'bra-ham, when he was called, obeyed to go out unto a place which he was to receive for an inheritance; and he
9 went out, not knowing whither he went. By faith he became a sojourner in the land of promise, as in a land not his own, [12]dwelling in tents, with I'saac and Ja'cob, the heirs with him of the same promise:
10 for he looked for the city which hath the founda-
11 tions, whose [13]builder and maker is God. By faith even Sa'rah herself received power to conceive seed when she was past age, since she counted him faith-
12 ful who had promised: wherefore also there sprang of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of heaven in multitude, and as the sand, which is by the sea shore, innumerable.
13 These all died [14]in faith, not having received the promises, but [z]having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and [v]confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things [s]declare plainly that they seek a country.

15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.

16 But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed [a]to be called their God: for [b]he hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith [c]A'bra-ham, when he was tried, offered up I'saac: and he that had received the promises [d]offered up his only begotten son,

18 ||Of whom it was said, [e]That in I'saac shall thy seed be called:

19 Accounting that God [f]was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.

20 By faith [g]I'saac blessed Ja'cob and E'sau concerning things to come.

21 By faith Ja'cob, when he was a dying, [h]blessed both the sons of Jo'seph: and [i]worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.

22 By faith [k]Jo'seph, when he died, ||made mention of the departing of the children of Is'ra-el; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith [l]Mo'ses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's [m]commandment.

24 By faith [n]Mo'ses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pha'raoh's daughter;

25 [o]Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

26 Esteeming [p]the reproach ||of Christ greater riches than the treasures in E'gypt: for he had respect unto [q]the recompense of the reward.

27 By faith [r]he forsook E'gypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as [s]seeing him who is invisible.

28 Through faith [t]he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them.

29 By faith [u]they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the E-gyp'tians assaying to do were drowned.

30 By faith [x]the walls of Jer'i-cho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

31 By faith [y]the harlot Ra'hab perished not with them ||that believed not, when [z]she had received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of [a]Gid'e-on, and of [b]Ba'rak, and of [c]Sam'son, and of [d]Jeph'thah; of [e]Da'vid also, and [f]Sam'u-el, and of the prophets:

33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, [g]obtained promises, [h]stopped the mouths of lions,

34 [i]Quenched the violence of fire, [k]escaped the edge of the sword, [l]out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, [m]turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 [n]Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were [o]tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:

36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover [q]of bonds and imprisonment:

37 [r]They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: [s]they wandered about [t]in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

38 Of whom the world was not worthy: they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and [u]in dens and caves of the earth.

39 And these all, [z]having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:

40 God having ||provided [y]some better thing for us, that they without us should not be [z]made perfect.

promises, but having seen them and greeted them from afar, and having confessed that they were strangers 14 and pilgrims on the earth. For they that say such things make it manifest that they are seeking after a 15 country of their own. And if indeed they had been mindful of that country from which they went out, 16 they would have had opportunity to return. But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly:
wherefore God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.
17 By faith A'braham, being tried, [1]offered up I'saac:
yea, he that had gladly received the promises was 18 offering up his only begotten son; even he [2]to whom 19 it was said, In I'saac shall thy seed be called: accounting that God is able to raise up, even from the dead; from whence he did also in a parable receive 20 him back. By faith I'saac blessed Ja'cob and E'sau, 21 even concerning things to come. By faith Ja'cob, when he was a dying, blessed each of the sons of Jo'seph; and worshipped, leaning upon the top of 22 his staff. By faith Jo'seph, when his end was nigh, made mention of the departure of the children of Is'ra-el; and gave commandment concerning his 23 bones. By faith Mo'ses, when he was born, was hid three months by his parents, because they saw he was a goodly child; and they were not afraid of the 24 king's commandment. By faith Mo'ses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pha'- 25 raoh's daughter; choosing rather to be evil entreated with the people of God, than to enjoy the 26 pleasures of sin for a season; accounting the reproach of [3]Christ greater riches than the treasures of E'gypt: for he looked unto the recompense of wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him

29 of the firstborn should not touch them. By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land:
which the E-gyp'tians assaying to do were swallowed 30 up. By faith the walls of Jer'i-cho fell down, after 31 they had been compassed about for seven days. By faith Ra'hab the harlot perished not with them that were disobedient, having received the spies with 32 peace. And what shall I more say? for the time will fail me if I tell of Gid'e-on, Ba'rak, Sam'son, Jeph'- 33 thah; of Da'vid and Sam'u-el and the prophets: who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of 34 lions, quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, from weakness were made strong, waxed mighty in war, turned to flight armies of 35 aliens. Women received their dead by a resurrection: and others were [5]tortured, not accepting [6]their deliverance; that they might obtain a better resur-36 rection: and others had trial of mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprison-37 ment: they were stoned, they were sawn asunder, they were tempted, they were slain with the sword:
they went about in sheepskins, in goatskins; being 38 destitute, afflicted, evil entreated (of whom the world was not worthy), wandering in deserts and mountains and caves, and the holes of the earth.
39 And these all, having had witness borne to them
40 through their faith, received not the promise, God having [7]provided some better thing concerning us, that apart from us they should not be made perfect.

CHAPTER XII.

Exhortation to patience and constancy.

A. D. 64.

WHEREFORE, seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, [a]let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and [b]let us run [c]with patience the race that is set before us,

2 Looking unto Jesus the ||author and finisher of our faith; [d]who, for the joy that was set before him, endured the cross, despising the shame, and [e]is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 [f]For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, [g]lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

4 [h]Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, [i]My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

6 For [k]whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 [l]If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, [m]whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto [n]the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few days chastened us ||after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, [o]that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless, afterward it yieldeth [p]the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore [q]lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

13 [r]And make ||straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; [s]but let it rather be healed.

14 [t]Follow peace with all men, and holiness, [u]without which no man shall see the Lord:

15 [x]Looking diligently [y]lest any man ||fail of the grace of God; [z]lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

16 [a]Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as E'sau, [b]who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.

17 For ye know how that afterward, [c]when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: [d]for he found no ||place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 For ye are not come unto the [e]mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard [f]entreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:

20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, [g]And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:

21 [h]And so terrible was the sight, that Mo'ses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)

22 But ye are come [i]unto mount Si'on, [k]and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Je-ru'sa-lem, [l]and to an innumerable company of angels,

23 To the general assembly and church of [m]the firstborn, [n]which are ||written in heaven, and to God [o]the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men [p]made perfect,

24 And to Jesus [q]the Mediator of the new ||covenant, and to [r]the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things [s]than that of A'bel.

25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh: for [t]if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven:

12 Therefore let us also, seeing we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside [1]every weight, and the sin which [2]doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before
2 us, looking unto Jesus the [3]author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising shame, and hath sat down
3 at the right hand of the throne of God. For consider him that hath endured such gainsaying of sinners against [4]themselves, that ye wax not weary, fainting
4 in your souls. Ye have not yet resisted unto blood,
5 striving against sin: and ye have forgotten the exhortation, which reasoneth with you as with sons,

My son, regard not lightly the chastening of the Lord,
Nor faint when thou art reproved of him;

6 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth,
And scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 [5]It is for chastening that ye endure; God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is there whom
8 his father chasteneth not? But if ye are without chastening, whereof all have been made partakers, 9 then are ye bastards, and not sons. Furthermore, we had the fathers of our flesh to chasten us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of [6]spirits, and
10 live? For they verily for a few days chastened us as seemed good to them; but he for our profit, that 11 we may be partakers of his holiness. All chastening seemeth for the present to be not joyous, but grievous: yet afterward it yieldeth peaceable fruit unto them that have been exercised thereby, even the 12 fruit of righteousness. Wherefore [7]lift up the hands
13 that hang down, and the palsied knees; and make straight paths for your feet, that that which is lame be not [8]turned out of the way, but rather be healed.
14 Follow after peace with all men, and the sanctification without which no man shall see the Lord:
15 looking carefully [9]lest there be any man that [10]falleth short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby the
16 many be defiled; [9]lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as E'sau, who for one mess of meat
17 sold his own birthright. For ye know that even when he afterward desired to inherit the blessing, he was rejected (for he found no place of repentance), though he sought it diligently with tears.
18 For ye are not come unto [11]a mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, and unto 19 blackness, and darkness, and tempest, and the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard intreated that no word more should 20 be spoken unto them: for they could not endure that which was enjoined, If even a beast touch the 21 mountain, it shall be stoned; and so fearful was the appearance, that Mo'ses said, I exceedingly fear and 22 quake: but ye are come unto mount Zi'on, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Je-ru'sa-lem,
23 [12]and to [13]innumerable hosts of angels, to the general assembly and church of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and 24 to the spirits of just men made perfect, and to Jesus the mediator of a new [14]covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaketh better [15]than that of A'bel.
25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not, when they refused him that warned them on earth, much more shall not we escape, who turn away from him [16]that warneth from heaven:

CHAPTER XIII.

Exhortations to charity, &c.

LET [a]brotherly love continue.

2 [b]Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby [c]some have entertained angels unawares.

3 [d]Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

4 Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: [e]but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

5 Let your conversation be without covetousness; and [f]be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, [g]I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

6 So that we may boldly say, [h]The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

7 [i]Remember them which ||have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: [k]whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation:

8 Jesus Christ [l]the same yesterday, and to-day, and for ever.

9 [m]Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines: for it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; [n]not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

10 [o]We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle.

11 For [p]the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp.

12 Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, [q]suffered without the gate.

13 Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing [r]his reproach.

14 [s]For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

15 [t]By him therefore let us offer"the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is,[x]the fruit of our lips, †giving thanks to his name.

16 [v]But to do good and to communicate forget not: for [z]with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

17 [a]Obey them that ||have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for [b]they watch for your souls as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.

18 [c]Pray for us: for we trust we have [d]a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly.

19 But I beseech you [e]the rather to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

20 Now [f]the God of peace, [g]that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, [h]that great Shepherd of the sheep, [i]through the blood of the everlasting ||covenant,

21 [k]Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, ||[l]working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight through Jesus Christ; [m]to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

22 And I beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation: for [n]I have written a letter unto you in few words.

23 Know ye that [o]our brother Tim'o-thy [p]is set at liberty; with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.

24 Salute all them [q]that have the rule over you, and all the saints. They of It'a-ly salute you.

25 [r]Grace be with you all. Amen.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JAMES.

CHAPTER I.

Wisdom to be sought of God.

[a]JAMES, [b]a servant of God and the Lord Jesus Christ, [c]to the twelve tribes [d]which are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, [e]count it all joy [f]when ye fall into divers temptations;

3 [g]Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

5 [h]If any of you lack wisdom, [i]let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and [k]it shall be given him.

6 [l]But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering: for he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive anything of the Lord.

8 [m]A doubleminded man is unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree ||rejoice in that he is exalted:

10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because [n]as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

12 [o]Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive [p]the crown of life, [q]which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with ||evil, neither tempteth he any man:

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then, [r]when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin; and sin, when it is finished, [s]bringeth forth death.

16 Do not err, my beloved brethren.

17 [t]Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, [u]with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

18 [x]Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, [y]that we should be a kind of [z]firstfruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, [a]let every man be swift to hear, [b]slow to speak, [c]slow to wrath:

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore [d]lay apart all filthiness, and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the ingrafted word, [e]which is able to save your souls.

22 But [f]be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 For [g]if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But [h]whoso looketh into the perfect [i]law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, [k]this man shall be blessed in his ||deed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and [l]bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, [m]To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, [n]and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JAMES.

1 James, a [1]servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are of the Dispersion, [2]greeting.

2 Count it all joy, my brethren, when ye fall into 3 manifold [3]temptations; knowing that the proof of 4 your faith worketh patience. And let patience have its perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, lacking in nothing.

5 But if any of you lacketh wisdom, let him ask of God, who giveth to all liberally and upbraideth not;
6 and it shall be given him. But let him ask in faith, nothing doubting: for he that doubteth is like the 7 surge of the sea driven by the wind and tossed. For let not that man think [4]that he shall receive anything
8 of the Lord; a doubleminded man, unstable in all his ways.

9 But let the brother of low degree glory in his 10 high estate: and the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass
11 away. For the sun ariseth with the scorching wind, and withereth the grass; and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his goings.

12 Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he hath been approved, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord promised to them that 13 love him. Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted [5]of God: for God [6]cannot be tempted 14 with [7]evil, and he himself tempteth no man: but each man is [8]tempted, when he is drawn away by 15 his own lust, and enticed. Then the lust, when it hath conceived, beareth sin: and the sin, when it is 16 fullgrown, bringeth forth death. Be not deceived,
17 my beloved brethren. Every good [9]gift and every perfect boon is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom can be no variation, 18 neither shadow that is cast by turning. Of his own will he brought us forth by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

19 [10]Ye know this, my beloved brethren. But let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to 20 wrath: for the wrath of man worketh not the right-
21 eousness of God. Wherefore putting away all filthiness and overflowing of [11]wickedness, receive with meekness the [12]implanted word, which is able to 22 save your souls. But be ye doers of the word, and 23 not hearers only, deluding your own selves. For if any one is a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding [13]his natural face
24 in a mirror: for he beholdeth himself, and goeth away, and straightway forgetteth what manner of 25 man he was. But he that looketh into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and so continueth, being not a hearer that forgetteth, but a doer that worketh, this man shall be blessed in his doing.
26 If any man [14]thinketh himself to be religious, while he bridleth not his tongue but deceiveth his heart, this man's 27 religion is vain. Pure religion and undefiled before our God and Father is this, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

CHAPTER II.

Of faith and works.

A. D. about 60.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, [a]the Lord of glory, with [b]respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your †assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here ‖ in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, [c]Hath not God chosen the poor of this world [d]rich in faith, and heirs of ‖ the kingdom [e]which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But [f]ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, [g]and draw you before the judgment seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law according to the Scripture, [h]Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

9 But [i]if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, [k]he is guilty of all.

11 For ‖ he that said, [l]Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by [m]the law of liberty.

13 For [n]he shall have judgment without mercy that hath shewed no mercy; and [o]mercy ‖ rejoiceth against judgment.

14 [p]What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

15 [q]If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And [r]one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being †alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith ‖ without thy works, [s]and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: [t]the devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not A'bra-ham our father justified by works, [u]when he had offered I'saac his son upon the altar?

22 ‖ Seest thou [x]how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which saith, [y]A'bra-ham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called [z]the Friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise also [a]was not Ra'hab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the ‖ spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

CHAPTER III.

Of prudence in reproving.

MY brethren, [a]be not many masters, [b]knowing that we shall receive the greater ‖ condemnation.

2 For [c]in many things we offend all. [d]If any man offend not

2 My brethren, [1]hold not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons.
2 For if there come into your [2]synagogue a man with a gold ring, in fine clothing, and there come in also
3 a poor man in vile clothing; and ye have regard to him that weareth the fine clothing, and say, Sit thou here in a good place; and ye say to the poor man,
4 Stand thou there, or sit under my footstool; [3]are ye not divided [4]in your own mind, and become judges
5 with evil thoughts? Hearken, my beloved brethren; did not God choose them that are poor as to the world to be rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom
6 which he promised to them that love him? But ye have dishonoured the poor man. Do not the rich oppress you, and themselves drag you before the 7 judgement-seats? Do not they blaspheme the hon-
8 ourable name [5]by the which ye are called? Howbeit if ye fulfil the royal law, according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do 9 well: but if ye have respect of persons, ye commit sin, being convicted by the law as transgressors.
10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet stumble in one point, he is become guilty of all.
11 For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou dost not commit adultery, but killest, thou art become a transgressor of the 12 law. So speak ye, and so do, as men that are to be 13 judged by a law of liberty. For judgement is without mercy to him that hath shewed no mercy: mercy glorieth against judgement.
14 What doth it profit, my brethren, if a man say he hath faith, but have not works? can that faith save 15 him? If a brother or sister be naked, and in lack 16 of daily food, and one of you say unto them, Go in peace, be ye warmed and filled; and yet ye give them not the things needful to the body; what doth
17 it profit? Even so faith, if it have not works, is 18 dead in itself. [6]Yea, a man will say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith apart from thy works, and I by my works will shew thee
19 my faith. Thou believest that [7]God is one; thou doest well: the [8]devils also believe, and shudder.
20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith apart
21 from works is barren? Was not A'bra-ham our father justified by works, in that he offered up I'saac
22 his son upon the altar? [9]Thou seest that faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith
23 made perfect; and the scripture was fulfilled which saith, And A'bra-ham believed God, and it was reckoned unto him for righteousness; and he was called 24 the friend of God. Ye see that by works a man is 25 justified, and not only by faith. And in like manner was not also Ra'hab the harlot justified by works, in that she received the messengers, and sent them
26 out another way? For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, even so faith apart from works is dead.

3 Be not many teachers, my brethren, knowing
2 that we shall receive [10]heavier judgement. For in many things we all stumble. If any stumbleth not in word, [t]the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, [f]we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so [g]the tongue is a little member, and [h]boasteth great things. Behold, how great ||a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 And [i]the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that [k]it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the †course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For every †kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of †mankind:

8 But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, [l]full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, [m]which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same || place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

13 [n]Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation [o]his works [p]with meekness of wisdom.

14 But if ye have [q]bitter envying and strife in your hearts, [r]glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15 [s]This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, || sensual, devilish.

16 For [t]where envying and strife is, there is †confusion and every evil work.

17 But [u]the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, || without partiality, [x]and without hypocrisy.

18 [y]And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

CHAPTER IV.

Worldly lusts reproved.

FROM whence come wars and ||fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your || lusts [a]that war in your members?

2 Ye lust, and have not: ye || kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

3 [b]Ye ask, and receive not, [c]because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your || lusts.

4 [d]Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that [e]the friendship of the world is enmity with God? [f]whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

5 Do ye think that the Scripture saith in vain, [g]The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth || to envy?

6 But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, [h]God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. [i]Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 [k]Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. [l]Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and [m]purify your hearts, ye [n]doubleminded.

9 [o]Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

10 [p]Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

11 [q]Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, [r]and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

12 There is one lawgiver, [s]who is able to save and to destroy: [t]who art thou that judgest another?

in word, the same is a perfect man, able to bridle the 3 whole body also. Now if we put the horses' bridles into their mouths, that they may obey us, we turn
4 about their whole body also. Behold, the ships also, though they are so great, and are driven by rough winds, are yet turned about by a very small rudder,
5 whither the impulse of the steersman willeth. So the tongue also is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, [1]how much wood is kindled by how
6 small a fire! And the tongue is [2]a fire: [3]the world of iniquity among our members is the tongue, which defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the wheel
7 of [4]nature, and is set on fire by hell. For every [5]kind of beasts and birds, of creeping things and things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed [6]by 8 [7]mankind: but the tongue can no man tame; it is 9 a restless evil, it is full of deadly poison. Therewith bless we the Lord and Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the likeness of God:
10 out of the same mouth cometh forth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to 11 be. Doth the fountain send forth from the same
12 opening sweet water and bitter? can a fig tree, my brethren, yield olives, or a vine figs? neither can salt water yield sweet.

13 Who is wise and understanding among you? let him shew by his good life his works in meekness of 14 wisdom. But if ye have bitter jealousy and faction in your heart, glory not and lie not against the truth.
15 This wisdom is not a wisdom that cometh down from 16 above, but is earthly, [8]sensual, [9]devilish. For where jealousy and faction are, there is confusion and every 17 vile deed. But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without [10]variance,
18 without hypocrisy. And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace [11]for them that make peace.

4 Whence come wars and whence come fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your
2 pleasures that war in your members? Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and [12]covet, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war; ye have not, because ye ask not.
3 Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that 4 ye may spend it in your pleasures. Ye adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? Whosoever therefore would be a friend of the world maketh himself an enemy of God.
5 Or think ye that the scripture [13]speaketh in vain? [14]Doth the spirit which [15]he made to dwell in us long
6 unto envying? But he giveth [16]more grace. Wherefore the scripture saith, God resisteth the proud, but 7 giveth grace to the humble. Be subject therefore unto God; but resist the devil, and he will flee from 8 you. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify 9 your hearts, ye doubleminded. Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to 10 mourning, and your joy to heaviness. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall exalt you.

11 Speak not one against another, brethren. He that speaketh against a brother, or judgeth his brother, speaketh against the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judgest the law, thou art not a doer of the 12 law, but a judge. One only is the lawgiver and judge, even he who is able to save and to destroy: but who art thou that judgest thy neighbour?

13 [a]Go to now, ye that say, To-day or to-morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:

14 Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? ||[x]It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

15 For that ye ought to say, [y]If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.

16 But now ye rejoice in your boastings: [z]all such rejoicing is evil.

17 Therefore [a]to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

CHAPTER V.

Wicked rich men warned.

GO [a]to now, ye rich men, and weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and [b]your garments are motheaten.

3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. [c]Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days.

4 Behold, [d]the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and [e]the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of Sab'a-oth.

5 [f]Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

6 [g]Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you.

7 ||Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive [h]the early and latter rain.

8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: [i]for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

9 [k]||Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge [l]standeth before the door.

10 [m]Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

11 Behold, [n]we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of [o]the patience of Job, and have seen [p]the end of the Lord; that [q]the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

12 But above all things, my brethren, [r]swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? [s]let him sing psalms.

14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, [t]anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; [u]and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

16 Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. [x]The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

17 E-li'as was a man [y]subject to like passions as we are, and [z]he prayed ||earnestly that it might not rain: [a]and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months.

18 And [b]he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, [c]if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him;

20 Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way [d]shall save a soul from death, and [e]shall hide a multitude of sins.

14 and trade, and get gain: whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. What is your life? For ye are a vapour, that appeareth for a little time,
15 and then vanisheth away. [1]For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall both live, and do
16 this or that. But now ye glory in your vauntings:
17 all such glorying is evil. To him therefore that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

5 Go to now, ye rich, weep and howl for your mis-
2 eries that are coming upon you. Your riches are
3 corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten. Your gold and your silver are rusted; and their rust shall be for a testimony [2]against you, and shall eat your flesh as fire. Ye have laid up your treasure in the 4 last days. Behold, the hire of the labourers who mowed your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth out: and the cries of them that reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of Sab'a-oth.
5 Ye have lived delicately on the earth, and taken your pleasure; ye have nourished your hearts in a day of 6 slaughter. Ye have condemned, ye have killed the righteous one; he doth not resist you.
7 Be patient therefore, brethren, until the [3]coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient over it,
8 until [4]it receive the early and latter rain. Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the [3]coming of the 9 Lord is at hand. Murmur not, brethren, one against another, that ye be not judged: behold, the judge
10 standeth before the doors. Take, brethren, for an example of suffering and of patience, the prophets
11 who spake in the name of the Lord. Behold, we call them blessed which endured: ye have heard of the [5]patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord, how that the Lord is full of pity, and merciful.
12 But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by the heaven, nor by the earth, nor by any other oath: but [6]let your yea be yea, and your nay, nay; that ye fall not under judgement.
13 Is any among you suffering? let him pray. Is 14 any cheerful? let him sing praise. Is any among you sick? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, [7]anointing him with oil
15 in the name of the Lord: and the prayer of faith shall save him that is sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, it shall be
16 forgiven him. Confess therefore your sins one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The supplication of a righteous man availeth
17 much in its working. E-li'jah was a man of like [8]passions with us, and he prayed [9]fervently that it might not rain; and it rained not on the earth for three 18 years and six months. And he prayed again; and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.
19 My brethren, if any among you do err from the 20 truth, and one convert him; [10]let him know, that he which converteth a sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall cover a multitude of sins.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

CHAPTER I.

God's manifold spiritual grace.

PE'TER, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers [a]scattered throughout Pon'tus, Ga-la'ti-a, Cap-pa-do'ci-a, A'si-a, and Bi-thyn'i-a,

2 [b]Elect [c]according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, [d]through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and [e]sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: [f]Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied.

3 [g]Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which [h]according to his †abundant mercy [i]hath begotten us again unto a lively hope [k]by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, [l]and that fadeth not away, [m]reserved in heaven || for you,

5 [n]Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

6 [o]Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now [p]for a season, if need be, [q]ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:

7 That [r]the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though [s]it be tried with fire, [t]might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:

8 [u]Whom having not seen, ye love; [x]in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:

9 Receiving [y]the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

10 [z]Of which salvation the prophets have inquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:

11 Searching what, or what manner of time [a]the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand [b]the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 [c]Unto whom it was revealed, that [d]not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with [e]the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; [f]which things the angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore [g]gird up the loins of your mind, [h]be sober, and hope †to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you [i]at the revelation of Jesus Christ;

16 Because it is written, [n]Be ye holy; for I am holy.

17 And if ye call on the Father, [o]who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, [p]pass the time of your [q]sojourning here in fear:

18 Forasmuch as ye know [r]that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation [s]received by tradition from your fathers;

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

1 Pe'ter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the elect who are sojourners of the Dispersion in Pon'tus, Ga-la'ti-a, 2 Cap-pa-do'ci-a, A'si-a, and Bi-thyn'i-a, according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace be multiplied.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his great mercy begat us again unto a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus 4 Christ from the dead, unto an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, re-5 served in heaven for you, who by the power of God are guarded through faith unto a salvation ready to 6 be revealed in the last time. Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if need be, ye 7 have been put to grief in manifold [1]temptations, that the proof of your faith, being more precious than gold that perisheth though it is proved by fire, might be found unto praise and glory and honour 8 at the revelation of Jesus Christ: whom not having seen ye love; on whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice greatly with joy un-9 speakable and [2]full of glory: receiving the end of 10 your faith, even the salvation of your souls. Concerning which salvation the prophets sought and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace 11 that should come unto you: searching what time or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did point unto, when it testified beforehand the sufferings [3]of Christ, and the glories that should 12 follow them. To whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto you, did they minister these things, which now have been announced unto you through them that preached the gospel unto you [4]by the [5]Holy Ghost sent forth from heaven; which things angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore girding up the loins of your mind, be sober and set your hope perfectly on the grace that [6]is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus
14 Christ; as children of obedience, not fashioning yourselves according to your former lusts in the time 15 of your ignorance: but [7]like as he which called you is holy, be ye yourselves also holy in all manner of 16 living; because it is written, Ye shall be holy; for 17 I am holy. And if ye call on him as Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to each man's work, pass the time of your sojourning in fear:
18 knowing that ye were redeemed, not with corrup-
tible things, with silver or gold, from your vain 19 manner of life handed down from your fathers; but with precious blood, as of a lamb without blemish 20 and without spot, even the blood of Christ: who was foreknown indeed before the foundation of the world, but was manifested at the end of the times for your 21 sake, who through him are believers in God, which raised him from the dead, and gave him glory; so 22 that your faith and hope might be in God. Seeing ye have purified your souls in your obedience to the

CHAPTER II.

Christ the corner stone.

WHEREFORE, [a]laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings,
2 [b]As newborn babes, desire the sincere [c]milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:
3 If so be ye have [d]tasted that the Lord is gracious,
4 To whom coming, as unto a living stone, [e]disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,
5 [f]Ye also, as lively stones, ‖are built up [g]a spiritual house, [h]a holy priesthood, to offer up [i]spiritual sacrifices, [k]acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.
6 Wherefore also it is contained in the Scripture, [l]Behold, I lay in Si'on a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.
7 Unto you therefore which believe he is ‖precious: but unto them which be disobedient, [m]the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,
8 [n]And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, [o]even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: [p]whereunto also they were appointed.
9 But ye are [q]a chosen generation, [r]a royal priesthood, [s]a holy nation, [t]‖a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the ‖praises of him who hath called you out of [u]darkness into his marvellous light:
10 [x]Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.
11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you, [y]as strangers and pilgrims, [z]abstain from fleshly lusts, [a]which war against the soul;
12 [b]Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, ‖whereas they speak against you as evil doers, [c]they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God [d]in the day of visitation.
13 [e]Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;
14 Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him [f]for the punishment of evil doers, and [g]for the praise of them that do well.
15 For so is the will of God, that [h]with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:
16 [i]As free, and not †using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness, but as [k]the servants of God.
17 [l]‖Honour all men. [m]Love the brotherhood. [n]Fear God. Honour the king.
18 [o]Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.
19 For this is ‖[p]thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.
20 For [q]what glory is it if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is ‖acceptable with God.
21 For [r]even hereunto were ye called: because [s]Christ also suffered ‖for us, [t]leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:
22 [u]Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:
23 [x]Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he truth unto unfeigned love of the brethren, love one 23 another [1]from the heart fervently: having been begotten again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, through the word of [2]God, which liveth and 24 abideth. For,

All flesh is as grass,
And all the glory thereof as the flower of grass.
The grass withereth, and the flower falleth:
25 But the [3]word of the Lord abideth for ever.
And this is the [3]word of good tidings which was preached unto you.

2 Putting away therefore all [4]wickedness, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil
2 speakings, as newborn babes, long for the [5]spiritual milk which is without guile, that ye may grow
3 thereby unto salvation; if ye have tasted that the 4 Lord is gracious: unto whom coming, a living stone, rejected indeed of men, but with God elect,
5 [6]precious, ye also, as living stones, are built up [7]a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God through 6 Jesus Christ. Because it is contained in [8]scripture,
Behold, I lay in Zi'on a chief corner stone, elect,
[6]precious:
And he that believeth on [9]him shall not be put to shame.
7 [10]For you therefore which believe is the [11]preciousness: but for such as disbelieve,
The stone which the builders rejected,
The same was made the head of the corner;
8 and,
A stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence;
[12]for they [13]stumble at the word, being disobedient:
9 whereunto also they were appointed. But ye are an elect race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession, that ye may shew forth the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness
10 into his marvellous light: which in time past were no people, but now are the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.
11 Beloved, I beseech you as sojourners and pilgrims, to abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the 12 soul; having your behaviour seemly among the Gentiles; that, wherein they speak against you as evil-doers, they may by your good works, which they behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.
13 Be subject to every [14]ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;
14 or unto governors, as sent [15]by him for vengeance on 15 evil-doers and for praise to them that do well. For so is the will of God, that by well-doing ye should 16 put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: as free, and not [16]using your freedom for a cloke of [4]wickedness, but as bondservants of God. Honour all men.
17 Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.
18 [17]Servants, be in subjection to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also 19 to the froward. For this is [18]acceptable, if for conscience [19]toward God a man endureth griefs, suffering wrongfully.
20 For what glory is it, if, when ye sin, and are buffeted for it, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye shall take it patiently, this is [18]acceptable
21 with God. For hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an ex-22 ample, that ye should follow his steps: who did suffered, he threatened not; but [v]||committed himself to him that judgeth righteously:

24 [x]Who his own self bare our sins in his own body ||on the tree, [a]that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: [b]by whose stripes ye were healed.

25 For [c]ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned [d]unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

CHAPTER III.

Duty of wives and husbands.

LIKEWISE, [a]ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, [b]they also may without the word [c]be won by the conversation of the wives;

2 [d]While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

3 [e]Whose adorning, let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4 But let it be [f]the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:

6 Even as Sa'rah obeyed A'bra-ham, [g]calling him lord: whose †daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 [h]Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, [i]as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; [k]that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, [l]be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another; [m]||love as brethren, [n]be pitiful, be courteous:

9 [o]Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise, blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, [p]that ye should inherit a blessing.

10 For [q]he that will love life, and see good days, [r]let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile:

11 Let him [s]eschew evil and do good; [t]let him seek peace, and ensue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, [u]and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is †against them that do evil.

13 [x]And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

14 [y]But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye; and [z]be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled;

15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and [a]be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you, with meekness and ||fear:

16 [b]Having a good conscience; [c]that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evil doers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.

18 For Christ also hath [d]once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, [e]being put to death [f]in the flesh, but [g]quickened by the Spirit:

19 By which also he went and [h]preached unto the spirits [i]in prison;

20 Which sometime were disobedient, [k]when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of No'ah, while [l]the ark was a preparing, [m]wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water.

21 [n]The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us, (not the putting away of [o]the filth of the flesh, [p]but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) [q]by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:

suffered, threatened not; but committed [1]himself to 24 him that judgeth righteously: who his own self [2]bare our sins in his body upon the tree, that we, having died unto sins, might live unto righteous-
25 ness; by whose [3]stripes ye were healed. For ye were going astray like sheep; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and [4]Bishop of your souls.

3 In like manner, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, even if any obey not the word, they may without the word be gained by the [5]beha-
2 viour of their wives; beholding your chaste [5]be-
3 haviour coupled with fear. Whose adorning let it not be the outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing jewels of gold, or of putting on 4 apparel; but let it be the hidden man of the heart, in the incorruptible apparel of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.
5 For after this manner aforetime the holy women also, who hoped in God, adorned themselves, being
6 in subjection to their own [6]husbands: as Sa'rah obeyed A'bra-ham, calling him lord: whose children ye now are, if ye do well, and are not [7]put in fear by any terror.

7 Ye husbands, in like manner, dwell with your wives according to knowledge, giving honour [8]unto the woman, as unto the weaker vessel, as being also joint-heirs of the grace of life; to the end that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, be ye all likeminded, [9]compassionate, lov-
9 ing as brethren, tenderhearted, humbleminded: not rendering evil for evil, or reviling for reviling; but contrariwise blessing; for hereunto were ye called, 10 that ye should inherit a blessing. For,

He that would love life,
And see good days,
Let him refrain his tongue from evil,
And his lips that they speak no guile:
11 And let him turn away from evil, and do good;
Let him seek peace, and pursue it.
12 For the eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous,
And his ears unto their supplication:
But the face of the Lord is upon them that do evil.

13 And who is he that will harm you, if ye be zeal-
14 ous of that which is good? But and if ye should suffer for righteousness' sake, blessed are ye: and 15 fear not their fear, neither be troubled; but sanctify in your hearts Christ as Lord: being ready always to give answer to every man that asketh you a reason concerning the hope that is in you, yet with meek-
16 ness and fear: having a good conscience; that, wherein ye are spoken against, they may be put to shame who revile your good manner of life in Christ.
17 For it is better, if the will of God should so will, that ye suffer for well-doing than for evil-doing.
18 Because Christ also [10]suffered for sins once, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God; being put to death in the flesh, but quickened
19 in the spirit; in which also he went and preached
20 unto the spirits in prison, which aforetime were disobedient, when the longsuffering of God waited in the days of No'ah, while the ark was a preparing, [11]wherein few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water:
21 which also [12]after a true likeness doth now save you, even baptism, not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the [13]interrogation of a good conscience toward God, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ;

CHAPTER IV.

Of ceasing from sin.

FORASMUCH then [a]as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for [b]he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin;

2 [c]That he no longer [d]should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, [e]but to the will of God.

3 [f]For the time past of our life may suffice us [g]to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries:

4 Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, [h]speaking evil of you:

5 Who shall give account to him that is ready [i]to judge the quick and the dead.

6 For, for this cause [k]was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But [l]the end of all things is at hand: [m]be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.

8 [n]And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for [o]charity ‖ shall cover the multitude of sins.

9 [p]Use hospitality one to another [q]without grudging.

10 [r]As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, [s]as good stewards of [t]the manifold grace of God.

11 [u]If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; [x]if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth; that [y]God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ: [z]to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning [a]the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you:

13 [b]But rejoice, inasmuch as [c]ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; [d]that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

14 [e]If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the Spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: [f]on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

15 But [g]let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evil doer, [h]or as a busybody in other men's matters.

16 Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; [i]but let him glorify God on this behalf.

17 For the time is come [k]that judgment must begin at the house of God: and [l]if it first begin at us, [m]what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

18 [n]And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?

19 Wherefore, let them that suffer according to the will of God [o]commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

CHAPTER V.

The duty of elders, &c.

THE elders which are among you I exhort, who am also [a]an elder, and [b]a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also [c]a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed:

2 [d]Feed the flock of God ‖ which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, [e]not by constraint, but willingly; [f]not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;

3 Neither as ‖ [g]being lords over [h]God's heritage, but [i]being ensamples to the flock.

4 And when [k]the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive [l]a crown of glory [m]that fadeth not away.

5 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder.

22 who is on the right hand of God, having gone into heaven; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

4 Forasmuch then as Christ suffered in the flesh, arm ye yourselves also with the same [1]mind; for he that
2 hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased [2]from sin; that [3]ye no longer should live the rest of your time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God.
3 For the time past may suffice to have wrought the desire of the Gentiles, and to have walked in lasciviousness, lusts, winebibbings, revellings, carous-
4 ings, and abominable idolatries: wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them into the same
5 [4]excess of riot, speaking evil of you: who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and 6 the dead. For unto this end [5]was the gospel preached even to the dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.
7 But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore of sound mind, and be sober unto [6]prayer:
8 above all things being fervent in your love among yourselves; for love covereth a multitude of sins:
9 using hospitality one to another without murmur-
10 ing: according as each hath received a gift, ministering it among yourselves, as good stewards of the 11 manifold grace of God; if any man speaketh, speaking as it were oracles of God; if any man ministereth, ministering as of the strength which God supplieth: that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, whose is the glory and the dominion [7]for ever and ever. Amen.
12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial among you, which cometh upon you to prove you, as though a strange thing happened unto 13 you: but insomuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings, rejoice; that at the revelation of his glory
14 also ye may rejoice with exceeding joy. If ye are reproached [8]for the name of Christ, blessed are ye; because the Spirit of glory and the Spirit of God
15 resteth upon you. For let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evil-doer, or as a meddler
16 in other men's matters: but if a man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him
17 glorify God in this name. For the time is come for judgement to begin at the house of God: and if it begin first at us, what shall be the end of them that 18 obey not the gospel of God? And if the righteous is scarcely saved, where shall the ungodly and sinner
19 appear? Wherefore let them also that suffer according to the will of God commit their souls in well-doing unto a faithful Creator.

5 The elders therefore among you I exhort, who am a fellow-elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, who am also a partaker of the glory that
2 shall be revealed: Tend the flock of God which is among you, [9]exercising the oversight, not of constraint, but willingly, [10]according unto God; nor yet
3 for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind; neither as lording it over the charge allotted to you, but mak-
4 ing yourselves ensamples to the flock. And when the chief Shepherd shall be manifested, ye shall receive the crown of glory that fadeth not away.
5 [11]Likewise, ye younger, be subject unto the elder.

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

CHAPTER I.

Exhortations to sundry duties.

‖SI'MON PE'TER, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained [a]like precious faith with us through the righteousness †of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

2 [b]Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, [c]through the knowledge of him [d]that hath called us ‖ to glory and virtue:

4 [e]Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises; that by these ye might be [f]partakers of the divine nature, [g]having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 And besides this, [h]giving all diligence, add to your faith, virtue; and to virtue, [i]knowledge;

6 And to knowledge, temperance; and to temperance, patience; and to patience, godliness;

7 And to godliness, brotherly kindness; and [k]to brotherly kindness, charity.

8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be †barren [l]nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these things [m]is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was [n]purged from his old sins.

10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence [o]to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, [p]ye shall never fall:

11 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore [q]I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, [r]though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, as [s]long as I am in this tabernacle, [t]to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;

14 [u]Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as [x]our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

1 [1]Si'mon Pe'ter, a [2]servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained [3]a like precious faith with us in the righteousness of [4]our God and
2 Saviour Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace be multiplied in the knowledge of God and of Jesus
3 our Lord; seeing that his divine power hath granted unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that called us
4 [5]by his own glory and virtue; whereby he hath granted unto us his precious and exceeding great promises; that through these ye may become partakers of [6]the divine nature, having escaped from the 5 corruption that is in the world by lust. Yea, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply virtue; and in your virtue
6 knowledge; and in your knowledge [7]temperance; and in your [7]temperance patience; and in your pa-
7 tience godliness; and in your godliness love of the brethren; and in your love of the brethren love.
8 For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor unfruitful unto the knowledge
9 of our Lord Jesus Christ. For he that lacketh these things is blind, [8]seeing only what is near, hav-
10 ing forgotten the cleansing from his old sins. Wherefore, brethren, give the more diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, 11 ye shall never stumble: for thus shall be richly supplied unto you the entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore I shall be ready always to put you in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and 13 are established in the truth which is with you. And I think it right, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to 14 stir you up by putting you in remembrance; knowing that the putting off of my tabernacle cometh swiftly, even as our Lord Jesus Christ signified unto me.

[4] Or, our God and the Saviour
[5] Some ancient authorities read through glory and virtue.
[6] Or, a
[7] Or, self-control
[8] Or, closing his eyes

15 Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed [v]cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but [x]were eyewitnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, [a]This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in [b]the holy mount.

19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto [c]a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and [d]the daystar arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that [e]no prophecy of the Scripture is of any private interpretation.

21 For [f]the prophecy came not ‖ in old time by the will of man: [g]but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

CHAPTER II.

False teachers foretold.

BUT [a]there were false prophets also among the people, even as [b]there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even [c]denying the Lord [d]that bought them, [e]and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their ‖ pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And [f]through covetousness shall they with feigned words [g]make merchandise of you: [h]whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

4 For if God spared not [i]the angels [k]that sinned, but [l]cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;

5 And spared not the old world, but saved [m]No'ah the eighth person, [n]a preacher of righteousness, [o]bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly;

6 And [p]turning the cities of Sod'om and Go-mor'rha into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, [q]making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly;

7 And [r]delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked:

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, [s]in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)

9 [u]The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished:

10 But chiefly [x]them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise ‖ government. [y]Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.

11 Whereas [z]angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation ‖ against them before the Lord.

12 But these, [a]as natural brute beasts made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;

13 [b]And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure [c]to riot in the daytime. [d]Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while [e]they feast with you;

14 Having eyes full of †adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls; [f]a heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:

15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of [g]Ba'laam the son of Bo'sor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbade the madness of the prophet.

15 Yea, I will give diligence that at every time ye may be able after my [1]decease to call these things
16 to remembrance. For we did not follow cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and [2]coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty.
17 For he [3]received from God the Father honour and glory, when there [4]came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in
18 whom I am well pleased: and this voice we ourselves heard [5]come out of heaven, when we were 19 with him in the holy mount. And we have the word of prophecy made more sure; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a lamp shining in a [6]dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-
20 star arise in your hearts: knowing this first, that no prophecy of scripture is of [7]private interpretation.
21 For no prophecy ever [8]came by the will of man: but men spake from God, being moved by the [9]Holy Ghost.

2 But there arose false prophets also among the people, as among you also there shall be false teachers, who shall privily bring in [10]destructive heresies, denying even the Master that bought them, bringing
2 upon themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow their lascivious doings; by reason of whom the way of the truth shall be evil spoken of.
3 And in covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose sentence now from of old lingereth not, and their destruction
4 slumbereth not. For if God spared not angels when they sinned, but [11]cast them down to [12]hell, and committed them to [13]pits of darkness, to be reserved
5 unto judgement; and spared not the ancient world, but preserved No'ah with seven others, [14]a preacher of righteousness, when he brought a flood upon the 6 world of the ungodly; and turning the cities of Sod'om and Go-mor'rah into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, having made them an example
7 unto those that should live ungodly; and delivered righteous Lot, sore distressed by the lascivious life
8 of the wicked (for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, [15]vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their lawless
9 deeds): the Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptation, and to keep the unrighteous under 10 punishment unto the day of judgement; but chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement, and despise dominion. Daring, selfwilled, 11 they tremble not to rail at [16]dignities: whereas angels, though greater in might and power, bring not a railing judgement against them before the
12 Lord. But these, as creatures without reason, born [17]mere animals [18]to be taken and destroyed, railing in matters whereof they are ignorant, shall in their
13 [19]destroying surely be destroyed, suffering wrong as the hire of wrong-doing; men that count it pleasure to revel in the day-time, spots and blemishes, revelling in their [20]love-feasts while they feast with 14 you; having eyes full of [21]adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; enticing unstedfast souls; having a heart exercised in covetousness; children of cursing;
15 forsaking the right way, they went astray, having followed the way of Ba'laam the son of [22]Be'or, who 16 loved the hire of wrong-doing; but he was rebuked for his own transgression: a dumb ass spake with man's voice and stayed the madness of the prophet.

17 [h]These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For when [i]they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that [k]were ||clean escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promise them [l]liberty, they themselves are [m]the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For [n]if after they [o]have escaped the pollutions of the world [p]through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For [q]it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, [r]The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and, The sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

CHAPTER III.

Coming of the last day.

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which [a]I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:

2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, [b]and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

3 [c]Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, [d]walking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, [e]Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that [f]by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth †[g]standing out of the water and in the water:

6 [h]Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:

7 But [i]the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto [k]fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and [l]a thousand years as one day.

9 [m]The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but [n]is longsuffering to us-ward, [o]not willing that any should perish, but [p]that all should come to repentance.

10 But [q]the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which [r]the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be [s]in all holy conversation and godliness,

12 [t]Looking for and ||hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall [u]be dissolved, and the elements shall [x]melt with fervent heat?

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for [y]new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent [z]that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

15 And account that [a]the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you;

17 These are springs without water, and mists driven by a storm; for whom the blackness of darkness
18 hath been reserved. For, uttering great swelling words of vanity, they entice in the lusts of the flesh, by lasciviousness, those who are just escaping from 19 them that live in error; promising them liberty, while they themselves are bondservants of corruption; for of [1]whom a man is overcome, of the same is he 20 also brought into bondage. For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of [2]the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein and overcome, the last state is become worse with them than the first.
21 For it were better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after knowing it, to turn back from the holy commandment delivered unto 22 them. It has happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog turning to his own vomit again, and the sow that had washed to wallowing in the mire.

3 This is now, beloved, the second epistle that I write unto you; and in both of them I stir up your
2 sincere mind by putting you in remembrance; that ye should remember the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and the commandment of the Lord and Saviour through your apostles:
3 knowing this first, that [3]in the last days mockers shall come with mockery, walking after their own
4 lusts, and saying, Where is the promise of his [4]coming? for, from the day that the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning
5 of the creation. For this they wilfully forget, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth compacted out of water and [5]amidst water, by the word
6 of God; by which means the world that then was,
7 being overflowed with water, perished: but the heavens that now are, and the earth, by the same word have been [6]stored up for fire, being reserved against the day of judgement and destruction of ungodly men.
8 But forget not this one thing, beloved, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a
9 thousand years as one day. The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some count slackness; but is longsuffering to you-ward, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to re-
10 pentance. But the day of the Lord will come as a thief; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the [7]elements shall be dissolved with fervent heat, and the earth and the works that 11 are therein shall be [8]burned up. Seeing that these things are thus all to be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy living and godli-
12 ness, looking for and [9]earnestly desiring the [4]coming of the day of God, by reason of which the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the [7]elements
13 shall melt with fervent heat? But, according to his promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.
14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for these things, give diligence that ye may be found in peace,
15 without spot and blameless in his sight. And account that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given to him, wrote unto you;

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF JOHN.

CHAPTER I.

The Word of Life.

THAT [a]which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, [b]which we have looked upon, and [c]our hands have handled, of the Word of life;
2 (For [d]the life [e]was manifested, and we have seen it, [f]and bear witness, [g]and shew unto you that eternal life, [h]which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;)
3 [i]That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly [k]our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.
4 And these things write we unto you, [l]that your joy may be full.
5 [m]This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that [n]God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.
6 [o]If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:
7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and [p]the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.
8 [q]If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, [r]and the truth is not in us.
9 [s]If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to [t]cleanse us from all unrighteousness.
10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAPTER II.

Christ our advocate.

MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, [a]we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous;
2 And [b]he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but [c]also for the sins of the whole world.
3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.
4 [d]He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, [e]is a liar, and the truth is not in him.
5 But [f]whoso keepeth his word, [g]in him verily is the love of God perfected: [h]hereby know we that we are in him.
6 [i]He that saith he abideth in him [k]ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.
7 Brethren, [l]I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment [m]which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.
8 Again, [n]a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: [o]because the darkness is past, and [p]the true light now shineth.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF JOHN.

1 That which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our eyes, that which we beheld, and our hands handled,
2 concerning the [1]Word of life (and the life was manifested, and we have seen, and bear witness, and declare unto you the life, the eternal life, which was
3 with the Father, and was manifested unto us); that which we have seen and heard declare we unto you also, that ye also may have fellowship with us: yea, and our fellowship is with the Father, and with his 4 Son Jesus Christ: and these things we write, that [2]our joy may be fulfilled.
5 And this is the message which we have heard from him, and announce unto you, that God is light,
6 and in him is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in the darkness,
7 we lie, and do not the truth: but if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus his son cleans-
8 eth us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin,
9 we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all
10 unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2 My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye may not sin. And if any man sin, we have an [3]Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the
2 righteous: and he is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the whole world.
3 And hereby know we that we know him, if we keep 4 his commandments. He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and 5 the truth is not in him: but whoso keepeth his word, in him verily hath the love of God been per-
6 fected. Hereby know we that we are in him: he that saith he abideth in him ought himself also to walk even as he walked.
7 Beloved, no new commandment write I unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning: the old commandment is 8 the word which ye heard. Again, a new commandment write I unto you, which thing is true in him and in you; because the darkness is passing away, and the true light already shineth.

9 [q]He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

10 [r]He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and [s]there is none †occasion of stumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and [t]walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because [u]your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him [x]that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because [y]ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 [z]Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. [a]If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, [b]and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And [c]the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

18 [d]Little children, [e]it is the last time: and as ye have heard that [f]antichrist shall come, [g]even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know [h]that it is the last time.

19 [i]They went out from us, but they were not of us; for [k]if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, [l]that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

20 But [m]ye have an [n]unction from the Holy One, and [o]ye know all things.

21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 [p]Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 [q]Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] [r]he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

24 Let that therefore abide in you, [s]which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, [t]ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 [u]And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

26 These things have I written unto you [x]concerning them that seduce you.

27 But [y]the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and [z]ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing [a]teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in ‖ him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him; that, [b]when he shall appear, we may have confidence, [c]and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 [d]If ye know that he is righteous, ‖ ye know that [e]every one that doeth righteousness is born of him.

CHAPTER III.

The singular love of God to us.

BEHOLD, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that [a]we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, [b]because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, [c]now are we the sons of God, and [d]it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he

9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his 10 brother, is in the darkness even until now. He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there
11 is none occasion of stumbling in him. But he that hateth his brother is in the darkness, and walketh in the darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because the darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, my little children, because your 13 sins are forgiven you for his name's sake. I write unto you, fathers, because ye know him which is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the evil one. [1]I have written unto you, little children, because ye know
14 the Father. [1]I have written unto you, fathers, because ye know him which is from the beginning. [1]I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye
15 have overcome the evil one. Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.
16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the vainglory of life, is not 17 of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

18 Little children, it is the last hour: and as ye heard that antichrist cometh, even now have there arisen many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the 19 last hour. They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest [2]how that they all are not 20 of us. And ye have an anointing from the Holy 21 One, [3]and ye know all things. I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because 22 ye know it, and [4]because no lie is of the truth. Who is the liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, even he that denieth the Father
23 and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: he that confesseth the Son hath 24 the Father also. As for you, let that abide in you which ye heard from the beginning. If that which ye heard from the beginning abide in you, ye also 25 shall abide in the Son, and in the Father. And this is the promise which he promised [5]us, even the life
26 eternal. These things have I written unto you con-
27 cerning them that would lead you astray. And as for you, the anointing which ye received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any one teach you; but as his anointing teacheth you concerning all things, [6]and is true, and is no lie, and even as it
28 taught you, [7]ye abide in him. And now, my little children, abide in him; that, if he shall be manifested, we may have boldness, and not be ashamed [8]before
29 him at his [9]coming. If ye know that he is righteous, [10]ye know that every one also that doeth righteousness is begotten of him.

3 Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called children of God: and such we are. For this cause the world
2 knoweth us not, because it knew him not. Beloved, now are we children of God, and it is not yet made manifest what we shall be. We know that, if [11]he shall appear, [c]we shall be like him; for [d]we shall see him as he is.

3 [e]And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.
4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law;
for [h]sin is the transgression of the law;
5 And ye know [i]that he was manifested [k]to take away our sins; and [l]in him is no sin.
6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: [m]whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.
7 Little children, [n]let no man deceive you: [o]he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.
8 [p]He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, [q]that he might destroy the works of the devil.
9 [r]Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for [s]his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.
10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: [t]whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, [u]neither he that loveth not his brother.
11 For [z]this is the ||message that ye heard from the beginning, [v]that we should love one another.
12 Not as [x]Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.
13 Marvel not, my brethren, if [a]the world hate you.
14 [b]We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. [c]He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.
15 [d]Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that [e]no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.
16 [f]Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.
17 [g]But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, [h]how dwelleth the love of God in him?
18 My little children, [i]let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.
19 And hereby we know [k]that we are of the truth, and shall †assure our hearts before him.
20 [l]For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.
21 [m]Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, [n]then have we confidence toward God.
22 And [o]whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, [p]and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.
23 [q]And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, [r]and love one another, [s]as he gave us commandment.
24 And [t]he that keepeth his commandments [u]dwelleth in him, and he in him. And [z]hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

CHAPTER IV.

Against believing all teachers.

BELOVED, [a]believe not every spirit, but [b]try the spirits whether they are of God: because [c]many false prophets are gone out into the world.
2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: [d]Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God:
3 And [e]every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and [f]even now already is it in the world.
4 [g]Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than [h]he that is in the world.

shall be manifested, we shall be like him; for we shall 3 see him even as he is. And every one that hath this hope set on him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.
4 Every one that doeth sin doeth also lawlessness:
5 and sin is lawlessness. And ye know that he was manifested to [1]take away sins; and in him is no sin.
6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither [2]knoweth him.
7 My little children, let no man lead you astray: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is 8 righteous: he that doeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. To this end was the Son of God manifested, that he might destroy 9 the works of the devil. Whosoever is begotten of God doeth no sin, because his seed abideth in him:
and he cannot sin, because he is begotten of God.
10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his 11 brother. For this is the message which ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another:
12 not as Cain was of the evil one, and slew his brother.
And wherefore slew he him? Because his works were evil, and his brother's righteous.
13 Marvel not, brethren, if the world hateth you.
14 We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not 15 abideth in death. Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath 16 eternal life abiding in him. Hereby know we love, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought 17 to lay down our lives for the brethren. But whoso hath the world's goods, and beholdeth his brother in need, and shutteth up his compassion from him, 18 how doth the love of God abide in him? My little children, let us not love in word, neither with the 19 tongue; but in deed and truth. Hereby shall we know that we are of the truth, and shall [3]assure our 20 heart before him, whereinsoever our heart condemn us; because God is greater than our heart, and 21 knoweth all things. Beloved, if our heart condemn 22 us not, we have boldness toward God; and whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do the things that are pleasing 23 in his sight. And this is his commandment, that we should [4]believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, even as he gave us command-24 ment. And he that keepeth his commandments abideth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he gave us.

4 Beloved, believe not every spirit, but prove the spirits, whether they are of God: because many 2 false prophets are gone out into the world. Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: every spirit which con-fesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of 3 God: and every spirit which [5]confesseth not Jesus is not of God: and this is the spirit of the antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it cometh; and now it 4 is in the world already. Ye are of God, my little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you than he that is in the world.

7 [n]Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not, [o]knoweth not God; for [p]God is love.

9 [q]In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, [r]that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, [s]not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son [t]to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, [u]if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 [x]No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and [y]his love is perfected in us.

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 [i]If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God [k]whom he hath not seen?

21 And [l]this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

CHAPTER V.

The three witnesses.

WHOSOEVER [a]believeth that [b]Jesus is the Christ is [c]born of God: [d]and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

3 [e]For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and [f]his commandments are not grievous.

4 For [g]whatsoever is born of God, overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but [h]he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he that came [i]by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. [k]And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, [l]the Word, and the Holy Ghost: [m]and these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receive [n]the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: [o]for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that believeth on the Son of God [p]hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God [q]hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 [r]And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and [s]this life is in his Son.

5 They are of the world: therefore speak they as of 6 the world, and the world heareth them. We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he who is not of God heareth us not. By this we know the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God: and every one that loveth is begotten of God,
8 and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth
9 not God; for God is love. Herein was the love of God manifested [1]in us, that God hath sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live
10 through him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be
11 the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so 12 loved us, we also ought to love one another. No man hath beheld God at any time: if we love one another, God abideth in us, and his love is per-13 fected in us: hereby know we that we abide in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his spirit.
14 And we have beheld and bear witness that the Father hath sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.
15 Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of 16 God, God abideth in him, and he in God. And we know and have believed the love which God hath [1]in us. God is love; and he that abideth in love abid-
17 eth in God, and God abideth in him. Herein is love made perfect with us, that we may have boldness in the day of judgement; because as he is, even so are 18 we in this world. There is no fear in love: but perfect love casteth out fear, because fear hath punishment; and he that feareth is not made perfect in love.
19 20 We love, because he first loved us. If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen,
21 [2]cannot love God whom he hath not seen. And this commandment have we from him, that he who loveth God love his brother also.

5 Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is begotten of God: and whosoever loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.
2 Hereby we know that we love the children of God,
3 when we love God, and do his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous.
4 For whatsoever is begotten of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that hath overcome
5 the world, even our faith. And who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus
6 is the Son of God? This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not [3]with the water
7 only, but [3]with the water and [3]with the blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the 8 Spirit is the truth. For there are three who bear witness, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and 9 the three agree in one. If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for the witness of God is this, that he hath borne witness con-
10 cerning his Son. He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in him: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he hath not believed in the witness that God hath borne con-
11 cerning his Son. And the witness is this, that God gave unto us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

12 [f]He that hath the Son hath life, and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

13 [u]These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; [z]that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have ‖ in him, that, [v]if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:

15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and [z]he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. [a]There is a sin unto death: [b]I do not say that he shall pray for it.

17 [c]All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death.

18 We know that [d]whosoever is born of God, sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God [e]keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 And we know that we are of God, and [f]the whole world lieth in wickedness.

20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and [g]hath given us an understanding, [h]that we may know him that is true; and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. [i]This is the true God, [k]and eternal life.

21 Little children, [l]keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

12 He that hath the Son hath the life; he that hath not the Son of God hath not the life.

13 These things have I written unto you, that ye may know that ye have eternal life, even unto you that 14 believe on the name of the Son of God. And this is the boldness which we have toward him, that, if we ask anything according to his will, he heareth
15 us: and if we know that he heareth us whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which 16 we have asked of him. If any man see his brother sinning a sin not unto death, [1]he shall ask, and God will give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is [2]a sin unto death: not concerning 17 this do I say that he should make request. All unrighteousness is sin: and there is [2]a sin not unto death.

18 We know that whatsoever is begotten of God sinneth not; but he that was begotten of God keep-
19 eth [3]him, and the evil one toucheth him not. We know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth
20 in the evil one. And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true 21 God, and eternal life. My little children, guard yourselves from idols.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN.

The elect lady exhorted.

THE elder unto the elect lady and her children, [a]whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known [b]the truth;

2 For the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever.

3 [c]Grace †be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, [d]in truth and love.

4 I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children [e]walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee, lady, [f]not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, [g]that we love one another.

6 And [h]this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That [i]as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

7 For [k]many deceivers are entered into the world, [l]who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. [m]This is a deceiver and an antichrist.

8 [n]Look to yourselves, [o]that we lose not those things which we have ‖ wrought, but that we receive a full reward.

9 [p]Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son.

10 If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, [q]neither bid him God speed:

11 For he that biddeth him God speed is a partaker of his evil deeds.

12 [r]Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink: but I trust to come unto you, and speak †face to face, [s]that ‖ our joy may be full.

13 [t]The children of thy elect sister greet thee. Amen.

1 The elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth; and not I only, but also all

3 abideth in us, and it shall be with us for ever: Grace, mercy, peace shall be with us, from God the Father, and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 I rejoice greatly that I have found certain of thy children walking in truth, even as we received com-
5 mandment from the Father. And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote to thee a new commandment, but that which we had from the 6 beginning, that we love one another. And this is love, that we should walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, even as ye heard from 7 beginning, that ye should walk in it. For many deceivers are gone forth into the world, even they that confess not that Jesus Christ cometh in the 8 flesh. This is the deceiver and the antichrist. Look to yourselves, that ye [1]lose not the things which [2]we have wrought, but that ye receive a full reward.
9 Whosoever [3]goeth onward and abideth not in the teaching of Christ, hath not God: he that abideth in the teaching, the same hath both the Father and the 10 Son. If any one cometh unto you, and bringeth not this teaching, receive him not into your house, and 11 give him no greeting: for he that giveth him greeting partaketh in his evil works.

12 Having many things to write unto you, I would not write them with paper and ink: but I hope to come unto you, and to speak face to face, that your 13 joy may be fulfilled. The children of thine elect sister salute thee.

7 on their journey worthily of God: because that for the sake of the Name they went forth, taking nothing

8 of the Gentiles. We therefore ought to welcome such, that we may be fellow-workers with the truth.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF

JUDE.

1 Ju'das, a [1]servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, [2]to them that are called, beloved in God the

2 Father, and kept for Jesus Christ: Mercy unto you and peace and love be multiplied.

3 Beloved, while I was giving all diligence to write unto you of our common salvation, I was constrained to write unto you exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for 4 all delivered unto the saints. For there are certain men crept in privily, even they who were of old set forth unto this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying [3]our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

[1] Gr. bond-servant.
[2] Or, to them that are beloved in God the Father, and kept for Jesus Christ, being called
[3] Or, the only Master, and our Lord Jesus Christ

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that [m]the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of E'gypt, afterward [n]destroyed them that believed not.

6 And [o]the angels which kept not their || first estate, but left their own habitation, [p]he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness [q]unto the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as [r]Sod'om and Go-mor'rah, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after †strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 [s]Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and [t]speak evil of dignities.

9 [u]Yet [u]Mi'chael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Mo'ses, [x]durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, [y]The Lord rebuke thee.

10 [z]But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way [a]of Cain, and [b]ran greedily after the error of Ba'laam for reward, and perished [c]in the gainsaying of Co're.

12 [d]These are spots in your [e]feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: [f]clouds they are without water, [g]carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, [h]plucked up by the roots;

13 [i]Raging waves of the sea, [k]foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, [l]to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

14 And E'noch also, [m]the seventh from Ad'am, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, [n]the Lord cometh with ten thousand of his saints,

15 To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their [o]hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and [p]their mouth speaketh great swelling words, [q]having men's persons in admiration because of advantage.

17 [r]But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ;

18 How that they told you [s]there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

19 These be they [t]who separate themselves, [u]sensual, having not the Spirit.

20 But ye, beloved, [x]building up yourselves on your most holy faith, [y]praying in the Holy Ghost,

21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, [z]looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

22 And of some have compassion, making a difference:

23 And others [a]save with fear, [b]pulling them out of the fire; hating even [c]the garment spotted by the flesh.

24 [d]Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and [e]to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy,

25 [f]To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

5 Now I desire to put you in remembrance, though ye know all things once for all, how that [1]the Lord, having saved a people out of the land of E'gypt,
6 [2]afterward destroyed them that believed not. And angels which kept not their own principality, but left their proper habitation, he hath kept in everlasting bonds under darkness unto the judgement of the 7 great day. Even as Sod'om and Go-mor'rah, and the cities about them, having in like manner with these given themselves over to fornication, and gone after strange flesh, are set forth [3]as an example, suffering
8 the punishment of eternal fire. Yet in like manner these also in their dreamings defile the flesh, and set at nought dominion, and rail at [4]dignities.
9 But Mi'chael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Mo'ses, durst not bring against him a railing judgement, but said,
10 The Lord rebuke thee. But these rail at whatsoever things they know not: and what they understand naturally, like the creatures without reason, in these 11 things are they [5]destroyed. Woe unto them! for they went in the way of Cain, and [6]ran riotously in the error of Ba'laam for hire, and perished in the 12 gainsaying of Ko'rah. These are they who are [7]hidden rocks in your love-feasts when they feast with you, shepherds that without fear feed themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by 13 the roots; wild waves of the sea, foaming out their own [8]shame; wandering stars, for whom the black-
14 ness of darkness hath been reserved for ever. And to these also E'noch, the seventh from Ad'am, prophesied, saying, Behold, the Lord came with [9]ten thou-
15 sands of his holy ones, to execute judgement upon all, and to convict all the ungodly of all their works of ungodliness which they have ungodly wrought, and of all the hard things which ungodly sinners
16 have spoken against him. These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their lusts (and their mouth speaketh great swelling words), shewing respect of persons for the sake of advantage.
17 But ye, beloved, remember ye the words which have been spoken before by the apostles of our 18 Lord Jesus Christ; how that they said to you, In the last time there shall be mockers, walking after [10]their 19 own ungodly lusts. These are they who make sep-
20 arations, [11]sensual, having not the Spirit. But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy 21 faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord
22 Jesus Christ unto eternal life. [12]And on some have 23 mercy, [13]who are in doubt; and some save, snatching them out of the fire; and on some have mercy with fear; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.
24 Now unto him that is able to guard you from stumbling, and to set you before the presence of his 25 glory without blemish in exceeding joy, to the only God our Saviour, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion and power, before all time, and now, and [14]for evermore. Amen.

THE REVELATION
OF
S. JOHN THE DIVINE.

CHAPTER I.
Of the coming of Christ.

THE Revelation of Jesus Christ, [a]which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which [b]must shortly come to pass; and [c]he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:

2 [d]Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things [e]that he saw.

3 [f]Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for [g]the time is at hand.

4 JOHN to the seven churches which are in A'si-a: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him [h]which is, and [i]which was, and which is to come; [k]and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne;

5 And from Jesus Christ, [l]who is the faithful witness, and the [m]firstbegotten of the dead, and [n]the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him [o]that loved us, [p]and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

6 And hath [q]made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; [r]to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

7 [s]Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and [t]they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

8 [u]I am Al'pha and O'me-ga, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, [x]which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

9 I John, who also am your brother, and [y]companion in tribulation, and [z]in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Pat'mos, [a]for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

10 [b]I was in the Spirit on [c]the Lord's day, and heard behind me [d]a great voice, as of a trumpet,

11 Saying, [e]I am Al'pha and O'me-ga, [f]the first and the last: and, What thou seest write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in A'si-a; unto Eph'e-sus, and unto Smyr'na, and unto Per'ga-mos, and unto Thy-a-ti'ra, and unto Sar'dis, and unto Phil-a-del'phi-a, and unto La-od-i-ce'a.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, [g]I saw seven golden candlesticks;

13 [h]And in the midst of the seven candlesticks [i]one like unto the Son of man, [k]clothed with a garment down to the foot, and [l]girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head and [m]his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and [n]his eyes were as a flame of fire;

15 [o]And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and [p]his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 [q]And he had in his right hand seven stars: and [r]out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: [s]and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

17 And [t]when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And [u]he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; [x]I am the first and the last:

18 [y]I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, [z]I am alive for evermore, Amen; and [a]have the keys of hell and of death.

THE REVELATION
S. JOHN THE DIVINE.

1 The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God [1]gave him to shew unto his [2]servants, even the things which must shortly come to pass: and he sent and signified
2 [3]it by his angel unto his servant John; who bare witness of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, even of all things that he saw.
3 Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of the prophecy, and keep the things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

4 John to the seven churches which are in A'si-a: Grace to you and peace, from him which is and which was and [4]which is to come; and from the seven
5 Spirits which are before his throne; and from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loveth us, and [5]loosed us from our sins [6]by 6 his blood; and he made us to be a kingdom, to be priests unto his God and Father; to him be the glory
7 and the dominion [7]for ever and ever. Amen. Behold, he cometh with the clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they which pierced him; and all the tribes of the earth shall mourn over him. Even so, Amen.
8 I am the Al'pha and the O'me-ga, saith [8]the Lord God, [9]which is and which was and [4]which is to come, the Almighty.

9 I John, your brother and partaker with you in the tribulation and kingdom and patience which are in Jesus, was in the isle that is called Pat'mos, for the 10 word of God and the testimony of Jesus. I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me
11 a great voice, as of a trumpet saying, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it to the seven churches; unto Eph'e-sus, and unto Smyr'na, and unto Per'ga-mum, and unto Thy-a-ti'ra, and unto Sar'dis, and 12 unto Phil-a-del'phi-a, and unto La-od-i-ce'a. And I turned to see the voice which spake with me. And having 13 turned I saw seven golden [10]candlesticks; and in the midst of the [10]candlesticks one like unto [11]a son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and 14 girt about at the breasts with a golden girdle. And his head and his hair were white as white wool, white
15 as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire; and his feet like unto burnished brass, as if it had been refined in a furnace; and his voice as the voice
16 of many waters. And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth proceeded a sharp two-edged sword: and his countenance was 17 as the sun shineth in his strength. And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as one dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying, Fear not; I am the first
18 and the last, and the Living one; and I [12]was dead, and behold, I am alive [7]for evermore, and I have the 19 keys of death and of Ha'des. Write therefore the things which thou sawest, and the things which are, and the things which shall come to pass hereafter;
20 the mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest [13]in my right hand, and the seven golden [10]candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven [10]candlesticks are seven churches.

CHAPTER II.

To the churches of Ephesus, &c.

A. D. 96.

UNTO the angel of the church of Eph'e-sus write; These things saith [a]he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, [b]who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;

2 [c]I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and [d]thou hast tried them [e]which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

3 And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast [f]not fainted.

4 Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; [g]or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of [h]the Nic-o-la'i-tans, which I also hate.

7 [i]He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give [k]to eat of [l]the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyr'na, write; These things saith [m]the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive;

9 [n]I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art [o]rich) and I know the blasphemy of [p]them which say they are Jews, and are not, [q]but are the synagogue of Sa'tan.

10 [r]Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: [s]be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee [t]a crown of life.

11 [u]He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of [x]the second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Per'ga-mos write; These things saith [y]he which hath the sharp sword with two edges;

13 [z]I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even [a]where Sa'tan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein An'ti-pas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Sa'tan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of [b]Ba'laam, who taught Ba'lak to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Is'ra-el, [c]to eat things sacrificed unto idols, [d]and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine [e]of the Nic-o-la'i-tans, which thing I hate.

16 Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and [f]will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 [g]He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone [h]a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the angel of the church in Thy-a-ti'ra write; These things saith the Son of God, [i]who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;

19 [k]I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first.

20 Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman [l]Jez'e-bel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants [m]to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space [n]to repent of her fornication; and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the

2 To the angel of the church in Eph'e-sus write;
These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, he that walketh in the midst of the 2 seven golden [1]candlesticks: I know thy works, and thy toil and patience, and that thou canst not bear evil men, and didst try them which call themselves apostles, and they are not, and didst find them false;
3 and thou hast patience and didst bear for my name's
4 sake, and hast not grown weary. But I have this against thee, that thou didst leave thy first love.
5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I come to thee, and will move thy [2]candlestick out of its 6 place, except thou repent. But this thou hast, that thou hatest the works of the Nic-o-la'i-tans, which I

8 And to the angel of the church in Smyr'na write;
These things saith the first and the last, which 9 [4]was dead, and lived again: I know thy tribulation, and thy poverty (but thou art rich), and the [5]blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and they
10 are not, but are a synagogue of Sa'tan. Fear not the things which thou art about to suffer: behold, the devil is about to cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; [6]and ye shall have [7]tribulation ten days. Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give 11 thee the crown of life. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death.
12 And to the angel of the church in Per'ga-mum write;
These things saith he that hath the sharp two-13 edged sword: I know where thou dwellest, even where Sa'tan's throne is: and thou holdest fast my name, and didst not deny my faith, even in the days [8]of An'ti-pas my witness, my faithful one, who was

15 and to commit fornication. So hast thou also some that hold the teaching of the Nic-o-la'i-tans in like 16 manner. Repent therefore; or else I come to thee quickly, and I will make war against them with the 17 sword of my mouth. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches. To him that overcometh, to him will I give of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and upon the stone a new name written, which no one knoweth but he that receiveth it.
18 And to the angel of the church in Thy-a-ti'ra write;
These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like a flame of fire, and his feet are like unto 19 burnished brass: I know thy works, and thy love and faith and ministry and patience, and that thy 20 last works are more than the first. But I have this against thee, that thou sufferest [9]the woman Jez'e-bel, which calleth herself a prophetess; and she teacheth and seduceth my servants to commit fornication, and 21 to eat things sacrificed to idols. And I gave her time that she should repent; and she willeth not to 22 repent of her fornication. Behold, I do cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of [10]her works.
23 And I will kill her children with [11]death; and all the

CHAPTER III.

To the church of Sardis, &c.

AND unto the angel of the church in Sar'dis write; These things saith he ᵃthat hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; ᵇI know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, ᶜand art dead.

2 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 ᵈRemember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and ᵉrepent. ᶠIf therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast ᵍa few names even in Sar'dis which have not ʰdefiled their garments; and they shall walk with me ⁱin white: for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh, ᵏthe same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not ˡblot out his name out of the ᵐbook of life, but ⁿI will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 °He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Phil-a-del'phi-a write; These things saith ᵖhe that is holy, ᵠhe that is true, he that hath ʳthe key of Da'vid, ˢhe that openeth, and no man shutteth; and ᵗshutteth, and no man openeth;

8 ᵘI know thy works: behold, I have set before thee ˣan open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

9 Behold, I will make ʸthem of the synagogue of Sa'tan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, ᶻI will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, ᵃI also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon ᵇall the world, to try them that dwell ᶜupon the earth.

11 Behold, ᵈI come quickly: ᵉhold that fast which thou hast, that no man take ᶠthy crown.

12 Him that overcometh will I make ᵍa pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and ʰI will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is ⁱnew Je-ru'sa-lem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: ᵏand I will write upon him my new name.

13 ˡHe that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

14 And unto the angel of the church ‖of the La-od-i-ce'ans write; ᵐThese things saith the Amen, ⁿthe faithful and true witness, °the beginning of the creation of God;

15 ᵖI know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spew thee out of my mouth.

25 Howbeit that which ye have, hold fast till I come.
26 And he that overcometh, and he that keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give authority over 27 the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of [1]iron, as the vessels of the potter are broken to

A. D. 96.

18 I counsel thee [r]to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and [s]white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.

19 [t]As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

20 Behold, [u]I stand at the door, and knock: [v]if any man hear my voice, and open the door, [w]I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

21 To him that overcometh [x]will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

22 [y]He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAPTER IV.

The vision of a throne.

AFTER this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and [a]the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, [b]Come up hither, [c]and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately [d]I was in the Spirit: and, behold, [e]a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.

3 And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: [f]and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

4 [g]And round about the throne were four and twenty seats; and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, [h]clothed in white raiment; [i]and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded [k]lightnings and thunderings and voices: [l]and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are [m]the seven Spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was [n]a sea of glass like unto crystal: [o]and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before [p]and behind.

7 [q]And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the four beasts had each of them [r]six wings about him; and they were full of eyes [s]within: and †they rest not day and night, saying, [t]Holy, holy, holy, [u]Lord God Almighty, [x]which was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, [y]who liveth for ever and ever,

10 [z]The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, [a]and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, [b]and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

11 [c]Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory, and honour, and power: [d]for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

CHAPTER V.

The book sealed with seven seals.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a [e]book written within and on the back side, [f]sealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 And no man [g]in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, [h]the Lion of the tribe of Ju'da, [i]the Root of Da'vid, hath prevailed to open the book, and [k]to loose the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, and lo, in the midst of the throne, and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood [l]a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns, and [m]seven eyes, which are [n]the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

5 garments; and on their heads crown of gold. And out of the throne proceed lightnings and voices and thunders. And there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of
6 God; and before the throne, as it were a glassy sea like unto crystal; and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, four living creatures full of
7 eyes before and behind. And the first creature was like a lion, and the second creature like a calf, and the third creature had a face as of a man, and the
8 fourth creature was like a flying eagle. And the four living creatures, having each one of them six wings, are full of eyes round about and within: and they have no rest day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord God, the Almighty, which was and which is and 9 [2]which is to come. And when the living creatures shall give glory and honour and thanks to him that sitteth on the throne, to him that liveth [3]for ever and

5 And I saw [4]in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the back,
2 close sealed with seven seals. And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a great voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?
3 And no one in the heaven, or on the earth, or under the earth, was able to open the book, or to look thereon.

7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand [k]of him that sat upon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the book, [l]the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them [m]harps, and golden vials full of ‖ odours, [n]which are the prayers of saints.

9 And [o]they sung a new song, saying, [p]Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: [q]for thou wast slain, and [r]hast redeemed us to God by thy blood [s]out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;

10 [t]And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels [u]round about the throne, and the beasts, and the elders: and the number of them was [x]ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

12 Saying with a loud voice, [y]Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And [z]every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, [a]Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him [b]that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

14 [c]And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him [d]that liveth for ever and ever.

CHAPTER VI.

The opening of the seals.

AND [a]I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, [b]one of the four beasts, saying, Come and see.

2 And I saw, and behold [c]a white horse: [d]and he that sat on him had a bow; [e]and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, [f]I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 [g]And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, [h]I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo [i]a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, ‖ A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and [k]see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, [l]I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 [m]And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and hell followed with him. And power was given ‖ unto them over the fourth part of the earth, [n]to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, [p]and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under [q]the altar [r]the souls of them that were slain [s]for the word of God, and for [t]the testimony which they held:

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, [u]How long, O Lord, [x]holy and true, [y]dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And [z]white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, [a]that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellow servants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

10 and tongue, and people, and nation, and madest them to be unto our God a kingdom and priests; and they 11 reign upon the earth. And I saw, and I heard a voice of many angels round about the throne and the living creatures and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of 12 thousands; saying with a great voice, Worthy is the Lamb that hath been slain to receive the power, and riches, and wisdom, and might, and honour, and glory,
13 and blessing. And every created thing which is in the heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and on the sea, and all things that are in them, heard I saying, Unto him that sitteth on the throne, and unto the Lamb, be the blessing, and the honour, and the glory, and the dominion, [2]for ever and ever.
14 And the four living creatures said, Amen. And the elders fell down and worshipped.

6 And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living crea-
2 tures saying as with a voice of thunder, Come[3]. And I saw, and behold, a white horse, and he that sat thereon had a bow; and there was given unto him a crown: and he came forth conquering, and to conquer.

5 And when he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, Come[3]. And I saw, and behold, a black horse; and he that sat thereon
6 had a balance in his hand. And I heard as it were a voice in the midst of the four living creatures, saying, A [5]measure of wheat for a [6]penny, and three measures of barley for a [6]penny; and the oil and the wine hurt thou not.
7 And when he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature, saying, Come[3].
8 And I saw, and behold, a pale horse: and he that sat upon him, his name was Death; and Ha'des followed with him. And there was given unto them authority over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with famine, and with [7]death, and by the wild beasts of the earth.
9 And when he opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of them that had been slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which
10 they held: and they cried with a great voice, saying, How long, O Master, the holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell
11 on the earth? And there was given them to each one a white robe; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little time, until their fellow-servants also and their brethren, which should be killed even as they were, should [8]be fulfilled.

CHAPTER VII.

The number of the sealed.

AND after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, [a]holding the four winds of the earth, [b]that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.
2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,
3 Saying, [c]Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have [d]sealed the servants of our God [e]in their foreheads.
4 [f]And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed [g]a hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Is'ra-el.
5 Of the tribe of Ju'da were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reu'ben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve shousand.
6 Of the tribe of As'er were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Neph'tha-lim were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Ma-nas'ses were sealed twelve thousand.
7 Of the tribe of Sim'e-on were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Le'vi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Is'sa-char were sealed twelve thousand.
8 Of the tribe of Zab'u-lon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Jo'seph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Ben'ja-min were sealed twelve thousand.
9 After this I beheld, and, lo, [h]a great multitude, which no man could number, [i]of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, [k]clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;
10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, [l]Salvation to our God [m]which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.
11 [n]And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God.
12 [o]Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.
13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in [p]white robes? and whence came they?
14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, [q]These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have [r]washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.
15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall [s]dwell among them.
16 [t]They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; [u]neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.

13 came as blood; and the stars of the heaven fell unto the earth, as a fig tree casteth her unripe figs,

15 their places. And the kings of the earth, and the princes, and the [1]chief captains, and the rich, and the strong, and every bondman and freeman, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the 16 mountains; and they say to the mountains and to the rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath
17 of the Lamb: for the great day of their wrath is come; and who is able to stand?

7 After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that no wind should blow on the earth or on
2 the sea, or upon any tree. And I saw another angel ascend from the sunrising, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a great voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth

Of the tribe of Ben'ja-min were sealed twelve thousand.
9 After these things I saw, and behold, a great multitude, which no man could number, out of every nation, and of all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, arrayed in white robes, and palms in their hands;
10 and they cry with a great voice, saying, Salvation unto our God which sitteth on the throne, and unto 11 the Lamb. And all the angels were standing round about the throne, and about the elders and the four living creatures; and they fell before the throne on 12 their faces, and worshipped God, saying, Amen: [2]Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our 13 God [3]for ever and ever. Amen. And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, These which are arrayed in the white robes, who are they, and 14 whence came they? And I [4]say unto him, My lord, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which come out of the great tribulation, and they washed their robes, and made them white in 15 the blood of the Lamb. Therefore are they before the throne of God; and they serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the 16 throne shall spread his tabernacle over them. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun strike upon them, nor any heat:

CHAPTER VIII.

Seven angels with seven trumpets.

AND [a]when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

2 [b]And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; [c]and to them were given seven trumpets.

3 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should || offer it with [d]the prayers of all saints upon [e]the golden altar which was before the throne.

4 And [f]the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.

5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it || into the earth: and [g]there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, [h]and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first angel sounded, [i]and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast [k]upon the earth: and the third part [l]of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, [m]and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: [n]and the third part of the sea [o]became blood;

9 [p]And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, [q]and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, [r]and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters;

11 [s]And the name of the star is called Wormwood: [t]and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 [u]And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, [x]and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, [y]Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabiters of the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!

CHAPTER IX.

A star falleth from heaven.

AND the fifth angel sounded, [a]and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of [b]the bottomless pit.

2 And he opened the bottomless pit; [c]and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke [d]locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, [e]as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them [f]that they should not hurt [g]the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not [h]the seal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, [i]but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those days [k]shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

17 For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall be their shepherd, and shall guide them unto fountains of waters of life: and God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes.

8 And when he opened the seventh seal, there followed a silence in heaven about the space of half an
2 hour. And I saw the seven angels which stand before God; and there were given unto them seven trumpets.
3 And another angel came and stood [1]over the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should [2]add it unto the prayers of all the saints upon the golden altar which
4 was before the throne. And the smoke of the incense, [3]with the prayers of the saints, went up before
5 God out of the angel's hand. And the angel [4]taketh the censer; and he filled it with the fire of the altar, and cast it [5]upon the earth: and there followed thunders, and voices, and lightnings, and an earthquake.
6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.
7 And the first sounded, and there followed hail and fire, mingled with blood, and they were cast [5]upon the earth: and the third part of the earth was burnt up, and the third part of the trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.
8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood;
9 and there died the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, even they that had life; and the third part of the ships was destroyed.
10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell from heaven a great star, burning as a torch, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the 11 fountains of the waters; and the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.
12 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; that the third part of them should be darkened, and the day should not shine for the third part of it, and the night in like manner.
13 And I saw, and I heard [6]an eagle, flying in mid heaven, saying with a great voice, Woe, woe, woe, for them that dwell on the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, who are yet to sound.

9 And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star from heaven fallen unto the earth: and there was given to
2 him the key of the pit of the abyss. And he opened the pit of the abyss; and there went up a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of
3 the pit. And out of the smoke came forth locusts upon the earth; and power was given them, as the 4 scorpions of the earth have power. And it was said unto them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but only such men as have not the seal of God on their
5 foreheads. And it was given them that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a
6 scorpion, when it striketh a man. And in those days men shall seek death, and shall in no wise find it; and they shall desire to die, and death fleeth from them.

7 And [l]the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; [m]and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, [n]and their faces were as the faces of men.
8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and [o]their teeth were as the teeth of lions.
9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was [p]as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.
10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: [q]and their power was to hurt men five months.
11 [r]And they had a king over them, which is [s]the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is A-bad'don, but in the Greek tongue hath his name ||A-pol'ly-on.
12 [t]One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.
13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,
14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound [u]in the great river Eu-phra'tes.
15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared || for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.
16 And [x]the number of the army [y]of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: [z]and I heard the number of them.
17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: [a]and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.
18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.
19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: [b]for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.
20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues [c]yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship [d]devils, [e]and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:
21 Neither repented they of their murders, [f]nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

CHAPTER X.

A mighty angel with a book.

AND I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven clothed with a cloud: [a]and a rainbow was upon his head, and [b]his face was as it were the sun, and [c]his feet as pillars of fire:
2 And he had in his hand a little book open: [d]and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,
3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, [e]seven thunders uttered their voices.
4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, [f]Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.
5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth [g]lifted up his hand to heaven,
6 And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, [h]who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, [i]that there should be time no longer:
7 But [k]in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.
8 And [l]the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go, and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

A. D. 96.

7 And the [1]shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared for war; and upon their heads as it were crowns like unto gold, and their faces were as men's
8 faces. And they had hair as the hair of women, and 9 their teeth were as the teeth of lions. And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots, of 10 many horses rushing to war. And they have tails like unto scorpions, and stings; and in their tails is 11 their power to hurt men five months. They have over them as king the angel of the abyss: his name in Hebrew is A-bad'don, and in the Greek tongue he hath the name [2]A-pol'ly-on.
12 The first Woe is past: behold, there come yet two Woes hereafter.
13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard [3]a voice from the horns of the golden altar which is before
14 God, one saying to the sixth angel, which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound at 15 the great river Eu-phra'tes. And the four angels were loosed, which had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, that they should kill the third
16 part of men. And the number of the armies of the horsemen was twice ten thousand times ten thou-
17 sand: I heard the number of them. And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates as of fire and of hyacinth and of brimstone: and the heads of the horses are as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths proceedeth
18 fire and smoke and brimstone. By these three plagues was the third part of men killed, by the fire and the smoke and the brimstone, which proceeded out of 19 their mouths. For the power of the horses is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails are like unto serpents, and have heads; and with them they do
20 hurt. And the rest of mankind, which were not killed with these plagues, repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship [4]devils, and the idols of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood; which can neither see, nor 21 hear, nor walk: and they repented not of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

10 And I saw another strong angel coming down out of heaven, arrayed with a cloud; and the rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as the sun, and
2 his feet as pillars of fire; and he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the
3 sea, and his left upon the earth; and he cried with a great voice, as a lion roareth: and when he cried, the 4 seven thunders uttered their voices. And when the seven thunders uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying, Seal up the things which the seven thunders uttered, and
5 write them not. And the angel which I saw standing upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his right
6 hand to heaven, and sware by him that liveth [5]for ever and ever, who created the heaven and the things that are therein, and the earth and the things that are therein, [6]and the sea and the things that are therein,
7 that there shall be [7]time no longer: but in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then is finished the mystery of God, according to the good tidings which he declared to his servants
8 the prophets. And the voice which I heard from heaven, I heard it again speaking with me, and saying, Go, take the book which is open in the hand of the angel that standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; [n]and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, [o]my belly was bitter.

11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

CHAPTER XI.

The two witnesses prophesy.

AND there was given me [a]a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, [b]Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But [c]the court which is without the temple †leave out, and measure it not; [d]for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they [e]tread under foot [f]forty and two months.

3 And ‖I will give power unto my two [g]witnesses, [h]and they shall prophesy [i]a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are the [k]two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if any man will hurt them, [l]fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: [m]and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

6 These [n]have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and [o]have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they [p]shall have finished their testimony, [q]the beast that ascendeth [r]out of the bottomless pit [s]shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of [t]the great city, which spiritually is called Sod'om and E'gypt, [u]where also our Lord was crucified.

9 [x]And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and a half, [y]and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

10 [z]And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, [a]and shall send gifts one to another; [b]because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

11 [c]And after three days and a half [d]the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heaven, saying unto them, Come up hither. [e]And they ascended up to heaven [f]in a cloud; [g]and their enemies beheld them.

13 And the same hour [h]was there a great earthquake, [i]and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain †of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, [k]and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 [l]The second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

15 And [m]the seventh angel sounded; [n]and there were great voices in heaven, saying, [o]The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; [p]and he shall reign for ever and ever.

16 And [q]the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God,

17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, [r]which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, [s]and hast reigned.

18 [t]And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, [u]and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, [x]small and great: [y]and shouldest destroy them which ‖destroy the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, saying unto him that he should give me the little book. And he saith unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but in thy mouth it shall be sweet as 10 honey. And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and when I had eaten it, my belly was 11 made bitter. And they say unto me, Thou must prophesy again [1]over many peoples and nations and tongues and kings.

11 And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: [2]and one said, Rise, and measure the temple of God,
2 and the altar, and them that worship therein. And the court which is without the temple [3]leave without, and measure it not; for it hath been given unto the nations: and the holy city shall they tread under
3 foot forty and two months. And I will give unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sack-
4 cloth. These are the two olive trees and the two [4]candlesticks, standing before the Lord of the earth.
5 And if any man desireth to hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man shall desire to hurt them, in this manner
6 must he be killed. These have the power to shut the heaven, that it rain not during the days of their prophecy: and they have power over the waters to turn them into blood, and to smite the earth with
7 every plague, as often as they shall desire. And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that cometh up out of the abyss shall make war with
8 them, and overcome them, and kill them. And their [5]dead bodies lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sod'om and E'gypt, where also their
9 Lord was crucified. And from among the peoples and tribes and tongues and nations do men look upon their [5]dead bodies three days and a half, and suffer
10 not their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb. And they that dwell on the earth rejoice over them, and make merry; and they shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwell
11 on the earth. And after the three days and a half the breath of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them
12 which beheld them. And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they went up into heaven in the cloud; and their 13 enemies beheld them. And in that hour there was a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell; and there were killed in the earthquake [6]seven thousand persons: and the rest were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.
14 The second Woe is past: behold, the third Woe cometh quickly.
15 And the seventh angel sounded; and there followed great voices in heaven, and they said, The kingdom of the world is become the kingdom of our Lord, and of his Christ: and he shall reign [7]for ever and ever.
16 And the four and twenty elders, which sit before God on their thrones, fell upon their faces, and worshipped
17 God, saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God, the Almighty, which art and which wast; because thou 18 hast taken thy great power, and didst reign. And the nations were wroth, and thy wrath came, and the time of the dead to be judged, and the time to give their reward to thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and to them that fear thy name, the small and the great; and to destroy them that destroy the earth.

CHAPTER XII.

The great red dragon.

AND there appeared a great ‖ wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:

2 And she being with child cried, [a]travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

3 And there appeared another ‖ wonder in heaven; and behold [b]a great red dragon, [c]having seven heads and ten horns, [d]and seven crowns upon his heads.

4 And [e]his tail drew the third part [f]of the stars of heaven, [g]and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood [h]before the woman which was ready to be delivered [i]for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

5 And she brought forth a man child, [k]who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

6 And [l]the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there [m]a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

7 And there was war in heaven: [n]Michael and his angels fought [o]against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,

8 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And [p]the great dragon was cast out, [q]that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, [r]which deceiveth the whole world: [s]he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, [t]Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, [u]which accused them before our God day and night.

11 And [x]they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; [y]and they loved not their lives unto the death.

12 Therefore [z]rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. [a]Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, [b]because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted [c]the woman which brought forth the man child.

14 [d]And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, [e]that she might fly [f]into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished [g]for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

15 And the serpent [h]cast out of his mouth water as a flood, after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 And the earth helped the woman; and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, [i]and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, [k]which keep the commandments of God, and have [l]the testimony of Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER XIII.

The beast with seven heads.

AND I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw [a]a beast rise up out of the sea, [b]having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the ‖ name of blasphemy.

2 [c]And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, [d]and his feet were as the feet of a bear, [e]and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and [f]the dragon gave him his power, [g]and his seat, [h]and great authority.

A. D. 96.

19 And there was opened the temple of God that is in heaven; and there was seen in his temple the ark of his [1]covenant; and there followed lightnings, and voices, and thunders, and an earthquake, and great hail.

[1] Or, testament

12 And a great sign was seen in heaven; a woman arrayed with the sun, and the moon under her feet,
2 and upon her head a crown of twelve stars; and she was with child: and she crieth out, travailing in birth,
3 and in pain to be delivered. And there was seen another sign in heaven; and behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his heads
4 seven diadems. And his tail draweth the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was about to be delivered, that when she was delivered,
5 he might devour her child. And she was delivered of a son, a man child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto 6 God, and unto his throne. And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that there they may nourish her a thousand two hundred and threescore days.
7 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels going forth to war with the dragon: and the 8 dragon warred and his angels; and they prevailed not, neither was their place found any more in heaven.
9 And the great dragon was cast down, the old serpent, he that is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole [2]world; he was cast down to the earth,
10 and his angels were cast down with him. And I heard a great voice in heaven, saying, [3]Now is come the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accuseth them
11 before our God day and night. And they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb, and because of the word of their testimony; and they loved not 12 their life even unto death. Therefore rejoice, O heavens, and ye that [4]dwell in them. Woe for the earth and for the sea: because the devil is gone down unto you, having great wrath, knowing that he hath but a short time.
13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast down to the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought 14 forth the man child. And there were given to the woman the two wings of the great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness unto her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, 15 from the face of the serpent. And the serpent cast out of his mouth after the woman water as a river, that he might cause her to be carried away by the 16 stream. And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the river
17 which the dragon cast out of his mouth. And the dragon waxed wroth with the woman, and went away to make war with the rest of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and hold the testimony
13 of Jesus: and he stood upon the sand of the sea.

And I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads, and on his horns ten diadems, and upon his heads names of blasphemy.
2 And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his throne, and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads [t]as it were †wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and [k]all the world wondered after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast; and they worshipped the beast, saying, [l]Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

5 And there was given unto him [m]a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him ‖to continue [n]forty and two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, [o]and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given unto him [p]to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: [q]and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, [r]whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain [s]from the foundation of the world.

9 [t]If any man have an ear, let him hear.

10 [u]He that leadeth into captivity, shall go into captivity: [x]he that killeth with the sword, must be killed with the sword. [y]Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

11 And I beheld another beast [z]coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, [a]whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And [b]he doeth great wonders, [c]so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

14 And [d]deceiveth them that dwell on the earth [e]by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, [f]and did live.

15 And he had power to give †life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, [g]and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, [h]†to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or [i]the name of the beast, [k]or the number of his name.

18 [l]Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count [m]the number of the beast: [n]for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.

CHAPTER XIV.

The Lamb and his company.

AND I looked, and, lo, [a]a Lamb stood on the mount Si'on, and with him [b]a hundred forty and four thousand [c]having his Father's name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, [d]as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of [e]harpers harping with their harps:

3 And [f]they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song [g]but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are [h]they [i]which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These †[k]were redeemed from among men, [l]being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.

5 And [m]in their mouth was found no guile: for [n]they are without fault before the throne of God.

3 And I saw one of his heads as though it had been [1]smitten unto death; and his death-stroke was healed:
4 and the whole earth wondered after the beast; and they worshipped the dragon, because he gave his authority unto the beast; and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? and who is
5 able to war with him? and there was given to him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and there was given to him authority [2]to continue forty and
6 two months. And he opened his mouth for blasphemies against God, to blaspheme his name, and his taber-
7 nacle, even them that [3]dwell in the heaven. [4]And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and there was given to him authority over every tribe and people and tongue and nation.
8 And all that dwell on the earth shall worship him, every one whose name hath not been [5]written in the book of life of the Lamb that hath been slain from the 9 foundation of the world. If any man hath an ear,
10 let him hear. [6]If any man [7]is for captivity, into captivity he goeth: if any man shall kill with the sword, with the sword must he be killed. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.
11 And I saw another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like unto a lamb, and 12 he spake as a dragon. And he exerciseth all the authority of the first beast in his sight. And he maketh the earth and them that dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose death-stroke was 13 healed. And he doeth great signs, that he should even make fire to come down out of heaven upon 14 the earth in the sight of men. And he deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by reason of the signs which it was given him to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, who hath the 15 stroke of the sword, and lived. And it was given unto him to give breath to it, even to the image of the beast, [8]that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as should not worship the 16 image of the beast should be killed. And he causeth all, the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free and the bond, that there be given them a mark on their right hand, or upon their fore-
17 head; and that no man should be able to buy or to sell, save he that hath the mark, even the name of the 18 beast or the number of his name. Here is wisdom. He that hath understanding, let him count the number of the beast; for it is the number of a man: and his number is [9]Six hundred and sixty and six.

14 And I saw, and behold, the Lamb standing on the mount Zi'on, and with him a hundred and forty and four thousand, having his name, and the name of his
2 Father, written on their foreheads. And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and the voice which I heard was as the voice of harpers harping with their
3 harps: and they sing as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures and the elders: and no man could learn the song save the hundred and forty and four thousand, even they that
4 had been purchased out of the earth. These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were purchased from among men, to be the firstfruits unto God and unto the Lamb. And in their mouth was found no
5 lie: they are without blemish.

6 And I saw another angel [o]fly in the midst of heaven, [p]having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, [q]and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,

7 Saying with a loud voice, [r]Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: [s]and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

8 And there followed another angel, saying, [t]Babylon is fallen, is fallen, [u]that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, [x]If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same [y]shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is [z]poured out without mixture into [a]the cup of his indignation; and [b]he shall be tormented with [c]fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11 And [d]the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

12 [e]Here is the patience of the saints: [f]here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, [g]Blessed are the dead [h]which die in the Lord ‖ from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, [i]that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat [k]like unto the Son of man, [l]having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel [m]came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, [n]Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest [o]of the earth is ‖ ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, [p]which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, [q]Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into [r]the great winepress of the wrath of God.

20 And [s]the winepress was trodden [t]without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, [u]even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAPTER XV.

The seven last plagues.

AND [a]I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, [b]seven angels having the seven last plagues; [c]for in them is filled up the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were [d]a sea of glass [e]mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, [f]and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, [g]having the harps of God.

3 And they sing [h]the song of Mo'ses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, [i]Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; [k]just and true are thy ways, thou King of ‖ saints.

4 [l]Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for [m]all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

A. D. 96.

6 And I saw another angel flying in mid heaven, having an eternal gospel to proclaim unto them that [1]dwell on the earth, and unto every nation and tribe
7 and tongue and people; and he saith with a great voice, Fear God, and give him glory; for the hour of his judgement is come: and worship him that made the heaven and the earth and sea and fountains of waters.

8 And another, a second angel, followed, saying, Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, which hath made all the nations to drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a great voice, If any man worshippeth the beast and his image, and receiveth a mark on his forehead,
10 or upon his hand, he also shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is [2]prepared unmixed in the cup of his anger; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels,
11 and in the presence of the Lamb: and the smoke of their torment goeth up [3]for ever and ever; and they have no rest day and night, they that worship the beast and his image, and whoso receiveth the mark
12 of his name. Here is the patience of the saints, they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying, Write, Blessed are the dead which die [4]in the Lord from henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours: for their works follow with them.

14 And I saw, and behold, a white cloud; and on the cloud I saw one sitting like unto [5]a son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a 15 sharp sickle. And another angel came out from the temple, crying with a great voice to him that sat on the cloud, Send forth thy sickle, and reap: for the hour to reap is come; for the harvest of the earth is 16 [6]over-ripe. And he that sat on the cloud cast his sickle upon the earth; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out from the temple which 18 is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. And another angel came out from the altar, he that hath power over fire; and he called with a great voice to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Send forth thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the
19 earth; for her grapes are fully ripe. And the angel cast his sickle into the earth, and gathered the [7]vintage of the earth, and cast it into the winepress, the 20 great winepress, of the wrath of God. And the winepress was trodden without the city, and there came out blood from the winepress, even unto the bridles of the horses, as far as a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

15 And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels having seven plagues, which are the last, for in them is finished the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were a glassy sea mingled with fire; and them that come victorious from the beast, and from his image, and from the number of his name, standing [8]by the glassy sea, having harps of God.
3 And they sing the song of Mo'ses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, O Lord God, the Almighty; righteous and true are thy ways, thou King of the 4 [9]ages. Who shall not fear, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy; for all the nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy righteous acts have been made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and, behold, [a]the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:
6 [c]And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, [p]clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.
7 [q]And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, [r]who liveth for ever and ever.
8 And [s]the temple was filled with smoke [t]from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

CHAPTER XVI.

Of the vials full of wrath.

AND I heard a great voice out of the temple, saying [a]to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials [b]of the wrath of God upon the earth.
2 And the first went, and poured out his vial [c]upon the earth; and [d]there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men [e]which had the mark of the beast, and upon them [f]which worshipped his image.
3 And the second angel poured out his vial [g]upon the sea; and [h]it became as the blood of a dead man; [i]and every living soul died in the sea.
4 And the third angel poured out his vial [k]upon the rivers and fountains of waters; [l]and they became blood.
5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, [m]Thou art righteous, O Lord, [n]which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus.
6 For [o]they have shed the blood [p]of saints and prophets, [q]and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.
7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, [r]Lord God Almighty, [s]true and righteous are thy judgments.
8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial [t]upon the sun; [u]and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.
9 And men were ‖ scorched with great heat, and [x]blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: [y]and they repented not [z]to give him glory.
10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial [a]upon the seat of the beast; [b]and his kingdom was full of darkness; [c]and they gnawed their tongues for pain,
11 And [d]blasphemed the God of heaven, because of their pains and [e]their sores, [f]and repented not of their deeds.
12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial [g]upon the great river Eu-phra'tes; [h]and the water thereof was dried up, [i]that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.
13 And I saw three unclean [k]spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of [l]the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of [m]the false prophet.
14 [n]For they are the spirits of devils, [o]working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth, [p]and of the whole world, to gather them to [q]the battle of that great day of God Almighty.
15 [r]Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, [s]lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.
16 [t]And he gathered them together into a place called in the He'brew tongue Ar-ma-ged'don.
17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, [u]It is done.
18 And [x]there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; [y]and there was a great earthquake, [z]such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.
19 And [a]the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Bab'y-lon [b]came in remembrance before God, [c]to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

A. D. 96.

5 And after these things I saw, and the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:
6 and there came out from the temple the seven angels that had the seven plagues, arrayed [1]with precious stone, pure and bright, and girt about their breasts
7 with golden girdles. And one of the four living creatures gave unto the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who liveth [2]for ever
8 and ever. And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and none was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels should be finished.

16 And I heard a great voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, Go ye, and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God into the earth.
2 And the first went, and poured out his bowl into the earth; and [3]it became a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and which worshipped his image.
3 And the second poured out his bowl into the sea; and [3]it became blood as of a dead man; and every [4]living soul died, even the things that were in the sea.
4 And the third poured out his bowl into the rivers and the fountains of the waters; [5]and [3]it became
5 blood. And I heard the angel of the waters saying, Righteous art thou, which art and which wast, thou
6 Holy One, because thou didst thus [6]judge: for they poured out the blood of saints and prophets, and blood hast thou given them to drink: they are worthy.
7 And I heard the altar saying, Yea, O Lord God, the Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgements.
8 And the fourth poured out his bowl upon the sun; and it was given unto [7]it to scorch men with fire.
9 And men were scorched with great heat: and they blasphemed the name of the God which hath the power over these plagues; and they repented not to give him glory.
10 And the fifth poured out his bowl upon the throne of the beast; and his kingdom was darkened; and 11 they gnawed their tongues for pain, and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores; and they repented not of their works.
12 And the sixth poured out his bowl upon the great river, the river Eu-phra'tes; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way might be made ready for the 13 kings that come from the sunrising. And I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, as it were frogs:
14 for they are spirits of [8]devils, working signs; which go forth [9]unto the kings of the whole [10]world, to gather them together unto the war of the great day
15 of God, the Almighty. (Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.)
16 And they gathered them together into the place which is called in He'brew Har-Ma-ge'don.
17 And the seventh poured out his bowl upon the air; and there came forth a great voice out of the temple,
18 from the throne, saying, It is done: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunders; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since [11]there were men upon the earth, so great an earthquake, so mighty.
19 And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and Babylon the great was remembered in the sight of God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

CHAPTER XVII.

The mystery of Babylon.

AND there came [a]one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; [b]I will shew unto thee the judgment of [c]the great whore [d]that sitteth upon many waters;

2 [e]With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and [f]the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the spirit [g]into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit [h]upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of [i]names of blasphemy, [k]having seven heads and [l]ten horns.

4 And the woman [m]was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, [n]and †decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, [o]having a golden cup in her hand [p]full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

5 And upon her forehead was a name written, [q]MYSTERY, BABYLON [r]THE GREAT, [s]THE MOTHER OF ‖ HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw [t]the woman drunken [u]with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of [x]the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and [y]shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and [z]go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth [a]shall wonder, [b]whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And [c]here is the mind which hath wisdom. [d]The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and [e]goeth into perdition.

12 And [f]the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 [g]These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: [h]for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: [i]and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And he saith unto me, [k]The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, [l]are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, [m]these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate [n]and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and [o]burn her with fire.

17 [p]For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, [q]until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest [r]is that great city, [s]which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

CHAPTER XVIII.

The fall of Babylon.

AND [a]after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; [b]and the earth was lightened with his glory.

20 And every island fled away, and the mountains were 21 not found. And great hail, every stone about the weight of a talent, cometh down out of heaven upon men: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof is exceeding great.

17 And there came one of the seven angels that had the seven bowls, and spake with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the judgement of the great
2 harlot that sitteth upon many waters; with whom the kings of the earth committed fornication, and they that dwell in the earth were made drunken with the 3 wine of her fornication. And he carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness: and I saw a woman sitting upon a scarlet-coloured beast, [1]full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.
4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and [2]decked with gold and precious stone and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations,
5 [3]even the unclean things of her fornication, and upon her forehead a name written, [4]MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE HARLOTS AND OF THE 6 ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the [5]martyrs of Jesus. And when I saw
7 her, I wondered with a great wonder. And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou wonder? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and the 8 ten horns. The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and is about to come up out of the abyss, [6]and to go into perdition. And they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, they whose name hath not been written [7]in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast, how that he
9 was, and is not, and [8]shall come. Here is the [9]mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven 10 mountains, on which the woman sitteth: and [10]they are seven kings; the five are fallen, the one is, the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must 11 continue a little while. And the beast that was, and is not, is himself also an eighth, and is of the seven;
12 and he goeth into perdition. And the ten horns that thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but they receive authority as kings,
13 with the beast, for one hour. These have one mind, and they give their power and authority unto the 14 beast. These shall war against the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them, for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings; and they also shall overcome that 15 are with him, called and chosen and faithful. And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the harlot sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes,
16 and nations, and tongues. And the ten horns which thou sawest, and the beast, these shall hate the harlot, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat
17 her flesh, and shall burn her utterly with fire. For God did put in their hearts to do his mind, and to come to one mind, and to give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God should be ac-
18 complished. And the woman whom thou sawest is the great city, which [11]reigneth over the kings of the earth.

18 After these things I saw another angel coming down out of heaven, having great authority; and the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, [c]Bab'y-lon the great is fallen, is fallen, and [d]is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and [e]a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations [f]have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, [g]and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the ||abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, [h]Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 [i]For her sins have reached unto heaven, and [k]God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 [l]Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: [m]in the cup which she hath filled, [n]fill to her double.

7 [o]How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a [p]queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come [q]in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and [r]she shall be utterly burned with fire: [s]for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

9 And [t]the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, [u]shall bewail her, and lament for her, [x]when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, [y]Alas, alas, that great city Bab'y-lon, that mighty city! [z]for in one hour is thy judgment come.

11 And [a]the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:

12 [b]The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all ||thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

13 And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and ||slaves, and [c]souls of men.

14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.

15 [d]The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off, for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, [e]that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

17 [f]For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And [g]every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, 18 [h]And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, [i]What city is like unto this great city!

19 And [k]they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! [l]for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 [m]Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for [n]God hath avenged you on her.

21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, [o]Thus with violence shall that great city Bab'y-lon be thrown down, and [p]shall be found no more at all.

22 [q]And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found

2 And he cried with a mighty voice, saying, Fallen, fallen is Bab'y-lon the great, and is become a habitation of [1]devils, and a [2]hold of every unclean spirit,
3 and a [2]hold of every unclean and hateful bird. For [3]by [4]the wine of the wrath of her fornication all the nations are fallen; and the kings of the earth committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth waxed rich by the power of her [5]wantonness.
4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come forth, my people, out of her, that ye have no fellowship with her sins, and that ye receive not of 5 her plagues: for her sins [6]have reached even unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.
6 Render unto her even as she rendered, and double unto her the double according to her works: in the cup which she mingled, mingle unto her double.
7 How much soever she glorified herself, and waxed [7]wanton, so much give her of torment and mourning: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no

16 of her torment, weeping and mourning; saying, Woe, woe, the great city, she that was arrayed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, and [14]decked with gold and 17 precious stone and pearl! for in one hour so great riches is made desolate. And every shipmaster, and every one that saileth any whither, and mariners, and as many as [15]gain their living by sea, stood afar off,
18 and cried out as they looked upon the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like the great city?
19 And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying, Woe, woe, the great city, wherein were made rich all that had their ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour
20 is she made desolate. Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye saints, and ye apostles, and ye prophets; for God hath judged your judgement on her.
21 And [16]a strong angel took up a stone as it were a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with a mighty fall shall Bab'y-lon, the great city, be
22 cast down, and shall be found no more at all. And the voice of harpers and minstrels and flute-players and trumpeters shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, [17]of whatsoever craft, shall be found

CHAPTER XIX.

The marriage of the lamb.

AND after these things [a]I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia: [b]Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:

2 For [c]true and righteous are his judgments; for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and [d]hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Alleluia. And [e]her smoke rose up for ever and ever.

4 And [f]the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, [g]Amen; Alleluia.

5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, [h]Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, [i]both small and great.

6 [k]And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for [l]the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for [m]the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

8 And [n]to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and ‖ white: [o]for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, [p]Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, [q]These are the true sayings of God.

10 And [r]I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, [s]See thou do it not: I am thy fellow servant, and of thy brethren [t]that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

11 [u]And I saw heaven opened, and behold [x]a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called [y]Faithful and True, and [z]in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

12 [a]His eyes were as a flame of fire, [b]and on his head were many crowns; [c]and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself.

13 [d]And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called [e]The Word of God.

14 [f]And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, [g]clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

15 And [h]out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and [i]he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and [k]he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

16 And [l]he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, [m]KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying [n]to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, [o]Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

18 [p]That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 After these things I heard as it were a great voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, Hallelujah; Salvation, and glory, and power, belong to our God;
2 for true and righteous are his judgements; for he hath judged the great harlot, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and he hath avenged the
3 blood of his servants at her hand. And a second time they [1]say, Hallelujah. And her smoke goeth

6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunders, saying, Hallelujah: for

CHAPTER XX.

The first and last resurrection.

AND I saw an angel come down from heaven, [a]having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on [b]the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Sa'tan, and bound him a thousand years,

3 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and [d]set a seal upon him, [e]that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled; and after that he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw [f]thrones, and they sat upon them, and [g]judgment was given unto them: and I saw [h]the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and [i]which had not worshipped the beast, [k]neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and [l]reigned with Christ a thousand years.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such [m]the second death hath no power, but they shall be [n]priests of God and of Christ, [o]and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, [p]Sa'tan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall go out [q]to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, [r]Gog and Ma'gog, [s]to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 [t]And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

10 [u]And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, [x]where the beast and the false prophet are, and [y]shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face [z]the earth and the heaven fled away; [a]and there was found no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, [b]small and great, stand before God; [c]and the books were opened: and another [d]book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, [e]according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and [f]death and ||hell delivered up the dead which were in them: [g]and they were judged every man according to their works.

14 And [h]death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. [i]This is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life [k]was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAPTER XXI.

New Jerusalem described.

AND [a]I saw a new heaven and a new earth: [b]for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw [c]the holy city, new Je-ru'sa-lem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared [d]as a bride adorned for her husband.

their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat upon the horse, and against his army.

20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought the signs in his sight, wherewith he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image: they twain were cast alive into the lake of fire that 21 burneth with brimstone: and the rest were killed with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, even the sword which came forth out of his mouth: and all the birds were filled with their flesh.

20 And I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key of the abyss and a great chain [1]in
2 his hand. And he laid hold on the dragon, the old serpent, which is the Devil and Sa'tan, and bound
3 him for a thousand years, and cast him into the abyss, and shut it, and sealed it over him, that he should deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years should be finished: after this he must be loosed for a little time.

4 And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgement was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus, and for the word of God, and such as worshipped not the beast, neither his image, and received not the mark upon their forehead and upon their hand; and they lived, and reigned with Christ a thousand
5 years. The rest of the dead lived not until the thousand years should be finished. This is the first 6 resurrection. Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: over these the second death hath no [2]power; but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him [3]a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are finished, Sa'tan
8 shall be loosed out of his prison, and shall come forth to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Ma'gog, to gather them together to the war: the number of whom is 9 as the sand of the sea. And they went up over the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came
10 down [4]out of heaven, and devoured them. And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where are also the beast and the false prophet; and they shall be tormented day and night [5]for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat upon it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.
12 And I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne; and books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of the things which were written in the books, according to their works.
13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and Ha'des gave up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according 14 to their works. And death and Ha'des were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death, even 15 the lake of fire. And if any was not found written in the book of life, he was cast into the lake of fire.

21 And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth are passed away;
2 and the sea is no more. And I saw [6]the holy city, new Je-ru'sa-lem, coming down out of heaven from God, made ready as a bride adorned for her husband.

4 [f]And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; [g]and there shall be no more death, [h]neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

5 And [i]he that sat upon the throne said, [k]Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for [l]these words are true and faithful.

6 And he said unto me, [m]It is done. [n]I am Al'pha and O'me-ga, the beginning and the end. [o]I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

7 He that overcometh shall inherit ‖all things; and [p]I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

8 [q]But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in [r]the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

9 And there came unto me one of [s]the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee [t]the bride, the Lamb's wife.

10 And he carried me away [u]in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me [x]that great city, the holy Je-ru'sa-lem, descending out of heaven from God,

11 [y]Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;

12 And had a wall great and high, and had [z]twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Is'ra-el:

13 [a]On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and [b]in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me [c]had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth; and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, a hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 [d]And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;

20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolyte; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl; [e]and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

22 [f]And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

23 [g]And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

24 [h]And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

25 [i]And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for [k]there shall be no night there.

3 And I heard a great voice out of the throne saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he shall [1]dwell with them, and they shall be his peoples, and God himself shall be with them, [2]and be their 4 God: and he shall wipe away every tear from their eyes; and death shall be no more; neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain, any more: the first 5 things are passed away. And he that sitteth on the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he saith, [3]Write: for these words are faithful and 6 true. And he said unto me, They are come to pass. I am the Al'pha and the O'me-ga, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the 7 fountain of the water of life freely. He that overcometh shall inherit these things; and I will be his 8 God, and he shall be my son. But for the fearful, and unbelieving, and abominable, and murderers, and fornicators, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, their part shall be in the lake that burneth with fire and brimstone; which is the second death.

9 And there came one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls, who were laden with the seven last plagues; and he spake with me, saying, Come hither, 10 I will shew thee the bride, the wife of the Lamb. And he carried me away in the Spirit to a mountain great and high, and shewed me the holy city Je-ru'sa-lem, 11 coming down out of heaven from God, having the glory of God: her [4]light was like unto a stone most precious, as it were a jasper stone, clear as crystal: 12 having a wall great and high; having twelve [5]gates, and at the [5]gates twelve angels; and names written thereon which are the names of the twelve tribes of 13 the children of Is'ra-el: on the east were three [5]gates; and on the north three [5]gates; and on the south three 14 [5]gates; and on the west three [5]gates. And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them twelve 15 names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. And he that spake with me had for a measure a golden reed to measure the city, and the [5]gates thereof, and the 16 wall thereof. And the city lieth foursquare, and the length thereof is as great as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs: the length and the breadth and the height 17 thereof are equal. And he measured the wall thereof, a hundred and forty and four cubits, according to 18 the measure of a man, that is, of an angel. And the building of the wall thereof was jasper: and the city 19 was pure gold, like unto pure glass. The foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, [6]sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the 20 fourth, emerald; the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprase; the eleventh, 21 [7]jacinth; the twelfth, amethyst. And the twelve [5]gates were twelve pearls; each one of the several [5]gates was of one pearl: and the street of the city 22 was pure gold, [8]as it were transparent glass. And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God the Almighty, and the Lamb, are the temple thereof. 23 And the city hath no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine upon it: for the glory of God did lighten it, [9]and the lamp thereof is the Lamb. 24 And the nations shall walk [10]amidst the light thereof: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory 25 into it. And the [5]gates thereof shall in no wise be shut by day (for there shall be no night there):

26 [1]And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

27 And [m]there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's [n]book of life.

CHAPTER XXII.

The river and tree of life.

AND he shewed me [a]a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

2 [b]In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there [c]the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were [d]for the healing of the nations.

3 And [e]there shall be no more curse: [f]but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him:

4 And [g]they shall see his face; and [h]his name shall be in their foreheads.

5 [i]And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for [k]the Lord God giveth them light: [l]and they shall reign for ever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, [m]These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets [n]sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

7 [o]Behold, I come quickly: [p]blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, [q]I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, [r]See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow servant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

10 [s]And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: [t]for the time is at hand.

11 [u]He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 [x]And, behold, I come quickly; and [y]my reward is with me, [z]to give every man according as his work shall be.

13 [a]I am Al'pha and O'me-ga, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14 [b]Blessed are they that do his commandments that they may have right [c]to the tree of life, [d]and may enter in through the gates into the city.

15 For [e]without are [f]dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.

16 [g]I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. [h]I am the root and the offspring of Da'vid, and [i]the bright and morning star.

17 And the Spirit and [k]the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. [l]And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

18 For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, [m]If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, [n]God shall take away his part ‖ out of the book of life, and out of [o]the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

20 He which testifieth these things saith, [p]Surely I come quickly: [q]Amen. [r]Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

21 [s]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

RECORDED AT THEIR DESIRE.

SEE PREFACE TO NEW TESTAMENT.

CLASSES OF PASSAGES.

I. Strike out "S." (i. e. saint) from the title of the Gospels and from the heading of the pages.

II. Strike out "the Apostle" from the title of the Pauline Epistles, and "of Paul the Apostle" from the title of the Epistle to the Hebrews; strike out the word "General" from the title of the Epistles of James, Peter, 1 John, and Jude; and let the title of the Revelation run "The Revelation of John."

III. For "Holy Ghost" adopt uniformly the rendering "Holy Spirit."

IV. At the word "worship" in Matt. ii. 2, etc., add the marginal note "The Greek word denotes an act of reverence, whether paid to man (see chap. xviii. 26) or to God (see chap. iv. 10)."

V. Put into the text uniformly the marginal rendering "through" in place of "by" when it relates to prophecy, viz. in Matt. ii. 5, 17, 23; iii. 3; iv. 14; viii. 17; xii. 17; xiii. 35; xxi. 4; xxiv. 15; xxvii. 9; Luke xviii. 31; Acts ii. 16; xxviii. 25.

VI. For "tempt" ("temptation") substitute "try" or "make trial of" ("trial") wherever enticement to what is wrong is not evidently spoken of; viz. in the following instances: Matt. iv. 7; xvi. 1; xix. 3; xxii. 18, 35; Mark viii. 11; x. 2; xii. 15; Luke iv. 12; x. 25; xi. 16; xxii. 28; John viii. 6; Acts v. 9; xv. 10; 1 Cor. x. 9; Heb. iii. 8, 9; 1 Pet. i. 6.

VII. Substitute modern forms of speech for the following archaisms, viz. "who" or "that" for "which" when used of persons; "are" for "be" in the present indicative; "know" "knew" for "wot" "wist"; "drag" or "drag away" for "hale."

VIII. Substitute for "devil" ("devils") the word "demon" ("demons") wherever the latter word is given in the margin (or represents the Greek words δαίμων, δαιμόνιον); and for "possessed with a devil" (or "devils") substitute either "demoniac" or "possessed with a demon" (or "demons").

IX. After "baptize" let the marg. "Or, in" and the text "with" exchange places.

X. Let the word "testament" be everywhere changed to "covenant" (without an alternate in the margin), except in Heb. ix. 15–17.

XI. Wherever "patience" occurs as the rendering of ὑπομονή add "stedfastness" as an alternate in the margin, except in 2 Cor. i. 6; James v. 11; Luke viii. 15; Heb. xii. 1.

XII. Let ἀσσάριον (Matt. x. 29; Luke xii. 6) be translated "penny" and δηνάριον "shilling," except in Matt. xxii. 19; Mark xii. 15; Luke xx. 24, where the name of the coin, "a denarius," should be given.

XIII. Against the expression "the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ" add the marginal rendering "Or, God and the Father" etc.; viz. in Rom. xv. 6; 2 Cor. 1. 3; xi. 31; Eph. 1. 3; Col. i. 3; 1 Pet. i. 3. And against the expression "our God and Father" add the marg. "Or, God and our Father"; viz. in Gal. i. 4; Phil. iv. 20; 1 Thess. i. 3; iii. 11, 13; Jas. i. 27. And against the expression "his God and Father" add the marg. "Or, God and his Father", viz. in Rev. i. 6.

XIV. Let the use of "fulfil" be confined to those cases in which it denotes "accomplish," "bring to pass," or the like.

MATTHEW.

2773	XXV. 17.	Ishmael dieth, aged 137 years.
2745	XXX. 23.	Rachel, having been long barren, at length beareth Joseph. Jacob, desiring to depart, is persuaded by Laban to serve six years more for some part of his flock.
2739	XXXI.	Jacob, after he had been twenty years in Mesopotamia, sets forward on his journey homewards, without acquainting his father or his brothers-
	XXXII.	in-law. Rachel stealeth her father's gods, and is pursued by Laban. Jacob by his prudence is reconciled to his brother Esau. He wrestleth with an angel at Peniel, and is called Israel.
	XXXIV.	About this time, Dinah, Jacob's daughter, is defloured by Sichem the son of Hamor. Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, revenge their sister's quarrel by putting all the males of Sichem to the sword; for which thing Jacob reproveth them.
	XXXV. 16.	Rachel is delivered of Benjamin on the way betwixt Beth-el, or Beth-le-hem, and Ephrath, and dies in childbed. Some think that Job lived about this time.
	XXXVIII. 16.	Judah lieth with Tamar his daughter-in-law in disguise.
1729	XXXVII.	Joseph is hated by his brethren, and is sold to merchantmen, Ishmaelites and Midianites, who carry him into Egypt, where he is sold to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, and by him made overseer of his house.
1718	XXXIX.	Joseph resisteth the temptations of his master's wife; he is falsely
	XL.	accused by her, and cast into prison. He interpreteth the dreams of Pharaoh's butler and baker, which come to pass according to his interpretation.
1716	XXXV. 28.	Isaac dieth, aged 180 years, and is buried by his sons, Jacob and Esau.
1715	XLI. 25,	Joseph interpreteth Pharaoh's two dreams; he giveth Pharaoh counsel, and is made governor of the whole land of Egypt.
	47,	Here begin the seven years of plenty in the land of Egypt. About
	50.	this time Manasseh and Ephraim, Joseph's two sons, are born of Asenath, the daughter of Potipherah, priest of On.

1707	XLII. 1, 2, 3.	Jacob sendeth his ten sons to buy corn in Egypt; they are imprisoned by Joseph for spies; but are set at liberty on condition of bringing Benjamin, and Simeon is kept as a pledge.
	XLIII.	Jacob is with much difficulty persuaded to send Benjamin. Joseph
	XLV.	maketh himself known to his brethren, and sendeth for his father by command from Pharaoh.
1706	XLVI.	Jacob, having offered sacrifice to God for that his son Joseph is yet alive, goes with all his family into Egypt in the third year of the famine, and 130th year of his age. He is seated in the land of Goshen.
1704	XLVII.	Joseph getteth all the money, lands, and cattle of the Egyptians for bread; only the lands belonging to the priests he buyeth not.
1703	XLVIII.	Jacob adopteth Ephraim and Manasseh, and blesseth them, and all his 1635	L.	Joseph on his death-bed prophesieth unto his brethren their return to Canaan; takes an oath of them to carry his bones out of Egypt, and dieth, aged 110 years.

		The book of Genesis endeth in the death of Joseph, containing the history of 2369 years: next to which in order of time the book of Job follows, written (as it is generally believed) by Moses.
1619	Exodus VI. 16.	Levi dieth in Egypt, aged 137 years; he was grandfather to Moses and Aaron.
1577	I. 8.	Here begins the bondage of the children of Israel, when a king rose up in Egypt, who knew not Joseph.
1574	VII. 7.	Aaron born three years before his brother Moses, 83 years before the departure of the children of Israel out of Egypt.
1573	I. 15, 22.	Pharaoh having in vain commanded the Hebrew midwives to destroy all the males of the Israelites, sets forth an edict, charging that they be all cast into the river.
1571	II. 1, 5, 11.	Moses is born, who, being hid in the flags by the river's side, is found by Pharaoh's daughter, and becomes her adopted son.

PERIOD IV.

From the departure of the Israelites, till Pharaoh gives his daughter in marriage to Solomon, B. C. 1014.

1491 — Exodus XII. 11, 29, 41. — UPON the fourteenth day of the first month (which was May the 4th, upon Monday with us), in the evening, the passover is instituted.

Upon the fifteenth of the same month, at midnight, the first-born of Egypt being all slain, Pharaoh and his servants make haste to send away the Israelites; and they, the self-same day wherein they were let go out of bondage, being the complete term of 430 years from the first pilgrimage of their ancestors, reckoning from Abraham's departure out of Charran, take their journey and march away, being 600,000 men, besides children, and come to Rameses, from whence by several encampings they come to the Red sea, the Lord conducting them in a pillar of a cloud by day, and in a pillar of fire by night. They carry Joseph's bones with them.

Numbers XXXIII. — Exodus XIV. — At the Red sea Pharaoh with his host overtakes them; Moses divides the waters with his rod, and the children of Israel pass through on dry ground unto the desert of Etham; whom, when Pharaoh and his army would needs follow, they are all overwhelmed by the waters coming together at the dawning of the day, whereby the Israelites are wholly freed from the bondage of the Egyptians; whose carcasses when they see floating all the sea over, and cast upon the shore, they sing a song of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

XV. — XVI. — Upon the fifteenth of the second month (our June the 4th, being Thursday), the Israelites come to the wilderness of Zin, which lieth between Elyma and Sinai, where, for want of food, they murmur against God and their leaders: about the even-tide God sends them quails, and the next morning rains upon them manna from heaven; and upon that kind of bread they lived afterward by the space of forty years, even till they came to the borders of the land of promise. An omer of it is preserved for a memorial.

XX. — God publisheth his Law, contained in the Ten Commandments, with a terrible voice from mount Sinai.

XXI. — XXII., &c. XXIV. — The people being in great fear, God gives them sundry other laws, all which being written in the book of the covenant, Moses proposeth them to the people: which done, rising early in the morning, he builds an altar at the foot of the mountain, and sets up twelve statues, according to the twelve tribes of Israel, and sends twelve young men of the first-born (whom the Lord hath consecrated to himself as ministers of those holy things, before the Levitical priesthood was ordained), which offer sacrifice, first for sin, and then for thanksgiving, to the Lord: and when Moses had read the book of the covenant, he takes the blood of the calves and goats so offered, and with water, scarlet wool, and hyssop, sprinkles the book therewith, and all the people, or those twelve statues representing them; and so performs a solemn covenant between God and his people.

9, 18. — Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy men of the elders of Israel, go up into the mount, and there behold the glory of God: the rest returning, Moses with his servant Joshua abides there still, and waits six days, and upon the seventh day God speaks unto him, and there he continues forty days and forty nights (reckoning those six days which he waited for the appearance of the Lord), eating no meat all that while, nor drinking water (Deut. ix. 6); where he receives God's command touching the

XXV. &c. — frame of the tabernacle, the priests' garments, their consecration, sacrifices, and other things comprised in this and the six following chapters.

XXXI. 18. — At the end of forty days God gives Moses the two tables of the Law in XXXII. — stone, made by God's own hand, and written with his own finger; bidding him withal quickly to get him down, for that the people had already made to themselves a molten calf to worship. Moses by prayer pacifieth God, and goes down from the mount, and seeing the people keeping a festival in honour of their idol in the camp, he breaks the tables of the law at the foot of the mount: for which the Jews keep a solemn fast unto this day.

20, 28. — Moses having burnt and defaced the idol, puts 3000 of the idolaters to death by the hands of the Levites.

XXXIV. — God commands Moses to frame new tables of stone, and to bring them with him into the mount: Moses brings them the next morning, and while he stands in the cleft of a rock, God passeth by, and showeth him a glimpse of his glory.

10. — God renews his covenant with his people, and upon certain conditions gives them his laws again.

1490 — XXXIX. — In the first six months of this year, the tabernacle, the ark of the covenant, the altar, the table of show-bread, the priests' garments, the holy ointments, the candlestick, and other utensils and vessels belonging to the sacrifices, are finished in the desert at mount Sinai, and are brought unto Moses.

XL. — The tabernacle is set up and anointed with holy oil. Aaron and his sons are consecrated for the priesthood.

Lev. X. — Nadab and Abihu, for offering strange fire, are struck dead in the place by fire from heaven.

Numb. VII. — The princes of the tribes present their offerings towards the dedication of the tabernacle. God speaketh to Moses from the mercy-seat.

IX. — The second passover is instituted.

X. 29. Exodus XVIII. — Jethro, who is also called Hobab, brings his daughter Zipporah, with her two sons, Gershom and Eliezer, which were left with him, to his son-in-law Moses: and having congratulated his and the whole people of Israel's deliverance out of bondage, he openly declares his faith and devotion towards the true God. By his advice Moses imparts the government of the people to some others, and ordains magistrates for the deciding of lesser causes.

Numbers XI. 31. — Moses complains to God of the overgreat burden of his government; God, to ease him of his charge, gives him for assistance the court of seventy elders. The people lust for flesh. God gives them quails in wrath; and sends withal a most grievous plague among them.

XII. — God rebukes the sedition of Miriam and Aaron, and maintains Moses' right.

XIII. — From the wilderness of Paran, near Kadesh-bernea, twelve men are sent (among whom are Caleb and Joshua) to discover the land of Canaan. Returning, they bring with them a branch of a vine, with a cluster of grapes upon it; ten of the twelve so sent speak ill of the country, declare it barren, and magnify the cities for their strength, and the giantly stature of the inhabitants.

XIV. — The people, terrified with this relation, are about to return into Egypt, from which Caleb and Joshua endeavoring to dissuade them are like to be stoned. At this God is so provoked, that he threatens to destroy them; but is prevailed upon by Moses through his prayers to spare them. Nevertheless he denounceth that all who are now twenty years old and upward (except Caleb and Joshua) shall die in the wilderness. The men who raised the evil report are all destroyed by sudden death. Some endeavouring to enter upon the promised land, contrary to the command of God, are smitten by the Amalekites and Canaanites.

1489 — Deut. I. 46. — In this place, viz. Kadesh-barnea, the Israelites continue many days; but that in some places they continued many years appeareth, for that in the space of 37 years there are but 17 encampings mentioned.

1471 — Numbers XXXI. XVI. — To their long continuance in Kadesh, and the encampings from thence, all that we find delivered in the xvth and four next ensuing chapters of Numbers, seems to refer; as how Korah, Dathan and Abiram, for raising a mutiny against Moses and Aaron, were swallowed alive into the earth, and 250 of their associates; and how the people murmuring against Moses and Aaron for the calamity which had befallen their brethren, were destroyed by God, to the number of 14,700 men; and how twelve rods being brought by twelve princes, and laid in the sanctuary, Aaron's rod only budded, and brought forth almonds, and was laid up before the ark, for memorial to those who should afterwards be given to rebellion.

Before Christ. 1471 — Numbers XVII.

1452 — XX. — In these 37 years the Israelites, by 17 encampings, having compassed the hill country of Seir and Edom, they come to the wilderness of Zin, in the first month of the fortieth year after their departure out of Egypt.

1, — Here Miriam, the sister of Moses and Aaron, dieth.

2, — The people again for want of water murmur against Moses and Aaron, whom when God had commanded to call water out of the rock only by speaking to it, Moses, being moved in his mind through impatience and diffidence of the thing, speaks something, whatever it was, unadvisedly with his lips, and strikes the rock thrice with Aaron's rod, and thereby draws water from it; but for transgressing God's command, they are both debarred from entering into the land of Canaan.

12, — 23, 28. — In the fifth month of this year Aaron dieth at Mosera, on the top of mount Hor, at the age of 123 years, leaving his son Eleazar his successor in the high priesthood.

XXI. 5, 9. John III. 14. 1 Cor. X. 9. Numbers XXI. — The people murmuring are plagued with fiery serpents, whereof many die; upon their repentance God commands that a brazen serpent be made and lifted up upon a pole, that as many as look on it may live.

21, — About the latter end of this year, all those who at Kadesh-barnea mutinied against God being wholly extinct and dead, the Israelites pass over Zared, and come to the borders of Moab at Ar, and at length they arrive at Bamoth, a valley in the country of the Moabites, and pitch at mount Pisgah.

33. — Sihon, king of the Amorites, refusing them passage through his country, is slain, and the Israelites possess his land.

1451 — XXII. 1, 2, — Og, the king of Bashan, coming out against Israel, is destroyed with all his people, not one left alive, and his country possessed by the Israelites.

3. — After these victories the Israelites set forward, and encamp in the plains of Moab.

Joshua XXIV. 9. — Balak, king of Moab, considering what the Israelites had done to the Amorites, fears, lest under pretence of passing through his country, they should possess themselves of his whole kingdom, takes counsel with the princes of the Midianites his neighbours, and sends for Balaam, a sooth-sayer out of Mesopotamia, to come and curse the Israelites, promising him great rewards for his labour; purposing afterward to make war upon them.

Numbers XXII. 7, 35. 2 Pet. II. 15, 16. Numbers XXIII. Deut. XXIII. 5. Joshua XXIV. 10. — Balaam, forewarned of God, refuseth at first to come; but being sent for a second time, he importuneth God to let him go, and goes with a purpose indeed to curse Israel; but God, offended thereat, makes the dumb ass of this wizard, on which he rode, speaking in a man's voice, to reprove his folly.

Balaam twice offers sacrifice, and would fain have cursed Israel, to gratify Balak therein; but being forced thereto by the Spirit of God, instead of cursing, he blesseth them altogether; foretelling what felicity attended them, and what calamities should befall their enemies.

Numbers XXV. 1, 2, 3, &c. Deut. IV. 3. Psalm CVI. 28. Rev. II. 14. 1 Cor. X. 8. — By his advice the women of Moab and Midian are set on work to turn the Israelites away to idolatry. Wherefore God commands Moses first to take all the ringleaders of this disorder, and to hang them up before the sun, and then gives order to the judges to put to death all such as had joined themselves to Baal-peor. Last of all, God sends a plague upon the people, whereof die 23,000 men in one day: which added to them which were hanged and killed with the sword, amount in all to 24,000.

Numbers XXV. Psalm CVI. 30. — Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, by killing Zimri, the chief of his father's family, and Cozbi, the daughter of Zur, a prince of the Midianites, appeaseth the wrath of God, and the plague ceaseth. God therefore settleth the high priesthood for ever upon the house of Phinehas, and commands that war be made upon the Midianites.

Numbers XXV. XXVII. 1, 2, 12, 23. Deut. III. 26, 27, 28. Numbers XXXI. Josh. XIII. 21, 22. — Moses and Eleazar, by God's command, in the plain of Moab, near unto Jordan, over against Jericho, number the people from twenty years old and upwards, and find them to be 601,730 men, besides the Levites, whose number, reckoning them from one month old and upwards, comes to 23,000; and then Moses receives command for the parting the land of promise among the Israelites.

God signifies to Moses that he shall die, and Joshua is thereupon declared to be his successor; upon whom Moses lays his hands, and gives him instructions. Several laws are made.

Twelve thousand of the Israelites under the command of Phinehas, vanquish the Midianites, and put to the sword all the males among them with their five princes, and among them Zur, the father of Cozbi, and Balaam the wizard; but they save the women alive; at which Moses is wroth, and commands that every male child, and all the women, except such as be virgins, be killed.

Deut. III. Josh. XIII. & XXII. — The lands which belonged to Sihon and Og, namely, all from the river Arnon to mount Hermon, Moses divides and gives to the tribes of Reuben and Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh; so that their possessions lay on this side Jordan; nevertheless, they assist the rest of the tribes in all their wars, till they have subdued the Canaanites, and possessed the promised land.

Deut. XXVII. XXVIII. — Moses commands the people, that in their passage over Jordan they shall set up great stones, and engrave the Ten Commandments on them, with the form of blessing upon mount Gerizim, and of cursing on mount Ebal, exhorting them to observe the law of God, by setting before their eyes the benefits that would ensue thereon.

XXIX. — He also renews the covenant made by God with them and their children on mount Horeb, and again persuades them to keep that covenant by all the blessings and curses which would undoubtedly follow the keepers or breakers of it; yet with a promise of pardon and deliverance, if at any time, having broken it, they shall repent them of their sin; and tells them farther, that God had therefore thus declared his will unto them, to the end that none hereafter offending shall pretend ignorance.

XXX. — Moses, having written this law, delivers it to the priests, the sons of Levi, and the elders of the people, to be kept; the same day also he writes his most excellent song, and teaches the same to the children of Israel to be sung; and having finished the book of the law, he takes order to have it laid up in the side of the ark.

XXXI. XXXII. — Moses now drawing near to his end, blesseth every tribe in particular, by way of prophecy, save only the tribe of Simeon.

XXXIII. — In the 12th month of this year he goes up to mount Nebo, and from thence beholds the land of promise, and there dieth, aged 120 years; the body of Moses God translates out of the place where he died into a valley of the land of Moab, over against Beth-peor, and there buried it; nor doth any man know the place of it unto this day. The Israelites mourn for him 30 days.

XXXIV. — Here ends the Pentateuch, or five books of Moses, containing the history of 2552 years and a half, from the beginning of the world; and the book of Joshua begins with the forty-first year after the departure of the children of Israel out of Egypt.

Josh. II. — Joshua being confirmed in his government by God, sends forth spies from Shittim to the city of Jericho, who, being harboured by Rahab, are privily sent away, when search is made for them.

III. — Upon the tenth day of the first month (April 30), to wit, the same day that the Paschal Lamb was to be chosen out of the flock, the Israelites under the conduct of Joshua, a type of Jesus Christ, go up out of the river Jordan into the promised land of Canaan, a type of a more heavenly country. They pass through the river on dry ground, the waters being for the present divided; for a memorial of which miraculous passage, Joshua sets up twelve stones in the very channel of Jordan, and taking twelve other stones out of the midst thereof sets them up at Gilgal, the place where they next encamp.

IV. — V. 10. — Upon the 14th day of the same month, in the evening, the Israelites celebrate their first passover in the land of Canaan.

efore hrist.
453	Josh. VI.	Jericho, the ark of the Lord having been carried round about it, is taken the seventh day, the walls thereof falling down at the sound of the priests' trumpets; all the inhabitants are put to the sword, except Rahab and her family.
	VII.	The Israelites besiege Ai, and are smitten by their enemies, God having abandoned them for sacrilege committed by Achan: Achan's sin being discovered by the casting of lots, and himself found guilty, he is stoned
	VIII.	to death, and, together with his children and cattle, burned with fire. God being pacified hereby, Ai is taken by ambushment and utterly destroyed.
	30, 35.	On mount Ebal, according to the law made, is an altar erected, and the Ten Commandments engraven on it; the blessings and cursings are repeated on mount Ebal and mount Gerizim, and the book of the law read in the ears of the people.
	IX.	The kings of Canaan combine against Israel: only the Gibeonites craftily find a way to save their own lives by making a league with them; but are afterwards deputed to the servile offices of the house of God.
	X.	Adoni-zedek, king of Jerusalem, with the kings of Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglon, hearing that Gibeon is fallen off from them, join their forces together and besiege it; but Joshua raiseth the siege, pursueth those five kings, and smiteth them as far as Azekah, the Lord in the meanwhile killing more with hailstones from heaven, than the Israelites with their swords. Joshua commands the sun to stand still over Gibeon, and the moon over the valley of Ajalon, by the space almost of one whole day, until the Israelites are fully avenged of their enemies. The five kings hide themselves in a cave at Makkedah; from whence they are brought forth, scornfully used, and hanged.
1450	Ex. XXIII. 10, 11.	From the autumn of this year, wherein, after the failing of manna, they began to till the ground, the rise of the sabbatical years is to be taken.
1445	Josh. XXIII.	Joshua, now grown old, is commanded by God to divide all the land on the west of Jordan among the nine tribes remaining, and the other half-tribe of Manasseh. The Lord and his sacrifices are the inheritance of Levi.
	XI.	The rest of the kings, with whom Joshua had waged war for six years, resolve to set upon him with united forces: but Joshua comes upon them unawares, slays them, and possesseth their countries.
	21. XIV.	Joshua now roots out those giants, the Anakims, with their cities, out of the hill-countries, out of Hebron, Debir, and Anab, and generally out of all the mountains of Judah and all Israel. And having gotten the
	XV.	whole land into his hands, he divides it among the children of Israel according to their tribes; and the land rested from war.
1444		The first sabbatical year, or year of rest; from hence the year of Jubilee, or every fifty years' space is to be reckoned.
	XVIII.	The tabernacle is set up at Shiloh (thought to be the same with Salem), where it continued 328 years.
	XXII.	The Reubenites, Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, with a blessing, are sent home to their possessions on the other side of Jordan.
1443	XXIII. XXIV.	Joshua gathers together all Israel, exhorts them to obedience, briefly recites God's benefits to them, reneweth the covenant between them and God, and dieth, 110 years old.
1413	Judges II. 7.	After the decease of Joshua, and the elders who outlived him, and who remembered the wonders which God had wrought for Israel, there succeeds a generation of men which forget God, and mingle themselves with
	III. 6, 7,	the Canaanites by marriage, and worship their idols. In this time of anarchy and confusion, when every man did that which seemed right in his own eyes, all those disorders were committed, which are reported in
	8,	the last five chapters of the Book of Judges; to wit, the idolatry of Micah and the children of Dan; the war of the Benjamites, and the cause thereof. God, being highly provoked, gives them up into the hands of Cushan, king of Mesopotamia: which first calamity of theirs holds them but eight years.
	9,	Othniel, the son of Kenaz, and son-in-law to Caleb, stirred up by God as a judge and avenger of his people, defeats Cushan, and delivers the
	10,	Israelites out of bondage; and the land rested forty years after the first rest which Joshua procured for them.
343	12,	Othniel dying, the Israelites fell again to sin against God, and are given over into the hands of Eglon, King of Moab, who, joining with the Ammonites and the Amalekites, overthrows the Israelites, and takes Jericho; and this second oppression continueth eighteen years.
1325	15, 30,	Ehud, the son of Gera, is raised up by God to be an avenger of his people; for feigning a message to Eglon, he runs him into the belly with his dagger; then getting away, he gathers all Israel into a body on mount Ephraim, and slays 10,000 of the most valiant men of Moab; and the land resteth forty years after the former rest obtained by Othniel.
	31.	After him, Shamgar, the son of Anath, slayeth 600 Philistines with an ox-goad, and he also avengeth Israel.
1305	IV. 1, 2, 3,	The Israelites, after the death of Ehud, returning to their old sin, are given up by God into the hands of Jabin, king of Canaan; and this thraldom of theirs continueth twenty years.
1285	4.	Deborah, the wife of Lapidoth, a prophetess, who at this time judgeth Israel in mount Ephraim, and Barak of the tribe of Naphtali, being made captain of the host of Israel, in sight of Megiddo, overcomes Sisera, captain of Jabin's army, whom Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, afterward kills in her own tent. For a memorial of which victory Deborah composeth a song; and the land resteth forty years after the former rest
	V. 31.	obtained by Ehud.
1252	VI.	The Israelites sinning again, are delivered into the hands of the Midianites; which fourth thraldom lasteth seven years. Hereupon they cry unto
1245		God for help, and are reproved by a prophet. Then Gideon, the son of Joash, of Manasseh, is by an angel from God sent to deliver them. He first overturns the altar of Baal and burns his grove, and is called Jerubbaal. He, out of 32,000 men, which came unto him, chooseth only (God so
	VII.	commanding) 300; but with them he puts to flight all the host of the Midianites, whom the Ephraimites afterward pursue, and slay their princes Oreb
	VIII.	and Zeeb. Gideon having pacified the Ephraimites, who complain that they were not called to the battle at first, passeth the river Jordan, and defeats the remainder of the Midianitish army; he chastiseth also the men of Succoth and Penuel, who had refused him victuals in his journey; and slays the two kings of the Midianites, Zebah and Zalmunna. After which great victories, the Israelites offering to settle the kingdom upon him and his posterity, he refuseth it; but receiving their golden ear-rings, he makes thereof an ephod, which afterwards proves an occasion of idolatry. The Midianites being thus vanquished, the land enjoys rest forty years, after the former rest restored to them by Deborah and Barak.
236	33.	Gideon dieth, and the Israelites, falling back again to idolatry, worship Baal-berith for their god.
	IX. 1, 2, &c.	Abimelech, the son of Gideon (begotten upon his concubine), purposing to get to himself the kingdom which his father had refused, slayeth seventy of his brothers all upon one stone; and having, by the help of the Shechemites, got to be made king, Jotham, the youngest son of Gideon, who only escaped Abimelech's fury, from the top of mount Gerizim expostulates with them the wrong they had done to his father's house; and, by way of a parable, foretells their ruin; which done, he flies, and dwells quietly in Beer.
233	22,	Abimelech, having reigned three years over Israel, Gaal, a Shechemite, conspires against him; which being discovered to him by Zebul, he utterly destroys the city of Shechem, and puts all the inhabitants to the sword,
1232		and burns the temple of their god Berith with fire; from thence he goeth and layeth siege to Thebez, where he is knocked on the head with a piece
	50. 2 Sam. XI. 21.	of a millstone, cast upon him by a woman from the walls, and then killed outright by his armour-bearer.
1210	Judges X. 1,	Tola the son of Puah, after Abimelech, judgeth Israel twenty-three years.
1206	2, 3,	Jair the Gileadite succeeds Tola, and judgeth Israel twenty-two years.
1188	8.	The Israelites, forsaking again the true God, fall to worship the gods of several nations, and are given up into the hands of the Philistines and Ammonites; which fifth thraldom lasteth eighteen years. Upon their repentance, and abandoning their idols, at length they obtain mercy.
Before Christ. 1187	Judges X. 15. XI.	Jephthah the Gileadite, being made captain of the host of Israel, subdues the Ammonites: before the battle he vows his daughter unawares to be offered in sacrifice, and afterward performs it. He puts to the sword
	XII. 6,	42,000 Ephraimites, who had behaved themselves insolently against him, and judgeth Israel six years.
1182	8,	Ibzan the Bethlehemite succeeds Jephthah, and judgeth Israel 7 years.
1175	11,	Elon the Zebulonite succeeds Ibzan, and judgeth Israel ten years.
1164	13,	Abdon the Ephraimite succeeds Elon, and judgeth Israel eight years.
1156	1 Sam. IV. 18.	Eli the high priest (in whom the high priesthood was translated from the family of Eleazar to Ithamar's) succeeds Abdon, and judgeth Israel forty years. The Israelites again provoke the Lord to anger, and he
	Judges XIII. 1, 2,	delivers them into the hands of the Philistines. This sixth thraldom begins seven months after Eli's entering upon the government, and lasteth forty years, even till seven months after his death, when the ark was brought back again.
1155	24.	Samson the Nazarite, as an angel had foretold, is born at Zorah.
1137	XIV. 4.	Whilst Eli the high priest executeth the office of a judge in civil causes under the Philistines, Samson takes an occasion to quarrel with them, by marrying a woman of Timnath; for having on the day of his betrothing propounded a riddle to the Philistines, and laid a wager, his wife tells them the meaning of it: enraged hereat, he goes and slays thirty men of Askelon, and gives them the suits of raiment which he had stripped off their bodies, in performance of the wager which he had lost, and returns home to his father.
1136	XV.	Samson again in harvest-time goes to present his wife with a kid at her father's house, but finds her given away in marriage to another man; Samson resolves to be avenged; he catches 300 foxes, and tying firebrands to their tails, turns them all into the corn-fields of the Philistines, and into their vineyards, and olive-gardens, and sets them all on fire. The Philistines take Samson's wife and father-in-law, and burn them; Samson in revenge slays a great multitude of them, and sits down upon the rock Etam, from whence being taken by 3000 of the Jews, and by them delivered into the hands of the Philistines, he slays of them a thousand men with the jaw-bone of an ass; in which place he is miraculously refreshed, when thirsty and ready to faint.
1117	XVI.	Samson is betrayed by Delilah his concubine, bereaved of the hair of his Nazariteship, and delivered to the Philistines; who put out his eyes, and bind him with chains of brass. The Philistines gather together to offer sacrifice to Dagon their god, and Samson is brought to make them sport; whose hair being grown, and his strength in a great measure restored, he takes hold of the two chief pillars whereon the house stood (wherein were the princes of the Philistines, and a great multitude of people) and pulls down the house, killing more men at his death than he did in all his lifetime. So he died, having judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.
1116	1 Sam. IV.	The Israelites take up arms against the Philistines, but with very ill success, for they lose 4000 men in one battle. Then they send for the ark of the covenant from Shiloh, and cause it to be brought into the camp. The Philistines, seeing now all lie at stake, encourage one another to behave themselves like men that day; and so falling on, they slay of the Israelites 30,000 men. The ark of God is taken, and Hophni and Phinehas, priests, and sons of Eli, are slain. Of all which when tidings are brought to old Eli, frighted thereat, he falls from his chair and breaks his neck, in the 98th year of his age.
	VI.	The Philistines, having brought the ark into Ashdod, set it in the house of Dagon their god. But when Dagon had been found two several times fallen grovelling before it, and broken in pieces, and the inhabitants of the place sorely plagued, they remove it from thence to Gath, and from thence to Ekron. But the same plagues and judgments following wherever it went, after seven months, by the advice of their priests, they send home
	VII.	the ark again with presents and gifts into the land of the Israelites, and it is brought to Bethshemesh, where 50,070 men are smitten for looking into the ark. From hence it is carried to the house of Abinadab, in Kirjath-jearim, who sanctifieth his son Eleazar to keep it.
1096	13.	After twenty years the Israelites, by Samuel's persuasion, solemnly repent at Mizpeh, and, upon their conversion, God by thunder from heaven delivers them from the invasion of the Philistines, who are subdued, the hand of the Lord being against them all the days of Samuel.
1095	VIII.	Samuel, being grown old, takes for his assistance in the government his sons; by whose ill management of affairs, the Israelites require a king to
	Hosea XIII. 10.	be given them: whereupon God gives them a king in his wrath, to wit,
	1 Sam. XI. 12.	Saul, the son of Kish, after Samuel had judged Israel twenty-one years. Saul is privately anointed by Samuel, and afterward publicly proclaimed king at Mizpeh. About a month after Jabesh-gilead is besieged by Nahash king of the Ammonites, and the siege raised by Saul: whereupon the whole congregation of Israel, coming together at Gilgal, again proclaim Saul king.
1085	XVII. 12.	David the son of Jesse the Ephrathite, born at Beth-lehem-judah 30 years before he succeeded Saul in the kingdom. He was his father's youngest son.
1063	XVI. 11.	God rejects Saul, and sends Samuel to Beth-lehem, there to anoint
	XVIII.	David king, whom Saul ever after extremely persecuteth. Yet Jonathan, Saul's son, loveth him, and oftentimes rescueth him from Saul's cruelty.
	XXIV.	David, having Saul twice in his power, forbears to hurt him.
1060	XXVI.	David, fearing he may some time or other fall into the hands of Saul,
1056	XXVII.	flies to Gath unto king Achish, carrying with him 600 men; and having obtained of him the town of Ziklag to dwell in, he continueth one year and four months in the land of the Philistines: from whence he invadeth the countries of the Geshurites, Gezrites, and Amalekites, and puts to the sword all, both men and women, not leaving one alive to carry the news thereof to king Achish.
1055	XVIII. 1 Chron. XII.	Achish, proposing to make war upon the Israelites, takes David along with him in that expedition, to whom, whilst he is upon his march with his 600 men, repair a great many others of the tribe of Manasseh, and join with him.
	1 Samuel XXVIII.	Saul, seeing the army of the Philistines, is in great fear, and (Samuel being now dead) goes to En-dor to consult with a witch there; the woman raiseth an apparition of Samuel, and Saul receives from it that dreadful doom, The Lord will deliver Israel, together with thyself, into the hands of the Philistines.
	XXIX.	The princes of the Philistines growing jealous of David, he and his company early the next morning leave the army, and return to Ziklag.
	XXXI.	The armies join battle; and the Israelites are defeated; the three sons of Saul are slain, and he himself falls on his own sword.
	2 Samuel I.	Three days after, an Amalekite brings Saul's crown, and the bracelet that was upon his arm, and presents them to David, professing that, finding him fallen upon his sword, he had killed him outright, and taken the crown from off his head: whereupon David causeth him to be put to death for
	II.	stretching forth his hand to slay the Lord's anointed, and lamenteth the death of Saul and Jonathan his son in a funeral song. David, having asked
	1 Chron. XII. 23.	counsel of God, goes up to Hebron with those that are about him, where he is anointed king by the men of Judah, his own tribe, in the 30th year of his age; and there he reigns seven years and six months.
1048	2 Sam. III. 6,	Abner, affronted by Ishbosheth, revolteth to David, and deals with the chief men of Israel to transfer the whole kingdom unto him, and this in
	22.	the hearing of the Benjamites. He comes to David, and is kindly received; returning, he is treacherously murdered by Joab. David much laments his untimely death, and buries him at Hebron.
	IV. 2.	Baanah and Rechab murder their lord and master Ishbosheth, as he lieth resting himself upon his bed. They bring his head to David, who in detestation of their treason, causeth them immediately to be put to death.

Before Christ.
1044	2 Sam. VII. 1 Chron. XVII.	David now dwelling in his house of cedar, which he had built, and living in a full and perfect peace, imparteth to Nathan the prophet his purpose of building a house for God; but is answered from God, that this was a work which should be done, not by him, because he was a man of
	XXII. 2 Sam. VIII. 1 Chron. XVIII. Gen. XV. 18.	blood, and trained up in war; but by his son Solomon, a man of peace, which should be born unto him. The time which passeth from hence till the birth of Solomon is spent in wars; wherein David subdues the Philistines, Edomites, Amalekites, Moabites, Ammonites, and Syrians, and extends his kingdom to the utmost bound of that land which had been promised to the seed of Abraham, and never possessed by any of

At the end of this year Joab, going with the army against the Ammonites, besiegeth Rabbah, the metropolis of Ammon, whilst David takes his ease at Jerusalem, and there commits adultery with Bathsheba the wife of Uriah the Hittite, who was then in the army, whom he also procures
1034	1 Chron. XX. 2 Sam.	to be slain. The child so gotten in adultery is born. David is convicted by Nathan the prophet of his sin, and he repents; in testimony whereof he composeth
1033	XII. 25. 1 Chron.	the 51st Psalm. The child dieth. Bathsheba becomes now David's wife, and beareth him a son, unto whom, as unto one who should prove a man of peace, God gives the name
1030	XXII. 9. 2 Sam. XIII. 1, 23.	of Solomon; and, as to one beloved of the Lord, the name of Jedidiah. Absalom avengeth his sister Tamar, and killeth his brother Amnon; for which thing he fleeth to Geshur in Syria, where he continues three years with king Talmai, his grandfather by the mother's side.
1027	XIV.	After three years' exile he returns to Jerusalem, where he continues two
1025		years, before the king his father admits him into his presence, and is reconciled to him.
1024	XV.	This rebel son having got chariots and horses, and a guard to attend him, insinuates himself into the favour of the people, and steals away their hearts from his father David.
1023	7.	The next year following, under pretence of a vow, he obtaineth leave to go to Hebron, where, by Ahithophel's counsel, he breaks out into open rebellion, and forceth his father to fly from Jerusalem.
	XVII.	Ahithophel, because his counsel in all matters is not followed by Absalom, hangs himself.
	XVIII.	Absalom having lost 20,000 men, fleeth, and a bough of an oak catching hold of him, he there hangs, and is run through by Joab.
1017	XXIV.	David, tempted by Satan, commandeth Joab to number the people: God, offended thereat, sends a prophet to put three plagues to his choice, viz., the famine, sword, or pestilence. David chooseth to fall into the hands of a merciful God, rather than into the hands of men. So God sends a
	1 Chron. XXI.	pestilence; whereof 70,000 men die in one day. The angel being about to destroy Jerusalem, God bids him hold his hand: for he beholds David repenting in sackcloth, and entreating him to spare the innocent people, and to turn his hand upon himself, and upon his father's house.
1016	1 Kings	Rehoboam is born unto Solomon by Naamah, an Ammonitish woman.
1015	XIV. 21. 1 Kings I.	David being now 70 years of age, and broken with continual cares and wars, grows so weak and feeble, that clothes can no longer preserve heat in him. Therefore Abishag, a young virgin, is appointed to keep him warm. Adonijah, seeing his father thus declining, by the assistance of Joab and Abiathar, makes himself king: which David understanding, he presently commands Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, with other great men, to anoint Solomon king. Adonijah hearing this, betakes
	II.	himself to the sanctuary, and is pardoned. David, having given instruction to his son Solomon, dieth; after he had reigned in Hebron seven years and six months, and 33 years in Jerusalem over all Israel.
834	III. 1. 2 Chron. VIII. 11.	Pharaoh, king of Egypt, gives his daughter in marriage to Solomon. The Lord appears to Solomon in a dream, and bids him ask what he will, and it shall be given him. Solomon asketh wisdom; God gives him
	1 Kings III. 5.	wisdom from above, and adds thereunto riches and honour. Of this divine wisdom Solomon makes an eminent manifestation in judging between two harlots.

PERIOD V.

From Foundation of First Temple to Obadiah's Denouncement of God's Judgment, B. C. 588.

1012	VI. 1.	SOLOMON layeth the foundation of the temple in the 480th year after the departure of the children of Israel out of Egypt.
1005	2 Chron. III. 1.	Solomon's temple finished in the eleventh year of his reign; having been 1004	1 Kings vi. 38. VIII. 2 Chron. V. VI. VII.	seven years and a half in building. Solomon this year (being the 9th Jubilee, and opening the fourth Millenary of the world) with great magnificence celebrates the dedication of the temple: at which time God giveth a visible sign of his favour.
975	1 Kings XI. 2 Chron. IX.	Solomon having, as it is with reason believed, forsaken his lusts and vanities, to which he had been too intemperately addicted, and written, as a testimony of his repentance, his book called the Preacher, dieth. He reigned 40 years.
	1 Kings XII.	The Israelites assemble at Shechem to crown Rehoboam, Solomon's son, king over all Israel. The people by Jeroboam sue unto him for a removal of some grievances; to whom Rehoboam, by the advice of young men, returning a harsh answer, alienates the hearts of ten tribes from him, who make Jeroboam king over them, and fall at the same time from the house of David, and from the true worship of God.
	25.	Jeroboam, in the beginning of his reign, repairs Shechem, destroyed by Abimelech 258 years before, and there dwells; afterward going over Jordan he builds Penuel, and at length makes Tirzah the seat of his kingdom. But fearing lest his new subjects by going to Jerusalem to worship,
	XIV. 17. XII. 26.	may be induced to revolt from him, he deviseth a new form of religion, setting up two golden calves, the one at Beth-el, the other at Dan, for the seduced people to bow down unto.
	XIV.	From the time of this dismal rent Rehoboam reigneth over Judah and Benjamin 17 years, and Jeroboam over Israel, or the other ten tribes, 22
974	2 Chron. XII. XI. 17.	years. The Priests and Levites, and other Israelites who feared God, stick to Rehoboam, and maintain the kingdom of Judah three years; after which time Rehoboam falls to idolatry, and walketh no more in the ways of David and Solomon.
	1 Kings XII. 32. XIII. 2.	Jeroboam sacrificing to his calf at Beth-el, a prophet is sent unto him from God, who foretells the judgment which should one day be executed upon that altar, and the Priests (viz. those whom Jeroboam had made of the lowest of the people) that served at it. Which prophecy then and there is confirmed by signs and wonders upon the king himself, and upon the altar.
971	XIV. 25. 2 Chron. XII.	Shishak king of Egypt spoileth Jerusalem and the temple; but the king and the princes repenting at the preaching of Shemaiah the prophet, God gives them not over to utter destruction.
958	1 Kings XV.	Abijam the son of Rehoboam succeeds his father in the kingdom of Judah, and reigns three years.
957	2 Chron. XIII.	He obtains a great victory over Jeroboam, killeth 500,000 men in one battle, and taketh Beth-el.
955	1 Kings XV. 8,	Asa in the twentieth year of Jeroboam succeeds his father Abijam, and reigns 41 years.
954	25,	Nadab in the second year of Asa succeedeth his father Jeroboam in the kingdom of Israel, and reigneth not full two years.
953	27.	Nadab at the siege of Gibbethon (a town of the Philistines), is slain by Baasha of the tribe of Issachar in the third year of Asa; and the same year having made himself king over Israel, he utterly destroyeth the whole race of Jeroboam, and reigneth 24 years. In this time lived the prophets Jehu, Hanani, and Azarias.
951	2 Chron. XIV.	Asa destroyeth idolatry, and enjoying ten years of peace, strengthens his kingdom with forts and a standing army.
941	9.	Zerah the Ethiopian with an innumerable army invadeth Judah: Asa overcomes him, sacrificeth to God of the spoil, and maketh a solemn covenant with God. He also deposeth Maachah his grandmother, a great patroness of idolatry; bringeth into the temple those things which
	XV.	his father and himself had consecrated unto God, and enjoys a long peace.
930	1 Kings XVI. 6, 8,	Elah the son of Baasha succeeds his father in the kingdom of Israel.
929		In the second year of his reign, and the twenty-seventh of Asa's, Zimri one of his captains, conspires against him, kills him, and reigneth in his stead. As soon as he sits in the throne, he destroyeth the whole family of Baasha; but the army which then lay before Gibbethon makes Omri then king, who presently besiegeth Tirzah, and taketh it; which Zimri seeing he sets on fire the king's palace, and perisheth in the flames.
	21,	The people of Israel are now divided into two factions; one follow Tibni the son of Ginath, and endeavour to make him king; the other adheres
925	22,	Omri; but Tibni dying, Omri reigns alone in the 31st year of Asa.
924	23, 24,	Omri having reigned six years in Tirzah, removes the seat of his kingdom to Samaria, a place which he himself had built.
918	29.	Ahab succeeds his father in the kingdom of Israel, and reigneth 22 years in Samaria. He did evil in the sight of the Lord above all that were before him.
914	1 Kings XXII. 41.	Jehoshaphat succeedeth his father Asa in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel, and reigneth 25 years in Jerusalem.
912	2 Chron. XX. 31. XVII. 7.	Jehoshaphat being settled in his kingdom, and having demolished the high places and groves, in the third year of his reign he sends Levites with the princes to instruct the people in the law. God in the meantime subdueth his enemies under him.
901	1 Kings XX.	Ben-hadad king of Syria layeth siege to Samaria, who by the direction of a prophet is beaten off, and a vast number of the Syrians slain.
899	XXI.	Ahab not being able to persuade Naboth to sell him his vineyard, falls sick upon it; Jezebel his wife, suborning false witnesses to accuse him of blasphemy, causeth Naboth to be stoned, and puts the king in possession of the vineyard. Whereupon the prophet Elijah denounceth judgments against Ahab and Jezebel; wicked Ahab repenting, God defers the judgment.
898	XXII. 51. 2 Kings III. 1. I. 17.	Ahab in the seventeenth year of the reign of Jehoshaphat maketh his son Ahaziah his associate in the government of his kingdom. Jehoshaphat also maketh Jehoram his son copartner with him; whence it is, that Jehoram the son of Ahab, who succeeded his brother Ahaziah in the kingdom of Israel, in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, is said to have begun his reign in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat.
897	1 Kings XXII. 2 Chron. XVIII.	Ahab having got Jehoshaphat to assist him in the siege of Ramoth-gilead, before he goes, he asketh counsel of 400 false prophets, who promise him victory and success; but by Jehoshaphat's advice Micaiah, a true prophet of God, is consulted, who foretells his overthrow, and according to his word Ahab is slain at Ramoth-gilead, and buried at Samaria.
	2 Sam. VIII. 2. 2 Kings I.	Ahaziah king of Israel, lying ill of a fall, sends to consult Baalzebub the god of Ekron concerning his recovery. Elijah the prophet meeteth the messenger, and telleth him Ahaziah shall surely die; whereupon two captains with over fifty men apiece are sent to apprehend him, and bring him before the king; Elijah calleth for fire from heaven, and destroyeth both them and their companies. A third captain with his fifty men being sent, and behaving himself submissively, Elijah goes along with him; the
	1 Kings XXII.	prophet certifies the king that he shall not come down from his bed alive So Ahaziah dieth, having governed (partly by himself, and partly together with his father) two years.
	2 Kings III. 1. II. 11.	Jehoram succeedeth his brother Ahaziah in the kingdom of Israel in t latter end of the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat, and reigneth twelve ye a Elijah is taken up into heaven in a fiery chariot.
892	2 Chron. XXI. 2, 3.	Jehoshaphat grown old gives to his sons many gifts with fenced cities in Judea; but his eldest son Jehoram he now more absolutely investeth with the throne of the kingdom in the fifth year of Jehoram king of Israel.
	2 Kings VIII. 16.	Jehoram now, by the death of his father, has the kingdom of Judah to
889	2 Chron. XXI. 4, 5. Genesis XXVII. 40. 2 Chron. XXI. 10, 11,	himself, which he holds for years. He is no sooner settled in his throne, but he puts all his brethren to the sword, with many of the princes of Israel. At this time the Edomites, who ever since king David's time had lived in subjection to Judah, revolt, and (as it was foretold by Isaac) they for ever shake off his yoke; Libnah also, a city of the priests in the tribe of Judah, falls off from him about this time.
888		Jehoram following the counsel of his wicked wife Athaliah, the daughter of Ahab king of Israel, sets up in Judah, and even in Jerusalem itself, the idolatrous worship of Baal, and compels his subjects thereto: a letter
	12.	which was left for him by Elijah the prophet comes to his hands, which reproves him, and denounces all those calamities and punishments which afterward befell him.
885	2 Kings VIII. 25,	Ahaziah succeeds his father in the kingdom of Judah (having had part of the government bestowed upon him the year before) in the 12th year of Jehoram king of Israel, and reigneth one year in Jerusalem.
884	28.	Jehoram king of Israel, and Ahaziah king of Judah, lead their armies to Ramoth-gilead against Hazael, who had newly succeeded Ben-hadad in the kingdom of Syria: Jehoram is dangerously wounded, and retires
	IX.	himself to Jezreel to be cured. In the meantime Elisha sendeth a young prophet with instructions to anoint Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, at Ramoth-gilead, king over Israel, and to open to him the will of God for the rooting out of the house of Ahab; who, being proclaimed king by the soldiers, marcheth straight to Jezreel, killeth Jehoram in the field of Naboth, and causeth Jezebel to be cast out at a window,
	2 Kings X.	where she is eaten by dogs. He despatcheth letters also to Samaria, and causeth seventy of Ahab's children to be beheaded. Then taking with him Jehonadab the son of Rechab, he comes himself to Samaria, and destroys the whole family of Ahab, and all the priests of Baal. Nevertheless, having put down the worship of Baal, he departs not from the worship of Jeroboam's golden calves, but maintains that idolatry all the
	IX.	time of his reign, which was 28 years. Jehu proceeds farther, and executes the divine vengeance upon the idolatrous house of Judah; he pursues Ahaziah, who fled towards Megiddo, and overtaking him at Gur, causeth him to be killed in his chariot.
	X.	Going also to Samaria, he meeteth with 42 of Ahaziah's kinsmen, whom he causeth to be slain.
	XI. 2 Chron. XXII. 10.	Athaliah the daughter of Ahab, seeing her son Ahaziah dead, usurps the kingdom, destroying those that had right to the succession; but Jehosheba the daughter of king Jehoram, and wife to Jehoiada the high priest, takes Jehoash, being then an infant, and son to her brother Ahaziah, and hides him in the temple, and so saves him from that massacre which was made of the rest of the blood royal.
878	2 Kings XI. 2 Chron. XXIII.	Jehoiada the high priest brings out Jehoash, now seven years old, and anoints him king; causeth Athaliah to be slain, and restoreth the worship of the true God, destroying the house of Baal, and commanding the idolatrous priest Mattan to be killed before his altars. Jehoash now beginning his reign in the seventh year of Jehu, reigneth 40 years in Jerusalem.
857	2 Kings XII. 7. XIII. 1.	Jehoash, in the 23d year of his reign, giveth order for the repair of the temple, committing the charge thereof to Jehoiada the high priest. Jehoahaz succeedeth his father Jehu in the kingdom of Israel, and reigneth 17 years: during all which time Hazael king of Syria oppresseth
	VIII. 12.	him, and exerciseth all those cruelties upon the Israelites, which Elisha the prophet had foretold.
841	XIII. 10.	Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, is taken into the consortship of that kingdom by his father in the 27th year of Jehoash king of Judah, and reigneth 16 years.
840		Zechariah, the son of Jehoiada the high priest, for reproving the people of

Before Christ. 840	2 Chron. XXIV. 2 Kings XII. 20.	Judah that fall to idolatry after the decease of Jehoiada, is stoned to death in the court of the house of the Lord by the commandment of king Jehoash, who the next year after is murdered by some of his servants, as he lay in his bed; and Amaziah his son succeedeth him.
838	XIII.	Jehoahaz dieth, and Jehoash his son succeedeth in the kingdom of Israel. Not long after his father's funeral he visits Elisha the prophet then lying sick, and with many tears asketh counsel of him, who promiseth him victory over the Syrians. A dead man is brought to life by being laid in Elisha's grave.
836	XV. 1.	Jeroboam the second in this year taken into the consortship of the kingdom of Israel by his father Jehoash, going to war against the Syrians. This is gathered from Azariah king of Judah's beginning to reign in the 27th year of this Jeroboam.
	XIV. 2 Chron. XXV.	Amaziah king of Judah, growing proud upon a victory obtained against the Edomites this 14th year of his reign, provoketh Jehoash king of Israel to battle. Jehoash overcomes him, and takes him prisoner, breaks down 400 cubits of the wall of Jerusalem, and having spoiled the temple and the king's house of a vast treasure, returns to Samaria.
825	2 Kings XIV. 23	Jehoash dies fifteen years before Amaziah, and Jeroboam the second, his son, reigneth in Samaria 41 years.
810	XIV. 2 Chron. XXV.	Amaziah, finding a conspiracy against him at Jerusalem, flies to Lachish, where he is murdered; after whom comes his son Uzziah, or Azariah, in the 27th year of Jeroboam the second, and reigneth 52 years in Jerusalem.
808	2 Kings XV XV. 25. Isaiah IX. 1. Jonah III. Matt. XII. 41.	Now is held the 13th Jubilee under the two most flourishing kings; in whose times live sundry great prophets in both kingdoms; Isaiah and Joel in Judah; Jonas, Hosea, and Amos, in Israel.
		Jonas of Gath-hepher, a town belonging to the tribe of Zebulon in Galilee of the Gentiles, (observe here the blindness of the Pharisees, John vii. 52,) was afterward sent into Nineveh, the metropolis of Assyria, where both king and people at his preaching repented.
784	2 Kings XIV. 29.	Jeroboam king of Israel (under whom that kingdom came to its full height of glory) dieth; after his death all things fall into confusion, and the state is reduced to a plain anarchy, which lasteth 11 years and a half; for such an interregnum or vacancy the synchronism of Kings requires, that the six months of Zachariah the son of Jeroboam may answer the 38 years and one month of Shallum, who murdered him in the 39th year of Azariah, or Uzziah, king of Judah.
773	XV. 8,	Zechariah the son of Jeroboam, the 4th and last of the race of Jehu, (as was foretold,) begins his reign over Israel in the 38th year of Azariah, or Uzziah, king of Judah, and reigneth six months.
772	10.	Shallum the son of Jabesh, at the end of six months, murders him in the sight of the people, and reigns one month, in the 39th year of Uzziah king of Judah. After Zachariah's death follow those direful calamities foretold by Amos the prophet.
	Amos VII. 9. 2 Kings XV. 14,	Menahem the son of Gadi going from Tirzah to Samaria, killeth Shallum, wasteth Tiphsah and the borders thereof, and because the town would not open to him, he takes it, and rips up all the women with child.
771	19,	While Menahem in these broils labours to get the possession of the kingdom, Paul king of Assyria invadeth his country, to whom Menahem giveth 1000 talents of silver, and afterward reigneth quietly 10 years.
761	23,	Pekahiah succeedeth his father Menahem in the 50th year of Uzziah king of Judah, and reigneth 2 years.
759	25, 27,	Pekah, one of his captains, kills him in his own palace at Samaria, and reigneth 20 years.
758	32.	Jotham succeedeth his father Uzziah in the kingdom of Judah at the age of 25 years, and reigneth 16 years in Jerusalem.
	2 Chron. XXVII. 5. Mic. I. 1.	Jotham subdues the Ammonites, and makes them tributary for 3 years. Under him and his two successors the prophets Micah and Hosea execute their prophetical office. About this time lived the prophet Nahum, and prophesied the destruction of Nineveh.
	2 Kings XVI. 1. 2 Chron. XXVII. 1. Isa. VII.	Ahaz succeedeth his father Jotham in the 17th year of Pekah king of Israel, and reigneth 16 years.
741		This year Rezin king of Syria, and Pekah king of Israel are confederate against Judah, which strikes a great terror into that nation; but unto Ahaz, God, by the prophet Isaiah, sends a gracious message, with a promise of deliverance; for a sign whereof (when the incredulous king, being bid to ask a sign, refused to do it) God gives him the promise of Immanuel to be born of a virgin. Rezin and Pekah now lay siege to Jerusalem, and therein to Ahaz, but are beaten off; Ahab is no sooner delivered from his enemies, but he forsakes God his deliverer, and falls to idolatry. Wherefore God gives him over into the hands of the king of Israel, who slays of the men of Judah 120,000 in one day, with a great many of the nobility, and carrieth away 200,000 captives; but these, by the advice of the prophet Obed, are released and sent home.
739	2 Kings XV. 30.	Hoshea the son of Elah murders Pekah king of Israel, and gets the kingdom into his own hands; it is said in the 20th year of Jotham, that is from the time that Jotham first began to reign, which is the same with the 4th of Ahaz his son. Hoshea, by reason of the tumults and disorders which ensued, cannot be said to have reigned till 9 years after, the state continuing all that time in great confusion, without any form of government.
730
728	XVII. 8.	Shalmaneser, king of Assyria, comes up against Hoshea, and makes him to serve him, and pay him tribute.
726	XVIII. 1. 2 Chron. XXIX. XXX.	Hezekiah succeedeth his father Ahaz in the kingdom of Judah: he destroyeth idolatry, and prospers: he also celebrates a solemn passover, and reigneth 29 years in Jerusalem; his father had made him in the last year of his reign, his assistant in the government.
725	XXXI. 2 Kings	Hoshea king of Israel, having consulted with So king of Egypt, refuseth to pay tribute to Shalmaneser: provoked hereby, and jealous of some farther design in that confederacy of Hoshea with the king of Egypt, Shalmaneser layeth siege to Samaria, and towards the latter end of the third
724	XVII. 4.	year he taketh it, and carrieth away the Israelites captive into his own
721		country. This was the end of the kingdom of Israel, when it had stood divided from the kingdom of Judah 254 years.
713	XVIII. XX. Isaiah XXXVIII.	Sennacherib king of Assyria, coming up against Judah, besiegeth their fenced cities, and taketh many of them, but is pacified by a tribute.
		About this time Hezekiah falls sick, and is told by Isaiah that he shall die, but pouring out his tears and prayers unto God, he recovereth his health, and obtaineth a prolongation of his life and kingdom for 15 years.
710	2 Kings XIX. Isaiah XXXVII.	For a sign whereof the sun goes ten degrees backward.
		Sennacherib, not observing the articles of peace, layeth siege to Jerusalem, and sendeth a blasphemous letter to Hezekiah; which he opening, and spreading before the Lord in the temple with many tears, craves assistance from God against the Assyrians. Whereupon the prophet Isaiah assures him that God will deliver him and defend that city. The self-same night an angel of the Lord slays 185,000 men in the Assyrian army; and the next morning Sennacherib departeth, and returns to Nineveh; where not long after, whilst he is worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, he is slain by his own sons.
677	2 Kings XXI. 2 Chron. XXXIII.	Manasseh at 12 years of age succeedeth his father Hezekiah, and reigneth 58 years. He setteth up idolatry, and sheddeth much innocent blood. Wherefore God delivers him up into the hands of the Assyrians, who in the 22d year of his reign carry him away captive to Babylon: but upon his repentance God restores him to his liberty and kingdom.
656	Judith XIII.	This year Nebuchodonosor king of Assyria, purposing to make himself universal monarch, sends Holofernes his general against Judea, who layeth siege to Bethulia, and there hath his head taken off by Judith, a woman of the tribe of Simeon.
643	2 Kings XXI. 19. 2 Chron.	Amon, aged 22 years, succeedeth his father Manasseh, and reigneth two years. An idolater indeed, as his father, but no penitent: he is murdered by his own servants.
641	XXXIII 21, 22. 2 Kings XXII. 1.	Josiah, a child of 8 years old, succeedeth his father Amon, and reigneth 31 years. In his time lived Jeremiah and Zephaniah the prophets, and Huldah the prophetess.

Before Christ. 630 624	2 Chron. XXXIV.	In the 12th year of his reign, he begins a reformation in Judah and Jerusalem and carries it on successfully.
		This year he giveth order for the repair of the temple. Hilkiah the high priest, having found a book of the law, sends it to the king, who hears it read all over to him; and thereupon asketh counsel of Huldah the prophetess, who prophesieth the destruction of Jerusalem, but not in his days.
	2 Kings XXIII. 2 Chron. XXXIV.	Josiah calling to him the elders of Judah and Jerusalem, with the priests and prophets, causeth the book of the law to be read over before all the people, and reneweth the covenant between God and his people; he burneth also dead men's bones upon the altar at Beth-el, as was foretold; and keepeth a most solemn passover.
610	2 Kings XXXIII. 9.	At this time a war breaks out between the king of Egypt and the king of Assyria. Josiah unadvisedly engageth in this war against Necho king of Egypt, and is slain in the valley of Megiddo. The good king being thus taken out of the world, whose life only kept off the Babylonish captivity from that nation, not only the people then living bewailed his death, but
	Zechar. XII. 11.	even in after time a public mourning for him was kept. The prophet Jeremy also in remembrance thereof composeth his Lamentations; wherein bewailing the calamities which were shortly to befall that people, as present
	2 Chron. XXXV. 25. Lam. IV. 20. 2 Kings XXIII. 2 Chron. XXXVI.	before his eyes, in a most compassionate manner he points, as it were with his finger, at the death of Josiah as the source and original of all those ensuing miseries.
		After the death of Josiah, the people anoint Shallum, one of his younger sons, to be their king. After three months' reign, he is deposed by Pharaoh Necho, who makes Eliakim, his elder brother, king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changes his name into Jehoiakim; but Jehoahaz he carries along with him captive into Egypt, where he ends his days.
609	5. Jerem. XXVI.	Jehoiakim, at 25 years of age, begins to reign, and he reigneth 11 years. Uriah and Jeremiah prophesy against Jerusalem; the former is put to death, the latter is acquitted, and set at liberty. About this time Habbakkuk also prophesieth.
607	XXV. 1.	This year is Nebuchadnezzar the Great made by his father Nebopolazar his associate in the kingdom of Assyria and Babylon; into whose hands
	2 Chron.	God delivers up Jehoiakim, who is put in chains to be carried to Babylon:
606	XXXVI. 6.	but upon his submission and promises of obedience is left in his own house, where he lives a servant to Nebuchadnezzar 3 years.
	Daniel I. 3, 7. Isaiah XXXIX. 7.	Nebuchadnezzar gives order to Ashpenaz, master of the eunuchs, that he shall carry from thence of the children of Israel, both of the blood royal (as was foretold by the prophet Isaiah to Hezekiah) and also of the nobility, the choicest youths both for beauty and wit that he can find; who being educated 3 years in the language and sciences of the Chaldeans, may afterward be fit to serve the king in his palace; among whom, of the tribe of Judah, are Daniel, called Belteshazzar; Hananiah, called Shadrach; Mishael, called Meshach; and Azariah, called Abed-nego.
605		Whilst Nebuchadnezzar pursues his victories over the king of Egypt, his father dies; which coming to his knowledge, he gives order for the bringing away of the captives, and posts with a small company the nearest way to Babylon, where he is received as the lawful successor to his
	Dan. I. 2. 2 Chron. XXXVI. 1.	father's dominions. He brought to Babylon what he thinks fit of the vessels and furniture of the temple, and placeth them in the house of his god, Belus.
603	2 Kings XXIV. 1. Dan. II.	Jehoiakim, having lived 3 years in subjection to the king of Babylon, falls off, and rebels against him.
		This year (being the second of Nebuchadnezzar's reign, taking it as if begun at his father's death,) Daniel recovers Nebuchadnezzar's dream, and interprets it to betoken the four chief monarchies; whereupon he and his companions are highly advanced.
600	2 Kings XXIV. 2.	Nebuchadnezzar sends an army, consisting of Chaldeans, Syrians, Moabites, and Ammonites, against Jehoiakim; these waste the whole
599	Jerem. XXII. 18. XXXVI. 30. 2 Kings XXIV. 8. 2 Chron. XXXVI. 9.	country of Judea, and carry away from thence 3023 captives. Jehoiakim also is taken prisoner, whom they put to death, cause his carcass to be drawn out at the gate of Jerusalem (as was foretold by the prophet Jeremiah) and leave it without the walls unburied.
		Jehoiachin (called also Conias and Jeconias) at 18 years of age succeeds his father Jehoiakim, and reigns three months in Jerusalem.
		Against him Nebuchadnezzar leads an army, and besiegeth Jerusalem; Jehoiachin with all his kindred and courtiers come out to meet him. Nebuchadnezzar makes them all prisoners, enters Jerusalem, and takes all
	Isaiah XXXIX. 6. Jerem. XXIV. 1. Ezekiel XVII. 12. I. 2, 3.	the treasure he can find in the temple and the king's palace, breaking in pieces all the vessels of gold and furniture which Solomon had made for the temple; he carrieth away captive to Babylon the king, his mother, wives, courtiers, magistrates, and 10,000 able men out of Jerusalem, leaving none behind but the poorer sort of people; and out of the country round about he carried also away 8000 artificers; among the captives are Mordecai, and Ezekiel, the priest; Ezekiel therefore in his prophecy reckons the time all along from the beginning of this captivity.
	2 Kings XXIV. 17. 2 Chron. XXXVI.	Nebuchadnezzar before his departure from Jerusalem, makes Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's father's brother, king, changing his name into Zedekiah.
		Zedekiah, beginning his reign at 21 years of age, reigneth 11 years; he, by rebelling against Nebuchadnezzar, or rather by continuing in open rebellion (as his fathers had done) against God, brought upon Jerusalem and the whole nation of the Jews those long-deserved calamities which God had so often forewarned them of by his prophets; for, in the latter end of the year
588	2 Kings XXV. Jerem. I. 3. XXXIX. LII.	of Zedekiah, Jerusalem, after a long siege, is taken by Nebuchadnezzar, and his Chaldeans enter it. Zedekiah flees away by night, but being pursued, is taken, and brought prisoner to Riblah, Nebuchadnezzar's head-quarters; there having first seen his children slaughtered before his eyes, he has afterward those eyes put out, and being loaden with chains, is carried away captive to Babylon. About a month after the taking of the city, Nebuzar-adan, captain of the guard, sent by Nebuchadnezzar, makes his entry into it, sets fire to the temple, the king's palace, and some noblemen's houses, and so layeth the whole city in ashes; the walls of Jerusalem being razed to the ground; all that were left in the city, and those that a little before had fallen to the Chaldeans, with what treasure he can find, doth Nebuzar-adan carry with him into Babylon.
	26. 2 Kings XXV. 21. Jerem. XLIX. 7. Ezekiel XXV. 12.	And thus was Judah carried out of her own land, 468 years after David began to reign over it, 388 years after the falling off of the ten tribes, and 134 years after the destruction of the kingdom of Israel.
		Obadiah the prophet denounceth God's judgments against the Edomites who now insult over the calamity of the Jews. The same do Jeremy and Ezekiel, and the author of the 97th and 137th Psalms, who wrote all about the same time.

PERIOD VI.

From Nebuchadnezzar to Birth of John the Baptist, B. C. 4.

569 The Babylonian Empire. 562	Dan. IV. 29, 33, 34.	NEBUCHADNEZZAR, proud of his victories over Egypt, and his conquest of Judea and other countries, and boasting the magnificence of his buildings, falls distracted, and is driven from the society of men.
		After seven years spent among the beasts of the field, his understanding returning to him, he humbly acknowledgeth the power of God, and his goodness towards him; and is restored to his kingdom. A few days after he dies, having reigned about 20 months together with his father, and 43 years by himself.
	2 Kings XXV. 27. Jer. LII. 31.	Evil-merodach his son succeeds him in the 37th year of the captivity of Jehoiachin or Jeconiah, who presently gives order for the enlargement of Jehoiachin, and two days after changeth his prison-clothes, sets him above all the princes of his court, and causeth him to eat at his own table. Jehoiachin dies about two years after.

Before Chrtst. 555	Daniel VII. 1.	Belshazzar, having removed some persons who had murdered his father Evil-merodach, and usurped his throne, succeeds in the kingdom of Babylon. In the first year of this king's reign Daniel has the vision of the four beasts, signifying the four great monarchies of the world, and of God delivering over all power and sovereignty to the Son of Man.
553	VIII. 1.	In the third year of Belshazzar, Daniel receives the vision of the ram and the he-goat, betokening the destruction of the Persian monarchy, and the great misery which Antiochus should bring upon the people of God.
538	V. Jerem. XXVII. 7.	This year Belshazzar makes a great feast for all the nobles, and causeth to be brought forth all the vessels of the house of the Lord, which Nebuchadnezzar his grandfather had brought away from Jerusalem, to the glory of his idols, and dishonour of the true God. In the midst of all this jollity a hand appears writing on the wall of the room in which the king and his numerous guests sit drinking. The king, greatly terrified hereat,
	Dan. V.	sends for his Chaldean astrologers and wizards, and commands them to read the writing, and give him the interpretation of it; but they not being able to do either, Daniel is sent for, who reads the writing, and gives the
	Isa. XIII. Hab. II. Jerem. XXV. 12. L. LI. Dan. V. 31. VI. 6.	king the interpretation of it: whereupon Daniel is publicly proclaimed the third man in the kingdom. This same night Belshazzar is slain, Babylon is taken by Cyrus, and the empire translated to the Medes and Persians, as had been sundry times foretold by the prophets.
		Cyrus having given the kingdom of Babylon to Darius the Mede, reserving some palaces in the city for himself, he returns through Media into Persia.
		Daniel's greatness raising envy in some principal courtiers and officers, these contrive his ruin: but finding nothing in his management of affairs whereof to accuse him, they resolve to order matters so, that Daniel's piety towards God shall become an offence worthy of death. They move the king to make a decree, that for 30 days no petition shall be made to any god or man, but to himself only. Which decree Daniel breaks by making supplication to his God, and is for so doing cast into a den of lions; but being found to have received no hurt there, Darius commands his conspirators to be cast into the same den, who are presently devoured; and the king publisheth a decree, that all persons throughout his dominions shall reverence and fear the God of Daniel.
537	IX. Jerem. XXIX. 10. Dan. IX.	Towards the end of the first year of the reign of Darius the Mede, to be reckoned from the subversion of the Babylonish empire, begins the 70th year of the captivity of the Jews, which, by Jeremiah's prophecy, was to be the last year of their calamity. Upon consideration of which time so near at hand, Daniel pours out his most fervent prayers to God for the remission of his own sins, and those of his people; and for that promised deliverance out of their captivity. To whom the angel Gabriel brings an answer not only of this, but also of the spiritual deliverance of the church by the death of the Messiah; uttering that memorable prophecy of the seventy weeks.
536 The Persian Empire.		Cyrus, his father Cambyses and his father-in-law Cyaxares both dying, Persia falls to him by inheritance, and Media by contract of marriage: and so he is possessed of the whole eastern empire; from which time both Xenophon (Inst. lib. 8.) reckons the 7 years of his reign, and the Holy Scripture out of the records of the Medes and Persians, reckons this his
	Ezra I. 2.	first year; for it teacheth us, that in this year came forth that renowned edict of his, Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, The Lord God of Heaven hath given me all the kingdoms of the earth, and hath charged me to
	Isaiah XLIV. 28. XLIV. 1, 13.	build him a house at Jerusalem which is in Judah, &c. At which time the 70 years of the Babylonish captivity being expired, (as was foretold by Isaiah and Jeremiah, the former making mention of Cyrus by name,) he gives leave to all the Jews, dwelling in all parts of his dominions, to return into their own country, and commands them immediately to fall in hand with rebuilding of the temple.
		He restoreth also all the vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought from thence; and contributes towards the building.
	Ezra I. 5, 6. II. Nehem. VII.	The Jews therefore return into their own country; the poorer sort having allowance made them to defray their charges upon the way. The number of the children of the province, or Hebrews born in Chaldea, which with their captain Zerubbabel, and their high priest Jeshua, return out of captivity, is 42,360, besides proselytes, men-servants, and maid-servants, to the number of 7,337. Now the particular sums of Ezra's catalogue being cast up amount only to 29,818; and those in Nehemiah's account make but 31,031, both which come far short of that general sum of 42,360, which at the bottom of each catalogue is said to be the number of the whole congregation. Wherefore the Hebrews in the xxixth chapter of their great chronicle tell us, that to complete the full sum of 42,360, we must cast in
	Acts XXVI. 7. Lam. I. 1. Luke II. 36.	those of the other ten tribes of Israel, who came up out of the captivity with the Jews. For even till the last extirpation of the Jewish state there remained some relics of the other ten tribes, not only in the dispersion, and at Jerusalem, and other cities of Judah; but also of those who kept still in their own seats; for Shalmaneser swept not away all out of the whole ten tribes,
	Ezra III. 8, 13.	but left a remnant of them in their own country, who were afterward, together with the Jews, Benjamites, and Levites, carried away by Nebuchadnezzar into Babylon, and are now dismissed and sent back again by Cyrus.
		In the second year after their return from Babylon, in the second month, they appoint Levites to oversee the work of the house of God, and lay the foundation of the temple; the old men lamenting, who 53 years before had seen the old temple standing, and the younger sort rejoicing to see the new one going up.
	IV. 5,	The Samaritans by the means of certain courtiers about Cyrus, whom they had bribed for that purpose, disturb the Jews in their work of the temple.
	6.	In the beginning of the reign of Artaxerxes (called in profane story Cambyses) the Samaritans, who, whilst Cyrus lived, had secretly undermined the Jews, now openly frame a direct accusation in writing against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem, and present it to the king, who presently forbids the Jews to proceed in the building.
520	V. 1.	In the second year of king Darius Hystaspes (the same with Ahasuerus) Zerubbabel and Jeshua, incited by the prophets Haggai and Zechariah, set forward the building of the temple.
	Hag. II. 1, 9.	Haggai prophesieth that the glory of this second temple shall be greater than that of the former; not as being a more magnificent structure, but in regard the blessed Messiah shall one day honour it with his presence, and from thence propagate peace to all nations.
518	Est. I. II.	Ahasuerus puts away queen Vashti his wife, and not long after espouseth Esther, the niece of Mordecai the Jew.
515	Ezra VI.	In the sixth year of Darius, or Ahasuerus, the temple is finished; the dedication whereof is celebrated with great joy and abundance of sacrifices, the priests and Levites, every one in his place, standing on the ministry of the temple. The passover also is celebrated.
10	Est. III. Deut. XXV. 19.	Haman, an Agagite, of the race of the Amalekites, a great favorite of king Ahasuerus, offended at Mordecai, because he falls not down and adores him, as others do, resolves to be revenged of the whole nation of the Jews, (which was ever averse to his,) and to root it out; for the executing of which purpose, that he may find a successful time, he causeth Pur, that is, the lot, to be cast before him, for to know the day and month wherein the Jews shall be destroyed, and the lot falls on the 12th month Adar.
	Est. IV.	Haman obtains an edict from the king, that all Jews, without respect to sex or age, upon the thirteenth day of the month Adar, be put to death in all the provinces of the king's dominions. Hereupon Mordecai, Esther, and all the Jews, humble themselves before the Lord by fasting and prayer.
	VI.	Ahasuerus, hearing it read in the chronicles that a conspiracy had been discovered to him by Mordecai, commandeth that he be publicly honoured and that by Haman himself, his deadly enemy.
	VII.	Esther, entertaining the king and Haman at a banquet, maketh suit for her own life, and her people's, and accuseth Haman. The king, understanding that Haman had provided a gallows for Mordecai, causeth him to be hanged thereon. In memory of this great deliverance the two days of Purim are made festival.
	IX.

Before Christ. 467	Ezra VII.	Ezra the priest, a man skilled in the law of Moses, obtains a large commission from king Artaxerxes, to settle the Jewish commonwealth, and to reform the church at Jerusalem.
	Neh. II.	In the twentieth year of king Artaxerxes, Nehemiah a Jew, one of his cup-bearers, being made governor of Judea, obtains leave to build the wall of Jerusalem, and finish that great work. Here begins Daniel's 70
	Dan. IX. 24.	weeks to be fulfilled before the passion of our Saviour.
442	Neh. V. 14.	Nehemiah having governed Judea 12 years, returns to the king of Persia.
415	XIII. 6.	This year is the 21st Jubilee, the last that ever the prophets of the Old Testament saw; for that place in Nehemiah, chap. xii. 22, is not to be understood of the last Darius, but of Darius Nothus, who now reigns in Persia; the full history of Nehemiah ending with the time of Artaxerxes Longinus, father of this Darius Nothus.
		Hitherto (saith Eusebius in his chronicle, to the 32d year of Artaxerxes) the Divine Scriptures of the Hebrews contains the annals of the times. But those things which were done among them afterward we must deliv out of the books of the Maccabees, and out of the writings of Joseph who have delivered a general history of the Jewish affairs from thenc down to the times of the Romans.
		That Malachi, the last of the prophets, was contemporary with Nehemiah, appears from hence, that he nowhere exhorts the people to the
	XIII.	building of the temple, as Haggai and Zachary did; but the temple being now built, he reproves those disorders, which Nehemiah at his second return with a new commission from Babylon saith he found in his absence to have crept in among the Jews; as marriage with strange women, withholding of tithes, and abuse in the worship of God. And because a
	Malachi IV. 4. Luke I. 17. Matt. XI. 14. XVII. 12.	succession of prophets was not to be expected, as before, he exhorteth the people constantly to adhere to the law of Moses, till Christ the chief prophet should appear; whose forerunner John the Baptist should come in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers unto their children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just. See 1 Mac. iv. 46, and ix. 17.
335	Jos. Ant. I. 11. c. 8.	ALEXANDER the Great, king of Macedonia, passeth out of Europe into Asia, and begins to lay waste the Persian empire.
332	Id. Ibid.	Manasses, brother to Jaddus the high priest, refusing to put away his strange wife, is driven from the sacrifice: Sanaballath his father-in-law, governor of Samaria, revolteth from Darius, obtains leave of Alexander to build a temple on mount Gerizim, and makes Manasses high priest thereof, to which resort all such as are entangled in unlawful marriage, with all such offenders as think themselves not safe at Jerusalem. This was the rise of that schismatical conventicle of the Samaritans. See John iv. 20.
	Jos. Ant. I. 11. c. 8.	Alexander marcheth toward Jerusalem, intending to besiege it. Jaddus the high priest, hearing of it, putteth on his priestly ornaments, and accompanied with the people all in white, goeth out to meet him. Alexander, seeing his habit, falls prostrate before him, saying that, whilst he was in Macedonia, a man appeared unto him in the very same habit, who invited him to come into Asia, and promised to deliver the Persian empire into his hands. After this he goes to the temple, and offers sacrifice according to the high priest's direction. They show him the prophecy of Daniel, That a Grecian should come and destroy the Persians; whereby
330	Daniel VIII. 7. XI. 13.	he is mightily confirmed in his persuasion that he himself is the man. Lastly he bestoweth on the Jews whatever favours desired, and departeth.
The Macedonian Empire.		The Persians are overcome, Darius slain, and Alexander remains universal monarch of the eastern world.
	Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 1.	Alexander having reigned six years and ten months dieth; his army and dominions are divided among his captains. Antigonus makes him-

320	Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 1.	Ptolemeus, surnamed Soter, makes himself master of Jerusalem by stratagem; for he enters the city on a sabbath-day under pretence of offering sacrifice; and whilst the Jews suspect nothing, but spend the day in ease and idleness, he surpriseth the city without resistance, and maketh the citizens captives. He sendeth several colonies of Jews into Egypt, and puts great confidence in them.
277	I. 12. c. 2.	Ptolemeus Philadelphus, son of Ptolemeus Soter, being a great favourer of learning, builds a most magnificent library at Alexandria. Demetrius Phalerius, to whom he had committed the care of procuring all sorts of books and out of all countries, persuades him to employ 72 Jews in translating the Holy Scriptures out of the original Hebrew into the Greek tongue, which was done in the seventh year of his reign. The king also dismisseth many captive Jews, and dedicates many presents to the temple of God at Jerusalem.
177	2 Mac. III.	One Simon, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, governor of the temple, falling out with Onias the high priest, goes to Apollonius the governor of Celosyria, and informs him that there is a vast treasure in the temple: Apollonius acquaints king Seleucus his master with it, who presently sends his treasurer Heliodorus to Jerusalem, to bring this money away. Heliodorus entering the temple, is by angels struck down in the very place, and carried from thence half dead; but by the prayers of Onias he is soon after restored to his health. Returning to Seleucus that sent him, he magnifies the holiness of the temple, and the power of God dwelling in it.
176	1 Mac. I. 10.	Antiochus Epiphanes succeeds Seleucus in the kingdom of Syria, and reigneth 11 years and some months.
175	2 Mac. IV. 7,	Jason, by corrupting king Antiochus, obtaineth the office of high priest.
172	3, 24,	Menelaus, brother to Simon the traitor, being employed by Jason to carry the money to the king, promiseth 300 talents of silver above what Jason had sent, and getteth the priesthood to himself.
170	27.	Menelaus, not paying the money he had promised the king at his admission, is summoned to appear before Antiochus; he substituteth Lysimachus his brother in his place.
	1 Mac. I. 21, 22. 2 Mac. IV.	Antiochus taketh Jerusalem, and sacking it, pillageth the temple, destroyeth 40,000 of the inhabitants, and selleth as many more. He endeavoureth also to abolish the worship of God, and forceth many Jews to forsake their religion. The Samaritans now disown their relation to the 168	1 Mac. VIII. 5.	Perseus, having made war upon the Romans, is this year overcome by them, and the kingdom of the Macedonians ends, when from Caranus it had stood 626 years. Nevertheless the relics of the Macedonian empire, while that of the Roman was rising, did yet survive in the Ptolemies of Egypt, and the kings of Syria.

167	I. 45.	King Antiochus, by a public edict, commands all nations that are subject unto him to observe the same way of divine worship, and laying aside their peculiar customs, to profess the same religion with the Grecians; the punishment of death being threatened unto such as shall be disobedient; and he appoints overseers over every people and nation who shall compel them hereunto. Of the Jews many choose rather to undergo the most cruel torments, than to offer sacrifice unto idols; all which martyrdoms, with those glorious sufferings of the seven Maccabean brethren,
	1 Mac. II. 2 Mac. VI.	are recorded in the two books of Maccabees.
	Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 8. 1 Mac. III. 2 Mac. VIII.	Mattathias, a priest, with his five sons, slay those that are sent by king Antiochus to compel them to offer abominable sacrifices, and after betake themselves to the desert. They are followed by many others, of whom a great number are stifled in their caves, because they would not defend themselves on the sabbath-day. Mattathias abolisheth that superstition, and exhorts his sons to assert their privileges, and deliver their country from bondage.
	Jos. Ant.
166	I. 12. c. 9. 1 Mac. III.	Mattathias dies, and Judas Maccabeus takes upon him the management of this affair. He delivers his country and purgeth it from the abominations which had been committed in it.

165	1 Mac. III. 27. Jos. Ant. I. 12. c. 11.	Judas Maccabeus defeats a great army, which Antiochus sent against the Jews. Lysias returns with a greater power; Judas kills 5000 of his men, and causeth him to retreat. He purifieth the temple, and setteth it in order, after it had lain desolate three years; and buildeth a wall about Sion.	49		Here begins the empire of the Roman Cesars, when Julius Cesar, having overthrown Pompey at the battle of Pharsalia, was made perpetual dictator.
164	1 Mac. VI. 2 Mac. IX. 9. Jos. Ant.	Antiochus is taken with a violent pain in his bowels, and such a rottenness seizeth his flesh, that worms breed in it: he confesseth that he is plagued for the wrong done to Jerusalem, and dieth in the 149th year of the kingdom of the Grecians. His son Antiochus Eupator, a child about nine years old, succeeds him. He maketh peace with the Jews, but quickly breaketh it; he puts to death Menelaus the high priest, and confers that honour upon Alcimus, or Jacimus.	The Roman Empire 40 38 37 28	Jos. I. 14. c. 25. Herod, assisted by Sosius the Roman general, lays siege to Jerusalem, and takes it: the soldiers fill all corners of the city with blood, rapine and cruelty. Antigonus, the prince and high priest, is by Sosius carried away prisoner to Rome, and Herod put in full possession of the kingdom. Cesar Octavianus, nephew to Julius Cesar, assumes the title of emperor; at which time the government among the Romans was legally changed from a republic into a monarchy. The next year following he is by the senate surnamed Augustus.

Alexander having been driven from Antioch, the inhabitants of that place make offer of the kingdom to Ptolemeus; but he refuseth it, and persuadeth them to accept of Demetrius for their king.			Towards the end of this year Pontius Pilate is sent to be procurator of Judea in the place of Valerius Gratus.

John the Baptist begins to preach and to baptize in the desert of Judea, thereby preparing the way of the Lord, and doing his endeavour that Christ coming after him may be made known unto Israel. Unto John God gives a sign whereby he may know the Lord's Christ, that upon whom he shall see the Spirit descending and remaining on him, the same is he which shall baptize with the Holy Ghost.
145	1 Mac. XI. XI.	Alexander returns with a great army. Ptolemeus and Demetrius unite their forces, and overcome him in a pitched battle; but Ptolemeus dies of the wounds which he received, after he had seen the head of Alexander sent to him by Zabdiel, an Arabian prince. Jonathan besiegeth the citadel at Jerusalem, held by a garrison of Macedonians. Complaint hereof being made to Demetrius, Jonathan appeaseth him by presents, and obtaineth new favours for the Jews. Demetrius incurreth the hatred of his soldiers by abridging their pay in time of peace.		Matt. III. 13. Mark I. 9. Luke III. 22.	Jesus entering upon the thirtieth year of his age, comes from Galilee to Jordan, and is baptized of John; at which time a most illustrious manifestation is made of the blessed Trinity: for the Son of God ascending out of the water, and praying, the heavens are opened, and the Spirit of God in the shape of a dove descends upon him: and the voice of the Father is heard from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

John gives testimony to our Saviour passing by him: Andrew, Peter, Philip, and Nathanael, acknowledge him to be the Messias and become his disciples.
144	1 Mac. XI. 55. XII.	Demetrius is vanquished by young Antiochus, and made to fly into Seleucia. Great honours are by Antiochus conferred on Jonathan, who assists him against Demetrius.		II. 1.	Christ, at a marriage in Cana of Galilee, turneth water into wine.
		Jonathan renews his alliance with the Romans and Lacedemonians, and fortifies Jerusalem.
143	Jos. Ant. I. 13. c. 9. c. 10.	Tryphon contrives how he may quit himself of Antiochus, and reign in his stead: but fearing Jonathan's opposition, he invites him to come to Ptolemais, and bring with him some few of his soldiers, promising to deliver that city into his hands. Jonathan, suspecting no treachery, comes only with 1000 men to Tryphon at Ptolemais; but as soon as he is entered the city, Tryphon commands the gates to be shut. Jonathan is taken prisoner, and all his men put to the sword.			The first passover of Christ's public ministry, from which the first year of the seventieth and last of Daniel's week begins. In which the covenant is confirmed with many, Dan. ix. 27, compared with Matt. xxvi. 28

PERIOD VII.

From the Birth of Christ to St. John's Return to Ephesus, A. D. 96.

CHRIST our Lord and Saviour in the fulness of time is born of the blessed Virgin Mary at Bethlehem, and laid in a manger. (Luke II. 6, 21.)

On the eighth day after his nativity he is circumcised, and named JESUS. (Matt. II.)

The wise men of the east bring presents to the new-born king of the Jews. (1, 12, 14, 16, 19.)

Joseph flees into Egypt with the child Jesus, and Mary his mother.

Herod commands the infants in and about Bethlehem to be slain. (Jos. Ant.)

Herod dieth, and his son Archelaus is by Cesar made tetrarch of Judea: other dominions, which belonged to Herod, are divided among his sons. (I. 17. c. 17. Matt. II. 21, 23.)

Christ, by God's appointment, is brought back out of Egypt into Nazareth.

The first year of the vulgar Christian Era begins here.

After Christ.
33	Luke XI. 1. John XI. 1.	Christ teacheth his disciples to pray. Christ raiseth Lazarus, that had been buried four days. Caiaphas, high priest of the Jews, prophesieth concerning the death of Christ.
	Luke XIX. 1. Mark X. 46. John XII. 3. Matt. XXI. Mark XI. Luke XIX. John XII. Isa. LII. Zech. IX. 9. Matt. XXI. 19.	Zaccheus a publican converted. Christ restoreth to blind Bartimeus his sight. Mary the sister of Lazarus anoints our Saviour's feet with costly spikenard, and wipeth them with the hair of her head. Christ rideth in triumph into Jerusalem: the multitude spread their garments in the way, and cry, Hosanna to the Son of David. Coming near the city he weeps over it, and foretells its destruction. He enters the temple, and casteth out those that bought and sold there; and heals the blind and lame. He curseth the fruitless fig-tree, and the next morning it is found dried up and withered. Thence he takes occasion to show the power of faith.
		The fourth passover, in which Christ our passover is sacrificed, 1 Cor. v. 7, and so an end is put to all legal sacrifices prefiguring this great expiation. The fourth or middle year of Daniel's last week begins, Dan. ix. 27.
	XXVI. Mark XIV. Luke XXII.	ON the first day of unleavened bread, when the passover of the Jews was to be slain (April 2), in the evening, Jesus eateth the passover with his disciples, and institutes the sacrament of his body and blood in bread and wine.
	John XIII. XVIII. Matt. XXVII. Mark XV. Luke XXIII. John XIX.	Christ washeth his disciples' feet, and exhorteth them to humility and charity. In the self-same night Christ is betrayed by Judas, mocked, buffeted, and spit upon by the soldiers. Next day he is condemned by Pilate, and crucified; the sun during the crucifixion is darkened, and the vail of the temple rent in the midst. Christ praying for his enemies gives up the Ghost. Joseph of Arimathea begs the body, and lays it in a new sepulchre.
	Ps. XXII. Matt. XXVIII. Mark XVI. Luke XXIV. John XX. Acts I. Matt. XXVIII.	On the third day, the next after the Jewish sabbath (April 5), Christ riseth from the dead; his resurrection is declared by angels to the women that came to the sepulchre. Christ first appeareth to Mary Magdalene, and afterward to his disciples, and dineth with them. Christ bringeth his apostles to mount Olivet; commandeth them to expect in Jerusalem the sending down of the Holy Ghost: sends them to teach and baptize all nations, and blesses them; and while they behold, he is taken up, and a cloud receives him out of their sight. After his ascension the disciples are warned by two angels to depart, and to set their minds upon his second coming; they accordingly return, and, giving themselves to prayer, choose Matthias to be an apostle in the place of Judas.
	Acts II.	On the day of Pentecost (May 24), the Holy Ghost descendeth on the apostles in the form of cloven tongues, like as of fire, and enableth them to speak all languages. Peter the same day preacheth Christ and the resurrection, and about 3000 believers are added to the church.
	IV.	The rulers of the Jews, offended at Peter's sermon, and his miraculous cure of the lame man, cast both him and John into prison: upon their examination they boldly avouch the lame man to be healed by the name of Jesus, and that by the same Jesus we must be eternally saved. The Jews forbid them to speak any more in that name. The apostles answer, that it is fit they should obey God rather than men. They are threatened and let go.
	V. 1, 17.	Ananias and his wife Sapphira for their hypocrisy are struck dead. The apostles are again cast into prison by the high priest; but an angel sets them at liberty, and bids them preach the gospel to the people without fear: being taken again teaching in the temple, they are brought before the council; where, by the advice of Gamaliel, they are delivered.
4	VI.	The number of believers increasing at Jerusalem, the apostles ordain seven deacons, who should distribute the alms of the whole church to the widows and poorer sort of believers. Stephen, one of these deacons, having confounded some that disputed with him, is by them falsely accused of blasphemy, and brought before the council, where he reprehends their rebellion, and murdering of Christ. Whereupon they cast him out of the city, and stone him; he in the mean time praying for them.
	VII. VIII	A great persecution of the Church at Jerusalem follows after the death of the first martyr Stephen.
	5,	Philip, one of the seven deacons, preacheth at Samaria, and converteth many; worketh miracles, and healeth the sick. Simon the sorcerer, seeing the wonders that are done by Philip, believeth, and is baptized.
	15.	The apostles at Jerusalem, hearing that Samaria had received the faith, send thither Peter and John to confirm and enlarge the Church. The apostles by prayer and imposition of hands confer the Holy Ghost on all believers. Simon Magus offers them money, that he may receive the power of conferring the same, whose impiety is sharply reproved by Peter. Having completed their ministry in those parts, they return to Jerusalem.
35	VIII. 26. IX. 1,	An angel sendeth Philip to teach and baptize the Ethiopian eunuch. Saul, a violent persecutor of all that call on the name of Jesus, and one who consented to the death of Stephen, goes now towards Damascus with commission from the high priest and the council to apprehend all Christians in those parts, and to bring them bound to Jerusalem; on the way he is miraculously converted by a voice from heaven; and three days after baptized by Ananias at Damascus, where he preached the gospel of Christ with great boldness.
38	23.	Saul having preached the gospel at Damascus a long time, the Jews lay wait to kill him, but he escapeth from thence, and comes to Jerusalem; there he sees Peter, and James the brother of our Lord, and abides with them fifteen days. Here he speaks boldly in the name of Jesus, and disputes with the Grecians, or rather Jews that used the Greek tongue. These also consult how they may kill him.
	2 Cor. XI. 32. Gal. I. 18.
	Acts XXII. 17.	While Saul prays in the temple, he is in a trance, and the Lord appears unto him, and bids him to depart from Jerusalem, because they will not receive his testimony; adding, that he will send him to the Gentiles.
	IX. 30. Gal. I. 21. Acts IX. 32, 36.	Saul leaving Jerusalem goes to his own country Tarsus, and from thence travels into Syria and Cilicia. Peter visits the churches of Judea, Galilee, Samaria, &c. At Lydda he cureth Eneas of the palsy; and at Joppa restoreth Tabitha to life.
41	X.	At Cesarea, Cornelius, a centurion, by prayers and alms finds favour in the sight of God, and is commanded by an angel to send for Peter, now at Joppa. God by a vision teacheth Peter not to despise the Gentiles. Peter being sent for by Cornelius, goes and preacheth Christ to him and a great company that were met at his house: while Peter preacheth, the Holy Ghost falls upon them all; and immediately the apostle baptizeth them.
	XI.	Peter, at his return to Jerusalem, is accused by those of the circumcision for conversing with the Gentiles; but he declares to them his vision, and the whole matter concerning Cornelius; and they glorify God for granting to the Gentiles also repentance unto life.
		The believers, who ever since the martyrdom of Stephen and the persecution thereupon ensuing, had been dispersed throughout all Phenice and Cyprus, come now to Antioch, and preach the gospel to the Greeks there, having before preached to none but the Jews. The church at Jerusalem, understanding this, and that the number of believers increased exceedingly, sends Barnabas thither to confirm them: he goes to Tarsus, and takes Saul along with him to Antioch, where they continue a whole year, converting multitudes to the faith. Here the disciples were first called Christians.
44	VII.	About this time James the brother of John is beheaded by the command of Herod Agrippa. He also imprisoneth Peter, whom an angel delivers upon the prayers of the church. This same Herod, not long after, speaking to the people at Cesarea, some of them cry out, It is the voice of God, and not of man; and immediately an angel of the Lord smites him, because he gave not the glory to God; and he is eaten of worms, and dieth.

After Christ.
45	Acts XIII.	Barnabas and Saul set forward in their preaching of the gospel. They plant the Christian faith in Seleucia, Cyprus, and other places. At Paphos they preach the gospel to Sergius Paulus, governor of that country; Elymas a sorcerer, withstanding them, and endeavouring to turn away Sergius from the faith, is at Saul's rebuke struck blind. From this time Saul is always called by his new name Paul; he preacheth to Antioch the Gentiles believe, but the Jews gainsay and blaspheme. Whereupon he and his assistants turn to the Gentiles, and come to Iconium.
46	XIV.	At Iconium they are persecuted and ready to be stoned. From hence they fly to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia. At Lystra, Paul healing a cripple, the multitude cry out, that the gods are come down, and call Barnabas Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius; and would have sacrificed to them, had not the apostles with clothes rent run in among them, and assured them that they were men like themselves. Soon after there come Jews from Antioch and Iconinm, who excite the people against them. Paul is by the furious multitude stoned, and drawn out of the city as dead; but whilst the disciples stand about him, he riseth up, and the next day departs with Barnabas to Derbe.
	2 Cor. XI. 25.
	XII. 2.	In this year Paul was caught up into the the third heaven, and heard unspeakable words.
	2 Tim. I. 2, 5.	About this time Timothy, though a child, with his mother Eunice, and his grandmother Lois, embrace the Christian faith preached by Paul.
52	Acts XV.	Certain Judaizing Christians come from Judea to Antioch, and teach that the Gentiles ought to be circumcised, and observe the law of Moses; these Paul and Barnabas oppose, and a council is held by the apostles and others at Jerusalem to determine this controversy.
53	36.	Paul and Barnabas, thinking to visit the churches together, fall at strife, and part asunder: Barnabas and Mark go into Cyprus; Paul and Silas into Syria and Cilicia.
	XVI.	Paul coming to Derbe finds there Timothy, whom (because his mother was a believing Jew, though his father a Gentile,) he causeth to be circumcised, and takes him along with him. He is by a vision admonished to go into Macedonia: coming to Philippi, the chief city of that part of Macedonia, he converts Lydia; casteth out of a certain maid-servant a spirit of divination, whose master losing a considerable gain thereby, brings Paul and Silas before the magistrates: these cause them to be whipped and imprisoned; but at midnight, Paul and Silas praying and singing psalms, the doors of the prison fly open, and their bonds are loosed: the jailer, ready to kill himself, is converted to the faith, and baptized the same night with his whole family. Next day the magistrates come themselves, and pray them to depart the city.
54	XVII.	From Philippi Paul takes his journey through Amphipolis and Apollonia, and comes to Thessalonica, where he finds a synagogue of the Jews; there he preached three sabbath-days; some believe, others persecute him. Leaving Thessalonica he comes to Berea, and soon after arrives at Athens, disputes with the philosophers, and declares unto them that UNKNOWN GOD whom they had ignorantly worshipped. He converts Dionysius the Areopagite, and thence passeth to Corinth.
	XVIII.	Paul at Corinth meets with Aquila and Priscilla, not long before banished from Rome by the decree of Claudius. Here he continues a year and six months, and thence writes to the Thessalonians.
55		Paul is accused by the Jews, and brought before Gallio, proconsul of Achaia, who refuseth to be judge in a controversy about religion, and so drives them away from the judgment-seat.
56	18.	Paul departs from Corinth, and passeth to Ephesus, thence he sets out towards Jerusalem, that he may be at the feast; he lands at Cesarea, goes down to Antioch, and comes into the regions of Galatia and Phrygia, confirming the disciples in all those places.
57	XIX.	Paul returns to Ephesus, disputes daily in the school of Tyrannus, and continues preaching there, and the parts thereabout.
58		He writes his epistle to the Galatians.
60		At Ephesus, Demetrius a silversmith, jealous of his gain, raiseth tumult against Paul, which is appeased by the town-clerk.
	1 Cor. I. 11. XVI. 8. Acts XX. 2 Cor. VIII. 1, 2, 6, 19. 1 Cor. XVI. 5. Acts XX. 3, 4, 6.	About this time a schism ariseth in the church at Corinth, which causeth Paul (now in or about Ephesus) to write his first epistle to the Corinthians. Paul departs from Ephesus, and comes into Macedonia, and gathers a contribution for the relief of the saints at Jerusalem. The apostle, having learnt from Titus the success of his first, writes now his second epistle to the Corinthians. Out of Macedonia he goes into Greece, and comes to Corinth, where he writes his epistle to the Romans. Paul purposing to go thence into Syria, to carry the collections to Jerusalem, the Jews lay wait for him; understanding this, he returns into Macedonia the same way he came, and thence passes into Asia. After the days of unleavened bread Paul sails from Philippi, and comes to Troas: there he restores Eutychus to life. Having passed through several cities of Greece, he arrives at Miletus; from thence he sends to call the elders of the Church of Ephesus, whom he earnestly exhorts to the performance of their duty.
	Acts XXI.	Paul comes to Jerusalem, is apprehended in the temple, and secured in the castle; he claimeth the privilege of a Roman, and escapeth scourging.
	XXII. XXIII.	Paul pleadeth his cause before Ananias the high priest. The chief captain, understanding that above forty Jews had bound themselves under a curse neither to eat nor drink till they have killed him, sends him to Felix the governor of the province, by whom he is imprisoned at Cesarea.
62	XXIV.	Paul is accused before Felix by Tertullus the orator: Felix goes out of his office, and to gratify the Jews, leaves Paul in prison. Portius Festus succeeds him in the government.
	XXV.	The Jews come to Cesarea, and accuse Paul before Festus. He answereth for himself, and appeals unto Cesar. King Agrippa comes to Cesarea, and Festus opens the whole matter to him.
	XXVI.	Paul makes his defence in the presence of Agrippa; who thereby is almost persuaded to be a Christian, and the whole company pronounce him innocent.
63		Paul comes to Rome, is a prisoner at large, and preacheth there two years.
	XXVIII.	Here ends the History of the Acts of the Apostles, written by St. Luke, St. Paul's beloved companion in his travels.
64		St. Paul from Rome writes his epistles, To the Philippians. To Philemon. To the Colossians. To the Ephesians.
65	Heb. XIII. 24. Tit. I. 5.	About the latter end of this year Paul is set at liberty; and a little before his departure out of Italy into Asia he writes his epistle to the Hebrews. He preacheth the gospel in the isle of Crete, and leaves Titus there to set things in order, and ordain elders in every city.
66		St. Paul writes his epistles, To Timothy I. To Titus. To Timothy II.
		About this time the epistles of St. Peter, St. John, and St. Jude seem to be written.
67	Euseb. Hist. Ec.	St. Peter and St. Paul are said to have suffered martyrdom at Rome towards the latter end of Nero's reign.
70	1. 2. c. 24. Luke XIX. 43, 44.	This year Jerusalem (according to Christ's prophecy) is besieged, taken, sacked, and burnt, by Titus, 1,100,000 of the Jews perish, 97,000 are taken prisoners; besides an innumerable company that in other places of Judea kill themselves, or perish through famine, banishment, or other miseries.
96		St. John is banished into the isle of Patmos by Domitian, and there receives and writes his Revelation. After the death of Domitian, St. John returns to Ephesus, and at the request of the Church writes his Gospel.
